A senior knows, and knows that he knows;

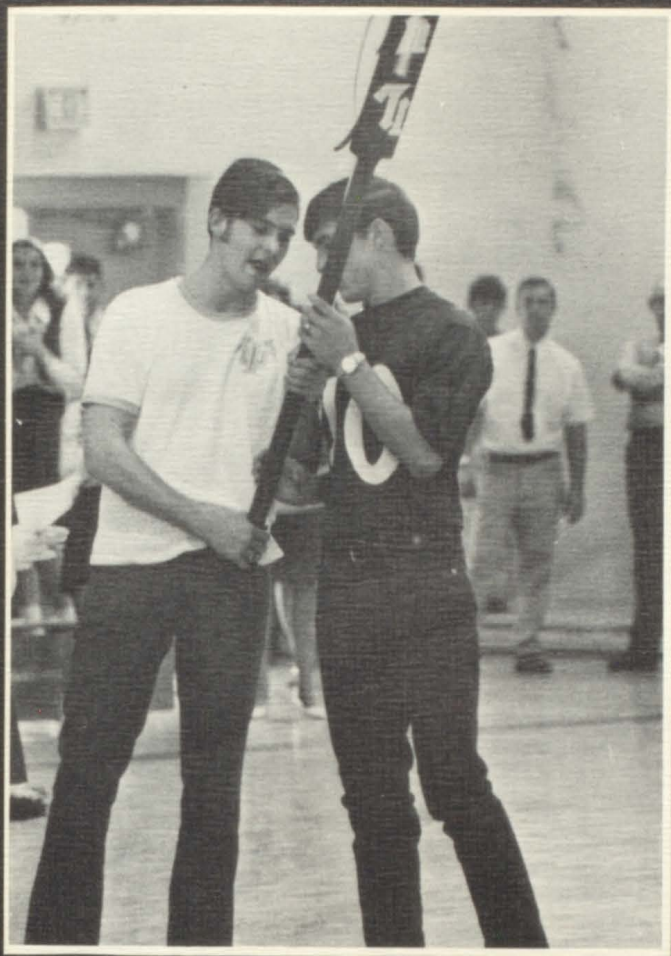

A junior knows, but knows not what he knows;

A sophomore knows, but knows not that he knows;

A freshman knows not, but knows not that he knows not.

To be a Hornet is to be knowing.

Yesterday when I was young,
The taste of life was sweet as

"Yesterday, When I Was Young"
From the Musical Production,
"THE WORLD OF CHARLES AZNAVOUR"
by
Charles Aznavour
English Lyrics by Herbert Kretzmer

I teased at life as if it were a foolish game
The way the evening breeze may tease a candle flame.

I ran so fast that time and youth at last ran out,
I never stopped to think what life was all about.

Yesterday the moon was blue
And every crazy day brought something new to do . . .
Yesterday when I was young.

1971 additional improvements greatly modernize AHS

Seniors Celia Sholars and Trava Richman work on pencil drawings in Art I.

Changes occurred in curriculum, scheduling and eating facilities in 71-72. Assignment of classes was computerized for the first time, and students had more choices than before — some 48 — including new classes in Premium English, Vocational Office Education and Art. One class of Premium English was offered at each grade level for students able and interested in a more in-depth study of literature. Basic drawing, painting and various crafts made up first-year Art, with a second level due to begin next year, and the addition of VOE enabled 35 junior and senior students to work with business machines and gain experience in office work. The school cafeteria gave way to automation at mid-term with the installation of vending machines which served drinks, snacks, sandwiches, canned foods and salads.

Special assemblies brighten routines of AHS students

Student body president Aubrey Jones presides as master of ceremonies for assemblies.

"Shalom," from California, presents a memorable show for students.

A variety of assemblies entertained students this year. First and loudest was the rock band "Shalom" which played two performances in September and was followed by Key Club initiation in October.

The Christmas assembly included traditional and new music by the Raider band, Choral Club and Presbyterian Bell Choir.

New members of NHS were inducted before a packed audience of students and visitors in February, and a week later that organization presented Bobo the magician.

"The Raven" was shown in early March as the fund-raising project of the Athenian staff.

Highlight of the year was a spring concert by the Dallas Symphony Orchestra. Sponsored by the Athens Music Club, the famous group presented two shows for students and a third at night for adults.

Above, High School students participate in the Bell Choir at a pre-Christmas assembly.

'71 explosive rallies successfully begin new tradition

Pep rallies of 1971-72 began a new style, being staged in the gym. Along with various skits a new practice was started: the weekly competition by classes to receive possession of the "spirit stick." Faculty committees awarded the stick each week to the class having shown the most spirit.

Highlight of the year was the traditional bonfire pep rally before Homecoming. Though the fire was burned twice before the scheduled rally, determined students, gathered more and more boxes before the official 6:30 burning.

Entertainment by the band and Front Line brightened each pep rally. No exception was the Homecoming bonfire which featured the majorettes in a dazzling fire baton routine to the "Fight Song."

Cheerleaders and majorettes salute the football team during the school song.

'71 Homecoming highlight of Athens Hornets' season

Homecoming 1971 honored the exes of all previous years with special recognition to the 1951 exes and football team. Activities of the week included a parade, bonfire, chili supper, football game, reception for alumni, and a dance for students. Clubs and classes presented 23 Homecoming Queen nominees and 13 floats in a colorful parade which moved to town, around the square and back to the campus for a pep rally in front of the main building. At the rally Lorenz Stover presented Coach Joe Crousen and the team a victory torch which had been carried by senior band members all the preceding night. A giant cake was also given the team. At the game on Friday night, halftime ceremonies featured the 23 nominees and their escorts. Miss Martha Lewis, Freshman Class nominee, was named '71 Homecoming Queen to the obvious approval of some 5000 spectators.

Although defeated 14-6 by the eighth-ranked Ennis Lions, Hornets and fans pronounced the other Homecoming activities a huge success. Students and Exes alike enjoyed the music of the "Home Brew" at the after-game reception.

The Homecoming bonfire brightens the sky with hopes for the up-coming game.

1972 Band Follies supply great entertainment for all

Athens High's 22nd Band Follies proved to be a great success.

The Follies offered a variety of acts to the public opening with the traditional performance by the Pride of the Hornets Band. The Front Line executed several routines including military, jazz, and comedy. Freshman majorettes also performed to a rock number.

Several comedy acts brightened spectators' faces; these included a Western skit, Mimi Faux Paux, the David West Comedy and the Key Club Ballet. Vocal soloists included Susan Pirtle, Candy Smith, Paula Clanton and Janice Paroline. A folk group, "The Spectrum," composed of Dennis Rittenhouse, Dale Hammons, Tony Henriques, Vikki Watson and Gi Harris also entertained.

Other instrumental acts included the "Shades of Blue" Stage Band and a piano solo played by Gail Kirkwood. Master of Ceremonies was the Rev. Faulk Landrum.

The 1972 Band Follies, under the direction of Mr. Tommy Downing, once again provided good family entertainment from the youth of Athens High and was enthusiastically received by the five audiences.

AHS awards deserving students with May assembly

Mr. Roland Lambert issued the welcome to the May 4 Awards Assembly.

Hornette sponsor Mrs. Peggy Jackson gave the first awards to Hornette officers and all seniors of the club. They received Hornette dolls. John Payne, NHS president, recognized the highest ranking sophomore boy and girl; Paul McMullen and Jean Oldham. Mr. Tommy Downing presented awards to the band officers, Front Line, Freshman majorettes, and the Lion's Club award which went to Lorenz Stover. Mrs. Diane Locke presented the Student Council award to Aubrey Jones. Mr. Lambert issued departmental awards including typing, library, outstanding in Industrial Art, Mechanical Drawing, Journalism, American History, Shorthand, Spanish, Government, Art, Home Economics, D.E., and audio visual. Mrs. Jerene Walker awarded the 1971-72 cheerleaders, and Mr. John Glover presented awards to the sr. choral officers. Distributive Education ICT, VOE and HECE recipients of awards were named by Mr. D. E. Brooks, who was then given a plaque in honor of his retirement. Mr. Gary Holiman presented the awards of the VoAg program, and Mr. Robert Montgomery gave the Doctors of Motors, Vica, and best female mechanic awards. Coach Joe Crousen presented the Lion's Club sports awards.

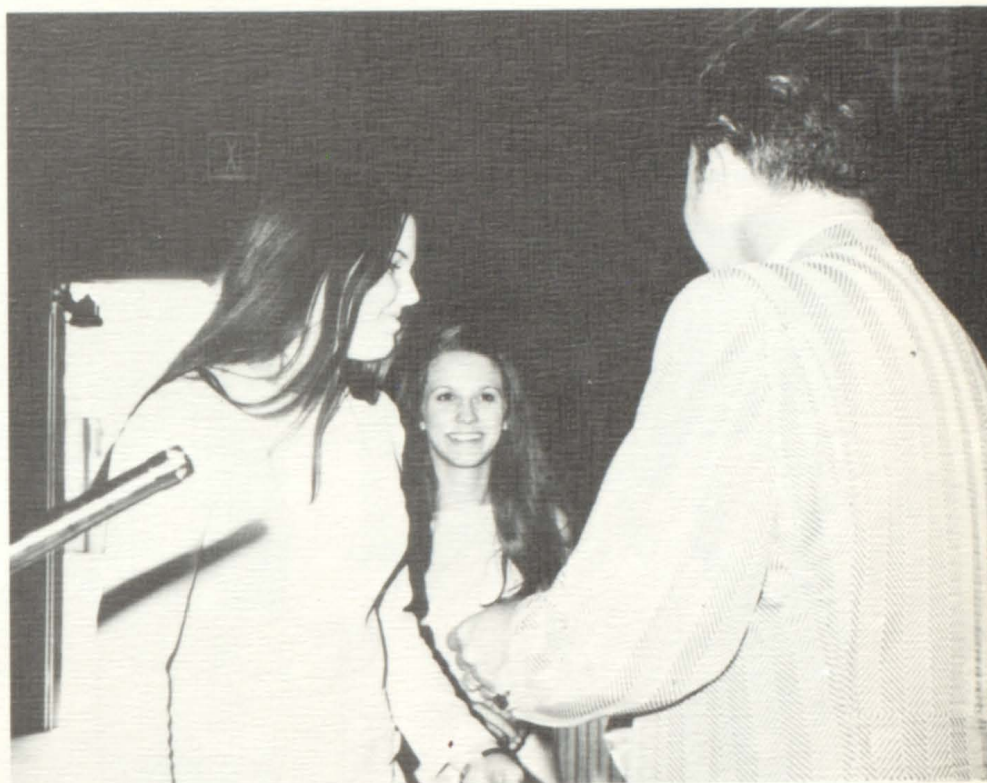

Ricky Godwin is recognized for his hours of service in DE from Mr. D. E. Brooks.

Mrs. Peggy Jackson receives a plaque for her years of faithful service to Hornets.

Denise Hoesser and Candy Smith receive shorthand awards from Mr. Lambert.

John Frentress receives the Mechanical Drawing award given by Mr. Lambert.

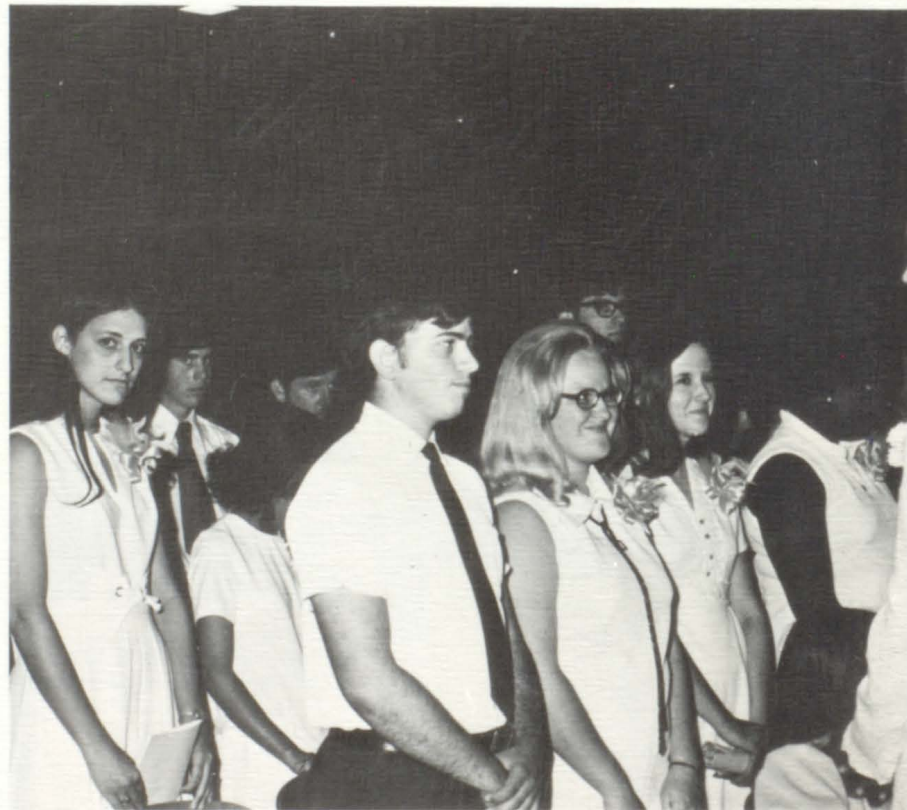

Coach Joe Crousen gives the Lion's Club basketball and track awards to Pat Tart.

Terry Till receives a hammer as the best female mechanic from Mr. Robert Montgomery.

Seniors recite events of the past, plans of the future

The 1972 Senior Day program was opened with a welcome by Superintendent J. R. Lowe.

A mock wedding reception was the setting as the events of the past and future plans were told by committees on history, prophecy and wills.

Honor graduates were recognized and awards were given to the highest activity point winners.

Senior sponsors included Mrs. Esther Edwards, Mrs. Gilbert Perry, Mrs. Estelene Lovings, Mrs. Glenna White, and Mrs. Kathryn Harville.

Jr.-Sr. Prom plunges into scenic South Pacific setting

South Sea Islands was the theme of the 1972 Junior-Senior Prom held May 5 at the HCJC Student Union Building. Decorations included a large smoking volcano in the center of the dance floor as well as schools of fish placed on the walls. A bubbling fountain in one corner served as the background for picture taking, and a pond covered by plants occupied another corner.

