Homecoming draws festive crowd

The scent of spirit was in the air early in the week of Homecoming with the sale of victory links and senior streamers.

Homecoming festivities began with a blazing bonfire the night before the game. The traditional victory torch, ignited from the bonfire was walked around the town square by senior band members through the night and early Friday morning.

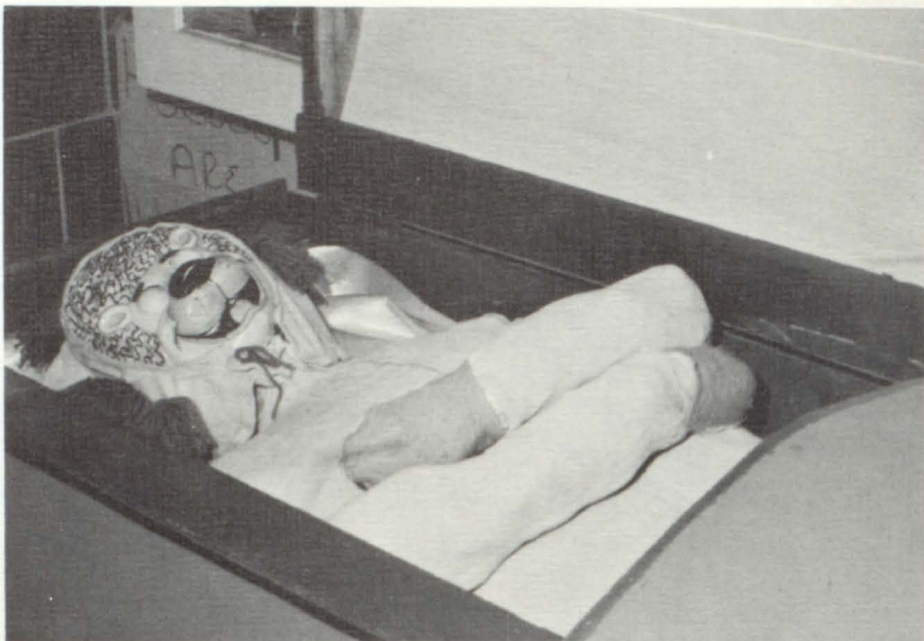

Friday afternoon, masses of Hornet supporters turned out to watch the parade. Five floats and 12 cars, the Pride of the Hornets band, Hornettes, and the Jr. High School band made up the downtown procession. A large flat-bed truck took the Hornet team through streets lined with spectators and halted at the pep rally site.

Pre-game activities included the introduction of senior band members, Hornettes, Hornets, cheerleaders and special recognition was given to Tina Fisher and Karen Brasher for painting "run-through" signs for the games. All graduating classes ending in "three" including last year's 1973 graduates, were also honored.

Halftime saw Junior Lawren Royall announced as Homecoming Queen from 20 other nominees introduced on the field. Miss Royall was representing the Junior class, and her escort was Clyde Wilkins. The senior float took top honors winning the $25 cash first prize.

After a heartbreaking 20-9 loss to Ennis, in a game which the Hornets led until the third quarter, students and exes danced to the fine sounds of the band, "Felix."

A deceased Lion could be viewed in his casket in the entrance hall. Made by the junior class, the display drew many comments and prolonged stares.

Mr. Charles Sanders stoops to light the bonfire for the traditional Thursday night Homecoming pep rally as Bill Kugle watches.

Seniors Doran Pelham and Deanna Milam stuff napkins throughout the night preparing their class float for the Homecoming parade.

Excited majorettes and band members at the bonfire give the sign, "Hornets, number one."

Sophomores work to finish their float for the Homecoming parade. Their efforts won a second place in the competition.

Pep rallies encourage high spirit

With cries of victory and booster signs plastering the halls, the cheerleaders, Hornettes, band members, faculty and entire student body backed the Hornets through success and heartbreaks. The 1973 season was disappointing at times, but the spirit of Athens students burned brightly throughout the season and on into the year.

The Homecoming parade downtown was followed by a pep rally on October 26, the day of the game. Students were released from classes and a large spirited crowd followed the parade to a lot across from Bruce Field where the rally took place.

Senior Hornet Johnny Meredith promises to "get a Tiger" in exchange for support at the Athens- Terrell game.

Freshman supporters clap as the Hornet team marches into the gymnasium to the Fight Song. Freshmen won the spirit stick for the first time at the third pep rally of the year.

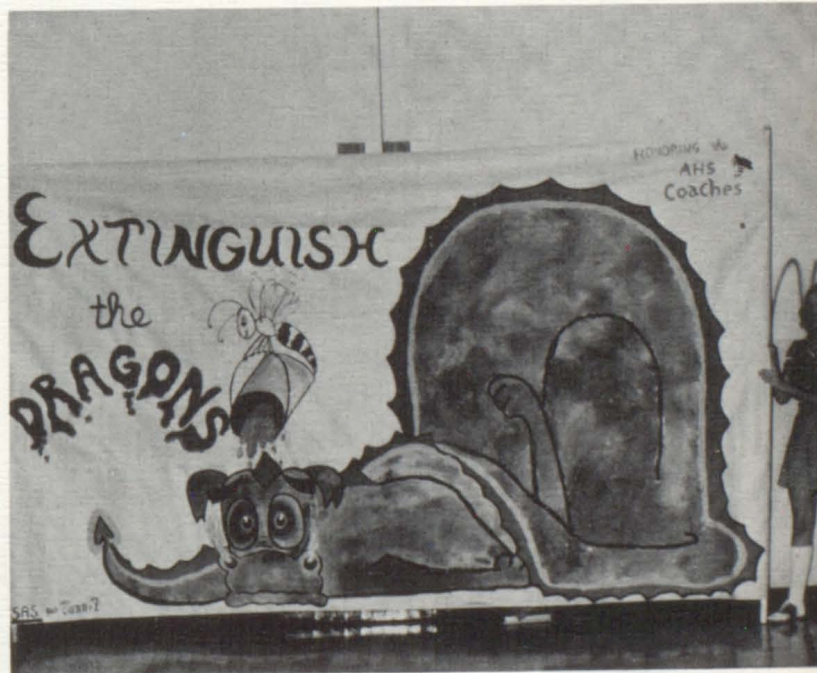

Cheerleaders Kim Woodruff and Julie Owens show off their balancing ability in the yell "Bound for Glory" at the last pep rally of the season.

Following a spirited yell, freshmen Lisa Albright and Kevin Elliot hoist the spirit stick above their heads.

Enthusiastic juniors wave pom-poms and a large Hornet sign in preparation for the game against the Marlin Bulldogs.

Artists Tina Fisher and Karen Brasher show one of many colorful "run-through" signs they painted for football games. This one was displayed in the gym for the Seagoville pep rally.

Student body enjoys escape from classes

Cries of joy and sighs of relief greeted those presenting an assembly to AHS students.

Entertaining and informative programs brought a change of scene to students throughout the year.

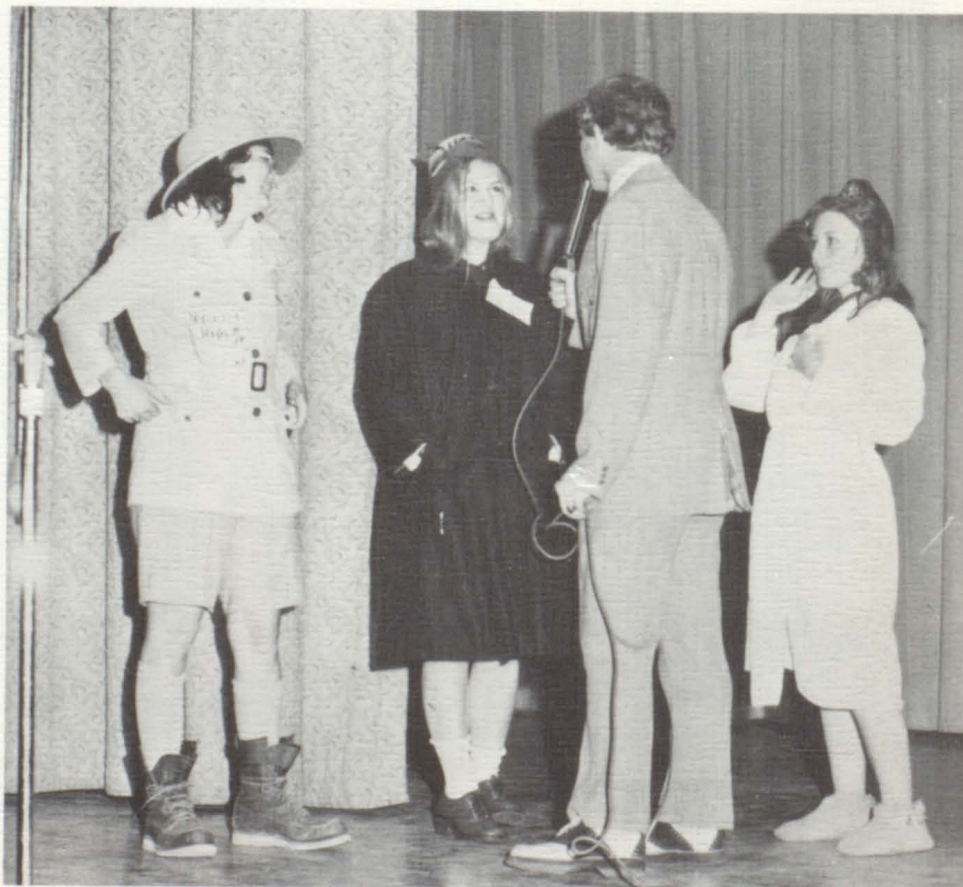

Letter awards, jackets and departmental awards were given to deserving winners at awards assemblies which students congregated to view. Also the National Honor Society gave relief to the masses through their film "Brian's Song" and their induction ceremony.

Other calendared events included the annual Band Follies, a book review by Mrs. Carolyn Dance, sponsored by the Library Club, and the movie "Wait Until Dark" was shown by the Athenian Staff.

Veteran NHS member Sylvia Royall, the Warden of Scholarship, informs the student body of the importance of maintaining a high academic average.

Football letterman Barry Scott receives some assistance from Donna Bullock in donning his new athletic jacket.

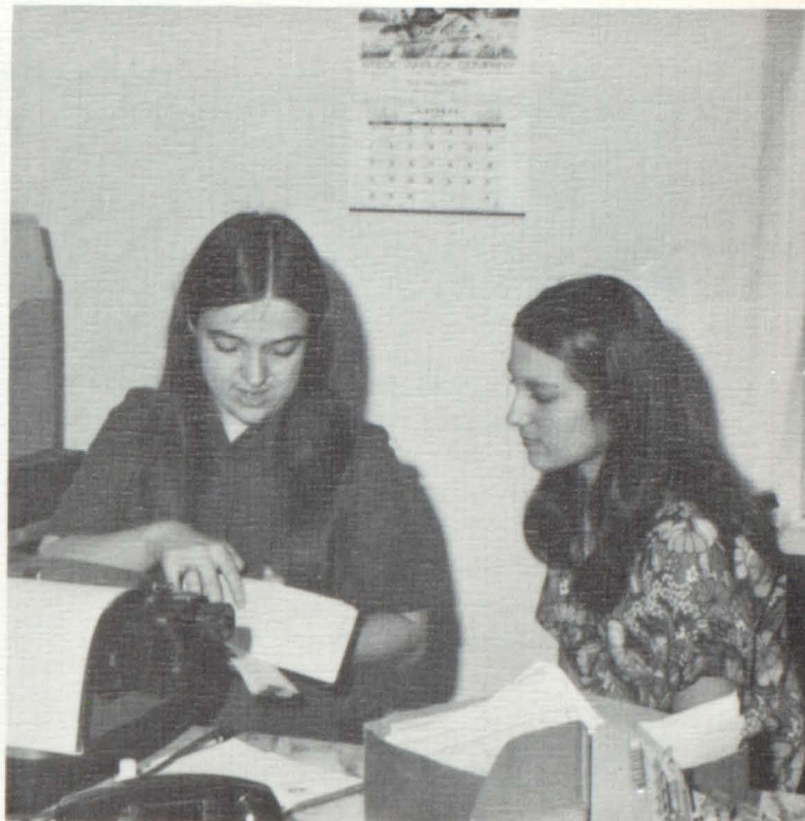

Athenian staffers Suzan Beard, Ginger Guiou, John Magee, and Debbie King spoof "Let's Make A Deal" on their assembly to promote yearbook sales.

Fire Chief Darrell Cox contemplates fighting fires as he checks out the city's equipment.

In her duty as tax assessor collector, Gail Hicks examines voting records kept on file in the court house.

City Administrator Deidra Hollowell and Mayor Joey Spann talk with City Administrator James Leopard about the problems of Athens.

Government widens scope of students

The end of April marked an opportunity for students to become city and county officials for a day. Twenty seniors elected from Mrs. Carolyn Stover's Government classes served in the offices to which they were elected all day long, gaining insight into the business of maintaining county and city governments.

Participants were Jean Oldham, Earl Brooks, Terry Till, Carl Barker, Robert Duncan, Robert Livingston, Johnny Meredith, Joey Spann, Deidra Hollowell, Sam Scott, Darrell Cox, Monico Solomon, Bill Kugle, Gail Hicks, Sylvia Royall, Clay Thompkins, Phillip Fields, Gary Hardin, and Howard Strong.

Oliver Hardy (Martha Lewis) furiously cracks Stan Laurel (Julie Owens) on the head for interrupting her painting session. The Laurel and Hardy pantomime was a favorite of each audience.

Band Follies show talent, versatility

Audiences of the 1974 Band Follies were entertained by a cavalcade of comedies, vocalists, instrumentalists, dance twirls and bands.

Band Follies' 24th production had as its master of ceremonies, AHS biology and math teacher Mr. Charles Sanders.

Comedies included Laurel and Hardy, Edith Ann, Judge Hangin', Hot-Air News, Astronauts, and Baby Huey. Vocal solos, "I Had a King", "American Trilogy", "Vincent", "The Way We Were", and many others were presented along with a number from TOUCH, a group from the First Baptist Church. Rob Eads and David Baker excited audiences with a furious drum duet written by Eads.

Other fine entertainment included several numbers played by the Concert Band and the Stage Band, dance and military twirls from the Pride of the Hornets Front Line and Freshman Front Line, a piano duet, modern dance, tumbling and a rock group.

Five shows, under the directions of Mr. John Glover, were enthusiastically received by all audiences.

Jean Oldham accompanies herself to an unusual folk song "Autumn to May" on the Follies' last presentation.

Sophomore Michael Johnson finds the audience very receptive to his rendition of "Brother Louie." Dale Johnson, Charles Andrews and Joey Bagget accompanied Michael.

Delivering the worldly philosophy of Edith Ann is senior Paula Clanton. The Edith Ann character became popular on the TV show "Laugh-In."

"Dancin' in the Moonlight" serves as a musical backdrop for some fine modern stepping by junior Cindy Wofford.

