The Awards Banquet

The Cross Roads gym begins to fill for the awards banquet on May 30, 1975. Awards that night were given to students in all areas including academic, attendance, National Spelling Bee, annual, cheerleading awards, student council, athletics, and other special awards.

Skipper asks for the good guy's gun as the play "A Mid-night Visitor" gets underway. Mark hands it over while Pewee looks the other way.

"Let's talk this over," says Mark as bad man Skipper heads for the window.

"Listen Corporal he is my nephew." The rest of the cast looks on as Ken and Diane discuss the young nephew. Others in the cast were Lisa Norris and Skipper Manning.

Halloween Carnival

From the "B's" B-3, Kilpatrick calls a winning number during the Carnival.

Mrs. Green seems always to be filling up balloons at the Dart Toss.

Dr. Ewing checks his rifle at the rifle range as the carnival begins.

The Eighth Grade Trip

I still don't see how we all are going to fit into the Mannings small van? The eighth grade class begins to load up for the trip to Houston and Galveston at the end of the school year.

You would think that most of the class was unhappy to be going on their trip but the photographer forgot to say the magic word cheese before the picture was taken.

The Houston Astros pulled off one of their few wins as the Cross Roads eighth grade looked on.

I tell you it was that big. If you don't believe me, look through it. Skipper had a hard time talking Derwood into looking even after telling him the truth.

Thank goodness for the extra space. Bobbie in Houston.

The San Jacinto Monument was visited by the eighth graders from Cross Roads. The class looked at all the exhibits and looked over the battle field from the top of the monument.

The battleship Texas lay at anchor near the San Jacinto Monument and the Cross Roads trekkers found it a very enjoyable visit on board.

Campus High Lights

Well, actually I tripped coming out and this is the way I landed.

Man, is it great to be back at school from Six Flags. Where's your prizes?

I've got you covered people. Look at the faces of the crew, odd aren't they!

The Girl Scout Troop 1529 attended the Cross Roads Baptist Church Services.

A hard day at the State Fair found most students doing sleep time.