Junior Ushers greeted guests in a receiving line; and refreshments of white cake and tropical punch were served by class sponsors and parents.

Music was furnished by "Fate."

Athens presents one act play in district competition

The 1972 one-act play for district competition was "The Bald Soprano" written by Eugene Ionesco. Expressing the lack of communication between people closely related, the play illustrated situations in which people talked but no one listened. Although the play did not place in the competition, it made a fine showing.

Students taking part in the production included Connie Hansen, Kris Weber, Nan Forester, David McMichael, Linda Marshall and Aubrey Jones. The stage crew included Cindy Renfro, Lynn Nix, and Lorenz Stover. The play was directed by Mrs. Joe Crousen.

Students from the government classes participated in the traditional Government Day in May. Elected by their classmates, twenty seniors spent a school day in the various offices of city and county officials.

Students learned firsthand the duties, terms of office, and whether an elected or appointed office.

Baccalaureate ceremonies prepare Seniors for life

Baccalaureate services for 1972 seniors were held on Bruce Field. After the invocation by Father Patrick Lynch, the Reverend Faulk Landrum spoke on "The Four Points in Life"; setting up guidelines for the graduates. Processional and recessional music was provided by the Pride of the Hornets band under the direction of Mr. Tommy Downing. The band also played a medley of religious hymns.

Assistant principal Miss Stella Pace chats with seniors Diane Richards, Diane Youngblood and Starla Hood.

After the service Dulcine Joe and Debra Massey congratulate each other and celebrate with smiles and a few dance steps.

The long awaited night of May 30 finally arrived for the anxious senior class of '72. Cameras snapped as the excited seniors walked onto Bruce Field and were seated for the Commencement exercises. Mr. Roland Lambert and Superintendent J. R. Lowe made brief announcements followed by the awarding of various scholarships to selected seniors. Following the valedictory and salutatory speeches Dr. Dwight Jones handed out the diplomas as each student was announced by Miss Stella Floy Pace. Mr. Lambert was first to shake the hand and congratulate each individual. As the program ended and the graduates filed out, each was ready to begin his new freedom and explore all it had in store for him.

Palestine overcomes Hornets 20-15 in season opener

Athens fell 20-15 to Palestine in the non-district season opener. The first score came on a 20-yard run by fullback Tommy Stutts, and David Burgamy's kick made it 7-0 with 10:51 to go in the second. Palestine retaliated immediately with a six-yard pass to the end zone. On their next possession the Wildcats surged 75 yards in seven plays for a 14-7 lead, but the Hornets came right back, driving to the 12 before they were stopped by the clock. In the second half Palestine made it 20-7 on a 46-yard punt return. Athens grabbed the last TD of the night on a 12-yard pass from Burgamy to Lonnie Johnson. Fred Heath passed to Johnson for two, and the 20-15 score remained unchanged.

Split end Louis Blanton (80) is crunched after racking up a first down for the Hornets in the effort against Palestine.

Palestine's number 21 gets only a short gain before Devon Weatherford (40) brings him down.

Lonnie Johnson (89) manages to escape the clutches of a Wildcat tackle to add more yardage to the play.

Charlie Harris (24) plows down the sidelines for a long gain as Mack Saxon (72) clears a path.

Hornets mangle Bulldogs, 37-20

Chapel Hill toppled 37-20 as Athens rolled up 519 yards offense in their second outing. First points came when DeWayne Chambers dropped the Bulldog QB for a safety. Twenty-one seconds later David Burgamy roared up the middle on a 54-yard keeper to paydirt and kicked the extra point for a 9-0 lead. Chapel Hill scored on the next play and then gained the lead with a second TD. Early in the second the Hornets regained the lead for keeps as Fred Heath dashed over from six yards out. Burgamy nabbed the conversion pass from Mike Jett to make it 17-14. Late in the third quarter Halfback David Lawson rammed over from the two, and Burgamy's kick made it 24-14. Chapel Hill managed one more score; then Allen Loden blocked a Bulldog punt, and Heath landed on it in the end zone for the 6-pointer. Two minutes later Lonnie Johnson collected a TD pass from Jett to set the score at 37-20.

Denny Sims (81) jumps to collect a 15-yard pass for another first down.

Giving hot pursuit to the Chapel Hill ball carrier is defensive halfback David Lawson (25).

Bears zapped in Hornet rampage

AHS played circus with the Gladewater Bears as they romped to a 40-6 victory in a non-district bout September 24. Halfback David Lawson put Athens on the scoreboard first with a two-yard charge, followed by a three-yard scramble by Fred Heath for six more. A drive early in the second was climaxed as David Burgamy pitched out to Heath who then fired ten yards to Lawson in the end zone. Tommy Stutts powered 14 yards to the goal for a fourth TD before the Hornets allowed Gladewater their lone score on a 50-yard pass play. Burgamy booted each of Athens' extra points. Heath racked up another six when he fell on a fumble in the end zone, and Lawson succeeded in his third bid for points on a one-yard push for the final score. Athens ended on top of the match 40-6.

One of Gladewater's Bears plows into Fred Heath (11) to cut short his attempt for six points.

Quarterback David Burgamy (14) outdistances Gladewater's number 62 to gain a first down.

The Bears' number 24 attempts to intercept a pass intended for Louis Blanton (80), but Blanton completes it to foil the effort.

The referee signals one of the Hornets' six touchdowns in their rout over Gladewater.

Athens sweeps by North Garland in offensive smear

Louis Blanton (80) reaches for a TD pass, fired from halfback Fred Heath, to stretch the lead another six points.

Athens zonked North Garland with a 47-6 score and 646 offensive yards in a non-district clash. The first TD was called back on a clipping penalty after Denny Sims raced 73 yards to the end zone. Louis Blanton then scored on a short pass from QB David Burgamy who also kicked. The Raiders then produced their only touchdown, followed by a sensational 67-yard run by Burgamy. The kick was good for a 14-6 lead. Fred Heath gunned 22 yards for a TD, and minutes later, Devon Weatherford blasted in from the 31 to stretch the lead to 26-6. The next two scores came on a 31-yard pass from Heath to Blanton, and a pass from Mike Jett to Blanton who again hit paydirt in a play covering 65 yards. Burgamy kicked both points, and the score showed 42-6. With seconds left, Charlie Harris hit home from four yards out, and Burgamy booted Athens into a 47-6 win.

Denny Sims (81) races 73 yards to the end zone, only to have his touchdown called back on a clipping penalty.

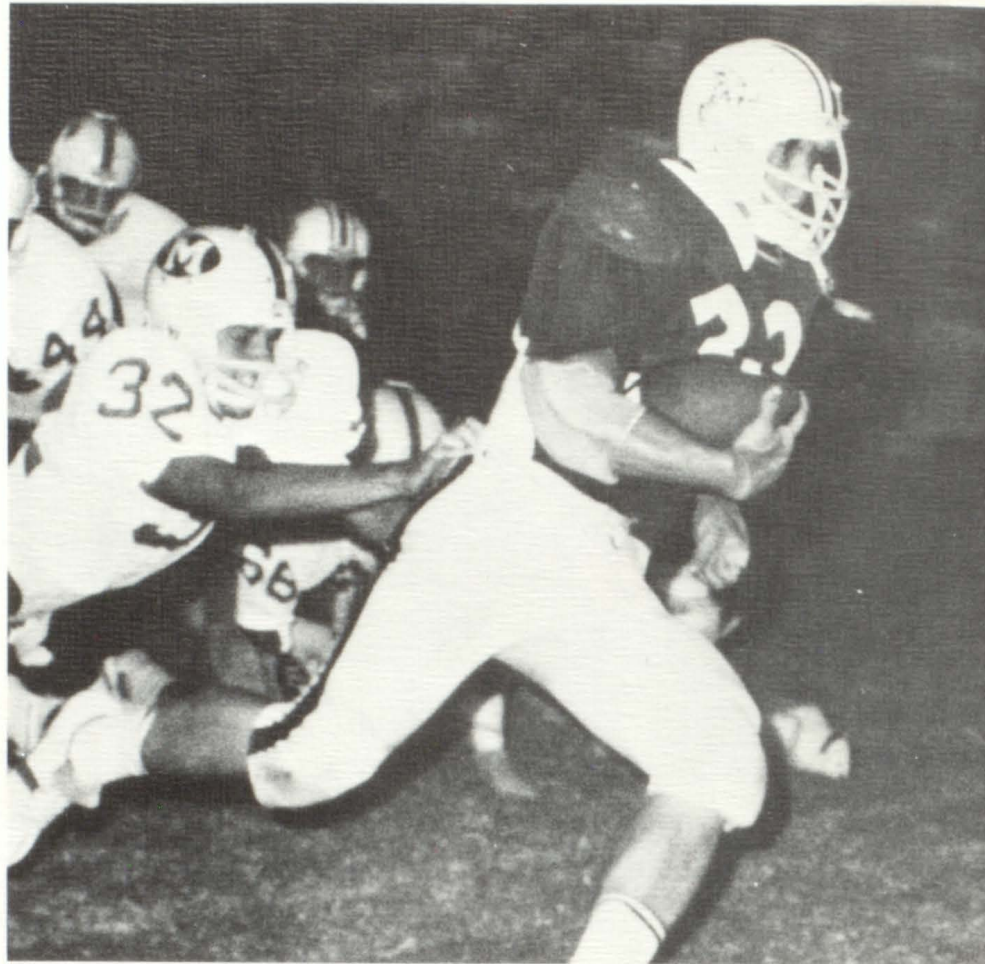

Quarterback David Burgamy (14) dodges around left end on a keeper for a short gain.

Mighty Maroons mutilate Marlin

Athens poured on the offense for a total of 454 yards and a 35-8 victory over Marlin in the district opener.

Halfback Devon Weatherford scampered eleven yards early in the second for Athens' first points. The lead was extended to 14-0 in the third on a 10-yard pass from David Burgamy to Lonnie Johnson, with Fred Heath passing to Johnson for the conversion. Weatherford then recovered a fumble and eleven plays later chalked up his second TD for a 21-0 lead. Marlin produced its only score on a 32-yard pass play, followed by a four-yard trip into the end zone by Heath; Burg's kick made it 28-8. Mike Jett zipped a 15-yarder to Louis Blanton who rolled into the end zone on the final buzzer, and Burg booted in the 35-8 victory.

Tommy Stutts (33), impressive ground-gobbler for the Hornets, pounds his way downfield for a first down as the Marlin defense attempts fruitlessly to catch him.

Denny Sims (81) nabs his man and stops short the Bulldog's scoring attempt as George Glaspie (64) moves in to assist.

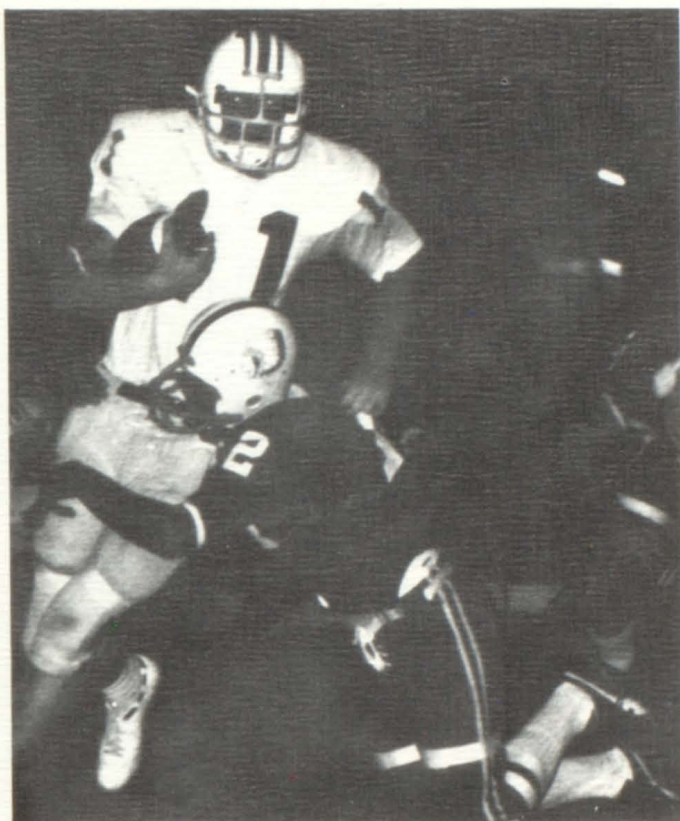

Fred Heath (11) dodges apprehensively as he seems uncertain of the direction to take to avoid the oncoming Marlin defense who are bent on bringing him down before he can collect any more yardage.

The Indians swarm in to break the run of Devon Weatherford (40) as David Adams (60) comes in too late to lend a hand.

Fred Heath sweeps down the field for long yardage as a Waxahachie Indian struggles to bring him down.

Fifth straight win delivered in 21-7 Indian massacre

Lonnie Johnson (89) snatches a TD pass and twists into the end zone, while the flying leap by an Indian comes too late to break up the scoring play.

The Hornets rolled up their fifth straight win by crunching the Waxahachie Indians 21-7 October 15.

