*Season follows season,
And the curtain opens.
We begin to take stock
Of the roles we are to play.
A memory is born.*

1. Hornette mascot Kevin Elliott cheers at the Kaufman game as the Hornets go ahead. 2. Dressed as a knight in the "Canterbury Tales" is Dennis Renfro. 3. The thrill of bubble blowing is rediscovered by junior Brenda Allen.

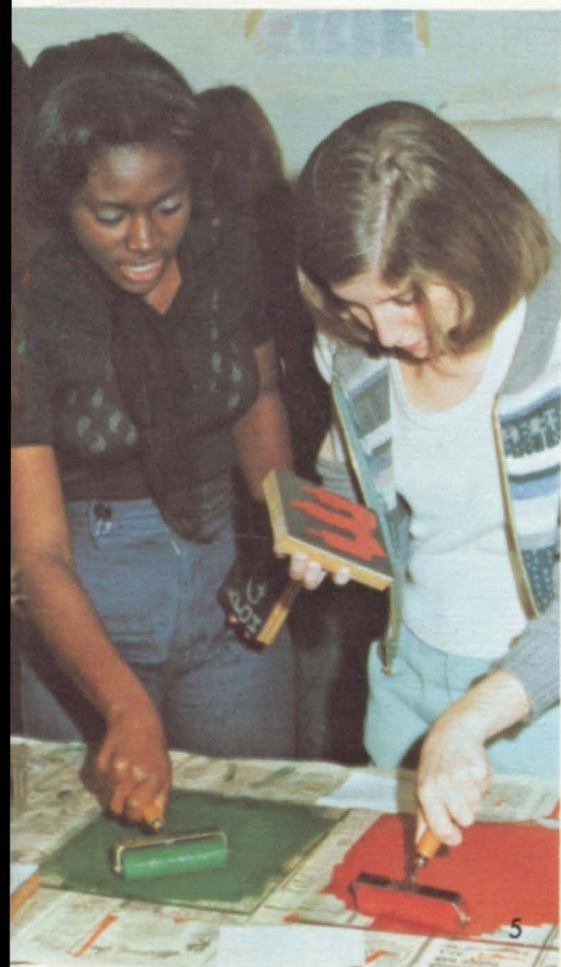

1. Clothing lab demands the undivided attention of Ivery West. 2. Mrs. Linda Cook's typewriter requires some work by Mrs. Jean Thames. 3. Patricia Turner concentrates on a Biology assignment. 4. Senior Lana Lookabaugh begins the construction of a miniature house in Mechanical Drawing. 5. Block prints hold the attention of Ava Glaspie and Krista Mathes. 6. A view of the front lawn reveals that spring is arriving. 7. Kim Henderson tackles a book-keeping assignment.

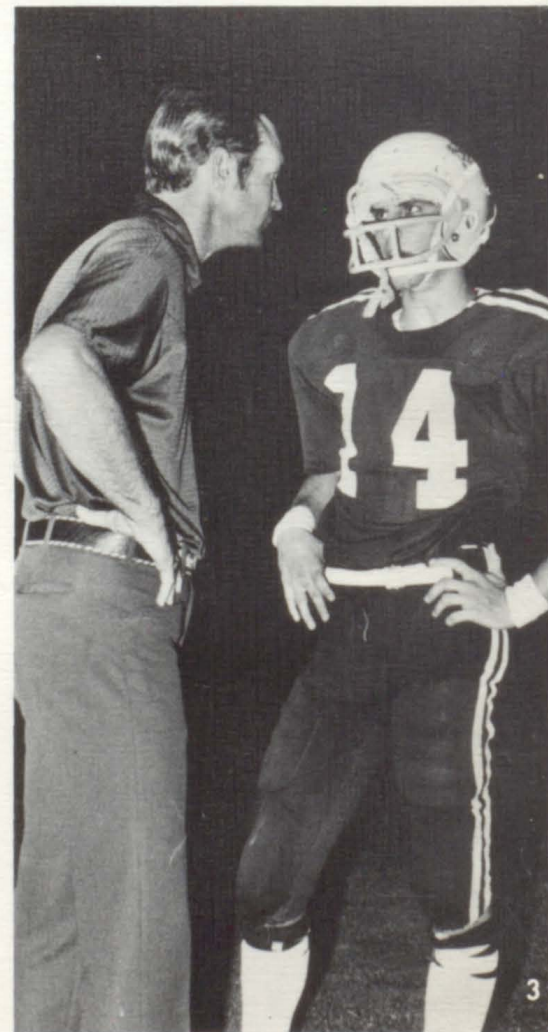

*The stage is set for involvement
As freshmen enter
And seniors await their exit
With mixed emotions.
A memory is born.*

(Dance pick-up!)