The AHS Front Line, backed by the "Pride of the Hornets" Band, kicks up their heels to "When the Saints Go Marching In."

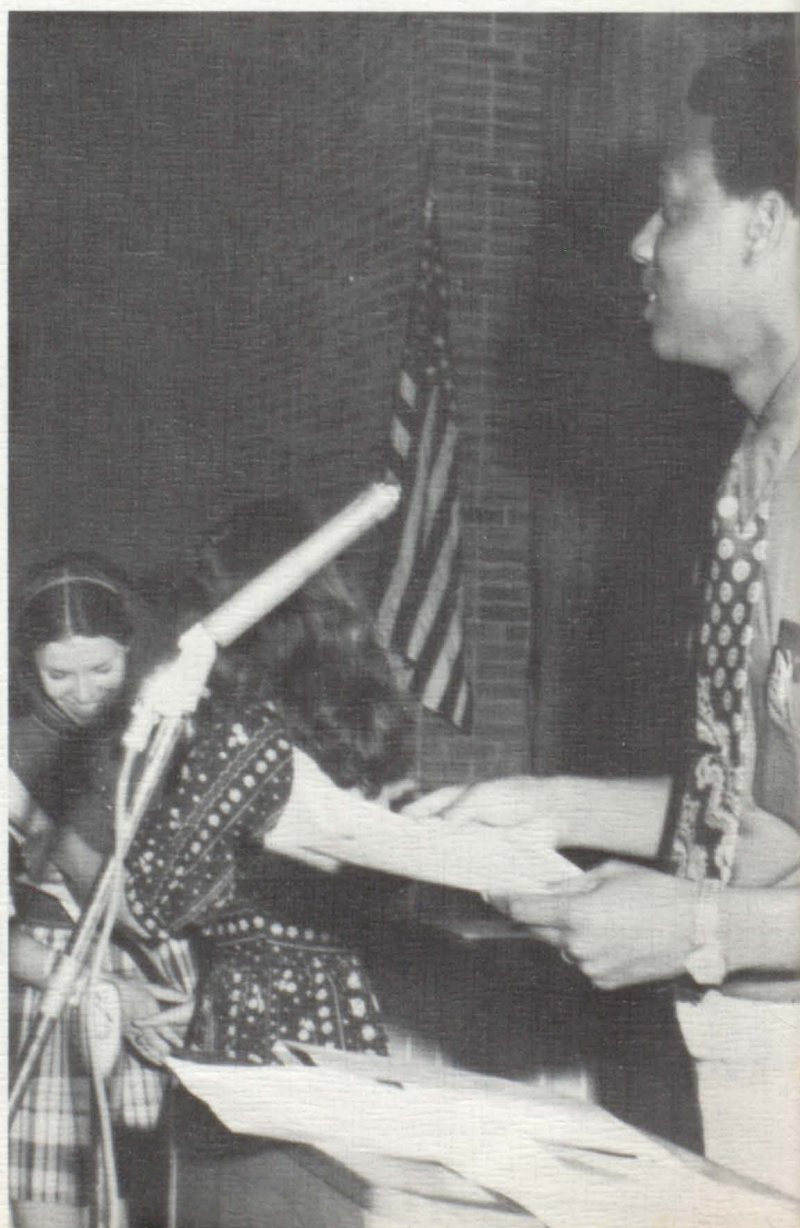

Patti Reynolds, Key Club Sweetheart, is honored with a plaque presented by Key Club President, John Warren.

Pam Wilbanks is recognized for her outstanding achievements in shorthand by Miss Stella Pace.

Band director John Glover awards the 1973-74 Front Line with certificates of service.

John Warren congratulates Carl Barker, recipient of the Key Club Outstanding Basketball Player of the Year Award.

Awards go to outstanding recipients

A last day of honor and recognition took place on May 9. Awards Day was a morning of congratulations, presentations and verbal victory laurels.

Aside from the usual departmental awards, several new honors were established. Glen Killingsworth was the recipient of the Most Improved Underclassman Award from the band, and Key Club's Most Outstanding Basketball Player of the Year Award was bestowed on Carl Barker. Key Clubbers also honored their sponsor Mr. Joe Thomason, with a plaque for service. Nine girls were eligible to receive awards from the President's Council on Physical Fitness by virtue of their high scores in several events.

All VOE, DE, ICT, and HECE first and second year students were given certificates. Also, 16 boys were presented with certificates titling them "Doctor of Motors."

The Vocational Agriculture Department also presented several revolving plaques.

Jean Oldham excitedly accepts a Departmental Award for exceptional achievements in English from Miss Pace.

One-Act play triumphs in competition

Speech students of Mrs. Willa Crousen who participated in the short play, "Mary of Scotland" by Maxwell Anderson found themselves vying in district competition when they took top honors at the zone level. The one-act drama told the tale of the conflict between Queen Elizabeth I and Mary, Queen of Scots. Fearing the Catholic rule of Mary, who was heir to the English throne, Elizabeth imprisoned and eventually beheaded her. In South Zone competition, the AHS cast was chosen out of five other plays as co-winners with Mexia. Julie Owens was named to the All-Star Cast, and Donna Bulloc, was elected Best Actress by the judges.

The troupe then traveled to Ennis for District contests where Donna and Julie were honored again All-Star Cast members.

Julie Owens, as Elizabeth I slams her fist threateningly at all who would defy her. Julie's portrayal combined with costume and make-up gave a very fine performance.

Rick Tumlinson, rehearsing his prologue to the production, refers to the lengthy copy.

Beverly Landrum, costume and make-up manager, makes last minute preparations on Donna Bullock's costume.

Styles reflect personalities

Students at AHS frequently started their own styles besides following those set elsewhere. Jeans, tank tops, platform shoes, hats, plaids, stripes and just about any style or color imaginable walked the campus this year.

Many girls cut their hair in short styles and some boys followed the example. A few mustaches could be seen along with the regular long sideburns.

Ava Glaspie and Dana Kerbo proved that, as always, jeans are in style with any kind of shirt.

David Rhoades, like most guys, has an affection for plaid pants. Shelia Lee wears a new style — the short blouse.

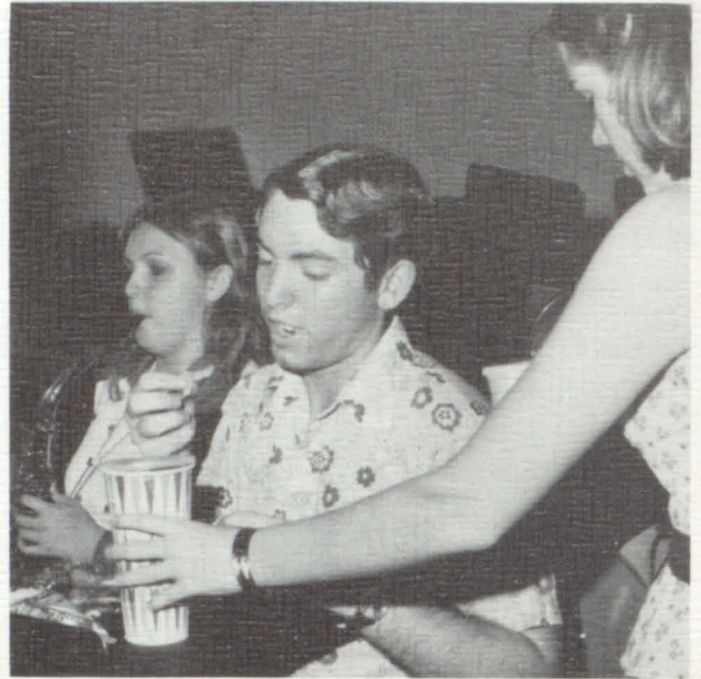

Tamra Royall's crocheted cap is one of many styles seen on campus during cool weather.

Trissa Tullos and Harold Warren barter with school store employees Rodney Sumner and Randy Gandy during the noon hour.

Michael Williamson shares a quick lunch with Melinda Dyer before practicing the woodwind choir as Carolyn Richardson tunes.

Mark Langham contemplates a countermove against Larry Gilmer in the playoff game of Mr. Jimmy Clancy's chess tournament.

Beverly McMichael arranges an artistic bulletin board for Mrs. Esther Edwards' classroom.

Rhonda Pepper, Pam Smiley and Roseann Miller converse and eat at the Dairy Queen as many students with transportation do.

Mr. John Glover checks the time on Cindy Mathis' watch as Monte Parker and George Ackerman inspect the situation.

In deep thought are Charlotte Winn and Beverly Landrum who frequently spend a portion of their lunch time in the library.

Lunchtime utilized in many ways

That ever so short space of time between the end of third period and the beginning of fourth period meant different things to different people. Students having transportation devoted the entire midday break to waiting on orders at the Dairy Queen, Pizza Shop or K-N, and cramming it down three minutes before the bell. Others ate in the cafeteria, under the campus trees or in the band hall.

Favorite activities included circling the grounds in cars and on motorcycles. Some band students hibernated in the band hall and practiced in their instruments. Frequently, boys were on the school front lawn playing football. Other more scholarly students migrated to the library or reference room to study or just read.

Even the faculty welcomed the chance to relax and visit.

Shangri-la sets mood for prom

Certainly a much anticipated highlight of the school year was the Junior-Senior Prom in May. The 1974 prom was romantically decorated in the style of Shangri-la from the old classic movie, "Lost Horizon."

The Junior class, always ready to pioneer a new endeavor, added a new twist to the annual event. A breakfast of eggs, sausage, sweet rolls, toast, orange juice and cold drinks was eagerly consumed by the worn-out dancers when the band finished at midnight.

The relaxing atmosphere and exciting sounds of the band "Harlowe" came together to make the 1974 Prom a fragrant, euphonious memory.

On opposite page at right, Rob Eads finds himself executing a different kind of step with Suzette Ramsey, who undoubtedly is having a good time.

Senior Frank Richardson, dancing with Karen Godwin, has given up on his pinching suspenders and buttoned sleeves.

Above, a laughing Stephen Sharpe mirrors the fun evening experienced by most of the prom attendance.

Karen Brown and her date, much like the others, move all over the dance floor to the exciting sounds of "Harlowe," a rock group from Dallas.

Seniors enjoy end-of-year picnic

One week before finals seniors got a chance to celebrate together. The place was the beautiful Christian Youth Foundation. Junior Ushers accompanied seniors to the grounds for an afternoon of food, games and swimming.

Overjoyed students fled school at the beginning of fifth period and had plenty of good fun and fellowship in their last get-together.

Earl Brooks, Carla Hall and Sheryl Scott delay swimming a while to read the printed class wills, history, prophecy and future plans that were distributed to seniors at the picnic.

Principal Roalnd Lambert proves his expert table tennis skill with a trick shot.

Senior girls discuss the day's possible events as three senior boys lurk behind them searching for the next victim to be thrown into the lake.

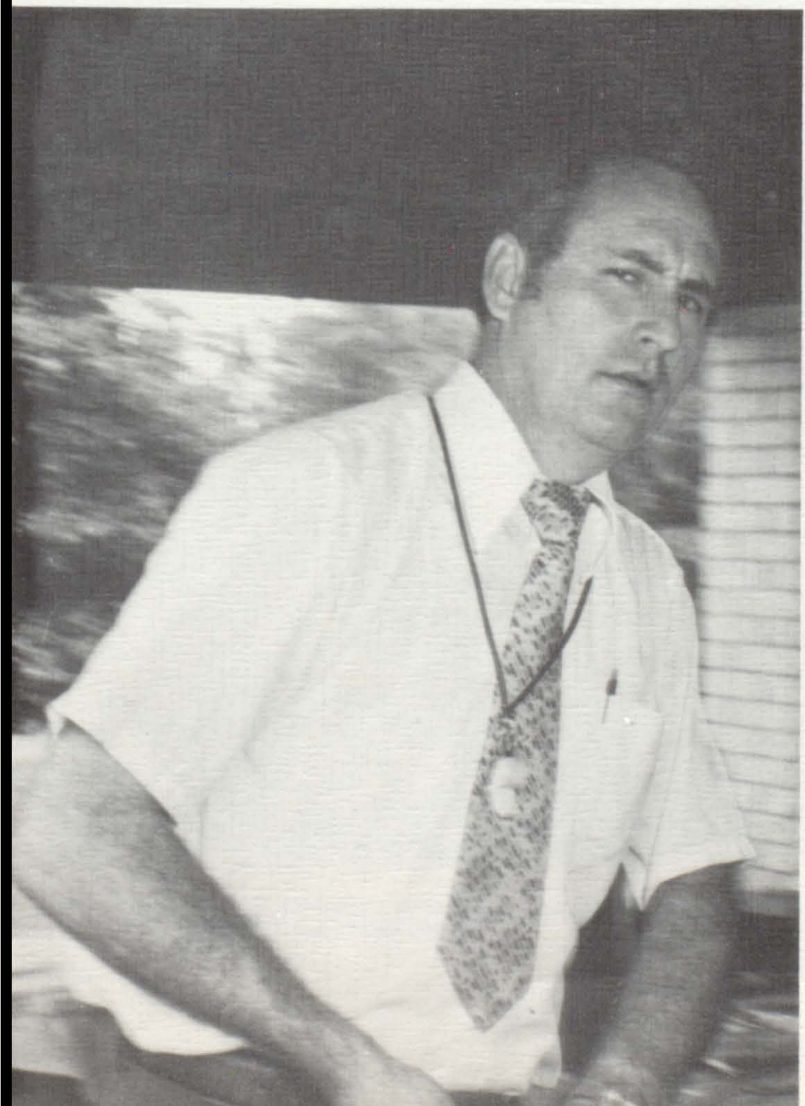

John Warren and Ken Scott make a vain attempt to save a put-away shot as Joey Spann moves in to help.

Mr. Bob Tinney warily keeps an eye on proceedings at the picnic. Moments later Mr. Tinney was dunked in the lake.

Monico Solomon and Carl Barker offer some assistance to Teresa Greth, who hasn't been in the lake yet and apparently wants to keep it that way.

Goals set at Baccalaure- ate

A cool, dry, serene Bruce Field served as a plateau on which an end and a beginning rendezvoused the evening of Baccalaureate. Present were Ministerial Alliance members giving the invocation, scripture and benediction. The Reverend Baylor Anglin urged seniors to strive for high goals as they stepped out into the world. The Pride of the Hornets Band furnished special music and the processional and recessional marches, directed by Mr. John Glover.

Graduation candidates left the field ready for the upcoming commencement exercises.

Jackie Dewberry lends assistance to Linda Massey who is having trouble with her cap.