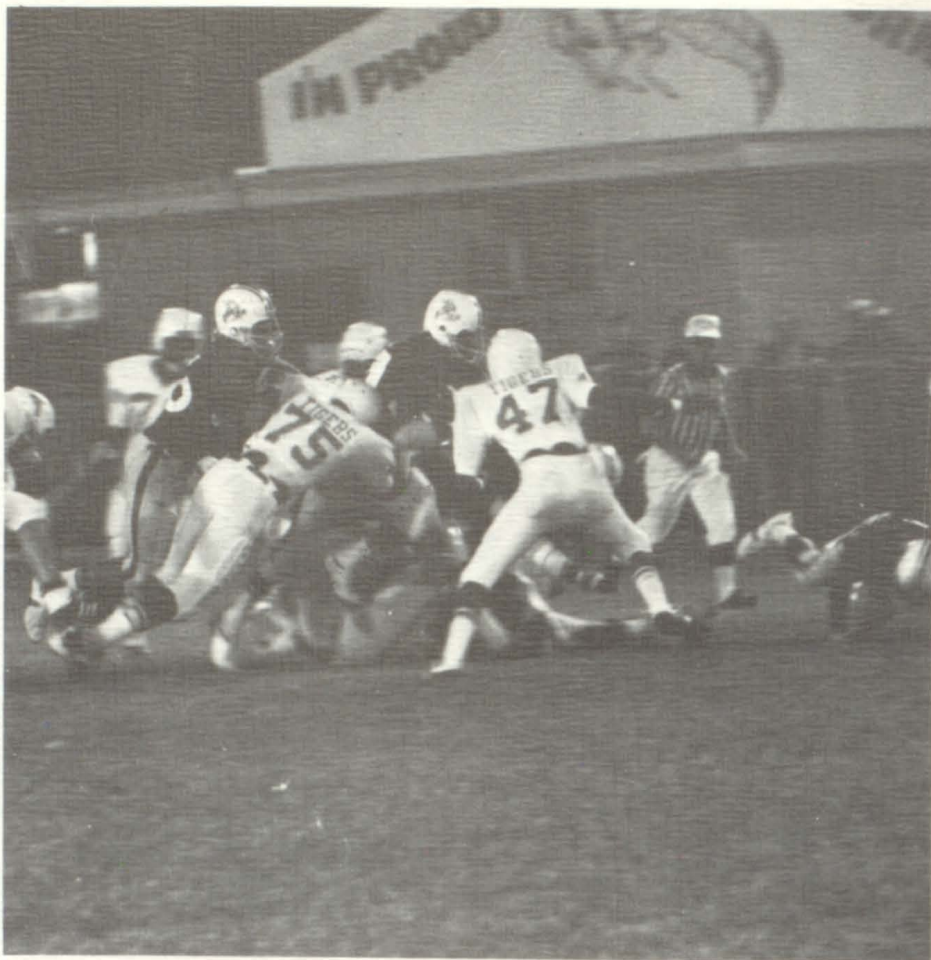

Athens' first threat, a 63-yard run by Charlie Harris to the Indian seven, was cut short by a penalty, and the Athens punt was taken 66 yards to paydirt and an early 7-0 lead by the Indians. Denny Sims intercepted to set up the tying score, which came on a 48-yard halfback pass from Fred Heath to Louis Blanton. The Hornets took the opening kickoff of the second half to paydirt in nine plays; Heath barged nine yards for the score, and Burgamy kicked. Harris intercepted on an Indian first-and-goal to end a major threat, and early in the fourth the Hornets wrapped up the scoring on a 14-yard pass from Heath to Lonnie Johnson in the end zone, with Burgamy's kick making it 21-7.

Hornets handed "Terrellible" upset

The Hornets were shaken 20-0 in the final non-district game of the season by Terrell's Tigers.

Terrell's first points came after they blocked a punt early in the second period. Athens followed with two threats, the first ending in a penalty, and the second being fumbled away on the 17. The Tigers intercepted to open the way for a 13-0 lead early in the fourth, but Carl Bass blocked the extra point attempt. The final TD came on a 31-yard run by Terrell's Avon Hicks. Harris recovered a Tiger fumble on the 30 for one more chance, but four pass attempts — three by David Burgamy and one by Mike Jett — did nothing for the Athens cause and they were forced to accept the 20-0 shutout.

A gang of Hornets close in around the Terrell ball-carrier in an attempt to slow the onslaught of Tiger artillery which proved to be so disastrous in the non-district clash.

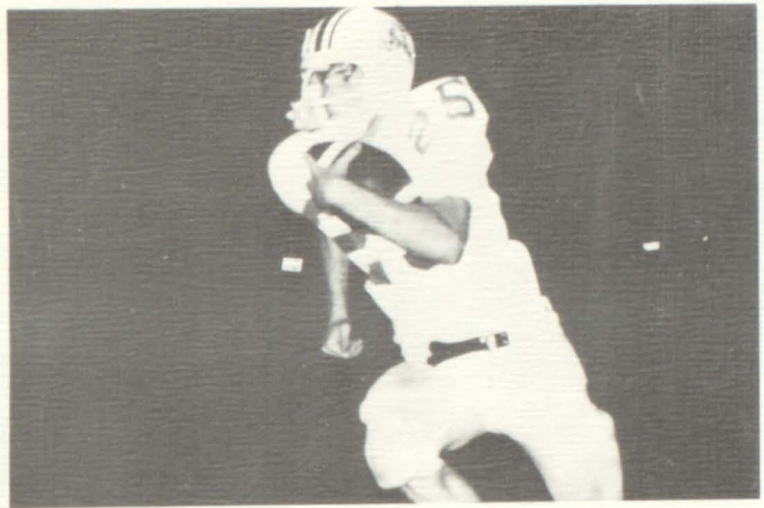

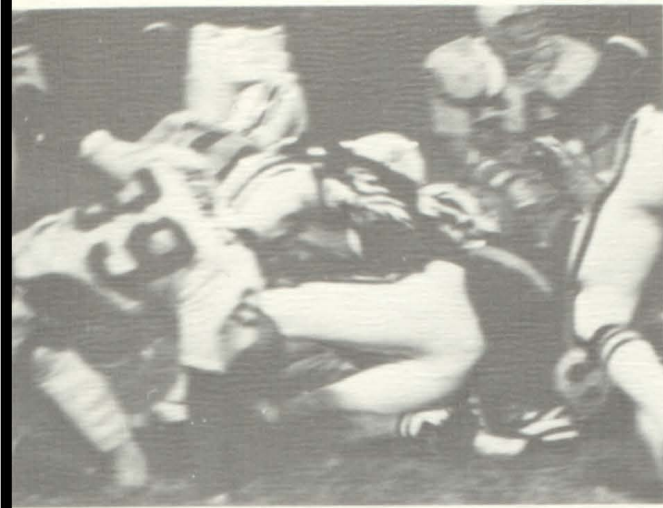

Devon Weatherford (40) sprints for a first down, but swerves to dodge the Tigers that are about to close in.

A solid defensive wall connects with a determined offensive wall as the Hornets allow the Tigers little running room for their scoring attempt.

Lonnie Johnson (89), Ken Scott (66), and Darrell Brooks (70) decide to join in the pile-up as the Moore team members rush in to do the same.

David Lawson (25) streaks downfield for a pick-up of several yards and a first down.

Like angry bulls, Devon Weatherford (40) and Moore's number 20 lower their heads and prepare for the crash.

AHS tilts Moore in 20-13 thriller

Many a chilled bone was felt before the Hornets ridiculed the "experts" by dumping the favored Waco Moore Lions 20-13.

The Lions scored on their first possession, but the Hornets immediately struck back as Charlie Harris scrambled one yard to climax a 74-yard drive. The PAT was bobbled, and the Lions held a 7-6 lead. A 60-yard pass play gave Moore an additional six points early in the third, but David Hicks blocked the try. Athens cut the lead 13-12 as Harris again scored from the one. With 2:38 left in the game, Moore's punt flopped and Athens took over on the 4-yard line. Devon Weatherford popped over for the score, and David Burgamy passed to Harris on the conversion. Moore then pushed to the six, but Allen Loden recovered a fumble to preserve the 20-13 win.

Athens ball-carrier Lonnie Johnson (89) gets dumped after moving in close to scoring territory. Denny Sims (81) is too late to help.

Quarterback David Burgamy (14) prepares to chunk a long pass downfield.

Glenn Rhinehart (22) is brought down by a Lion after scrambling for a good gain, as David Adams (60) moves in too late to assist.

Lions capture a close win, 14-6

The Hornets barely missed outright ownership of the 9-AAA South Zone crown as Ennis scraped past them 14-6, setting up what was to be a three-way tie for the championship. Athens took an early lead as Tommy Stutts powered his way through right guard from two yards out for the score. As David Burgamy kicked the extra point, Ennis drew a penalty, and the Hornets elected to try for two. Stutts was dropped short of the goal for a 6-0 lead. Ennis took a 7-6 lead in the second on a controversial three-yard plunge and a successful kick. Late in the fourth the Lions wrapped up the duel with an eight-yard pass to the end zone and a 14-6 win.

Above right, Larry Willingham (75) and George Glaspie (64) advance to bring down the Ennis ball-carrier.

Charlie Harris (24) is crunched by a gang of Lions after gaining considerable yardage in the effort against Ennis.

Cats crushed — drawing gives Hornets South Zone title

Hornet teammates rush to clear a path through the looming Mexia defense for ball-carrier Mike Jett (10).

The Hornets pulverized the Mexia Black Cats 50-15 to become South Zone Tri-champs with Ennis and Waco. A drawing later that night gave the Hornets the Zone title and created general pandemonium among Hornet fans.

Mexia scored on the fifth play of the game, but the Hornets slapped back on a one-yard push by David Burgamy who then kicked for a 7-7 tie. A 93-yard play yielded six for Denny Sims who collected a pass from HB Fred Heath. DeWayne Chambers' fumble recovery set up the third strike, a one-yard run by Tommy Stutts, and a conversion from Mike Jett to Louis Blanton. A 27-7 lead came on a six-yard pass from Burgamy to Blanton, and Heath passed to David Lawson for two. Burgamy added the fifth TD on a 13-yard keeper; Stutts tacked on the sixth, and Heath hit Blanton on the conversion making it 43-7. The seventh TD came on a 42-yard pass play from Jett to Blanton with Burgamy booting in a 50-7 lead. Mexia scored with three minutes left, setting the score at 50-15.

Charlie Harris (24) swerves to scamper around the Mexia tackle, who moves in fast in an attempt to hold back the gain.

Gary Hardin (45) trots around the end to tack on a few more yards for the Athens cause.

Victorious Hornets claim District 9-AAA championship

Picked to finish no higher than fourth in zone, Athens blasted the Lancaster Tigers 28-14 for the District title November 19.

The Hornets lit the board first as QB David Burgamy romped four yards to the end zone early in the second period. Lancaster struck back on their next possession to tie the score, but Athens retaliated, moving ahead for good as Burgamy chalked up his second TD on a 13-yard scramble. Ken Scott recovered a Tiger fumble to pave the way for Athens' third TD, a one-yard push by Tommy Stutts. Devon Weatherford returned an interception to the Lancaster 7 late in the third to set up a seven-yard scoring run by Stutts. Burg kicked his fourth extra point for a 28-7 lead. The Tigers finished the night's scoring on their next possession, but the 28-14 victory and the District Championship belonged to the Hornets.

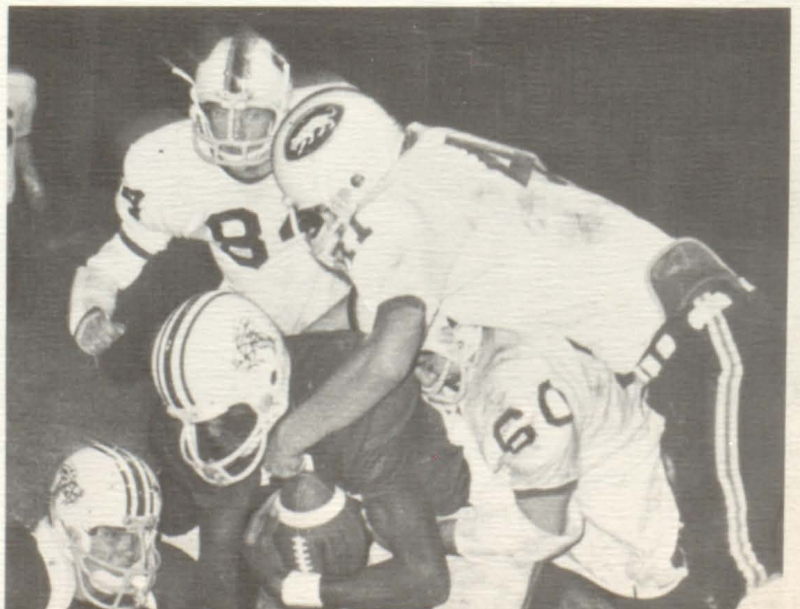

Devon Weatherford (40) sweeps into Tiger territory with fellow Hornets Louis Blanton (80), Denny Sims (81), David Hicks (61), Carl Bass (55), and DeWayne Chambers (86).

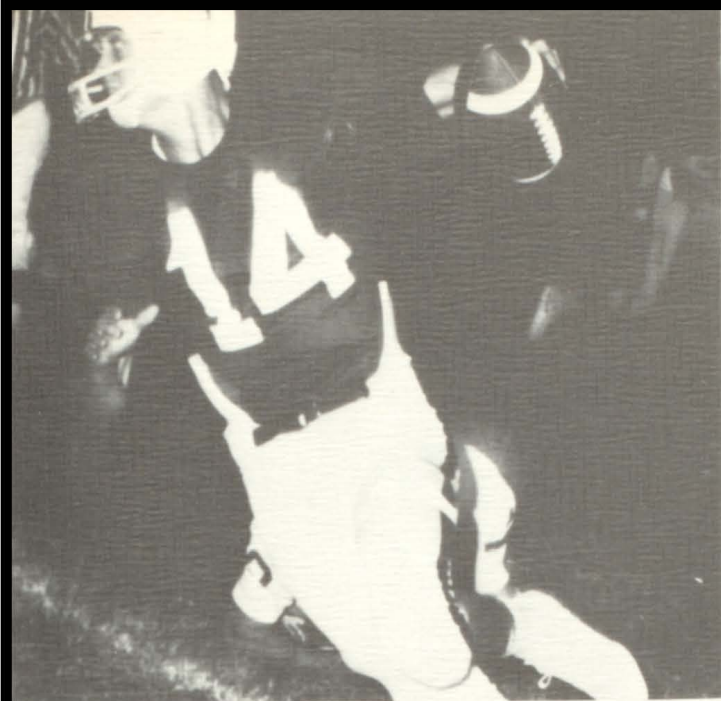

At right, Lancaster's Lions clutch desperately at David Burgamy (14) as Fred Heath (11) moves up from behind.

Below, David Burgamy (14) blasts downfield for a long gain, followed by Louis Blanton (80) and Mack Saxon (72).

Below right, Charlie Harris (24) gets crunched as Larry Willingham (75) finds himself unable to help.

Putting a stop to the Cub offense are Hornets Allen Loden (65), George Glaspie (64), L. C. Bowman (74), Larry Willingham (75), and David Hicks (61).

Finding no available receiver, David Burgamy (14) decides instead to run, scoring six points on a 54-yard sprint.