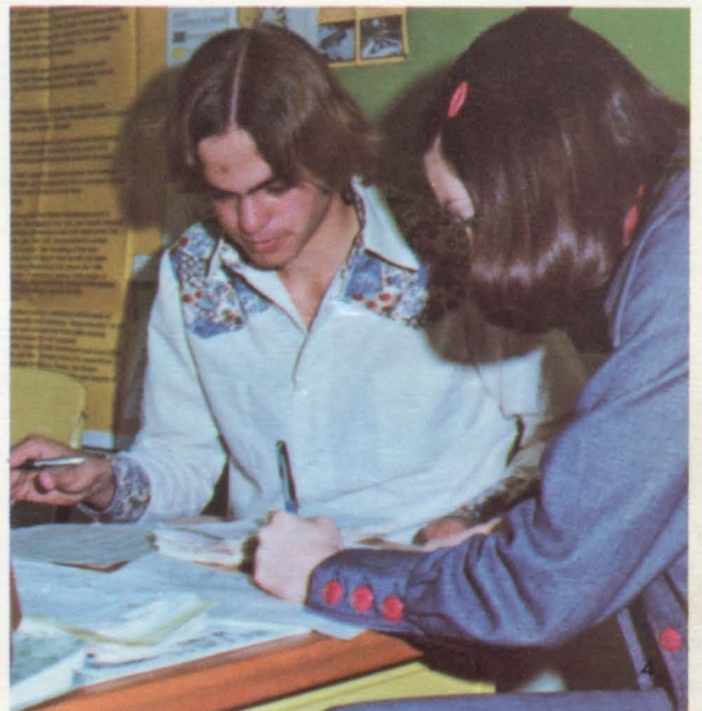

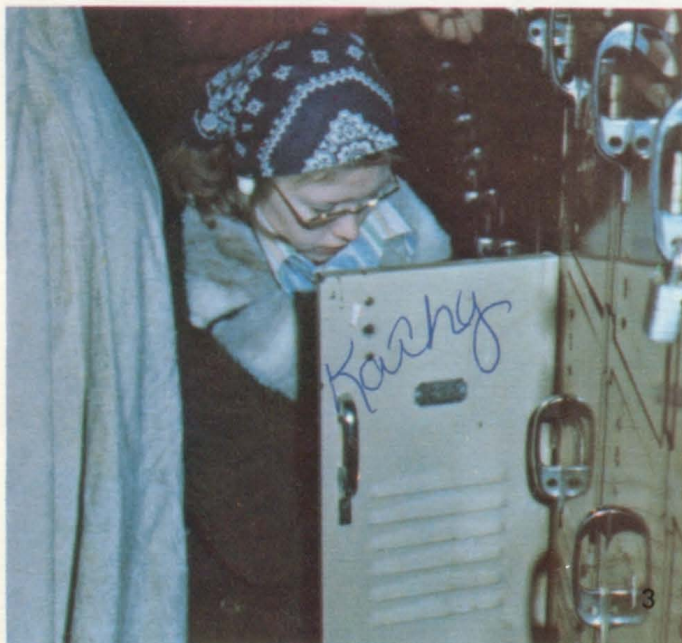

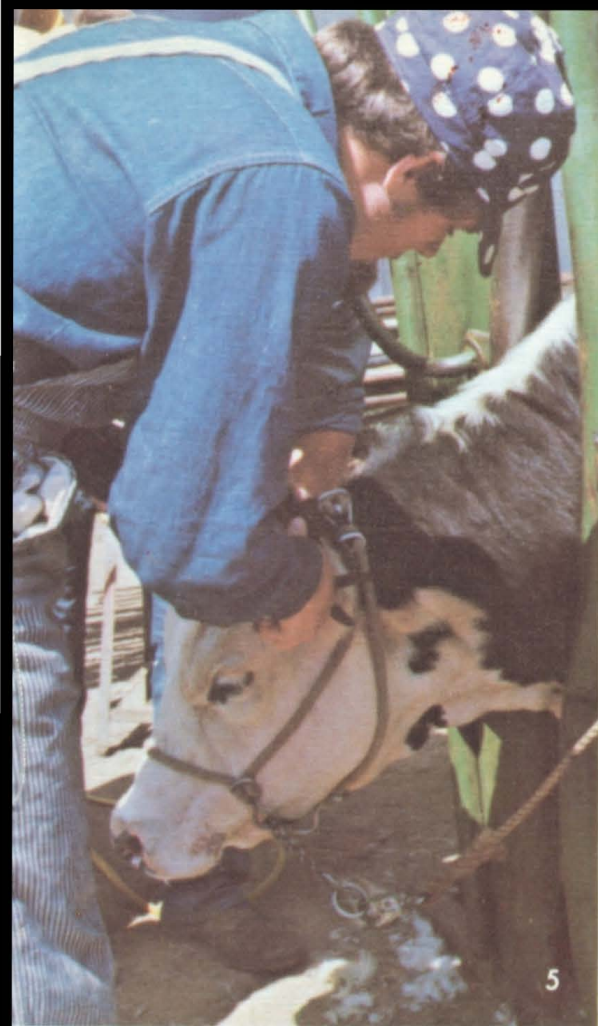

1. Smiles show the excitement of Stacy Simmons, Dawn Kidd and other band members. 2. Cindy Beck and other Hornettes celebrate a touchdown. 3. A crucial play is discussed by Coach Rodney Hudson and Eddie Reynolds. 4. Advice in English is offered Lynn Scarbrough by Mrs. Esther Edwards. 5. At the district FTA meeting Mrs. LaMoine Young chats with state advisor Miss Vatra Solomon. 6. Before Band Follies Vicki Turner and Carolyn McClure hurry into their uniforms. 7. George Ackerman signs upon receipt of his 1974 Athenian from Michael Sharpe.

*An exchange of smiles
Dialogue between friends,
A prologue to life
As the lights go up on another year.
A memory is born.*

*So many seasons and plots await us.
Our entrance time approaches
As we wait in the wings.
A memory is born.*