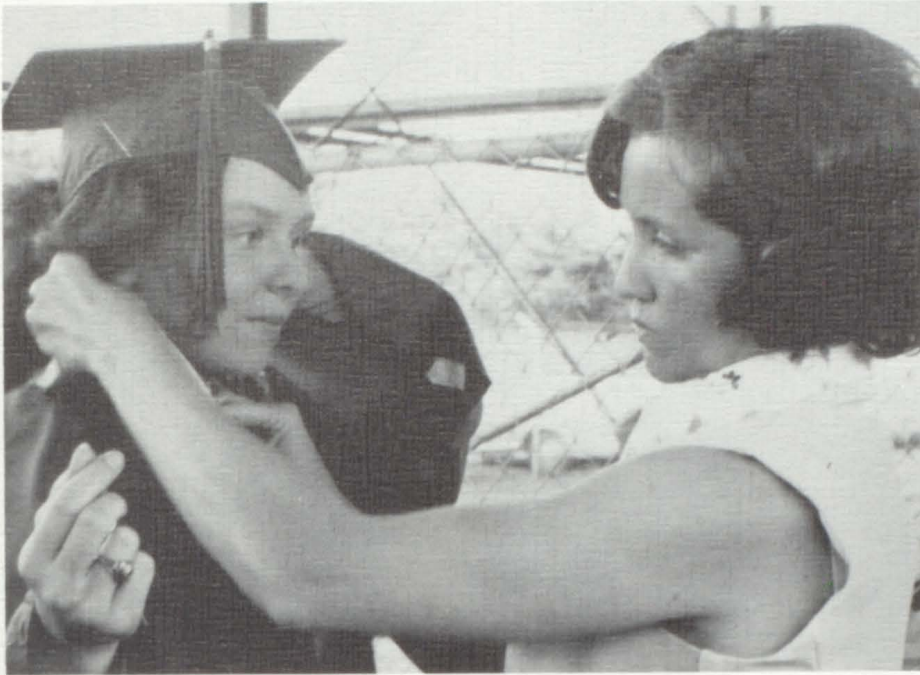

Barry Boyd and Karen Brasher silently, nervously eye the seats they will soon occupy on the field.

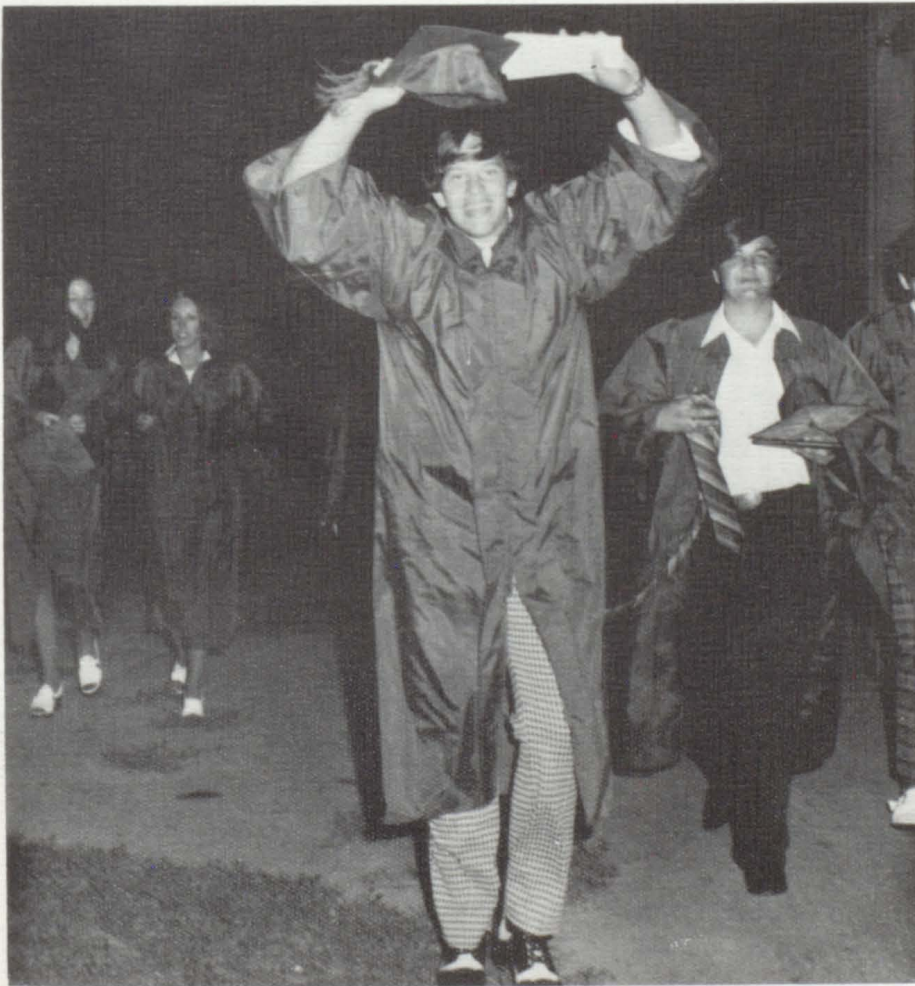

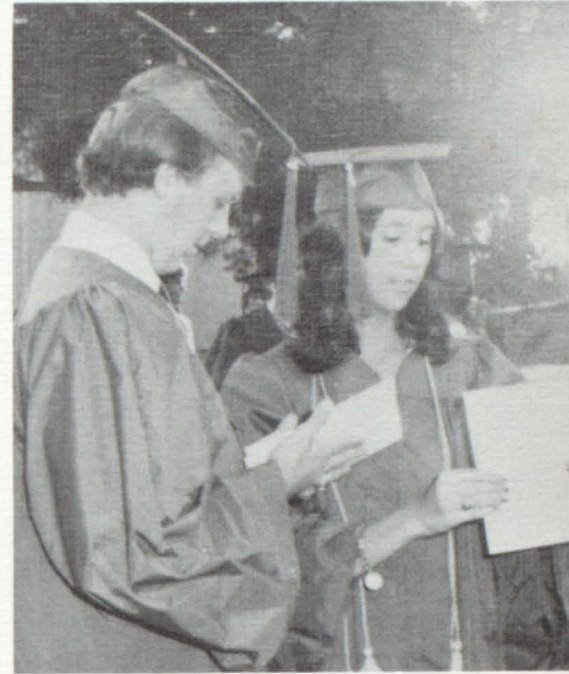

Anxious expressions show on seniors' faces as they await the processional.

Mrs. Linda Cook attaches Robin Flippo's collar as all anxiously await the processional.

Clay Thompkins and Tina Miller scrutinize the program and search for their names.

All seniors' expressions showed joy, but none so jubilantly as Richard Simmon's face, waving hands and dancing feet.

Commence- ment: joy, sadness, excitement

The anticipated climax of twelve lengthy, but fun years was greeted with mixed emotions. Many seniors felt ecstatic with relief although others worried at the loss of familiar security.

Diplomas were awarded with handshakes by school board trustee Mr. Kenneth McGee.

Whoops and cries could not be contained until all seniors had reached the exits as was rehearsed. Tears flowed, caps flew, gowns became blurs of maroon as graduates were swung about by friends, and hugs were passed around with glee.

*A penalty at the verge of a victory,
A defeat by your strongest rival,
Striving so hard to be a Hornet
The excitement is worth it all . . .
And the year went by so fast.*

Hornets fight Jacksonville to 6-6 tie

The 1973 season opener at Bruce field ended in a hard-fought 6-6 tie with the Jacksonville Indians.

Playing a mediocre first half, Athens lost five fumbles, failed to score from the Indian 22, gave up 201 yards rushing and a 65-yard touchdown run.

The second half was a different story. A determined defense, led by Tommy Frizzle, Tommy Pennington and Randy Paris, stopped the Indians in their tracks enabling an inspired offensive unit to pick up some 200 yards.

In the third quarter Frizzle grabbed a fumbled punt setting up a 24-yard march to the endzone by C. J. Fairchild and Glen Rhinehart. That tied up score at 6-6 since both teams were unable to make the PAT.

The fourth period was a tight defensive battle with Athens staging a strong threat in the final minutes. QB Eddie Reynolds drove his squad to the Indian 23 with less than two minutes remaining, but time ran out on the 14.

Junior defensive back Wayne Perkins (20) delivers a blow as other Hornet defenders hurry over to assist.

Workhorse C. J. Fairchild (38) powers forward for extra yardage in a hard fought game.

Hornets edge past Chapel Hill Bulldogs

In their second game of the season the Hornets won a 13-6 decision over Chapel Hill.

Linebacker Tommy Frizzel intercepted a Bulldog pass in the first quarter to set up an early 7-0 lead for the Hornets. A 22-yard field goal try in the second quarter was wide to the right.

Chapel Hill posed serious threats in the second and third periods but was unable to penetrate the defense of Frizzel, Wayne Perkins, Tommy Pennington, Randy Paris and others.

With eight minutes left in the game QB Eddie Reynolds hit senior end Sammy Scott with two consecutive passes for Athens' second TD and a 13-0 lead.

The Bulldogs did not give up but combined a fumble recovery, a half-back pass and some fancy footwork to move 30 yards for their one score of the evening.

Junior halfback Darrell Allen (30) carries the pigskin in heavy traffic, staying low as two Bulldogs attempt to sandwich him.

Bears stun Hornets in 33-6 defeat

If ever a team had an "off night" the Hornets had one September 21. Ineffective execution by both offense and defense resulted in a nightmare of frustration as the Hornets fell 33-6 to the fired-up Gladewater Bears.

Athens gained only 84 yards, completed none of four pass attempts, lost seven of eight fumbles and were intercepted twice.

With only six minutes gone in the first quarter, Gladewater was already leading 14-0.

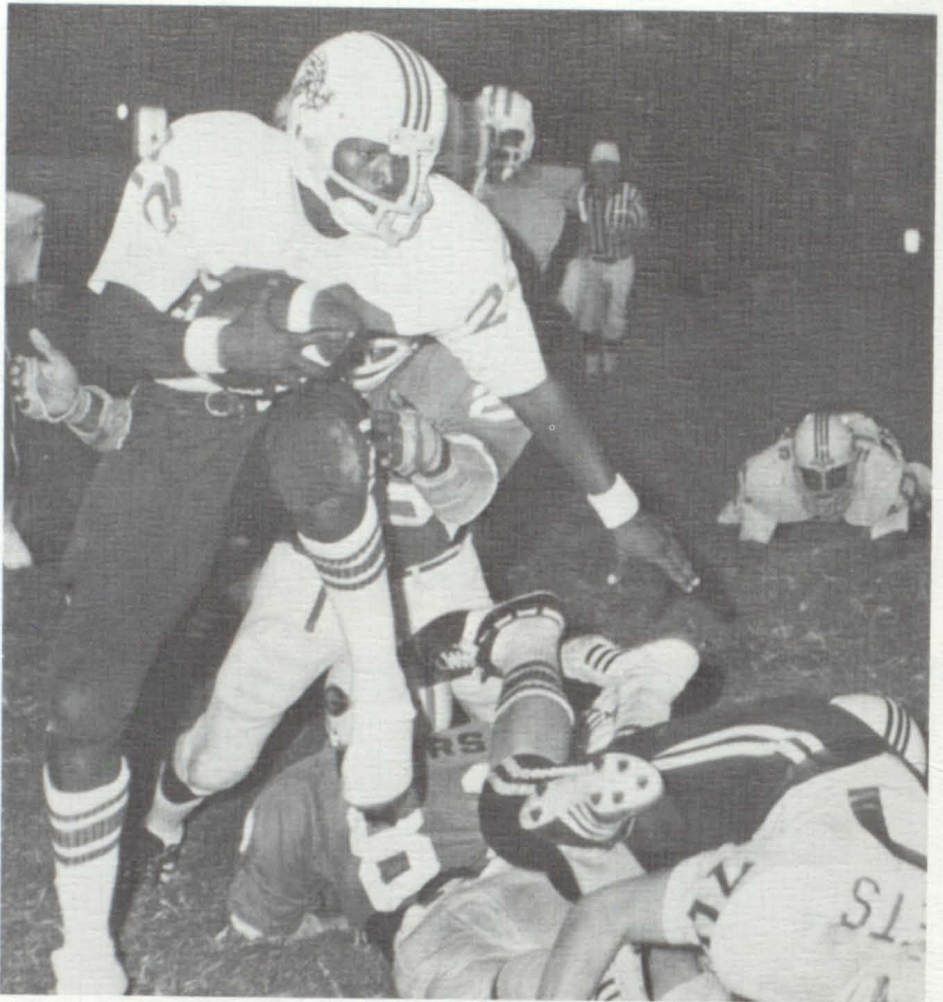

The Bears fumbled seven times, one of which resulted in Athen's only score of the evening. Keith Barker was responsible for recovering the fumble, and Dale Johnson scored on fourth-and-five.

Gladewater scored twice more in the second quarter leaving Hornet followers stunned 27-6 at halftime.

The final points came in the fourth period as the Bears went ahead 33-6 and put in their reserves to finish the contest.

Things pile up for Hornet Halfback Glenn Rhinehart (22) as he is greeted on the left side.

QB Eddie Reynolds (14) draws attention as he executes a pitch out.

Hornets crush Dragons in offensive show

Rebounding from a humiliating defeat the week before, Athens ran all over Seagoville scoring 62 points and posting 400 total yards gained.

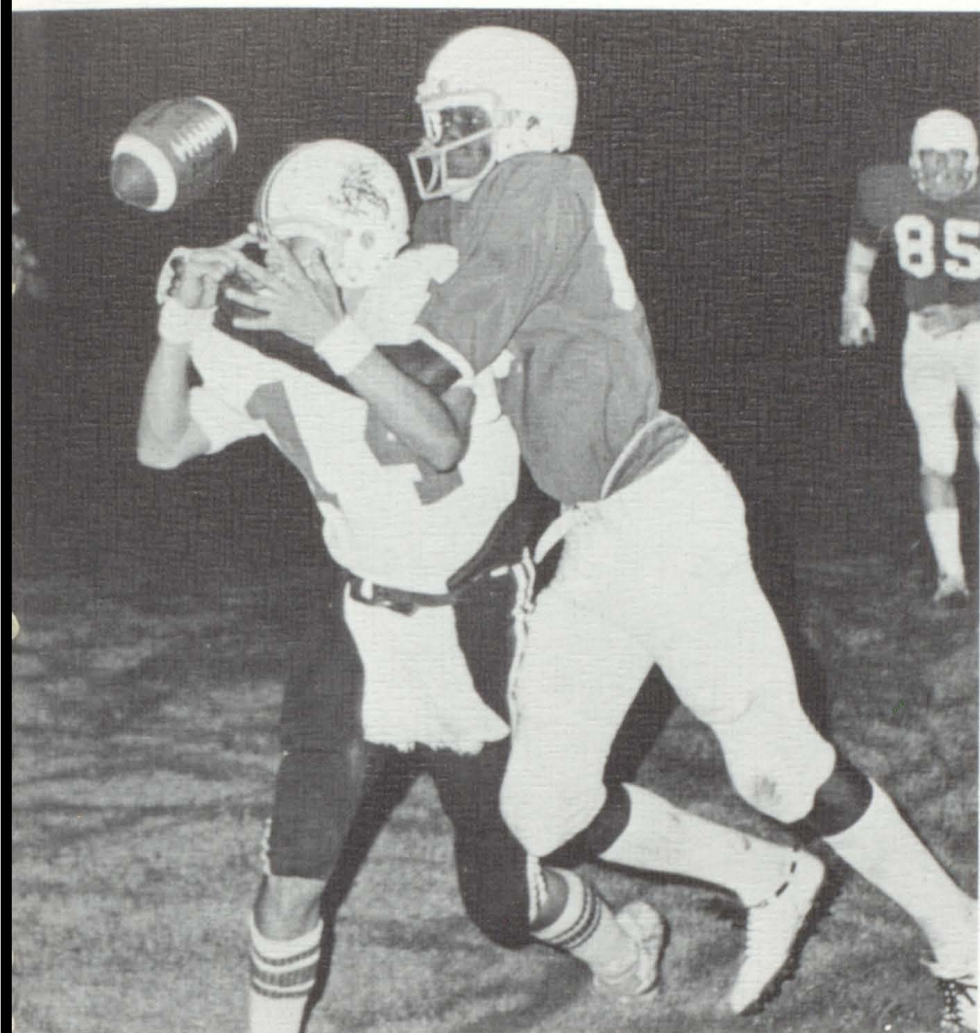

Nine TD's were credited to Darrell Allen, Glenn Rhinehart, Ken Griffin, Wayne Perkins, Eddie Reynolds, Sammy Scott and Mike Johnson; junior William Johnson kicked six extra points.