Cubs score late to edge Hornets in Bi-district struggle

The Hornets held on to an 18-14 lead until the final six minutes of the game, but the Brenham Cubs rolled out two more TDs to take the bi-district championship at Waco November 27. The Cubs scored first, but four plays later Louis Blanton hauled in a 47-yard strike from David Burgamy for six. Brenham took a 14-6 lead on their next possession, followed by six more for Athens on a sizzling 54-yard run by Burgamy. The Hornets then took an 18-14 lead on their next turn as Devon Weatherford dived into the end zone from the four. It wasn't until late in the fourth that Brenham intercepted a pass and ran it seven yards to regain the lead. Athens managed to move to the Cub 22, but a controversial fumble allowed Brenham to grind out their final TD to edge the Hornets 29-18.

JV teamwork proven with 7-2

The Junior Varsity Hornets, consisting mainly of freshmen, posted a season record of 7-2, the best JV achievement in several years.

Dale Johnson collected the most touchdowns, having nine to his credit. C. J. Fairchild followed with six; Wayne Perkins boasted five, and Milton Adams and Darrell Allen each racked up one. Quarterback Eddie Reynolds claimed one TD and one conversion, threw four touchdown passes, and additionally tossed nine conversion passes, eight of which were to Larry Houston. The remaining one was to Allen, who also hauled in one from Perkins. Perkins also rolled over for three conversions.

Raiders produce unfortunate 3-5

The Freshmen Raiders, robbed of many players who were sent to play JV football, managed a 3-5 record in '71.

Steve Stacks led in TD's with a total of six, and Curtis Jackson followed with three, plus four conversions. Claiming two touchdowns each were Jackie Thomas and Jasper Davis, along with usual JV players Wayne Perkins and Dale Johnson, who was also good for a pair of conversions. Mike Johnson scored one six-pointer, as did Pat Fuller. QB Fuller also chunked six touchdown passes and scored one conversion; HB Thomas passed once for six points, as did usual JV quarterback Eddie Reynolds.

'71 season has slow beginning

The Hornets played havoc with the "experts" predictions by shoving a 17-13 season chart under the noses of those who expected few, if any, wins. A slow beginning picked up tempo as experience and confidence increased with each game.

The first trip onto the boards brought defeat at the hands of Tyler's Robert E. Lee. The Rebels, already having the experience of several games, outrebounded the Hornets 52-32 and took the ball 20 times on turnovers. A match-up with Van brought another loss at the hands of the taller, more experienced Vandals. After leading most of the first quarter, Athens failed to get revenge on the Tyler Rebs as mistakes wiped away any chance of winning. The annual Athens Tournament brought victory number one, a grinding up of Teague 97-57. Pat Tart made the All Tournament team with the help of his 40-point total in that game, but the La-Poyner Flyers eliminated the Hornets in the next round; Corsicana took the trophy for the second consecutive year.

Carl Barker (41) curves a hook shot toward the net as Pat Tart (23) moves up from behind.

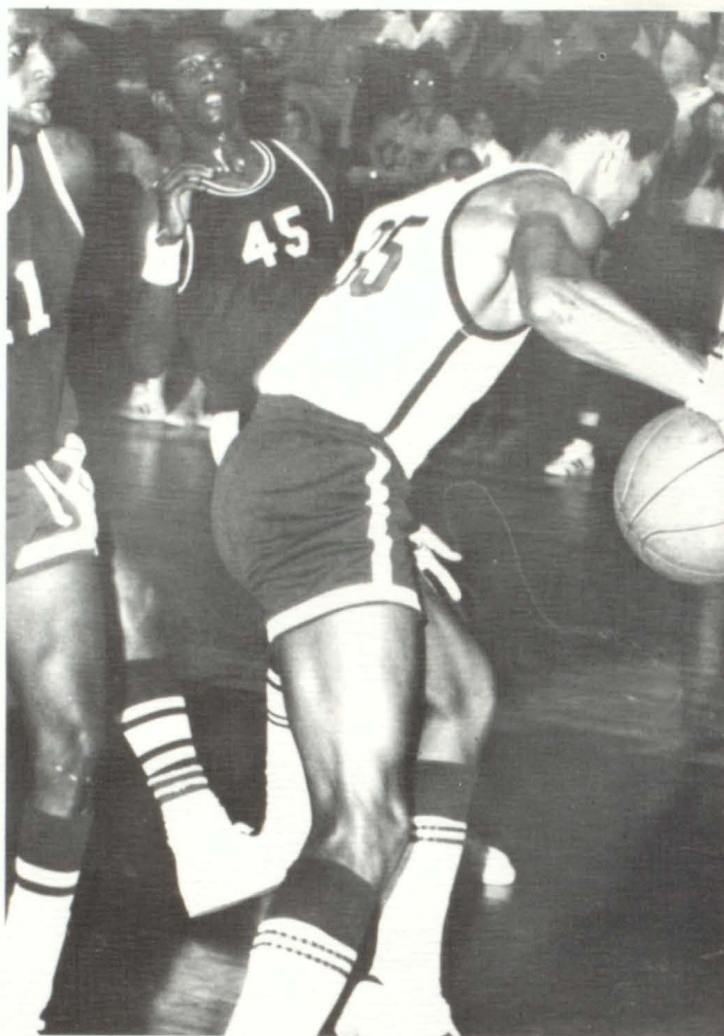

One of Marlin's Bulldogs jumps to thwart the long shot attempted by Pat Tart (23).

David Burgamy (15) appears to be swinging from the glass as he pops in the ball for another two points over Moore.

Louis Blanton (35) dodges to get around two Moore Lions who are trying to hem him in.

Hornets start to prove themselves

A trip to Henderson brought the fifth loss, but the Hornets hit 32 of 63 shots from the floor and 11 of 22 free throws, outdoing the Lions in both departments. Rebounds made the difference, and it was there the Lions took the win. Pat Tart again made All-Tourney in the Van Tournament — there the Hornets downed Cayuga for advancement to the semi-finals before Van halted further chances; however, the Hornets took the third place trophy. A sound thrashing of the Malakoff Tigers preceded the 101-60 beating given by Henderson. A violent storm knocked out the gym lights, delaying the game 40 minutes, but when the lights came to life, so did the Lions. Athens scorers included Tart, Carl Barker, Leslie Langley, Vernell Hunter, and David Burgamy.

Vernell Hunter (33) takes a pass from Tellie B. Howard (45) while the Ennis Lions keep a careful guard on the net.

With a look of determination, David Burgamy (15) dodges to escape the clutches of the Henderson Lions.

Leslie Langley (13) seems to dance in mid-air as he pops up in an easy try for two.

A corner shot is attempted by Pat Tart (23) to advance the lead over the Moore Lions.

Hornets pile up additional wins

The Consolation championship was grabbed in the Lon Morris tournament in mid-December. After Tyler Lee came from behind to take an 80-78 decision, the Hornets exploded for 57 points in the second half of a match against Bullock to earn a spot in the consolation bracket of the double elimination tourney. Rains County was nudged aside, and Athens found only Crockett in the way of the Consolation trophy. After slipping far behind, the Hornets changed to a man-to-man defense, forced 12 turnovers, held Crockett to five points and pulled out the title in the final seconds. Pat Tart got 34 points and made the All-Tor Tourney team.

Six turnovers forced by David Burgamy and four by Hank Douglas were a major factor in the win over Terrell that followed, but Van mashed Athens again in a rough bout — 58 fouls were called, and Coach Jesse Walker was ejected from the bench. Malakoff was whipped, but December closed on a losing note at the hands of Waxahachie.

'72 opened in high fashion, however, as a seesaw of leads rocked in the Hornets' favor for a one-point win over Waxahachie.

Title hopes add more excitement

The Hornets upped the win column again as they whipped Mexia in the zone opener. Mexia lost the ball 31 times on turnovers, compared to Athens' 17 times, and 46 rebounds were grabbed by Athens courtmen. Ennis got clobbered for another victory as Pat Tart sacked 30 points for the Athens cause, followed by Carl Barker with 19. Waco Moore squeezed past the Maroons 80-78 to set the Hornets at 2-1 in league play; but both teams continued to be strong contenders for the zone title. Players in the double columns included Tart with 34, David Burgamy with 14, Tellie B. Howard with 11, and Barker with 10 points.

Marlin was shoved out the door as the Hornets brushed shy of the elusive century mark in the 98-74 bout January 21. Five players managed double column figures, including Pat Tart, Carl Barker, Hank Douglas, Vernell Hunter, and Louis Blanton.

Carl Barker (41) does high flying battle for the ball while teammates Hank Douglas (21), Louis Blanton (35), and David Burgamy (15) wait for action.

Tart named All-State first team

Ennis slid past the Hornets 59-56, but Athens came back to knock off unbeaten Moore in the next contest. Sharpshooters Pat Tart, Louis Blanton, Carl Barker, and David Burgamy all hit the double figures. A defeat by Marlin erased playoff hopes; 60 fouls were called with three Athens players ending up out of the game.

The season's close brought a 5-3 zone mark and a total of 17 wins for the season.

In March, Pat Tart was named to an All-State guard position based on his four-year career in basketball. In his senior year alone, Tart claimed 677 points in 27 games, an average of 25.1 per game; he also managed 228 rebounds, hit 49 percent in field goals, and sank 71 percent of free throws attempted. Tart is the third All-State basketballer in three years from AHS, following John Jones and Donnie Murphree.

Pat Tart

JVs pick up skill and experience

The Junior Varsity basketball team managed only a 7-12 record, but the technical skills and knowledge that they gained, along with the important experience factor, provided the satisfaction that insured a successful year for the JVs. Team spirit and hustle were an added plus for the cagers as they fought down to the wire in several matches. Inexperience played a major role in the losses, but as the season progressed, there was an obvious promise of strong future teams.

Freshman roundballers encountered a rough schedule in 71-72. The young team found itself pitted against junior varsity teams whose superior height and experience was enough to allow the Raiders only a 3-10 record. The freshmen did not allow the season to slip by totally without salvage, however. They displayed plenty of eagerness and hustle, and the skills and experience they picked up will prove to be a valuable asset for stronger future teams.

Baseball begins on hopeful note

The crack of the bat and the drop of the ball opened the '72 season for the Hornets March 21, as they whipped the Terrell Tigers 6-5. The Tigers took advantage of errors to take an early 3-0 lead, but the Hornets checked that with hits by Mike Jett and Randy Lambright which sent them ahead. The Tigers tied the score again, but George Glaspie plowed over the plate for the winning point late in seventh. Terrell took revenge that same week, however, with a 5-4 win in ten innings. The Hornets were charged with six errors to offset plate leaders Mickey Cain and Louis Blanton. Athens fell 6-2 to Brownsboro, who later took the AA Regional title. Lambright smashed a 400-foot home run and got a single to lead the batting. Brownsboro kept the ball rolling by whipping the Hornets again in the final non-district game. Athens took a 4-0 lead with a grand slam home run by Robert Duncan, but the Bears came back roaring and snatched an 11-5 victory.

Disappointments plague Hornets

The Hornets opened district play with the sweet taste of victory by taking Mexia 9-6. Athens picked up nine hits, including three by Lambright, two by Howard, and a double by Duncan. Seven runs were scored by Athens in the fourth. A 13-inning marathon ended in a 4-3 defeat at the hands of Ennis after the lead had rocked back and forth three times. The Hornets outhit Ennis 11-8; Denny Sims and Blanton each got three singles, Lambright got two, and Duncan, Glaspie, and Cain all took one each. In a clash with Waco Moore, the Hornets gave up ten bases on balls which spelled a 10-8 defeat by the Lions. LaVega ran the Hornets' district chart to 1-3 on April 21 as they handed Athens another defeat.

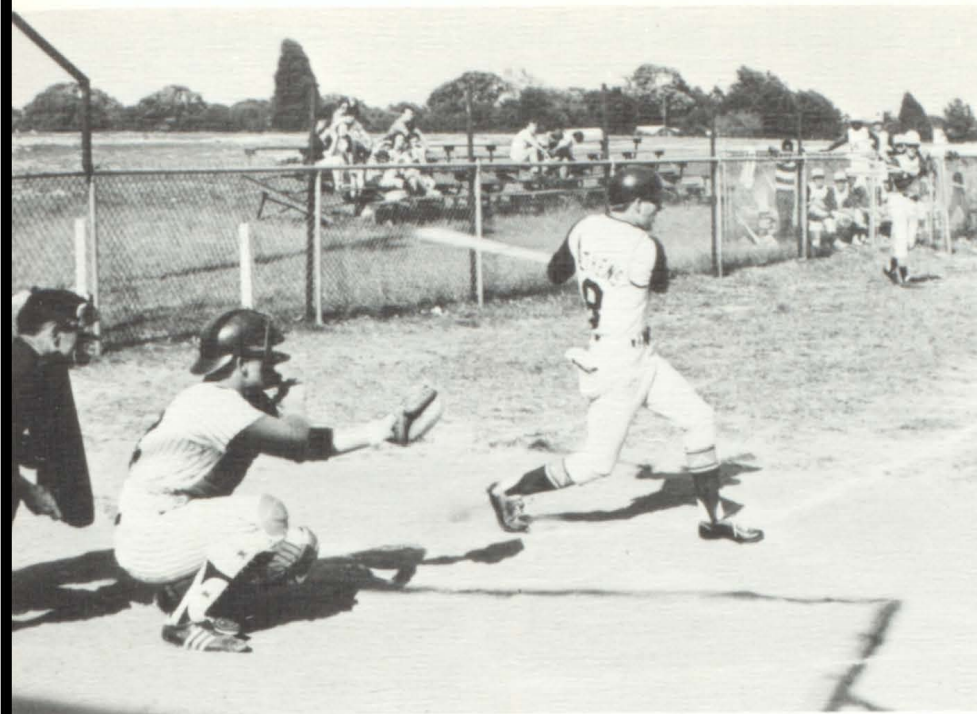

The catcher waits for a ball that is too late to stop Mart Bennett from crossing the plate for a score.

Mike Jett drops the bat and breaks into a run as the ball sails into the air. Mickey Cain gives the bat a mighty swing in an effort for a solid hit.