Hornet defenders intercepted the Dragons five times, recovered two fumbles, blocked three punts and scored a safety by Earl Brooks.

Leading rushers were Rhinehart with 91 yards, Griffin with 80 and Allen with 71.

The 62-6 victory, a record-setter for Coach Joe Cousen, put the Hornets 2-1-1 for the season.

Halfback Glenn Rhinehart (22) finds clear sailing around the left end.

Tigers upset Hornets 20-18

Athens and arch-rival Terrell staged a 45-minute war with plenty of excitement for both sides October 5.

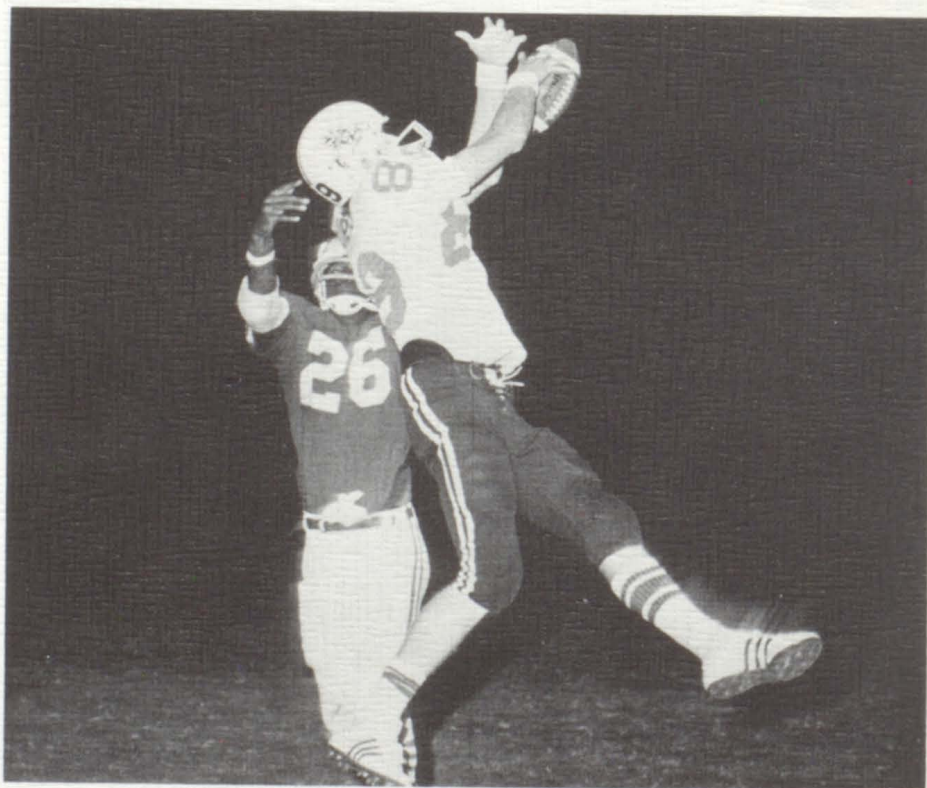

The Tigers scored first moving 15 yards in six plays with 8:20 left in the first period. The Hornets retaliated moving 69 yards in only three plays following an interception by Steve Stacks. The TD came on a 43-yard romp by Glen Rhinehart which tied the score at 6-6. Athens went ahead as Sammy Scott took a slant pass from Eddie Reynolds, but the try for two failed, and it was a 12-6 ball game at the half.

The Tigers regained the lead after a fumble recovery on the Hornet 30. Sylvester Holmes rolled in from the six to give the Tigers a 13-12 lead.

Athens' final score came on a charge by Ken Griffin from the five. Again the try for two failed, and the score stood 18-12.

In the closing minutes of play, the Tigers moved 88 yards in 17 plays to score with only 19 seconds remaining, handing the Hornets a heartbreaking 20-18 defeat.

Glen Rhinehart (22) eludes a band of Terrell defenders as they attempt to stop him.

Senior Hornet split end Sammy Scott (89) leaps into the air to pull down a pass from QB Eddie Reynolds for a sizable gain.

A rugged Hornet defense closes in on another Marlin ballcarrier. The Hornets held the Bulldogs to 187 total yards.

Junior defensive back Steve Stacks (80) makes a diving tackle.

Hornets antagonize Marlin 41-0

Athens routed the Marlin Bulldogs 41-0 in a district game totally dominated by the Hornets.

Passing and ground rushing totaled 434 yards with four of the six touchdowns coming as a result of a passing attack. QB Eddie Reynolds hit Sam Scott three times for TD plays of 38, 11 and 8 yards. The fourth TD originated out of a half-back option from Wayne Perkins to Steve Stacks.

An explosive offense rallied for two more touchdowns coming on an 85-yard breakaway by senior half-back Glenn Rhinehart and a 15-yard brutal run by junior halfback C. J. Fairchild. Fairchild also booted three for three in the extra point department, and William Johnson was two for three.

Ken Griffin (44) sweeps around right end as Glenn Rhinehart (22) clears the path.

A determined Hornet defense piles up a failing LaVega offense as they take their second zone win by a score of 49-7.

Hornets rip off Pirates, 49-7

Athens invaded the Pirates' ship determined for victory, blasting 31 points in the first quarter.

Glen Rhinehart and Ken Griffin led the scoring act with two TD's each; followed by Eddie Reynolds, C. J. Fairchild, Wade Farmer and Randy Paris (returning a blocked punt) with one TD each.

LaVega's lone touchdown came as QB Tom Fuller dove in from the one in the fourth period. The Pirates were limited to a total of 151 yards by a rugged Hornet defense.

Hornet scoring began with a 15-yard romp for six by Rhinehart in the first period and ended with a 3-yard bulldozer act by Fairchild in the final period. In all, the Hornets rolled up 435 yards, 432 by land and 43 by air, all of which contributed to a 49-7 Hornet victory.

Ken Scott (66) and Jeff Frankum (86) team up as mighty Hornet defense halts the LaVega offense.

After grabbing an Eddie Reynolds pass Sam Scott (89) tries to tear away.

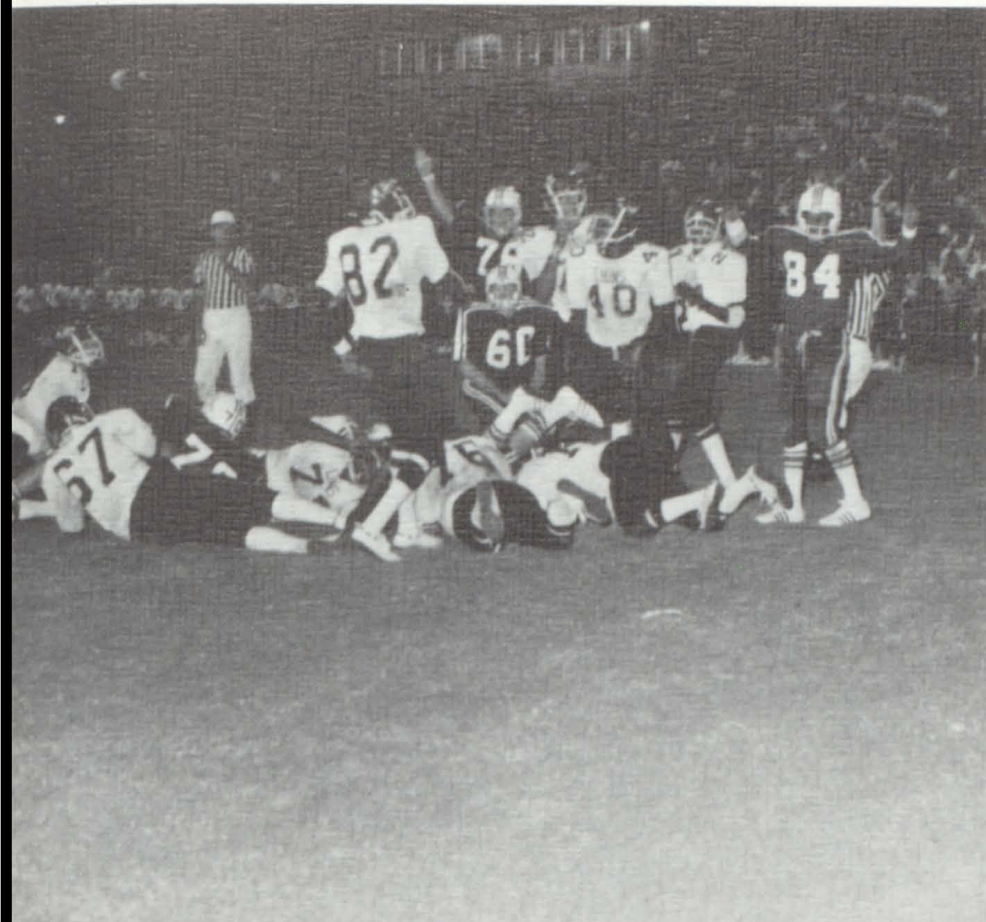

An air of excitement is felt as C. J. Fairchild (38) plows in from the one-yard line.

Ennis slips by in 20-9 thriller

Ten yards was all that separated the fired-up Hornets from taking the Homecoming victory, but an intercepted pitchout in the third quarter gave the Lions a lead which wasn't to be relinquished. The big break came when Louis Bullins intercepted an Eddie Reynolds pitchout and returned it 90 yards for the score to go ahead 13-9.

Hornet C. J. Fairchild had previously scored from the one after an Ennis fumble on the eight, and Athens took a 9-7 lead with 4:35 to go in the first half when Randy Paris and Wade Farmer trapped James Harper for a safety.

Ennis' last score came as Harper hit Stanley Robinson on a 33-yard halfback pass to cap a 20-9 Hornet defeat.

Eddie Reynolds (14) attempts to elude would-be tacklers in the Homecoming contest.

Moore stifles comeback

The Moore Lions took a powerful 17-0 lead in the first half and stifled a comeback staged by the Hornets in the second half.

After the intermission the Hornets came out with fire in their eyes as they moved 97 yards in 9 plays and scored on a Glenn Rhinehart pass to Sam Scott with 8:18 left in the third period. Tommy Frizzell set up Athens' next TD by way of an interception. Two plays later C. J. Fairchild blasted in from 12 yards out to narrow the Lion lead to 17-12.

In the fourth quarter the Hornets put pressure on the South Zone champions but were unable to keep them from scoring once more and clinching a 24-12 win.

Glenn Rhinehart (22) rambles for ten during the second half comeback of the Athens-Moore contest.

Ken Griffin (44) gives the right side a try netting eight yards during second half play.

Larry Houston (84), a senior tight end, can't find the handle on a quick pass from QB Eddie Reynolds.

Below, Ken Griffin (44) hustles after a loose football as Woody Martin (76) tags along to assure the recovery.

Defense corrals Black Cats

The Athens Hornets closed out the 1973 season with an 11-0 shutout over the Mexia Black Cats.

The Maroon offense had a tough time getting rolling, and did not score until the last quarter following a blocked kick and recovery on the Black Cat 18 yard line. Darrell Allen plunged over from the one for the Hornet's lone TD with 7:07 left in the game.

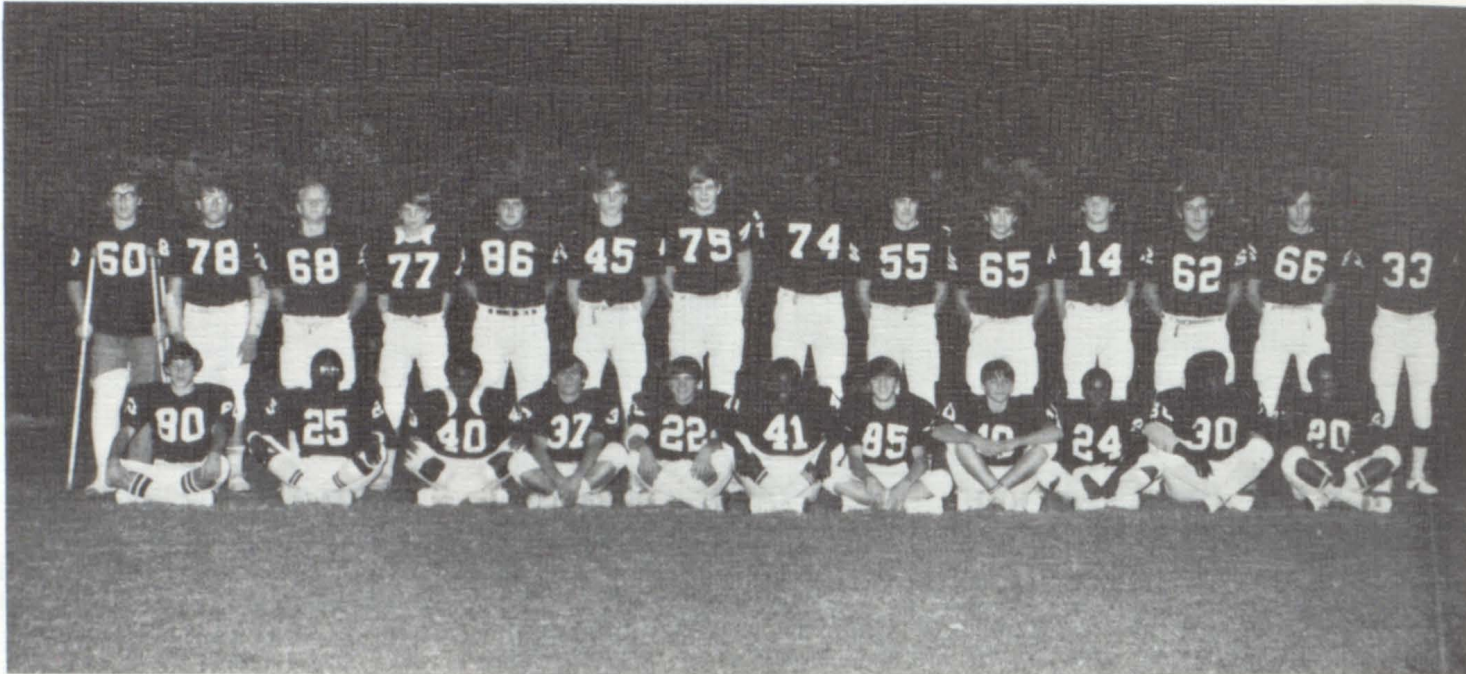

Defensively, the Hornets had a great night, holding the Black Cats to 17 total yards, all gained rushing. Mexia quarterback Marcus Frost was intercepted four times, three times by defensive halfback Wayne Perkins and once by Glenn Rhinehart. Hornet defenders scored two safeties, one on a forced fumble by John Dora which was covered by Frost in the end zone, and again when a host of Hornet defenders dropped the Black Cat QB in the end-zone with 4:03 remaining.

An 11-0 victory over the Black Cats ended a 3-2 season in district play, and a 6-3-1 overall season record. The game was also the last under Coach Joe Crousen who moves to Class AAAA R. L. Turner next year.

JV's tally 8-2 season

With an awesome defense and an explosive offense a mighty Junior Varsity team rolled up an 8-2 record. Composed of juniors, sophomores and one freshman the JV's yielded only to Chapel Hill and Ennis.

Scoring was led by Joe Sullivan with ten TD's followed by Micky Williams with seven. Leading receivers were Bob Leonard and Randy Hill.

Quarterbacking duties were split between freshman Ricky Hardin and junior Don Foster. Hard work and discipline resulted in a fine season for the JV's.

Freshmen post 5-9-1 season

Freshmen gridgers had an exciting year despite a 5-9-1 season. More important was the experience gained for later high school football.

Freddie Paul led in TD's with 11, followed by Ricky Dora, Jimmy Kline, Kenneth Session, Daniel Williams and Kevin Criner with two TD's each. Joe Perkins, Drew Douglas, Ricky Massey and Charles Johnson had one TD each.

Coach Jimmy Gunn named Freddie Paul, Jon Ramsey, Joe Perkins, and Steve Gideon as standouts at their positions.

Opening loss followed by four wins

Maroon Roundballers opened the 1974 season against a powerful AAAA DeSota team and came out on the short end of a 62-60 score. In their next four campaigns, the squad retaliated with four consecutive wins, the first two over the Canton Eagles and the third coming on a forfeit from the Henderson Lions who were unable to keep their appointment with the local cagers.

Entering with a 3-1 record, "Jesse's Gang" thoroughly demobilized the Frankston Indians 69-18. Their winning streak came to an abrupt halt, however, when the Cayuga Wildcats took a surprising 78-81 victory.

In the first game of the Athens Tournament Sam Scott (21), aided by Keith Barker (15), fights for possession in the last quarter. Athens won the game over Frankston 69-18. The Hornets were subsequently eliminated from the tournament by Cayuga. Corsicana took top honors in the ninth annual tournament, followed by Tyler Lee and LaPoynor. Dallas Carter won the Consolation trophy.

Hornet Harold Warren (33) goes High to shoot over a Kaufman defender during the Hornets' best offensive show of the season. The Hornets went on to post a 98-63 victory.

Hornets take third

The Mineola Yellow Jackets provided a 78-59 victory for Athens, and win number six came at the expense of the Henderson Lions, 59-42, in a tough defensive clash.

The Maroons' next outing was to Van where they took third place losing only to Bullard; the defeat came as a result of a foul called after the buzzer.

Kaufman fell victim 98-63 as the Hornets cagers' put on their best offensive show of the season: White House then dealt the Hornets a 65-54 defeat eliminating them in the second round of the Jacksonville tournament.

Junior Bobby Ward (31) from 20 feet out, nets two more in the Athens Kaufman contest.

All South Zone cager Carl Barker (41) goes up for an easy tow, also against Kaufman.

Leslie Langley (13), All-Zone cager, demonstrates his shooting skill as he goes for two during the Athens-Carthage contest.

Sluggish shooting takes toll

With Zone play approaching, the Athens cagers fell into a scoring slump. They continued to hustle, but the sought-for basket became illusive to Hornet gunners. The 1973 Class B State Champions from LaPoynor took a decisive 81-62 victory over the Hornets. The Hornets rebounded to take Henderson 66-58, but were stunned by a fourth quarter surge by the Carthage cagers which left them behind 65-58.

With the New Year came a chance for the Hornets to get revenge for their first loss to LaPoynor, but the attempt died short resulting in a 69-49 Hornet loss.

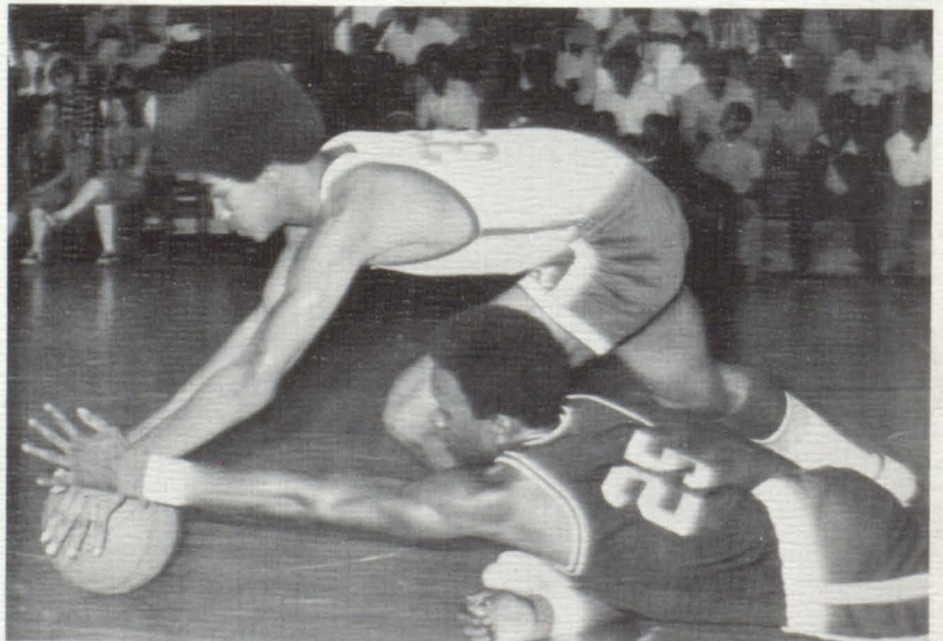

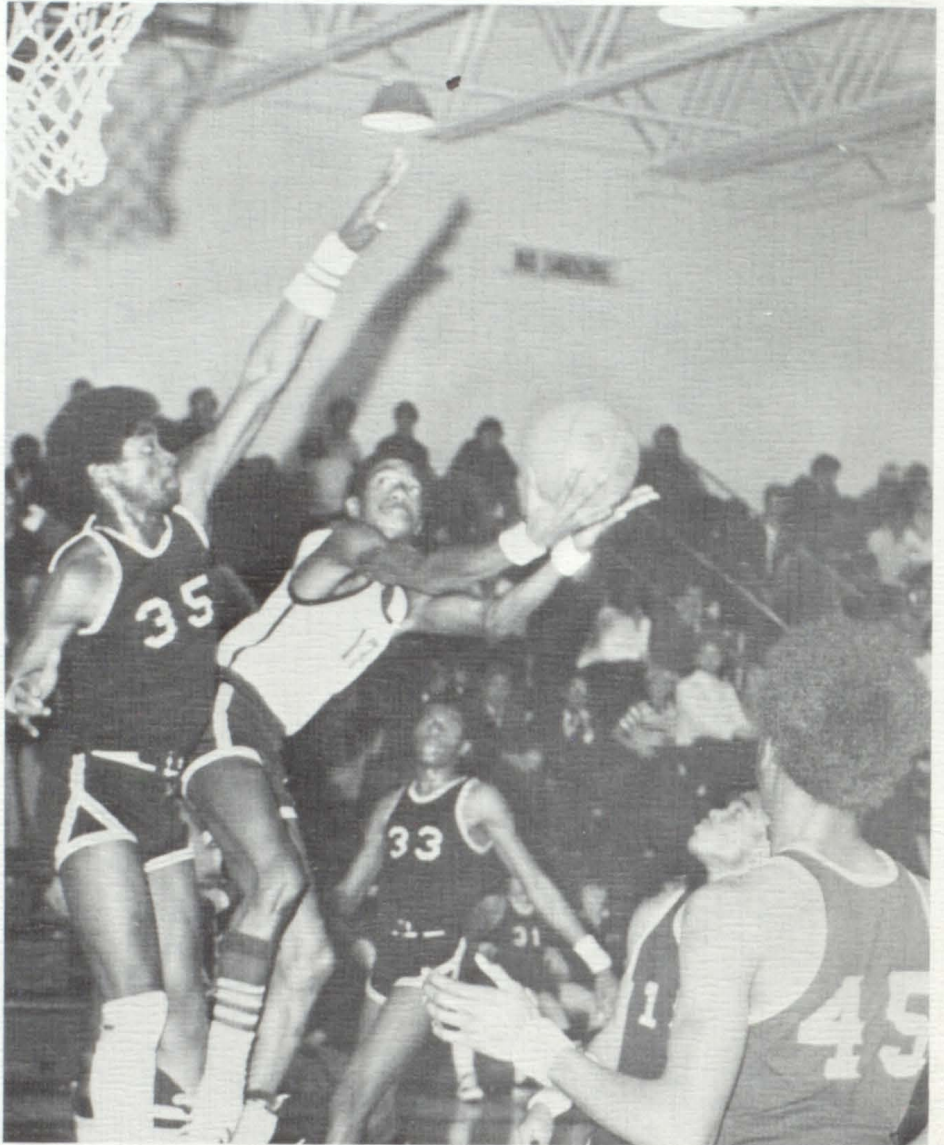

Leslie Langley (13) puts on the moves among a cluster of Mexia Black Cats. Langley scored 21 points to help the Hornets to a 79-62 victory.

'Jesse's gang' explodes into zone play

With the experience and knowledge of proper fundamental execution acquired from pre-season, "The Gang" plunged into zone play excited, prepared and determined.

In the district opener against Marlin, the Hornets led all the way and the hapless Bulldogs fell to an ambitious Hornet team 64-40 on the home court. On the road the next two games, "Jesse's Gang" traveled to Waco to down the LaVega Pirates 57-40 and invaded the Lions' den next to upset Ennis 53-47 in a frantic defensive battle.

Arch-rival Jefferson-Moore came to town for the following match. With good hustle and a good shooting percentage, the Lions squeezed past the Hornets 78-74. Unable to tolerate another loss, the Hornets passed the agony to Mexia by ripping off the Black Cats 79-62.

Harold Warren (33) and a Jefferson-Moore Lion symbolize the action and hustle in the game between the arch-rivals.

(below) Carl Barker (41) goes all out for the opening tip off while Keith Barker (15), Bobby Ward (31) and Leslie Langley (13) tensely await the result.

Keith Barker (15) scores an easy bucket against the LaVega Pirates while "big brother" Carl Barker (41) looks on.

Maroons struggle for survival

One game behind Jefferson-Moore in District standing, the Hornets could not afford another loss.

Marlin presented no real problem for the Locals, although it was nip and tuck for the lead in the first half. The Hornets swarmed past the Bulldogs in the second half, stinging them 79-63.

A treacherous Hornet defense caused LaVega to fall victim to their own poor shooting and many turnovers.

The Ennis Lions were eliminated from any hopes of a District title by a fired-up Athens team that netted 34 free throws.

Now in a position to face Jefferson-Moore for the South Zone showdown, the Maroons travelled to Waco where the Lions' home court played a big part in the battle. The competitive, hustling Lions outshot the Hornets and clinched the zone title 57-46.

Athens closed out 1974 with a decisive win over Mexia to post an 8-2 District and a 20-9 season record.

JV Hornets show promise

Starting with little momentum the Junior Varsity Hornets combined hustle and determination to finish the 1973-74 season with the outstanding record of 14-9. Under the direction of Coach John Rabon the JV's also finished second in the Eustace Tournament.

JV leaders were Steve Lindamood, Jimmy West, and Kevin Hollowell. Lindamood posted the high point game netting 26 points.

Hornets go undefeated in pre-season

March 12 triggered the '74' baseball season for the Hornets at Chapel Hill. Senior moundsman Paul McMullen went all the way, fanning nine, walking eight and allowing two earned runs to give Athens a 6-5 opening victory.

Junior Pat Fuller was tagged winning pitcher in his first appearance as the Hornets swept past Brownsboro 9-5. Athens hit good and it all started in the first inning when freshman Joe Dan Perkins blasted a 2-run homer.

The Hornets first defeat came at the hands of the Chapel Hill Bulldogs who held the Maroon to only two runs.

The Athens Nine reinforced their victory campaign with a 12-7 win over Brownsboro. Coach John Boston called it their "best game yet." Everyone except two pitchers played, and the team pulled off such plays as the squeeze bunt and double-steal.

The pre-season record was extended 4-1 after a meeting with the Jacksonville Indians. Paul McMullen went the distance as the Hornets took a 4-1 win.

Senior John Warren fires in a fast ball on his way to a 5-inning no hitter against Mexia.

Steve Stacks lets it all hang out again for a base hit against Mexia.

Bob Leonard makes it look easy coming in for a score against Waco Jefferson Moore. The Hornets won 6-2.

District begins with high spirits

District play began at Mexia, and senior John Warren did it all, hurling only 54 pitches for a five-inning no-hitter. Mexia managed one unearned run while Joe Montgomery and Wayne Perkins scored one half of Athens' 16 runs for a 13-1 triumph.

Luck was with Jefferson Moore on the home field; Athens out-hit the Lions 11-0 but couldn't get the runs in. Moore handed them the loss in the fifth when Glowacz hit a triple with three men on to clinch a 7-5 victory.

The Hornets hosted Ennis in a game that produced 10 errors, 20 hits and 17 runs. Athens came up on run short, suffering a 9-8 District loss.

LaVega defeated the Hornets 8-6 in an extra inning after a 6-6 tie at the end of seven. Joe Dan Perkins sparked the hitting with a three-run homer and a triple.

Misfortune awaited the Hornets at Marlin: a 5-4 defeat and their fourth straight District 8 AAA South Zone loss.