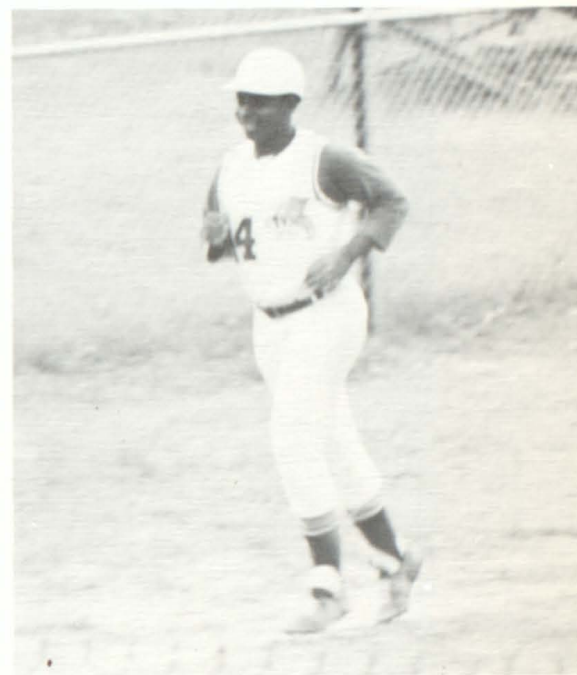

Denny Sims takes a hefty swing and slugs the ball across center field.

Tellie Howard grins happily and ambles toward home after smashing a homer against Ennis.

With a look of determined concentration, first baseman Randy Lambright waits for the ball that will put out the tarrying LaVega player.

Unimpressive end befalls season

A homerun by Glaspie against Ennis did not help the Hornets, and they dropped their seventh game 12-6 to seemingly lose any chances of winning a place in District. They bounced back into contention, however, by trouncing Waco Moore 9-6 in their next outing, with pitcher Paul McMullen taking the win. At one time the Pirates were within one point of overtaking the Hornets, but Howard and Blanton each smashed a home run to assure Athens of the victory. A doubleheader at LaVega permanently buried title hopes for the Hornets. A 2-3 loss in the first game and a 1-7 loss in the second ended the Hornets' season with a 2-5 district record. Lambright, the seasons' leading batter with a .489 average, and Sims, second with a .412, led at the plate in both rounds.

Freshmen outshine varsity with trophies, awards

Varsity tracksters ran against stiff competition in '72. At the Ennis Relays, Athens tied for 13th place. DeWayne Chambers placed third in the high jump, Mark Wimberley was fifth in the 440, and Devon Weatherford was fifth in the 220. Pat Tart took first place in the high jump in the Dogwood Relays, as the team placed eighth. An eleventh place came in the Pine Tree meet; Tart broke an AHS record with a 6'5" jump, but placed second to Mt. Pleasant's Gary Miracle. With only 24 points, Athens took sixth place in the Wildcat Relays, and Tart beat Miracle for first. Tart set a record of 6'8" in District, only to be knocked out of the running at the Regional meet.

The freshman team made an outstanding showing. In the sophomore division, they placed fourth in the Dogwood Relays, DeWayne Chambers taking first in the high jump and Darrell Allen winning the mile. They claimed first in the Athens Junior Meet with 225 points, and followed with a sixth in the Pine Tree meet, where Allen got another first, Chambers took a second, and Robert Duncan and Jasper Davis took thirds in shot put and pole vault. The Frosh won again in the Wildcat Relays, led by the mile relayers who finished in 3:38. Chambers won two firsts, in high jump and pole vault. The freshmen swept the district title with 133 points, the milers setting a record of 3:35.2 and Tommy Frizzell setting a 135'Z $\frac{1}{2}$ " record in the discus. Allen won first in the mile and the high jump.

The mile relay, consisting of Dale Johnson, Curtis Jackson, Jasper Davis, and Lanny Pepper, was an important boost to the freshman track team.

Robert Duncan is the shot-put competitor for the sophomore division.

Last year's state finalist, Pat Tart, practices the high jump in preparation for the district meet where he broke all records with a leap of 6'8".

Skillful AHS linksmen bring home outstanding honors

The Athens golf team opened their season with a third place in the Mabank Invitational Golf Tourney at Cedar Creek. Billy Pierot, with one over par, was runner up for medalist honors. In the Kemp Invitational, the linksmen finished fifth in a field of ten with a team score of 359. The Athens Invitational followed, where the Hornets placed second, with Billy Pierot taking medalist honors. Terrell repeated as first place winners. In a match against Terrell on April 7, the Athens golfers fell to Terrell by 28 strokes. Pierot led the team with a 74, followed by Steve Grant with 86, Gordon Forester with 95, Terry Jackson with 96, and David Maddox with 98. In the District Meet Athens came in sixth with a total of 685 points, and Pierot moved to regional competition after winning medalist honors on the last hole with a score of 153 points.

Billy Pierot, District medalist and Athens' leading scorer, concentrates on making his putt.

Excellent performances exemplified by able netters

The AHS tennis team played several matches before district. Ken Callarman and John Frentress won 8-5 in Kaufman, as Nan Forester and Teresa Godwin took a 6-0, 6-0 match. Nan also won a singles match 10-2. Against Eustace, Joey White won two matches, while the doubles team of Tim Sublett and David Rhoades did the same. Frentress and Callarman also took one there. In girls competition, Nan and Teresa took an 8-2 pro set over Eustace, preceding an 8-2 win over the HCJC girls' team. In district competition at Lancaster, three doubles teams won their two opening day matches. In the second day of competition, freshmen Connie Lemons and Shannon West, entered in the senior division, were eliminated by Waxahachie in the quarterfinals; also bowing in the quarterfinals were Sublett and Rhoades, who were knocked out by Duncanville 6-2, 6-3. Teresa and Nan advanced to semifinals before losing to Terrell 4-6, 6-1, and 3-6.

Vibrant squad sustains Hornets

Hornet Cheerleaders were largely responsible for drawing excited cheers from loyal supporters at athletic events. They spent long hours painting signs and hanging them in the hallways, preparing weekly pep rallies in the gym and selling streamers to the student body. The six-member squad also received Excellent ratings at the SMU Summer Cheerleading Camp.

For the first time, this year's sophomore and junior cheerleaders were chosen by visiting judges on the basis of appearance, performance and voice. Seniors had already been cheerleaders from the previous year and therefore did not try out again. In the future, sophomores, juniors and seniors will try out each year with the cheerleader getting the highest score to serve as head cheerleader.

Excellent twirlers show teamwork

The 1971-72 Pride of the Hornets Front Line contributed greatly to all band activities. Senior Division Champs of Twirling at the HCJC Band Festival the past three years, the girls performed halftime entertainment at football games and at pep rallies. Selling victory links, decorating the houses of football players and entertaining in the Band Follies were just a few of the Front Line's enthusiastic tasks.

Players choose Pam as Football Sweetheart 1971-72

Senior cheerleader Pam Mills was named Football Sweetheart for 1971-72. Presented during pre-game ceremonies, she was selected from four other nominees. A two year member of NHS, Pam was co-editor of the 1972 Athenian. She served as a two year member of FTA and was a Junior Usher. Among her many hobbies, she includes dancing and bicycle riding.

Senior majorette Vicki Anderson was chosen as a class favorite her freshman and junior years. She served as a Junior Usher and was sports co-editor of the Athenian two years. A three year member of FTA, she lists reading and creative writing as her favorite pastimes.

Junior cheerleader Nan Forester served as Student Council secretary her junior year. She was a member of FTA, FHA, and the Thespian Club. As an avid tennis player, she enjoys swimming and dancing.

Freshman Julie Allbright was a member of the Stinger Band and also a member of FHA. She was chosen as FFA Homecoming Queen nominee and was a sweetheart of that organization. Her hobbies include playing the piano, reading and dancing.

Senior Martha Franks was chosen as a Homecoming Queen nominee of the Choral Club. Among her many hobbies, she enjoys sewing, dancing and reading.

Student Council performs duties

One of the main projects of the 1971-72 Student Council was taking part in the Athens Improvement and Beautification Association during clean-up week. Members also gave pregame invocations at all home football games.

In November, David Burgaym, JoAnne Burnett, Aubrey Jones and Gary Townley attended a Student Council Workshop at HCJC sponsored by the Student Senate.

Senior band exerts efforts, achieves immense success

Ninety sophomore, junior, and senior members, under the direction of Mr. Tommy Downing, comprised the AHS Pride of the Hornets Band. In November the group rated a Second Division in the UIL marching contest. Second Division was also taken at Kilgore based on marching, playing and sighting reading. The band also participated in the HCJC Band Festival, the East Texas State Fair and the State Fair at Dallas.

Band Follies in the spring provided funds for senior jackets, music supplies and a Christmas Party.

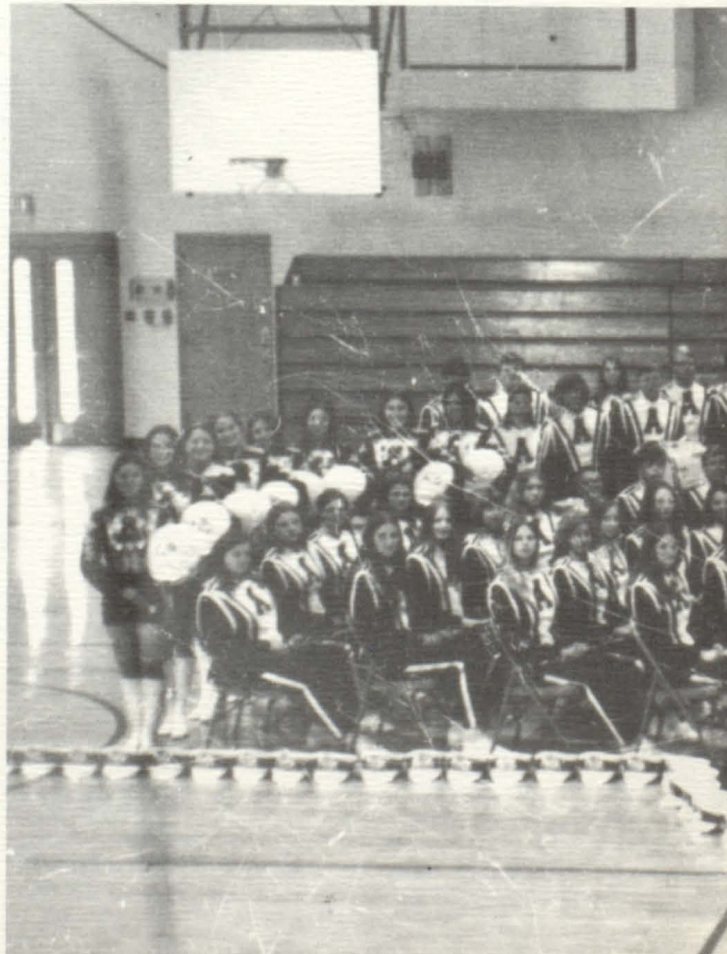

Seniors Ginger Hoffman and Lorenz Stover were named Mr. and Miss Pride of the Hornets for their outstanding contributions to the organization.

Officers of the band were Lorenz Stover, president; Connie Hansen, vice president; Cindy Green, secretary; and Thelma Roberts, reporter.

The AHS Band practice their number at dress rehearsal for the Band follies.

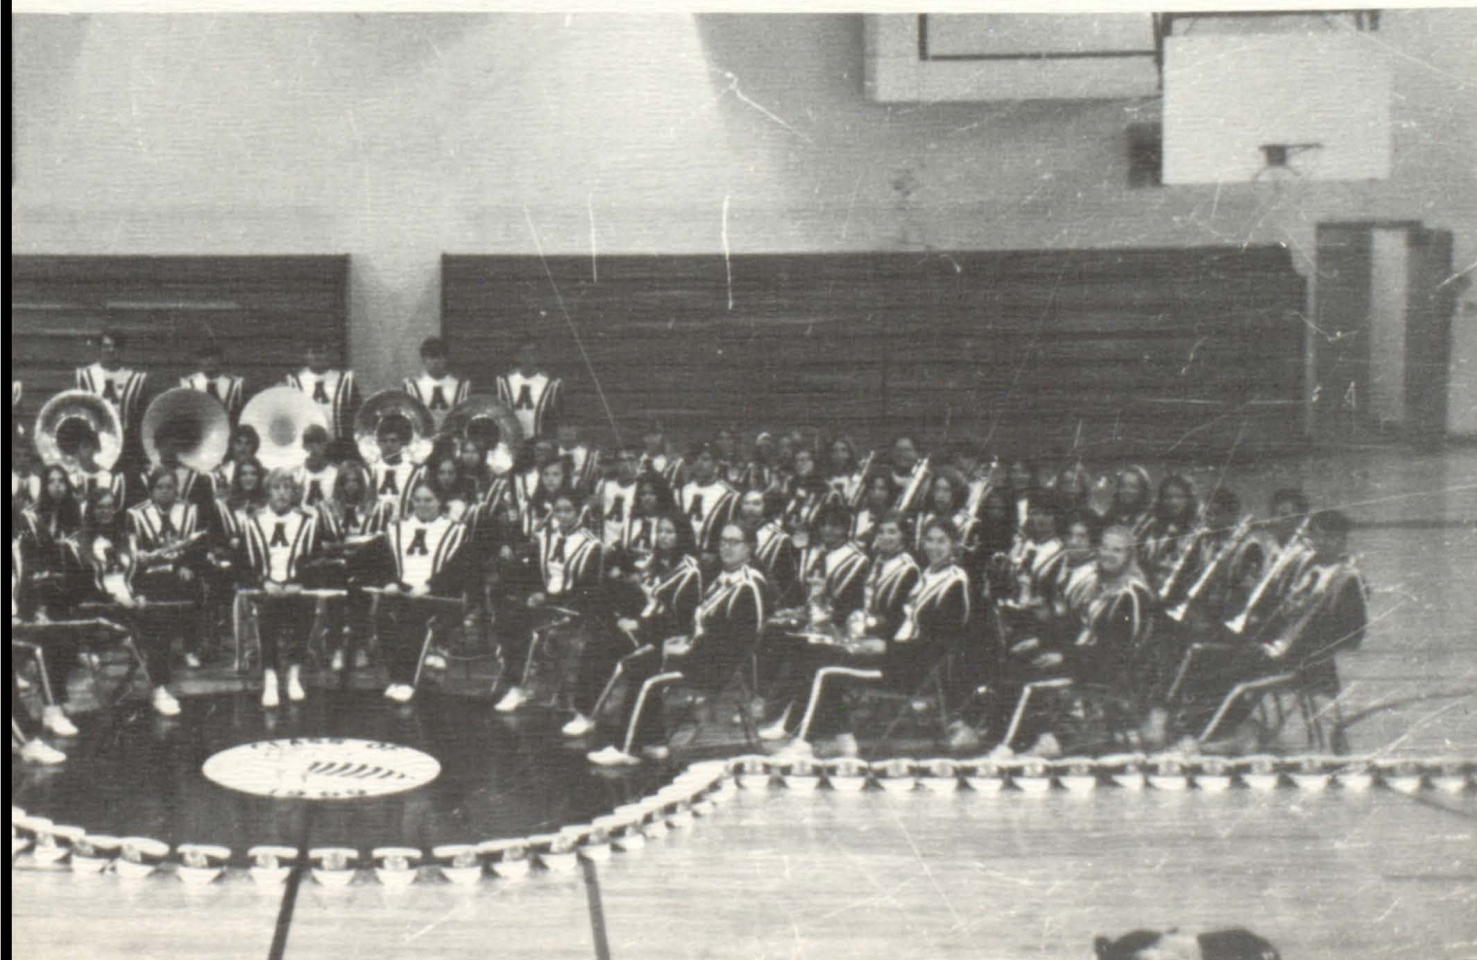

Band members chose senior Lorenz Stover and Ginger Hoffman as Mr. and Miss Pride of the Hornets for 71-72.