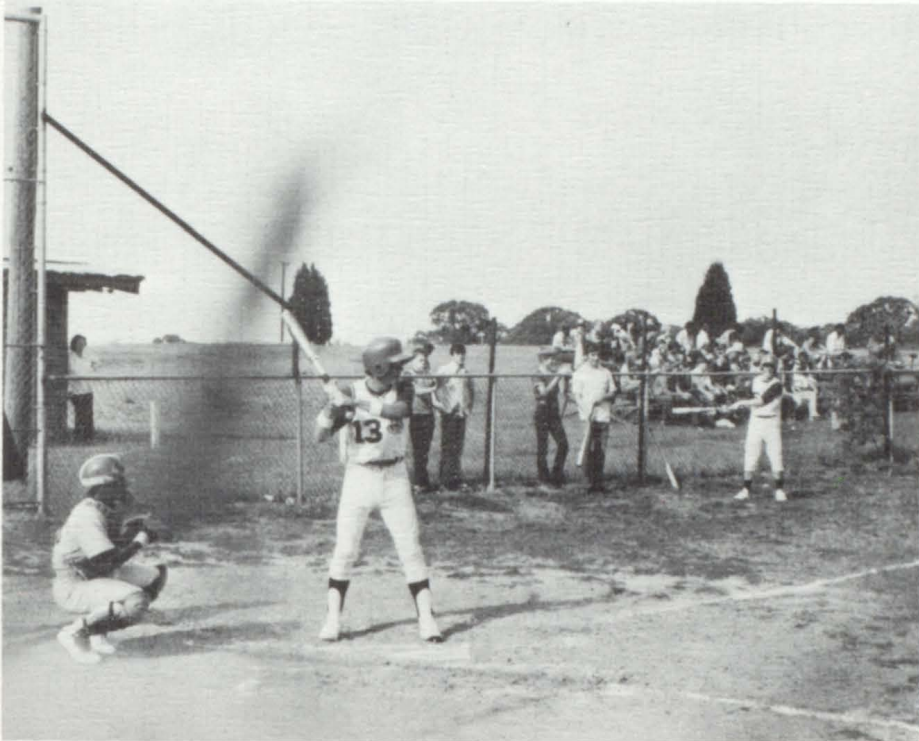

Coach John Boston, Pat Fuller and Bob Leonard reconstruct their strategy against Ennis. It was futile as the Lions won 9-8.

At bottom, junior Wayne Perkins kicks his heels after getting a good hit off the Mexia pitcher.

Randy Hill stands ready and waiting for the pitch but unfortunately grounded out in the third inning against Moore.

'Competitive' describes Athens nine

Junior Pat Fuller took his second win over the Mexia Black Cats 6-0. Leading the batting category was Randy Gandy, with a two-run homer, Wayne Perkins and Ricky Foster.

Waco Jefferson Moore was next in line and presented no problem for "The Nine." Paul McMullen went the full seven innings and gave up only one hit, while the team committed only one error to retain a 6-2 win.

The Ennis Lions outlasted the Hornets 2-0 to move another step closer to the 8AAA South Zone Championship.

In their only night bout of the season, the Hornets were set back 10-5 by the LeVega Pirates and their ace hurler Anthony Cepak, probably the top pitcher in the District.

Marlin's Bulldogs ended the season against the Locals scoring seven unearned runs in the second inning to outscore Athens 9-3. The loss gave the hornets a 3-7 District record and a 7-8 season finish.

Johnson places in regional

The AHS thinclads opened their 1974 season with an eighth place finish at the Ennis relays, with Sam Scott and Ricky Dora both breaking the school record in the mile.

From Ennis the Thinclads traveled to Terrell where they finished second with Dale Johnson coming in first in the 440.

At Longview the Maroons came in ninth with Steve Stacks resetting the school record in the 880; at Gilmer they took a strong fourth place finish.

District competition was held at Waxahachie where three Hornets qualified for regional competition. They were Dale Johnson in the 440, Robert Duncan in the shot put and Carl Barker in the high jump.

Dale Johnson was the only point winner at the regional meet finishing sixth in the 440.

The 1974 tennis team members are Cindy Wofford, Charlie Bullock, Krista Woodruff, Mark Kinkaid, Deidra Hollowell, Kevin Hollowell, Laurie White, Dale Blanton, Lynn Dyer, James Blanton, Kim Simmons, David Rhodes, Kim Harvey, Coach Jimmy Gunn, and Phyllis Hill.

In a practice session before the Corsicana match junior David Rhodes practices the art of serving.

Co-recipient of the Lions Club Award in tennis, junior Kim Simmons concentrates as she returns her opponents volley.

Netters meet stiff competition

Under the direction of Coach Jimmy Gunn the AHS tennis team opened the 1974 season with a 6-6 tie match with Corsicana. Van next on the schedule handed the Athens team a shocking 12-0 defeat.

Rebounding from the Van defeat the netters, led by Kim Simmons and David Rhodes, placed second in the Palestine Round Robin Tournament and fourth in both the Palestine and Henderson tournaments.

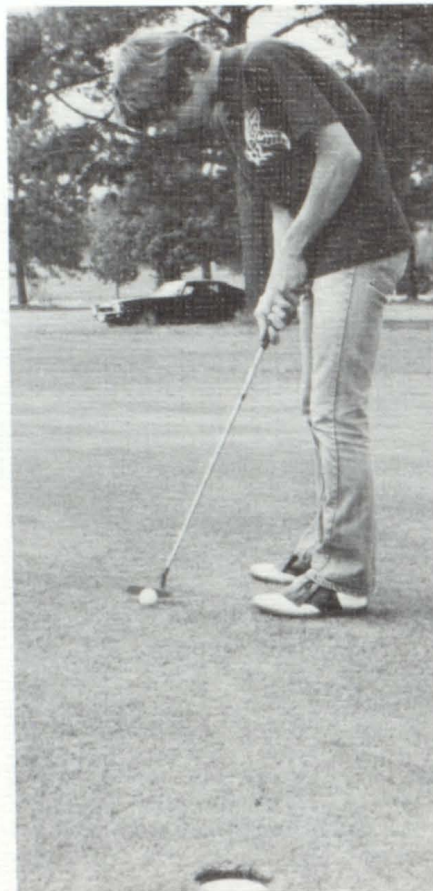

Stiff District competition took its toll as Mark Kinkaid won the only District match.

Linksters bring home title

With only one senior player the AHS golf team put together a string of five consecutive first place finishes and ended the season by taking the State AAA Championship.

Only in the Robert E. Lee tournament did the Hornets place less than first. There they finished 5th in a field of 23 Class AAAA schools.

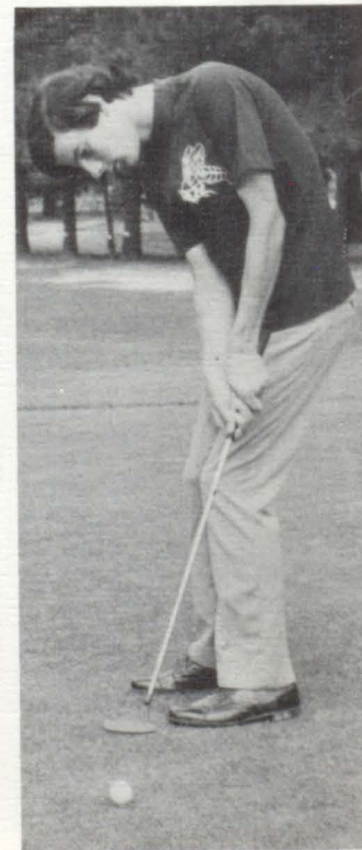

The District championship came easily with a 43-stroke lead over second-place Ennis. Regional competition posed more of a problem but the Maroons came through to win their ticket to the State Finals.

Once at the State meet the AHS linksters were not to be denied. Showing great poise and determination, the linkmen proceeded to win the AAA golf crown with junior Steve Grant leading as tournament medalist.

Cheerleaders work to boost spirit

Instilling spirit in the AHS student body was the main task of the energetic Hornet cheerleaders and exuberant mascot, Diana Smith Morris. They performed this duty beautifully. The seven girls prepared for pep rallies, made signs, sold streamers and victory links, and decorated football players' houses in their effort to boost spirit. At SMU's summer camp the AHS squad received several Superior and Excellent ratings and brought home the camp's "spirit stick" for the first time in AHS history.

Mrs. Jerene Walker was cheerleader sponsor.

Majorettes get it together

The 1973-1974 Pride of The Hornets front line was a major asset to the Band as well as to the entire student body. Excellent twirling and teamwork combined to give a great performance during each half-time and at weekly pep rallies. The Majorettes worked hard with the cheerleaders to contribute to the overall atmosphere of spirit at AHS. As expected, they gave a stirring performance at the annual Band Follies. In March, the Majorettes were awarded a trophy for their outstanding dance twirl ensemble at the HCJC Band Festival.

Carl, Steve gain fame

Carl Barker, four-year letterman and starter on the varsity basketball squad, earned numerous honors for himself and AHS this year. A participant in all 28 games, Carl scored 526 points, an average of 18.7, to lead the team in scoring. He also led in turnovers recovered, rebounds and field goal shooting. This season's honors include All South Zone, All District, All East Texas, All State and the highly coveted Prep All American.

Junior Steve Grant played a big part in the golf team's march to the State Championship. Shooting consistently fine scores in each tournament, Steve capped it off with a 35-hole total of 153 in the State Meet to take State Medalist honors.

Steve Grant

AHS beauty goes to finals

Athens was filled with beauty and talent this year, much of it coming from one AHS senior girl. This special beauty and talent belonged to vivacious Donna Bullock.

Donna's year began with the title of East Texas Junior Miss won in Tyler, continued on to Texas Junior Miss in New Braunfels and ended with a seventh place finish in America's Junior Miss pageant held in Atlanta, Georgia.

While participating in these pageants, Donna was chosen to represent Texas in the Miss Breck hair contest and she won the Kodak photography award, which entitled her to a trip to New York City and television and magazine advertising opportunities.

AHS and Athens backed Donna in her contests, and all considered themselves fortunate to have a girl with such inward and outward beauty in their midst.

Glover named by FTA

A standing ovation by all attending FTA's 16th annual banquet greeted the announcement that Mr. John Glover was Teacher of the Year for 1974.

A graduate of Huston Tillotson College, Mr. Glover has been an Athens teacher for seven years, the last two as AHS band director. Under his leadership the band performed in five contests this year, winning ratings of 1 in marching, 3 in playing, 2 in sight reading and 42 1st places in solo and ensemble competition.

A favorite among students, Mr. Glover combines a magnetic personality with determination and desire to produce musical perfection.

Mr. Glover is congratulated by Mrs. LaMoine Young at the FTA banquet. Also pictured are Jean Oldham and FTA State Adviser Miss Vatra Solomon.

Twelve named by seniors

Twelve juniors were named by the senior class to serve as Junior Ushers.

Ushers traditionally are included in all senior activities and take an active role in decorations and other arrangements. Dressed in the graduates' chosen colors of pale yellow, light green and white, this year's group enjoyed their honored positions and performed their duties to perfection.

Hornettes keep spirit alive

Some seventy girls dressed in maroon, lined up in uniform, and screaming their lungs out supported various AHS athletic teams throughout the year.

In August, the hard working Hornettes began learning new pom-pom routines and marching techniques for the up-coming football season.

This year's group was loyal and enthusiastic in their support of the Hornets.

Leading the group were Linda Massey, Captain; Sheryl Nuckolls, Senior Lieutenant; Gail Tilley, Sabrina Maxwell, and Beverly Landrum; Lieutenants. Faculty sponsors were Mrs. Diane Locke and Mrs. Linda Cook.

Hornette Lieutenants, Gail Tilley, Sheryl Nuckolls, Sabrina Maxwell, and Captain, Linda Massey lead the group in a clap routine to "Something for Cat."

Hornette sponsor, Mrs. Diane Locke, conducts a meeting of the Hornets before a Friday pep rally in the auditorium.

A hand routine to "Ben" is interrupted as Keith Barker recovers a fumble against the Gladewater Bears.

Hornettes cheer as fullback C. J. Fairchild scores to put AHS ahead in the Homecoming game. Arch-rival Ennis went on to defeat the Hornets 20-9 in the district contest. Hornettes continued to boost spirit even when the score was less than encouraging.

Council drafts Constitution

This year's Student Council was led by president, John Warren. There were over thirty members in the Student Council, some elected representatives and some ex officio members. Ex officio members were those who were presidents of various clubs in the school.

The Student Council was active in re-writing the Constitution which sets the rules and regulations for following years.

Mrs. Jerry Tanner was adviser for the group.

Constitutional committee members Stephen Sharpe, Randy Jones, Suzette Ramsey, Patti Reynolds and Joey Baggett look over parts of the new Student Council constitution.

Juniors Jim Wren and Joey Baggett were elected in the spring as President and Vice President for the 1974-75 school year.

Student body president John Warren receives a plaque at the awards assembly from principal Mr. Roland Lambert.

Gary Turlington works with a metal band saw in vocational agriculture. This is one of the many projects that FFA members are required to complete.

FFA members compete at area events

Production agriculture, an elective course offered in the vocational curriculum, provided instruction to meet the needs of youth interested in employment in agri-related occupations.

Seventy-five AHS boys were members of Future Farmers of America, the national organization for students studying vocational agriculture in public secondary schools.

FFA projects included farm shop project construction, football program sales, fruit sales, and custom livestock work. Members entered contests including district and area leadership, livestock judging, public speaking, and soil judging.

Officers were John Warren, president; Monte Register, vice president; John Morgan, secretary; Don Foster, treasurer; Dale Wilbanks, reporter; and Earl Hargrave, sentinel. Mr. Gary Holiman was adviser.

Richard Ryon concentrates on welding while finishing a cattle guard. The cattle guard was built during the year as a class project.

Junior FFA members Monte Register and Pat Fuller grind down a fire grate for their farm shop project.

FTA serves community, faculty

The Mrs. D. T. Broom Chapter of Future Teachers of America was among the most active in the state. At the state convention in Dallas Randy Jones campaigned for state parliamentarian. John Thomas Magee, who compiled the club's scrapbook, received a Top Ten Scrapbook Award, and a first place trophy was presented to Mandy Reiersen for the yearbook. John Thomas and Mandy also conducted the Yearbook and Scrapbook Workshop.

FTA'ers made cookies and cakes for members of the high school faculty and staff on Custodian Appreciation Day in November and Teacher Appreciation Day in December. All faculty members in the Athens school system were honored at the Valentine Tea in February. April 8 was set aside as Practice Teaching Day, on which FTA members taught in regular classrooms.

The Christian Youth Foundation was the site of the Formal Installation Banquet on May 24. New officers were installed, and the Teachers and FTA'ers of the Month were recognized. Mr. John Glover and Suzan Beard were honored as Teacher and FTA'er of the Year.

Officers for 1973-74 were Suzan Beard, president; Mandy Reiersen, vice president; Jean Oldham, corresponding secretary; Jennifer Gwaltney, recording secretary; David Simmons, financial secretary; Randy Jones, parliamentarian; Kathy O'Bryan, artist; and Michael Williamson, photographer. Mrs. LaMoine Young was adviser.