The 1971-72 Front Line includes Kyle Barton; Suzette Ramsey; Sheri Jones; Vicki Anderson; Carol Lemons, Drum Major; Sally McCaleb; Sherry Callarman, Majorette; and Kim Mills.

Band members are (front row) Gail Kirkwood, Thelma Roberst, Kathleen Warren, Gary Barton, Diania Harris, Jeana Middlebrooks, Tina Miller, Cynthia Hamilton, (second row) Susan Pirtle, Rachal LaFon, Janine Barlow, Sandra Chipley, Judy Cole, Judi Andrews, Gail Fladd, Anita Rasco, Linda Owen, Mandy Reirson, Pam Calhoun, Pam Cox, Gayle Martin, Janet Register, Peggy Cody, Connie Hanson, (third row) Leesa Rittenhouse, Ginger Guiou, Paula Clanton, Joni Heflin, Alton Hargrave, Tommy Smith, Joey White, David West, Mark Smith, Dwain Killingsworth, Fred Assmussen, Dennis Rittenhouse, Joey Spann, Joyce Barlow, Ricky Rasco, Andy Shelton, Darrell Cox, Diane Sanders, Debbie Gross, Marsha Hunter, Cindy Green, Nan Johnson, Vikki Watson, Ginger Hoffman, (fourth row) Celia Sholars, Lynn Lewis, Suzan Beaird, Tina Fisher, John Frentress, Diane Lane, Judy Morris, Jana White, Cindy Pirtle, Virginia Hamilton, Monte Parker, Annette Till, Debbie Trammell, Catherine West, Sandra Williams, Richard Lambert, Lorenz Stover, Franklin Rasco, (fifth row) John Miller, Sharon Johnson, Gary Reeves, Jamie Beard, Gi Harris, John McGee, Britt Price, Tony Henriques, Larry Smith, Dale Hammons, Roy Sparks, and Larry Sanders. Majorettes are Kim Mills, Sherry Callarmen, Carol Lemons, Sally McCaleb, Kyle Barton, Vicki Anderson, Sheri Jones, and Doran Pelham.

Ginger Guiou and Doran Pelham enjoy a ferris wheel ride on the Midway of the State Fair.

Homecoming festivities included an all-school parade to the square and back. Leading off the afternoon parade is the 90-piece Pride of the Hornets Band.

Sally McCaleb, Thelma Roberts and others clutch blankets as well as instruments on a cold night in Mexia.

Mr. Charlie Fields takes a last minute head count before leaving for Dallas.

Concert band strives toward showmanship, seniority

The Concert Band practices for the annual HCJC Band Festival held in the Spring.

The Freshman concert band is mainly a training band for the symphonic band.

The 70-member group participated in the HCJC band festival and assisted in the production of the Band Follies. Their share of the proceeds went toward musical supplies.

In April, auditions for the symphonic band were held. Thirty-six were selected on their prepared pieces, sightreading, tone quality, musicianship, scales and technique.

Mr. Tommy Downing directs the Concert band.

Spirited Hornettes build enthusiasm for Hornet teams

Hornette members sing the fight song at the pep rally following the Homecoming downtown parade.

An enthusiastic group of girls known as Hornettes kept spirit alive by backing Hornet athletic teams in all types of competition. During hot summer months before school, the girls practiced to perfect their marching and pom-pom routines.

In August the group held a bake sale with profits contributing to the expense of cleaning uniforms. Some Hornettes also volunteered to sell Booster Club memberships to local Athens businessmen.

Officers for the year were Mary Miles, senior captain; Cindy Renfro, senior lieutenant; Nancy Worsham, junior lieutenant; and Tina Sanders, sophomore lieutenant. Sponsor was Mrs. Peggy Jackson.

Hornette members Theresa Hendricks, Linda Massey, Mary Miles, and Charlotte Winn decorate the Hornette float entry before the Homecoming Parade.

Hornette members perform a pom-pom routine as they march around the courthouse square in the downtown Homecoming parade.

Led by their officers, Hornettes march in file off the school campus at the beginning of the Homecoming parade.

Excited Hornettes cheer the football team at the beginning of an afternoon pep rally.

Hornette members provide enthusiasm at one of many pep rallies held in the gym.

Hornette Homecoming Queen nominee Debra Massey and escort Leslie Langley ride in the Hornette float entry.

FTA members — striving to be teachers of tomorrow

FTA members Vikki Watson, Ginger Hoffman, John Thomas Magee, and Linda Owen prepare table centerpieces for the FTA Valentine Tea.

During the year of 1971-72 the Mrs. D. T. Broom Chapter of Future Teachers of America, consisting of 123 members, was one of the most outstanding groups in the state.

In December FTA members proclaimed a Teacher Appreciation Day, and in March, a Custodian Appreciation Day.

The annual FTA Valentine Tea honoring teachers was held in February with refreshments served to the entire faculty.

The club captured a trophy at the state convention for their project of the year, "Operation Enthusiasm." Attending the state convention were Debbie Hatton, Judy Cole, Carol Lemons, Gail Kirkwood and Donnie Lewis, who served as a member of the state Ethic's Committee.

FTA members served as speakers for Service Clubs, and conducted drug clinics to adult groups on numerous occasions.

Practice teaching day was in April, and the FTA banquet was held in May with the theme, "Teachers Around the World."

Selected members also traveled to Robert E. Lee High School, Tyler, and Skyline High School, Dallas, to present ways to make a better FTA chapter.

Officers for the year were Donnie Lewis, president; Carol Lemons, vice president; Judy Cole, corresponding secretary; Kathleen Warren, financial secretary; Janet Regester, recording secretary; Debbie Hatton, parliamentarian; and Gail Kirkwood, historian. Sponsor was Mrs. LaMoine Young.

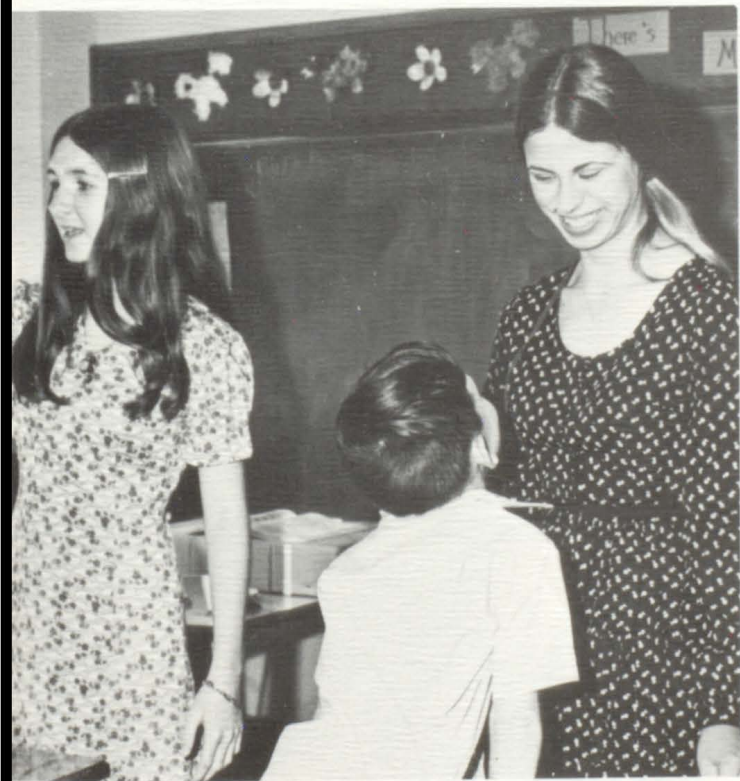

Honored teachers relax and enjoy refreshments served by FTA members at the Valentine Tea.

Mrs. LaMoine Young introduces Denise Hooser to Miss Dora Rose at the FTA Tea.

FTA Vice President Carol Lemons greets Mr. John Glover in the receiving line at the annual FTA Tea.

Susan Pirtle gives special attention to one music student at South Athens, while Ardith Talton instructs other children of the class.

Seniors Rita Knight and Teresa Godwin serve teachers at the Valentine Tea.

FHA members develop skills for domestic future

Linda Pirtle, Aldith Talton, and Connie Lemons organize materials for their campaign against Muscular Dystrophy.

For the first time, the Future Homemakers of America organization was divided into three individual chapters at AHS.

FHA Chapter I trick-or-treated for Unicef and collected canned goods for needy families as their special projects. Homecoming nominee Lawren Royall rode on the float entered by this chapter. Chapter I accompanied Chapter II and III to the area VIII FHA meeting in Waco in March.

Officers were Connie Lemons, president; Martha Lewis, vice president; Brenda Warren, secretary; Sherri Lawson, reporter; Cindy Williams, historian. Sponsor was Mrs. Barbara Stone.

FHA Chapter II joined Young Homemakers of Texas, an adult group, in singing Christmas carols along Yule trail. At a tea in February, Mrs. LaMoine Young spoke to the members on careers, and in April the group went to Six Flags. They also sponsored a teachers' appreciation day. Sheryl Brister was Chapter II's Homecoming nominee. Mrs. Johnnie Hill directed the club, and each of her classes had its own officers.

Chapter III's special Christmas project was sending gifts to Rusk State Hospital. Also in December members attended a Christmas party at the home of sponsor Mrs. Linda Cook. Members exchanged "white elephant" gifts. In January Chapter III attended the "Up With People" concert in Tyler.

Officers were Rhonda Womack, president; Teresa Godwin, vice president; Dianne Youngblood, Secretary; Doran Pelham, treasurer; Judy Swope, reporter; Cathi Carlile, historian.

Pam Hanson sets the table while others prepare the meal.

Brenda Snowden models the garment she made at the Spring Fashion Show given by the Homemaking classes.

Mr. James Kittles speaks to Mrs. Cook's Consumer Education Class on Civil law and enforcement.

Cindy Buford and Linda Marshall prepare a meal to be served to their class.

Kathy Vick, Diana Smith and Brenda Miller bathe a baby as part of their lesson in Child Care and Development.

David Burgamy takes a rough ride on one of the donkeys at the Donkey Basketball Game sponsored by the Key Club.

Mart Bennett creates a spectacle in class with his clothing attire and revolting sardine smell.

Club's activities help community

Key Club International, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, is a service organization seeking to improve school and community life.

Each year new members are initiated by wearing women's clothing and taking orders from Key Club officers. In the traditional "Miss Key Club" Contest, Danny Hainline claimed that cherished post.

Money-making project for the year was a Donkey Basketball game. Proceeds contributed to a new trophy case for the gym.

Key Club members solicited donations downtown for the Cystic Fibrosis Fund.

Officers for the year were David Burgamy, president; David McMichael, first vice president; Mark Wimberly, second vice president; Don Bennett, secretary; and Ken Callarman, treasurer.

Roger Morgan, David Lawson and Stanley Love perform a ballet routine at the 1972 Band Follies.

Future Farmers demonstrate farming techniques, skills

Seniors Ricky Harris and Hank Douglas add the finishing touches to a model calf to be used for roping practice.

Future Farmers of America strove to improve farming and agricultural skills, each member having a six-months' production project to complete.

In September Bill Kugle, Joe Harris and Johnny Cox showed calves at the East Texas Fair, returning with two first prizes. Members sold fruit before Christmas to finance the Parent-Son Banquet at the end of the year, and in March six members participated in a Live-stock Judging Contest in Houston. Members also attended a Public Speaking Contest at HCJC in April.

Junior and senior students enrolled in the Ag Co-op program worked at Agriculture-related jobs in ranching, canning and lumber.

Officers for the year were Joey Spann, president; Joe Harris, vice president; Stanley Smith, secretary; Roger Laurence, reporter; David Brown, sentinel; Gil Hargrave, treasurer; Mr. Gary Holiman and Mr. Doyle Loper were sponsors.

Monte Regester serves himself at the FFA Open House for parents while Clay Thompkins, David Brown, Jackie Kirkwood and Brad Burch wait their turns.

Joe Fields works on one of his projects, part of a stand for shoeing horses.

Ambitious AHS Library Club members volunteer services

Members of the AHS Library Club devoted many hours in the library organizing, shelving, numbering, repairing and ordering books.

In November, homecoming nominee Peggy Cody represented the Club in the parade, riding on the float made by the members of the club. In January the club met to select delegates to go to the annual state convention in Arlington. Delegates Curtis Pickle, John Thomas Magee, Jenni Bullock, Kathleen Warren, and Janet Regester were chosen on the basis of merits earned during the year.

Members sold stationery as a money-making project to support the club's activities and trips.

Officers for the year were Curtis Pickle, president; John Thomas Magee, vice president; Jenni Bullock, secretary; Suzan Beard, treasurer; and Clara Sherman, reporter. Sponsor was Mrs. Martha Vermillion.

Senior Willie Baxter checks in books as one of her duties as a Library Club member.

Library assistant Clara Sherman locates a book requested by a student.

Five delegates chosen to attend the district meeting with Mrs. Martha Vermillion are Janet Regester, Jenni Bullock, John Thomas Magee, Kathleen Warren, and Curtis Pickle.

OEA students provided with important business skills

Senior Diane Cummings, an office assistant at the Medical Arts Clinic, writes out forms for incoming patients.

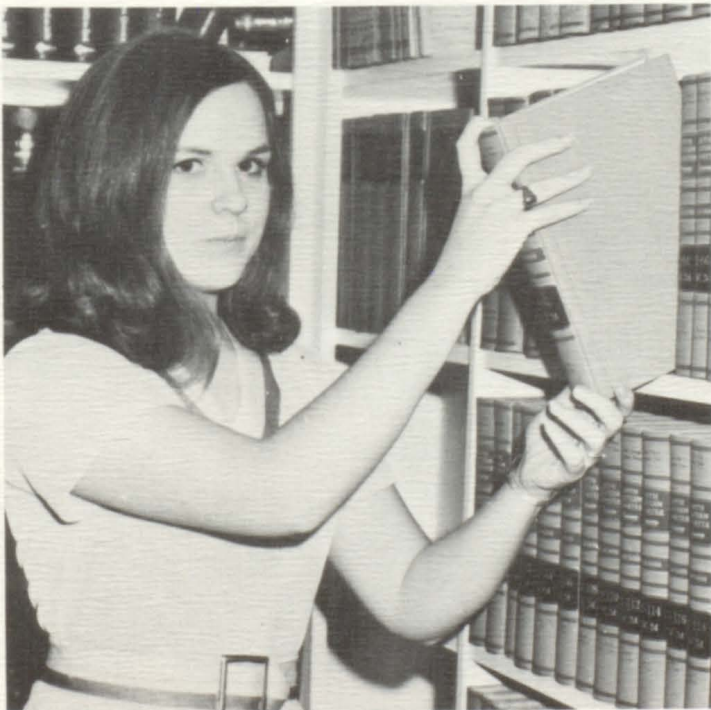

Office Education Association is a cooperative program through which the school and Athens business firms train students for office work. OEA students learned the use of calculators, transcribing machines, different styles of typewriters, electric adding machines and others.

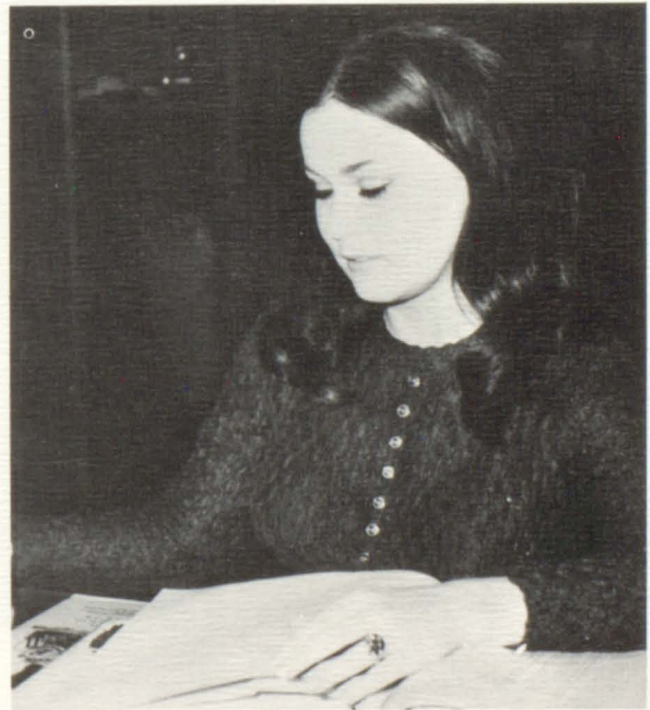

Students were placed in actual business offices in training positions as employees and were paid wages similar to other beginning workers.

Selection for the program was based on the students' interests, physical and mental competence, and other qualities vital for employment.

Officers for the year were Joann Burnett, president; Thelma Roberts, vice president; Sherry Callarman, treasurer; Mary Miles, secretary; Fred Asmussen, sergeant at arms; and Carol Lemons, parliamentarian.

Sharon Sanders shelves books in the office library of Fields, Fields, and Hardee.

Joann Brown calculates expenditures for Mr. Frank Dorsey at the Athens Canning Company.

HECE teaches participants skills, reveals opportunities

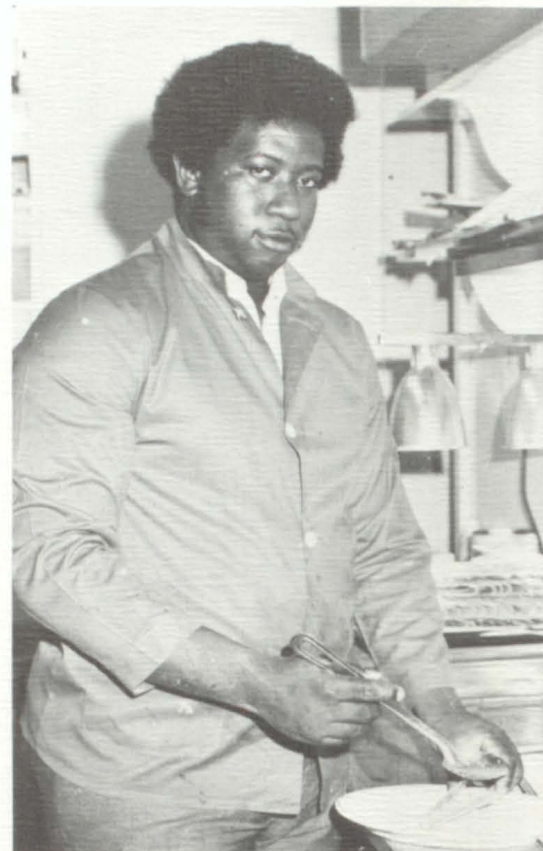

Lavonne Baggett serves children at mealtime at McAnear's Nursery.

Students in Home Economics Cooperative Education participate in jobs as well as classroom activities. This year's group worked at day nurseries caring for small children, at local supermarkets, hospitals, and privately-owned businesses. Some worked in the mornings, while others were employed after noon, each spending approximately four hours per day on the job.

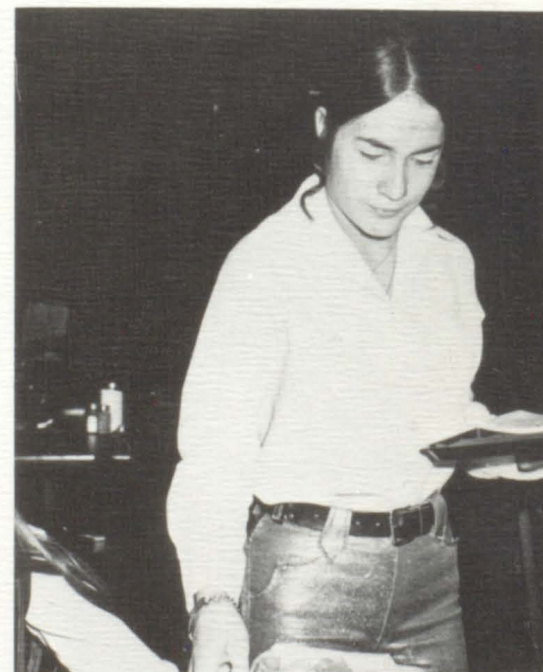

Officers were Robert Bryant, president; Rene Pettiette, vice president; Pat Shoemaker, secretary; and Jean McClain, treasurer. Sponsor was Mrs. Glenna White.

William Sanders prepares tacos at El Charrito.

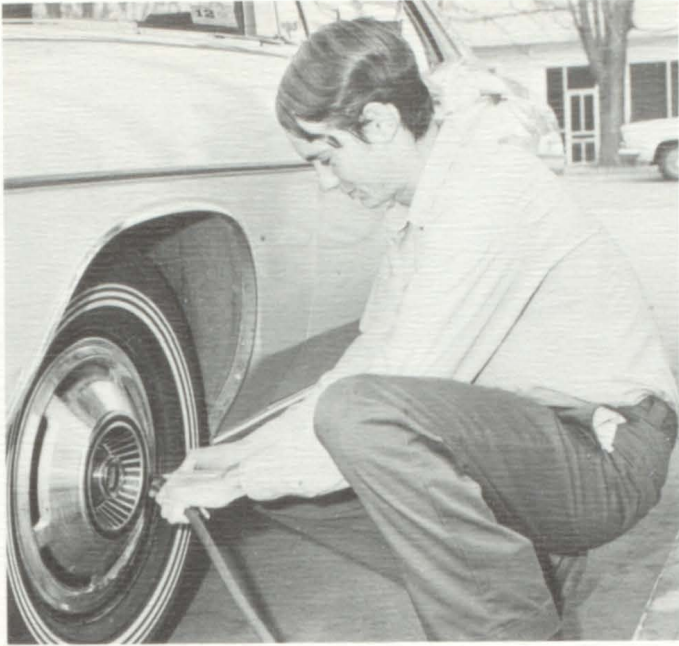

Patti Brasher provides music for singing children at Collier's Kindergarten.

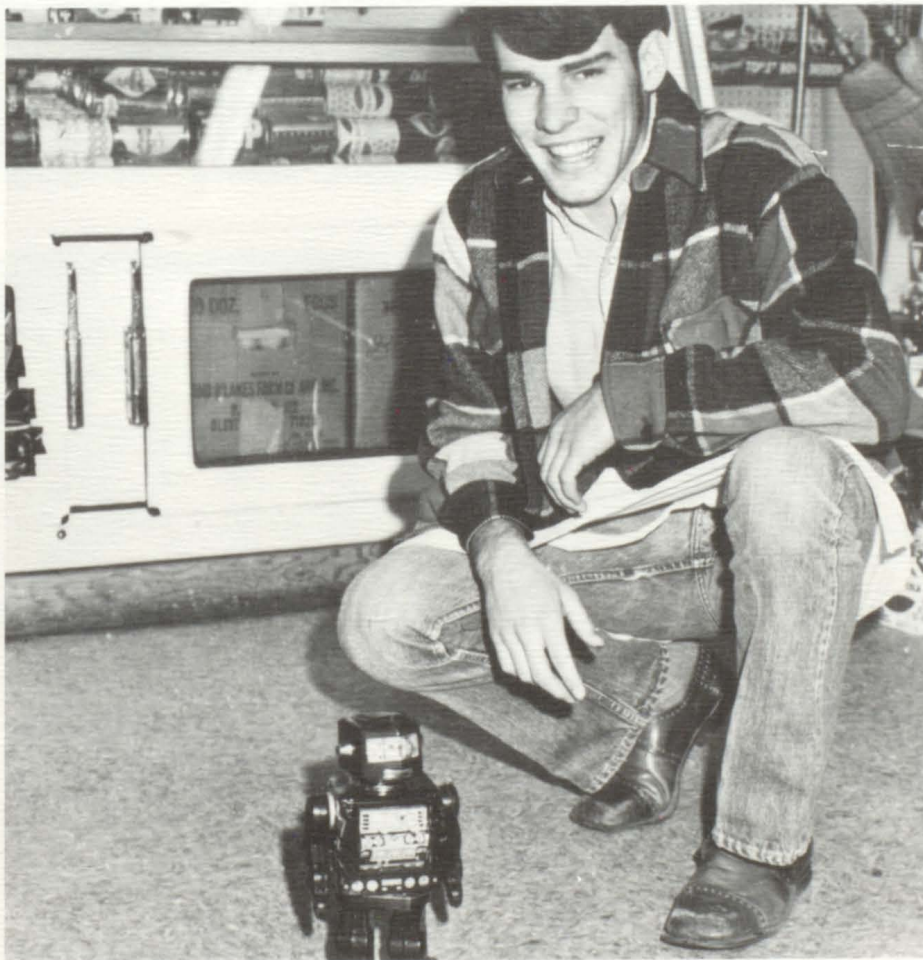

Elizabeth Love serves chips to an El Charrito customer.

Georgia Powell prepares a sales receipt for a customer at Taylors Pharmacy.

Randy Lambright "tests" Christmas toys at Pillow's E-Z Mart.

Deca works for tomorrow's world

February 5, Deca members traveled to Dallas for an Area II Leadership Conference, and in March several delegates were sent to San Antonio for the State Leadership Conference. At both meetings the students participated in contests that included demonstrations, business speaking and job interviews.

DE Sweetheart, Linda Marshall was elected in the spring.

Vica club members strive for goals in auto mechanics

Jerry Lauderdale makes repairs on a car donated by Davis Hackley Motor Co. The car will later be sold and profits used to buy new machinery for the shop.

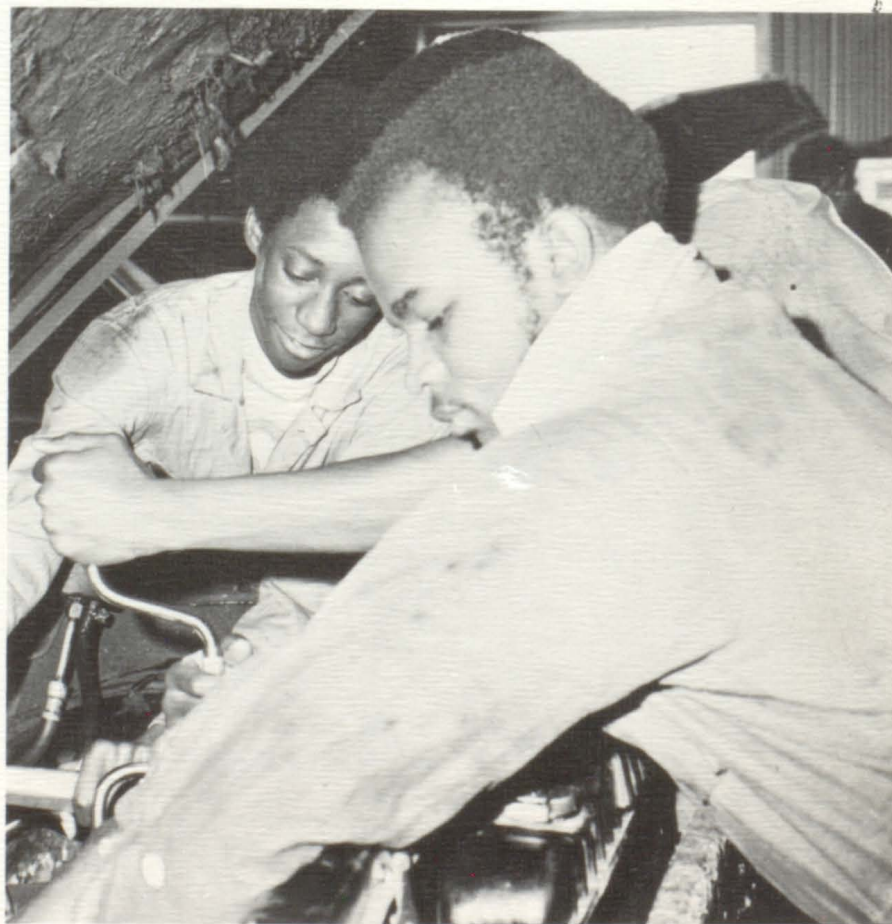

Chapter 532 of VICA is an extension of the Auto Mechanics program. Officers attended October in-service training in Greenville, and several members made a field trip to Kelly Springfield to observe the manufacture of tires. In November members began what has become a traditional project — the sale of jewelry with profits used to provide Christmas dinner for a needy family. Local competition began in the spring to select two boys to compete in the area skill-speed contest.