Mr. Gilbert Perry gets a head start on the other teachers as he snitches a cookie before the Valentine Tea.

FTA member Pam Pearson delivers a carnation to Nan Long. Selling carnations for Valentine's Day was a new FTA project this year.

Senior Lynne Lewis serves coffee at the Valentine Tea which is given in honor of all AISD teachers.

Junior Vicki Turner jokes with Mrs. Loretta Davis' students before beginning class on practice teaching day.

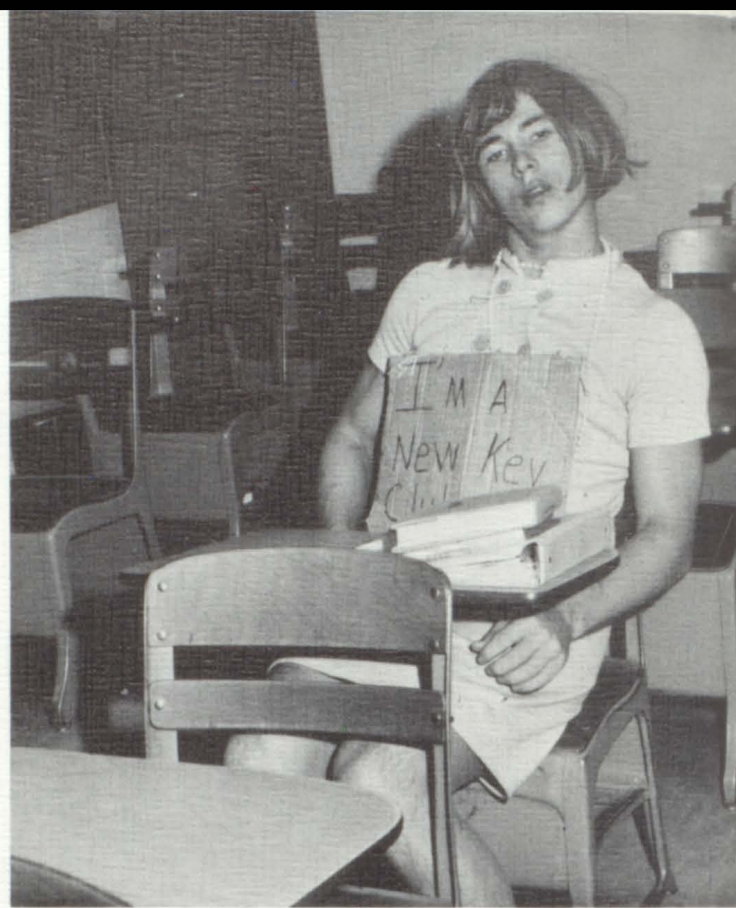

Mrs. Elaine White smiles as she receives a carnation from Kevin Elliott and Lisa Albright.

Sophomore Don Duncan is typical of new Key Club members on initiation day.

Key Club serves community

Members of Key Club International collected money for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and donated funds to the newly established local YMCA. Members also placed a new brick sign in front of the High School.

A trophy was presented to the Outstanding Basketball Player of the Year. Members plan this to be an annual award.

Finances for the Key Club's many projects were provided by a Donkey Basketball game in March.

Officers were John Warren, president; Randy Jones, vice president; Malcolm Quattlebaum, secretary; and David Brown, treasurer. Faculty sponsor was Mr. Joe Thomason.

Junior Woody Martin accepts a donation from a passing motorist as Key Club members collect money for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Library Club captures honors

Mr. Jimmy Clancy seems to be enjoying himself at the Library Club Christmas Tea as Mrs. Willa Crousen looks on.

Library Club members journeyed to White Oak in October where Virginia Hamilton was chosen district parliamentarian. John Magee and Kim Mills represented Athens as Mr. and Miss TALA. San Antonio was the site of the state convention where the club's scrapbook captured first place.

Projects included a Christmas Tea for the teachers. Mrs. Carolyn Dance presented a review of "A Foreign Devil in China" in March. The club also bought carpet for the reference room.

Officers were John Thomas Magee, president; Curtis Pickle, vice president; Kim Mills, secretary; Brenda Miller, treasurer; Jean Oldham, historian; Mike Hunter, parliamentarian; and David Cody, reporter.

John Magee, Jean Oldham, and Carey Allen prepare to travel to San Antonio to the State Convention.

In keeping with tradition, the "Pride of the Hornets" band leads the Homecoming parade. Director John Glover marches along with the band.

Sophomores Laurie White and Krista Woodruff try to yell louder than others as they cheer the Hornets to victory at the bonfire pep rally.

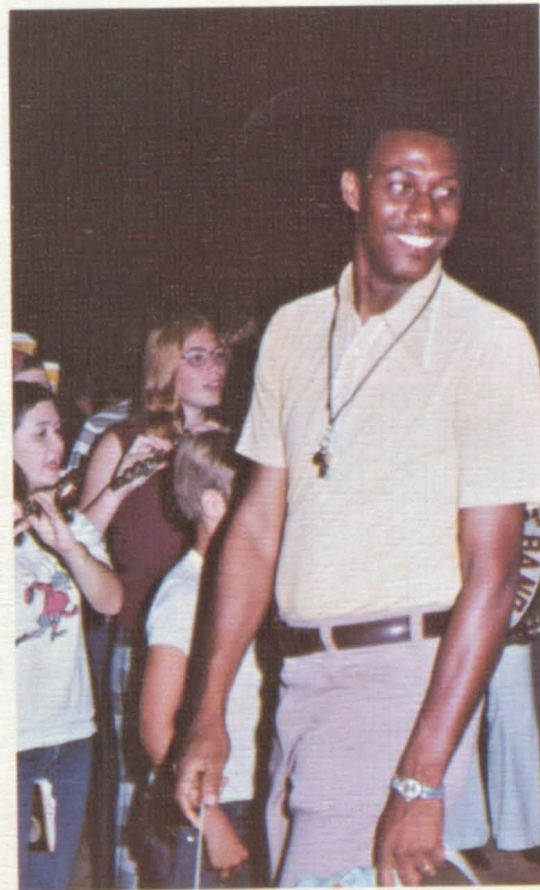

Band president Joey Spann presents the victory torch to Coach Joe Crousen at the Homecoming pep rally.

John Thomas Magee, John Miller, David Baker, and Dana Wood keep an eye on the football team as they provide the rhythm for "Theme from Shaft."

Seniors Sherida Wallace and Rachel LaFon carry the victory torch and spirit stick before Homecoming.

Director John Glover smiles as he watches the majorettes attempt to keep their fire batons burning.

NHS upholds ideals

Warden of Leadership Doran Pelham speaks on the characteristics of a good leader at the installation ceremony. Students also heard from the Wardens of Character, Scholarship and Service.

Twenty-four new members, selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service were inducted into the National Honor Society in March. A packed audience of students, faculty and parents watched the formal service.

The group's main project was presenting a scholarship to a graduating senior. To finance this award the organization showed the movie "Brian's Song." In the spring Mrs. Violet Ellis was honored at the annual banquet. Certificates were also presented to new members.

Officers were Jean Oldham, president; Joey Spann, vice president; Mandy Reiersen, secretary; Doran Pelham, treasurer; and Paul McMullen, historian. Mrs. Esther Edwards, Mrs. Violet Ellis and Mrs. Kathryn Harville were sponsors.

Jim Wren marches down the aisle before being installed into NHS along with twenty-three other new members.

NHS individual pictures are always formal, but a full view of junior David Rhoades reveals tennis shorts with his coat and tie.

Future Homemakers meet goals

Future Homemakers of America had a year full of fun and activities. In September they had a coke party to introduce new members to the FHA program. Early in the year they also sold magazine subscriptions to make money to carry out FHA activities. Throughout the year members attended various area and state meetings, participated in the State Fair, and Jimmy McNutt was elected FHA beau. In May the girls honored their mothers with a banquet and style show.

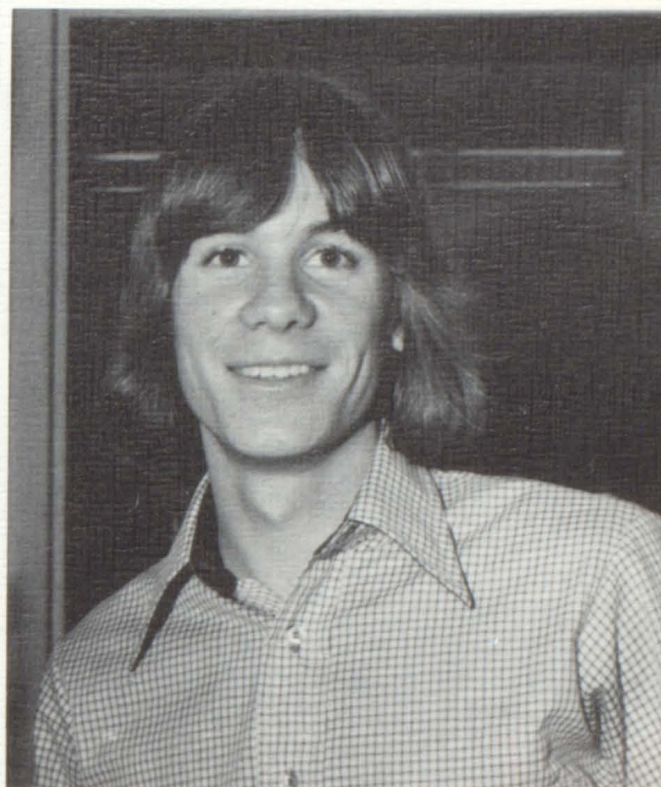

Officers were Connie Lemons, president; Kathleen Kirkwood, Lynn Dyer, Vicki Turner and Kelly Loller, vice presidents; Jennifer Gwaltney, song leader; Dawn Kidd, pianist; Martha Lewis, guitarist; Nicki Boston, secretary; Kay Kilgore, treasurer; Rae White, historian; Laurie White, parliamentarian; Cheryl Johnson, sergeant-at-arms; Toi McIntyre, reporter. Mrs. Joan Lamber, Mrs. Jan Ward and Mrs. Helen Heggins were advisers.

FHA officers are: Vicki Turner, Kathleen Kirkwood, Kelly Loller, Connie Lemons, Nicki Boston, Jennifer Gwaltney, Laurie White, (back row) Toi McIntyre, Martha Lewis, Rae White, Reka Murphee, Cheryl Johnson, Dawn Kidd and Lynn Dyer.

Local President, Connie Lemons conducts a meeting of the AHS chapter before attending the state convention in April.

Carolyn Rodriguez plays with one of the children who attended the Homemaking department's week-long child care nursery.

Auto mechanics students Clyde Bowman, Chester Meek and Alan Richardson install an engine as one of their projects assigned by VICA adviser Mr. Robert Montgomery.

VICA unit travels to contests

VICA Chapter 532, an extension of the Auto Mechanics program, boasted 15 members.

The club's civic project was keeping the public library's bookmobile in good repair. Members also attended contests where their skills in selected jobs were tested. Longview hosted the district competition in March. Winners in district competition traveled to San Antonio in May.

Officers were John Disotell, president; Edward Payne, vice president; Terry Townley, secretary; Alan Richardson, treasurer; James Walsh, parliamentarian; Mike Buttrill, reporter; and Lanny Pepper, sergeant at arms. Adviser was Mr. Robert Montgomery.

Junior Jeff Grant grinds valves in auto mechanics shop as one of his assigned projects.

Jimmy Houston, Jasper Davis and Morris Franks finish overhauling an alternator. This car belonged to the VICA club and was later sold.

Jean Oldham copies accounts into ledgers at New Era Electric as part of her on-the- training.

Doran Pelham works at the Athens Daily Review for her vocational training in the OEA program.

Senior OEA student Kim Barton types as one of her many duties at Stirman Jewelry. Each senior student works at least fifteen hours each week at various Athens businesses.

OEA members learn new skills

Office Education Association provided a combination two-year program for students interested in learning business skills. Junior students participated in two periods of classroom instruction each day. Senior members received one hour of classroom instruction per day and fifteen hours per week on-the-job training.

Members hosted a banquet in May honoring the businessmen who provided jobs for OEA students. Each employer was presented a certificate of appreciation.

Officers were Doran Pelham, president; Pam Wilbanks, vice president; Terry Till, secretary; Deidra Hollowell, treasurer; Shirley Majors, reporter; Jean Oldham, historian; Cindy Williams, parliamentarian; and Monte Parker, sergeant-at-arms.

Senior Earl Brooks puts a tire on a wheel while working at Trimble Tire Co.

Pam Hansen works as a cashier at Henderson's Department Store every afternoon.

DE students exhibit leadership

Distributive Education students participated in many contests and workshops. In October, Johnny Hawkins and Cheryl Nuckolls attended an Officer's Leadership Conference in Irving, and in February members traveled to Kilgore College for an Area II Leadership Conference. There they entered competition in Sales Demonstration, Public Speaking, and Display Advertising. Area winners competed for state honors at Dallas in March.

Students sold metal Social Security cards to raise money for their Employer-Employee Banquet. DECA members also operated the Student Supply Center.

Officers were Johnny Hawkins, president; Earl Brooks, vice president; Cheryl Nuckolls, secretary-treasurer; and Randy Gandy, reporter. Mr. Bob Tinney was adviser.

Junior DE student Jerry Yelvington takes groceries to a customer's car as part of his daily routine at Buddies. DE students must work at least 15 hours each week.

Doran Pelham, Beverly McMichael and David Simmons discuss future club activities with Law and Government sponsor Mr. Melvin Bateman.

Explorers active in five groups

Explorer post members started the year with various meetings and educational trips. Most posts met twice a week unless a special meeting was called. There were five different posts this year.

Explorer Post 346 on Law Enforcement, led by Mr. Charlie Fields, met either in the City Courtroom of the police department. Members took several educational trips including one to Austin to the State Capitol.

Explorer Post 315 on Law and Government was led by attorney Melvin Bateman and met in the district courtroom of the Courthouse. Meetings were conducted informally on a personal basis.

Explorer Post 351 on Business and Accounting met at the First State Bank and discussed bookkeeping, shorthand and other skills.

Explorer Post 343 on Medicine met at the hospital where they learned different types of first aid skills. They were led by Mrs. Shirley Sanders and other hospital personnel.

The Post on Veterinary Medicine learned how to groom large animals and several methods on how to keep them healthy.

Members of the post on Medicine watch a live demonstration of artificial respiration by hospital personnel.

ICT broadens students' skills

Industrial Cooperative Training students expanded their skills while working in factories, nursing homes, and printing shops. Juniors and seniors were eligible to be in ICT. Members from the local chapter attended the District meeting in Palestine and the State meeting in San Antonio.

Officers for the year were Darwin Bell, president; Joe Harris, vice president; Lisa Trammell, secretary; Bill LaVoie, treasurer; Debbie King, reporter; Jimmy Halbrook, parliamentarian; Cullen Underhill, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Gilbert Perry sponsored the program.