Officers were Tommy Kinabrew, president; Thomas Glasgow, vice president; Jesse Skinner, secretary; Larry Warrick, treasurer; Curtis Barnett, reporter; John Payne, parliamentarian; Tony McLemore, sergeant at arms; and Crawford Frizel, chaplain. Mr. Bob Montgomery was sponsor.

Installing a radiator hose is just one of the many skills Jesse Skinner has acquired in his afternoon mechanics class.

Felix Brookins, Don Redic, and Felton Dewberry use team work to get several parts repaired at once.

Employed as lab technician assistant at Memorial Hospital, Evelyn Houston loads pipettes to be washed.

Mr. Gilbert Perry appears to be sitting on air as he experiments with an English hunting cane. The stick actually has a leather seat on top.

Senior Kay Curtis assists Dr. Bob P. Foster as he cleans the teeth of a patient. Kay's other duties include setting up trays and sterilizing instruments.

ICT reveals new skills for future

Students of Industrial Cooperative Training, under the direction of Mr. Gilbert Perry, held jobs in medical offices, local department stores, and factories. Officers travelled to Greenville in November for a district meeting and to Dallas in April for the statewide convention.

The year's officers were Charles Lohrke, president; Carl Cure, vice president; Evelyn Houston, secretary; Marta Pickens, treasurer; Jimmy Miller, reporter; Gordon Forrester, parliamentarian; Sammy McMahon, sergeant at arms.

Para-Med leads Boy Scout Post

Learning about health careers through speakers and field trips was the purpose of the Para-Medical Club. Para-Med sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanders and members of the mother club, the Women's Auxiliary to the Henderson County Medical Society.

To begin the club year for Para-Med, an affiliate of Texas Association of Careers in Health, sponsor Mrs. Robbie Pierson hosted an informal coke party at her Lake Athens home, October 4. On November 1 the club toured the Henderson County Memorial Hospital pharmacy with pharmacist Jerry Pugh, and hosting the annual Para-Med Christmas party on December 15 was sponsor Mrs. Mary Lynn Smith. Para-Med's first major field trip was on February 2 when members visited Rusk State Hospital. Preparing for the April Cancer Drive in March, members helped unpack information at chairman Pat Gatlin's home. Also in March five members attended the TACH Workshop in Tyler. The Boy Scouts of America organized Explorer Post 343 on Para-Medical fields, March 8, so members voted in April to dissolve the AHS Para-Med Club and move their club into Exploring. The last Para-Med field trip was to Callier's Hearing and Speech Center and TWU School of Nursing, Dallas, on April 25.

Serving as officers were Rhonda Pagitt, president; Donnie Lewis, vice president; Colleen Doolin, secretary; and Aubrey Jones, treasurer.

Leaving for their last club field trip to Dallas are Mrs. Shirley Sanders, Rhonda Pagitt, Pam Cox, Donnie Lewis, Diane Sanders, Aubrey Jones, Mrs. Robbie Pierson, Colleen Doolin and Mrs. Patsy Young.

Dr. John Young explains aspects of his radiology profession to Boy Scout Post 343 members Steve McElhany and Peggy Cody and advisors Mrs. Robbie Pierson and Mrs. Shirley Sanders.

Choral Club provides entertainment for school, public

Choir members are (front row) Nancy Solomon, Jeniece Ervin, Alfreda Criner, Cindy Renfro, Debra Massey, Rohna Holland, Charles Lynch, Helen Brookins, Gloria Rhinehart, (second row) Linda Massey, Evelyn Houston, Vera Johnson, Gracia Hill, Teresa Hendricks, Loretta Henderson, Emma Johnson, Willie Baxter, Brenda Cumby, (back row) Martha Franks, Linda Wooderts, Belinda Langley, Terry Crayton, Ronald Johnson, Curtis Ross, Rayfell Staples, Edward Warren, Marsha Royall, Clara Sherman, and Tawana Royall.

Throughout the year, singing entertainment for the student body was provided by the Choral Club. At Christmas, the choir sang a medley of Christmas carols at a special holiday assembly and presented a special concert in the spring. Musical entertainment was also provided for the Kiwanis Club and for the elderly residents of Athens nursing homes.

Officers for the year were Charles Lynch, president; Cindy Renfro, vice president; Debra Massey, secretary; Martha Franks, treasurer; and Vera Johnson, reporter. Sponsor was Mr. John Glover.

Choral Club members decorate a car for their Homecoming Queen nominee, senior Martha Franks.

Mr. Glover provides piano accompaniment for daily rehearsals.

Explorers acquire knowledge in law and government

District Judge Jack Holland, a sponsor of the Law and Government Post, talks with students in the court room.

An Explorer Post was formed in the fall covering two fields: Law Enforcement and Law and Government. Members of these programs met in the Court House to learn about state government and law enforcement. The Law Enforcement group traveled to Austin in April to the Texas Department of Public Safety. The group also practiced shooting at the Athens Police Force Rifle Range and ran a teletype at the Police Station.

Sponsors were Mr. Charlie Fields and Mr. Mack Wallace. Sponsor for the Law and Government program was Judge Jack Holland.

Local attorney Melvin Bateman discusses court procedures at a monthly meeting.

Members awaiting the opening of a meeting are Gerald Rogers, Aubrey Jones, Gary Townley, Jim Wren, and Randy Jones.

Staff members observe pages from the Naval Academy's yearbook while on a tour of TPC's facilities.

While in Austin, students and Mrs. Neta Jett visit the State Capitol.

Making Valentines for Don Bennett was a class activity for the girls. Gi Harris decorates hers with glitter.

Staff enjoys busy year's activities

Besides readying 224 pages for publication, this year's Athenian staff found time for several outings and extracurricular activities.

All twelve junior and senior journalists toured the Dallas plant of Taylor Publishing Company in January. In March eleven students spent a weekend in Austin participating in the Interscholastic League Press Conference on The University of Texas campus. And a wiener roast honored seniors of the group in April.

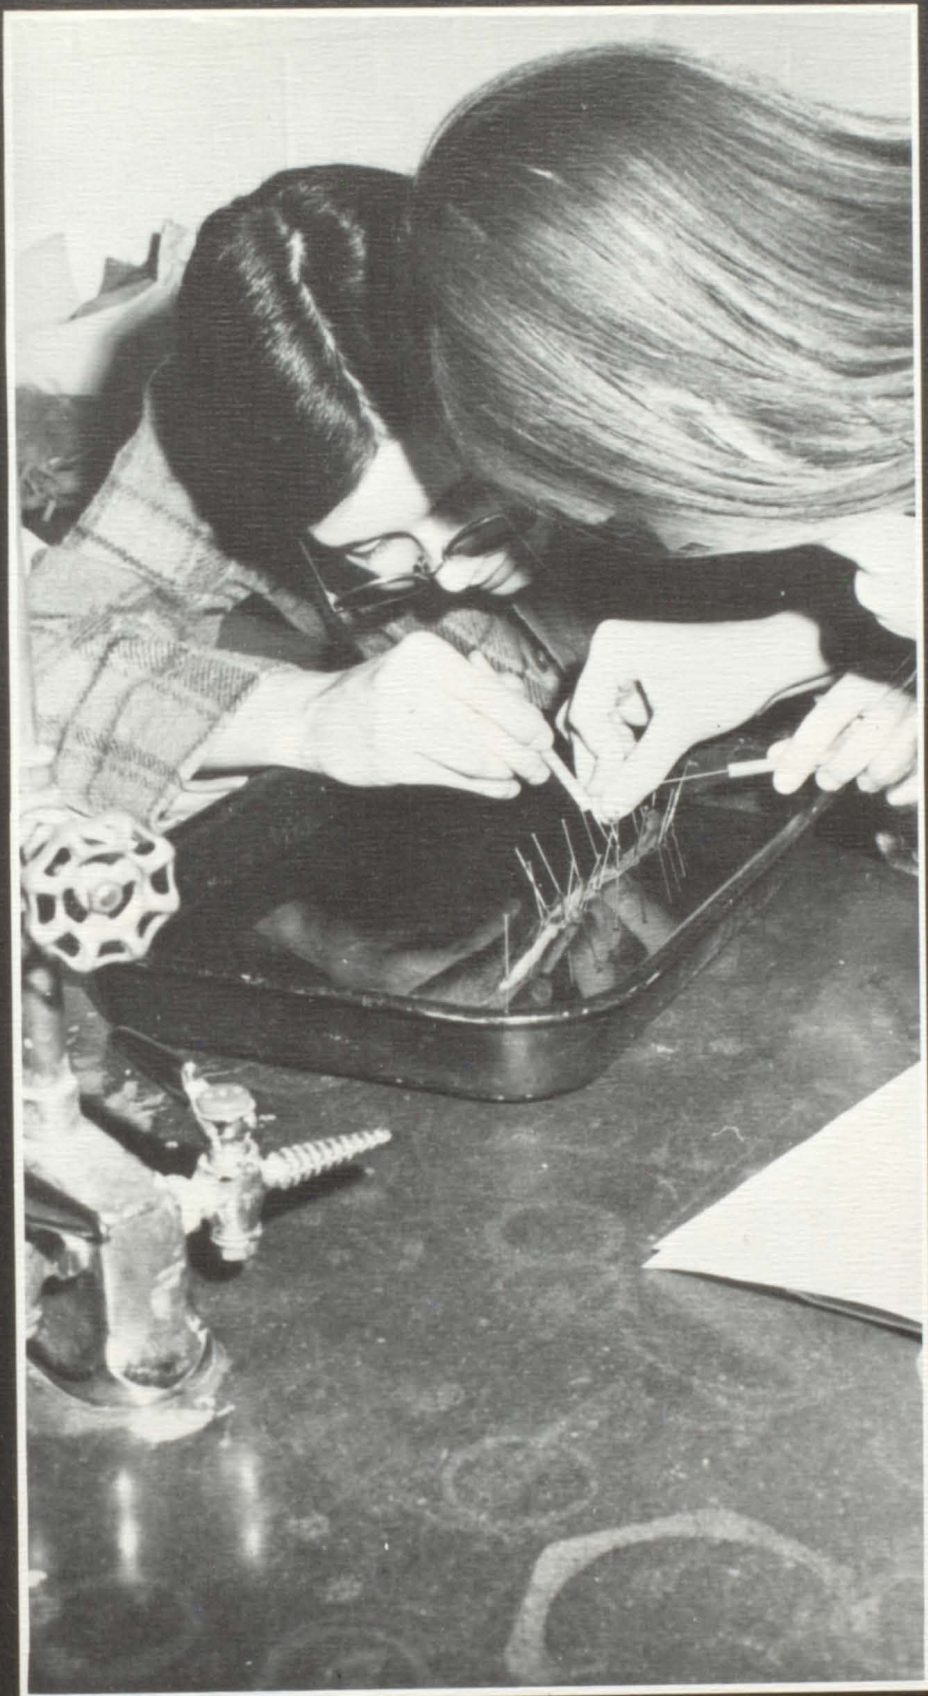

Ice skating climaxed the Dallas trip. Vikki Watson and Brenda Cook lace their skates before testing the ice.

A little fingernail nibbling by Pam Mills eases the nerves.

AHS welcomed Mr. Roland M. Lambert as principal, following Mr. Tom Brown who served for eight years.

Himself a graduate of Athens High School, Mr. Lambert found many changes in the school's size and format but soon felt at home with his new duties.

Mr. Lambert holds the B.A. and M.Ed. from East Texas State University and has twelve years experience in public education. He is a member of Rotary, Phi Delta Kappa, TASSP, NASSP and a lifetime member of TSTA.

Administration

Brown, Fields, Young promote leadership, scholarship

Former AHS principal Tom Brown took over the many duties of Administrative Assistant. Tasks assigned him varied from tax reports and textbook orders to maintenance of concession stands at sports events.

Director of Special Programs for the second year was Mr. Charlie Fields whose main duties were coordination drug education and controlling truancies. He was instrumental in forming the Law Enforcement group of the Explorer Post.

Mrs. LaMoine Young continued to welcome all students as they came to her for advice and encouragement. She was assisted this year by Mrs. Esteleen Lovings.

Plastering sophomore hall with signs
Handling frogs reeking with formaldehyde
Traveling out of town for the first time as a Hornet
Learning to write themes and précis . . . correctly
Constructing that first grueling research theme
Feeling established as an AHS student

Yesterday when I was young . . .

In a volleyball game, Karen Smith gets ready to "bump" the ball as Kathy Vick comes in to help her.

Yesterday when I was young,
The taste of life was sweet as rain
upon my tongue,
I lived by night and shunned the naked light of day
And only now I see how the years ran away.

Yesterday, when I was young.

A senior knows, and knows that he knows;

A junior knows, but knows not what he knows;

A sophomore knows, but knows not that he knows;

A freshman knows not, but knows not that he knows not.

To be a Hornet is to be knowing.