Junior Jesse Carlile smooths a lavatory at Payne Marble Company. Jesse did other work at the plant also, including installation.

Darwin Bell trims the legs of a newly-assembled chair at Athens Chair Manufacturing Company.

As part of her work at Stirman's Jewelry, junior Brenda Warren dusts a display of china.

HECE members prepare for future

Home Economics Cooperative Education students worked in home economics-related jobs. Training stations included beauty salons, clothing stores and child care centers.

Classroom hours with teacher-coordinator Mrs. Linda Cook were spent improving on-the-job training skills.

Senior Merle Moore was the club's homecoming queen nominee in November.

The club sponsored a Christmas party for needy children and an employee-employer banquet at the end of the school year.

Officers were Kim Woodruff, president; Paula Elledge, vice president; Donna Bullock, secretary-treasurer; Debbie Farmer, reporter.

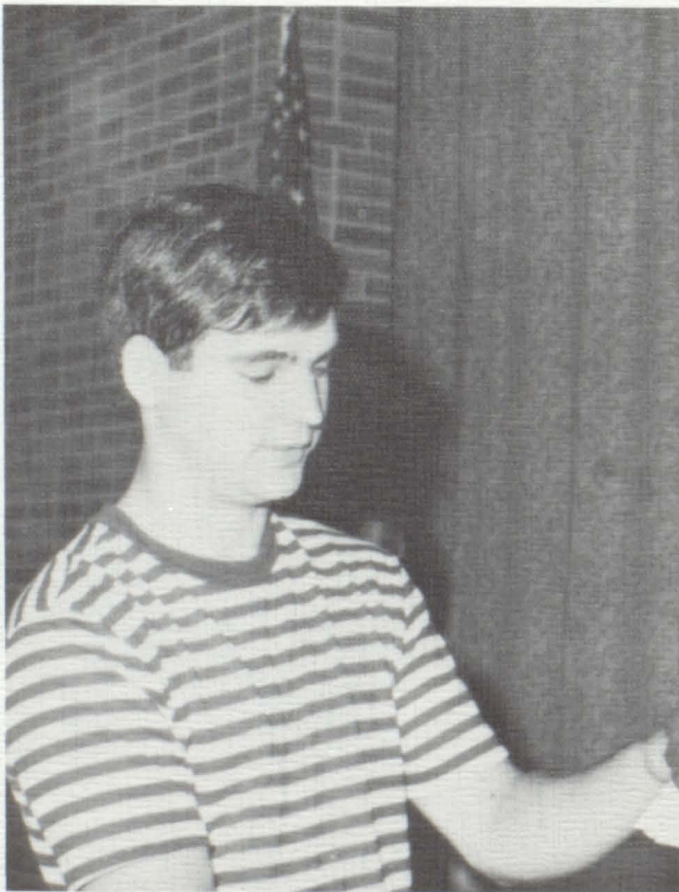

At Kiddy Kare Nursery Paula Elledge chats with a youngster. Paula also assisted in serving meals and leading play activities.

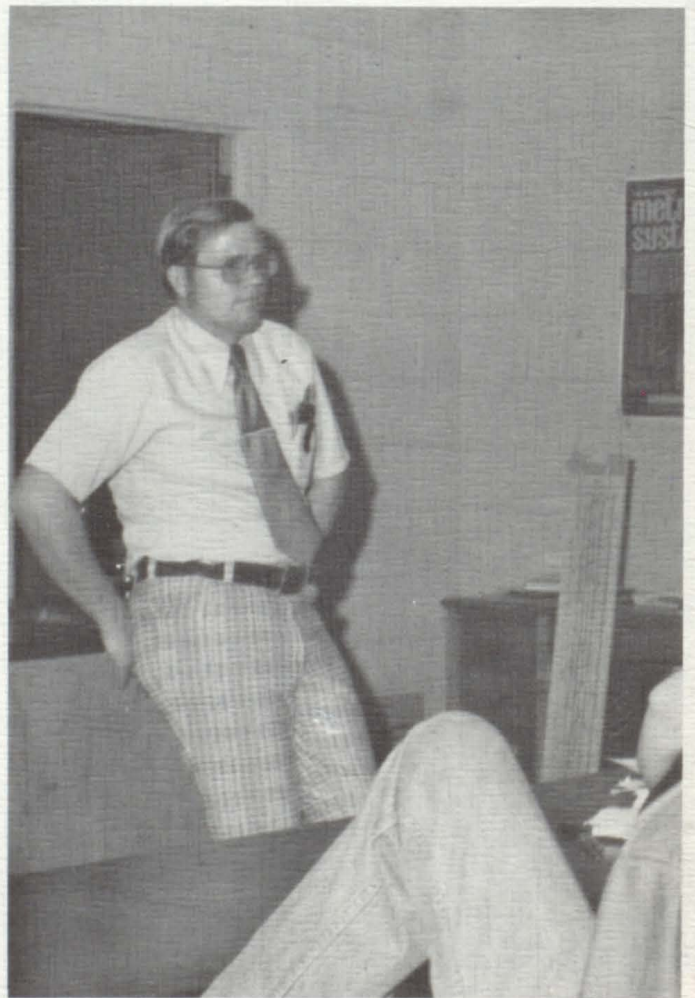

Senior Debbie Farmer passes out materials to children at First Christian Church Kindergarten.

Senior Joey Spann accepts the Slide Rule award at the annual awards assembly.

At top, members of the International Club enjoy exotic foreign dishes at their banquet.

Club sponsor Mr. Gerald Wood discusses a mouse trap contest with Physics enthusiasts.

David Rhoades, Darrell Cox, Sam Scott and Mark Langham meet in the Physics lab at lunch.

Three clubs develop from academics

There were three clubs this year associated with certain curricular areas.

The International Club, led by Mr. Hugh Rutledge, was set up through his Spanish classes. Special events were held throughout the year such as the International Dinner which displayed types of food from all over the world.

The Physics and Slide Rule Club, led by Mr. Gerald Wood, was established through his Physics class. They conducted experiments and observed the comet Kohoutek.

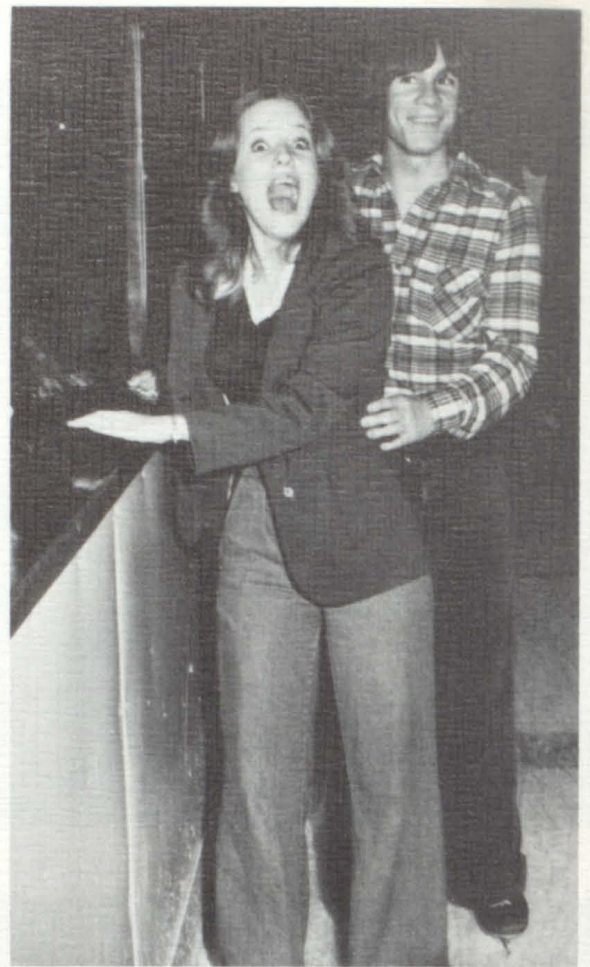

Debbie King, Stephen Sharp and other members and guests are intrigued with the selection of foods at the International Club banquet.

Terry Till is surprised from behind by Jimmy McNutt as they both cling to the rail of the ice skating rink.

Tables in Room 6 frequently need cleaning. Johnny Meredith applies cleanser and elbow grease.

John Thomas Magee gives Miss Sara Maples a push on a tricycle before the staff's assembly program.

At the staff's Christmas party Mandy Reiersen untangles her new yo-yo, a gift from Miss Maples.

Terry Till, Debbie King, Monico Solomon, Suzan Beard and Mandy Reiersen provide "chamber music" during the trip home from Austin.

Busy year experienced by staff

This year's Athenian staff found themselves consistently behind schedule and out of breath. A new project for AHS, the Dial-A-Hornet telephone directory, was the group's first inspiration of the year and provided funds for color pages in the '74 Athenian.

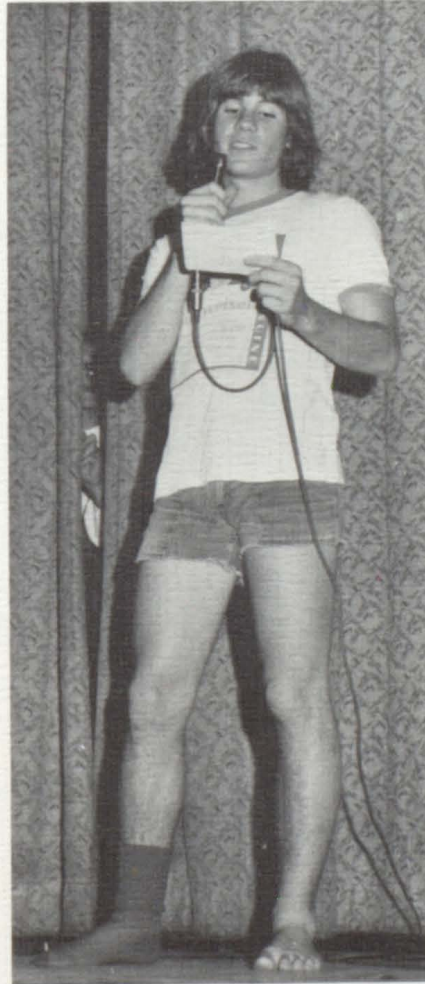

To encourage students to order yearbooks, a school-wide assembly was presented in October. Audience response was enthusiastic as the group dramatized spoofs on well-known TV shows and newscasts.

Out-of-town trips took the staff to Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas and the Interscholastic League Press Conference in Austin. At the ILPC it was announced that the 1973 Athenian won a First Division rating, being second only to Humble High School in Class AAA.

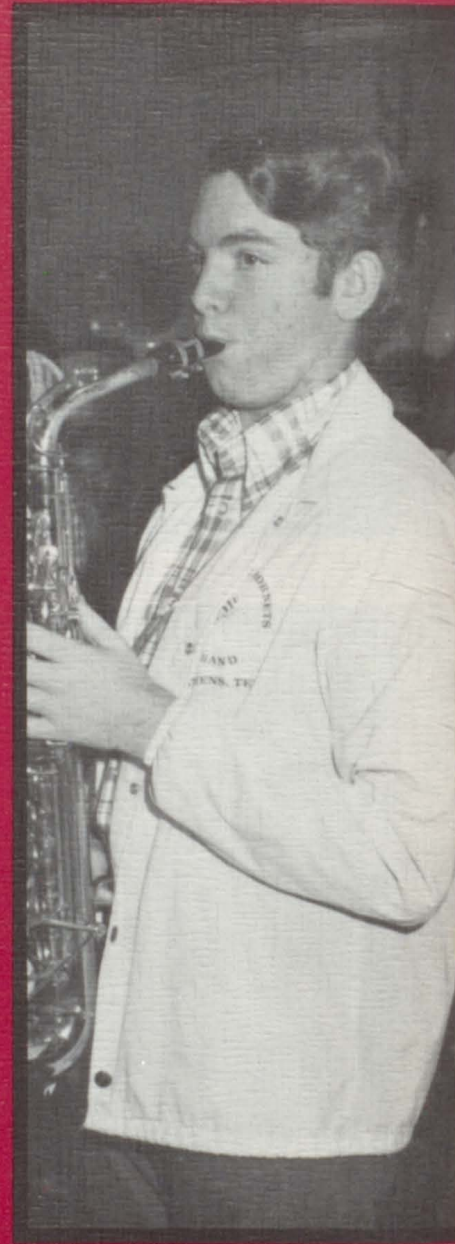

An end-of-school dinner honored the all-senior staff with special recognition for Billy Pierot, District medalist and member of the State Champion golf team.

Celebrities editor Jimmy McNutt emcees the staff's assembly to promote yearbook sales.

At left two-year staffer John Thomas Magee gathers up luggage as the group leaves the Rodeway Inn in Austin.

Lowe announces retirement

Mr. J. R. Lowe announced his retirement May 6, after 28 years as AISD superintendent.

AHS principal Roland Lambert has been selected to succeed him.

Mr. Lowe came to Athens in 1946 and has 41 years experience in Texas public schools. During his tenure the district has grown from 1700 students and two schools to 2800 students on six separate campuses. The faculty has increased from 59 to 158.

A native of Cooper, Texas, Mr. Lowe was educated at East Texas State University where he received the degrees of B.S. and M.Ed. Before coming to Athens, Mr. Lowe was a principal at Greenville.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

We are Future Homemakers of America
 We face the future with warm courage, and high hope.
 For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
 Old and precious values
 For we are the builders of homes,
 Homes for America's future
 Homes where living will be the expression of everything
 That is good and fair.
 Homes where truth and love and security and faith
 Will be realities, not dreams.
 We are the Future Homemakers of America
 We face the future with warm courage, and high hope.

Congratulations

Watergate remains in news

Throughout the school year Watergate continued as a national scandal. With Senate hearings, court convictions, acquittals and resignations becoming common occurrences. Vice president Spiro T. Agnew resigned after admitting to tax evasion and accepting three years probation and a $10,000 fine. Gerald Ford was sworn in as vice president. President Richard Nixon continued to be investigated relative to his part in Watergate and his past income tax payments.

Middle East problems resulted in an energy crisis in the U.S. when Arabia refused to sell oil to nations siding with Israel. Americans became used to gasless Sundays, cooler homes in winter and year round Daylight Savings Time.

The long-awaited and much publicized comet, Kohoutek, was disappointing to those who expected it to light up the southwest sky.

In Texas, a Constitutional convention rewrote the state's 98-year-old Constitution.

The Oakland A's won their second straight World Series, defeating the New York Mets four games to three. Miami beat Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. And the Boston Celtics won their 12th National Basketball Association title.

*How long ago the year began.
The days were dull at first and I felt alone.
As several weeks dragged by I adjusted.
Then the months rolled by.
I suddenly realized the year was over . . .*

And the year went by so fast.

*Days became weeks, and weeks — months;
Soon too, three seasons had passed.
We had tasted of life;
We had beaten the strife;
And the year went by so fast.*