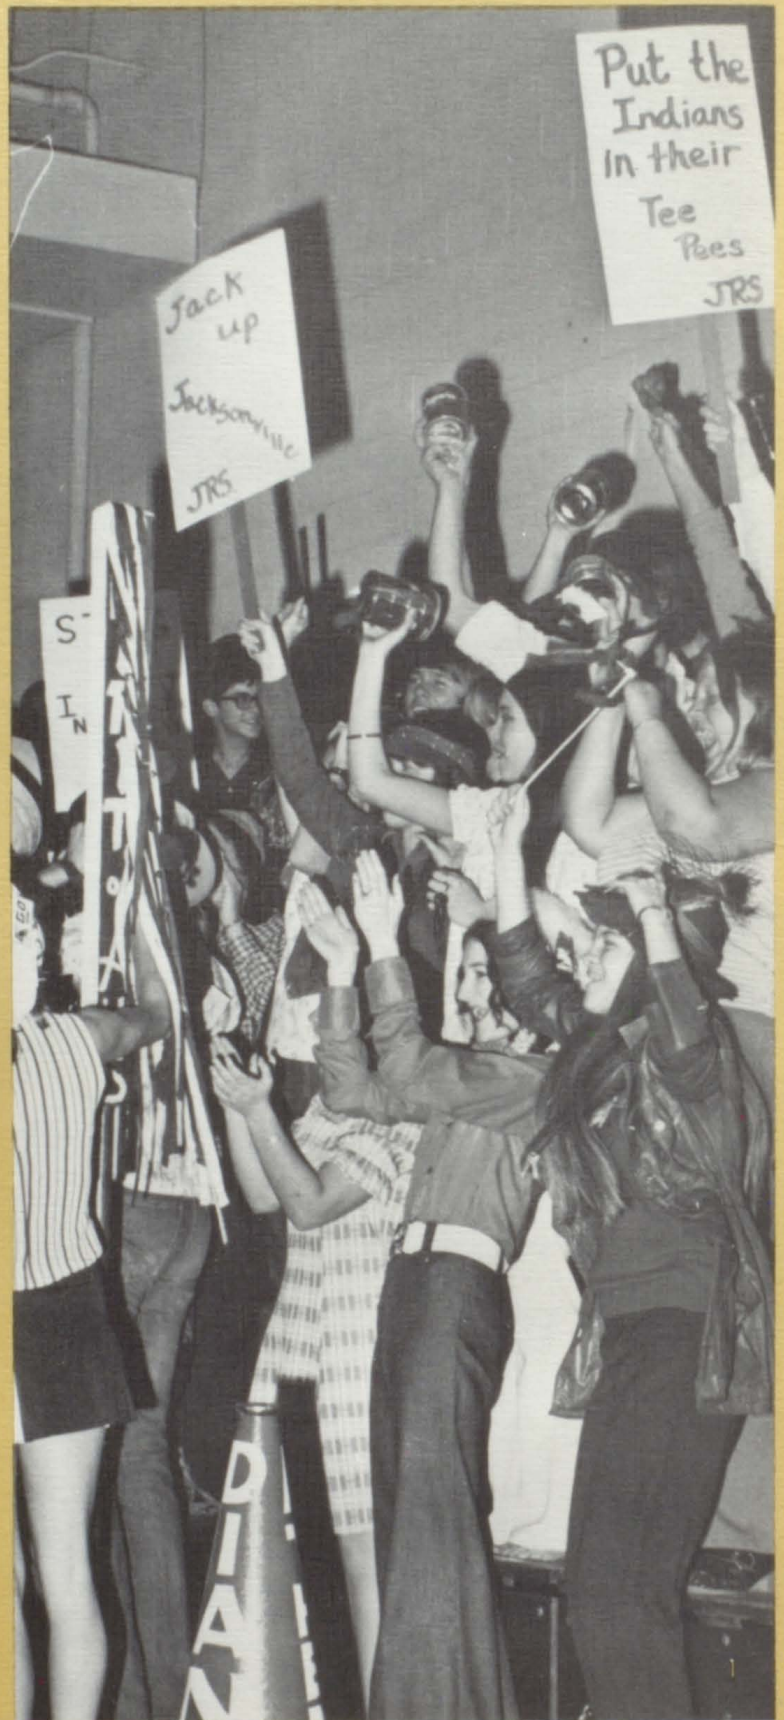

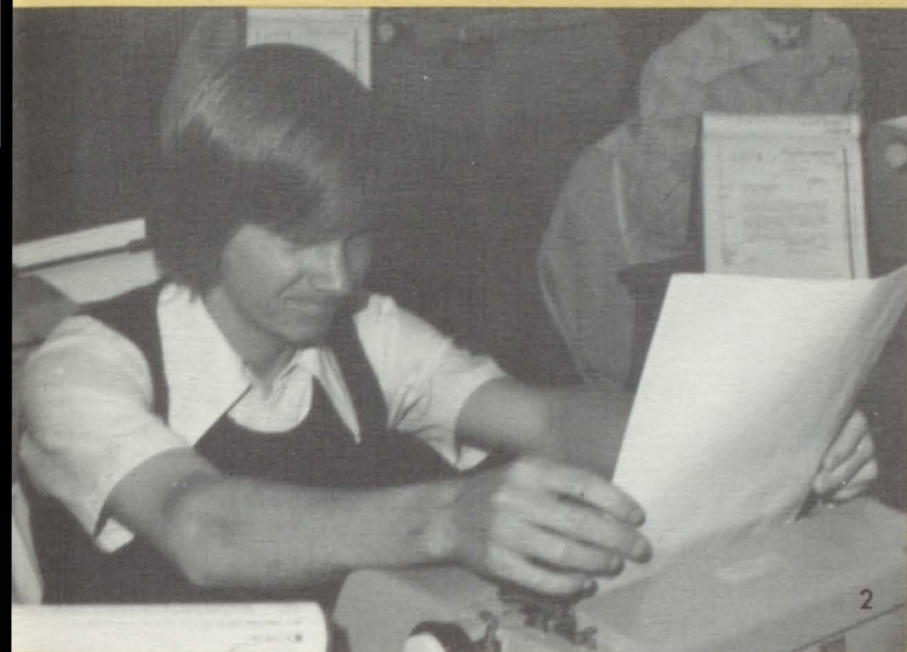

1. Visitation between classes is amusing to Terry Williams, Rose Ann Miller, Pam Smiley and Shawn Mitchell. 2. And studies require some time as Pete Roberts is finding out. 3. Kathy Caldwell's locker holds many surprises. 4. Election ballots are counted by Ted Tucker and Cindy Williams. 5. Steve Crist trims the ears of a steer for showing. 6. Senior activities posted make Danna Kerbo even more anxious for spring to arrive. 7. Mrs. Eula Robinson assists Jack Costlow in vocational plans.

The Stage

We are pulled in different directions
On cue we perform, we study, we play.
And with each action
A memory is born.

1. Junior students urge the Hornets to beat the Jacksonville Indians. 2. Typing errors bring a grimace to the face of William Frenness. 3. The band's Christmas party was a success according to Sheri Lawson. 4. Rose Ann Miller considers several possible answers to a test question.

Building floats for Homecoming,
Learning to jitterbug at the Sock Hop
Activities bring a needed change of scenery
A memory is born.

Ann Tarkington, Vicki Turner and Elaine Thompson construct a Hornet for the senior Homecoming float. The float won the $25 first prize.

Two members of the National Honor Society, David Simmons and Steve White, light their candles at the NHS induction ceremony.

Reviewing the book "Alive," Mrs. Carolyn Dance speaks to the entire student body at an assembly sponsored by the Library Club.

Performing in his ballet debut, sophomore Kelly Baker entertains a receptive audience at the 25th annual Band Follies.

Assemblies

Draw

Eager Faces

Students welcomed retreat from classes and relaxation that assemblies provided throughout the year.

General Motors presented a program on new forms of energy and different types of synthetics. In addition to being entertaining, it was also educational.

Sponsored by the Library Club, Mrs. Carolyn Dance reviewed current novels at two separate assemblies. And students later congregated to hear the testimonies of three prison inmates serving time for drug abuse.

Movies were shown by the National Honor Society, the Athenian staff and the Lettermen's Club. For the second year the Athenian staff staged a comedy assembly in a successful attempt to sell yearbooks.

Homecoming Enthusiasm Reigns

AHS put the "E" in enthusiasm early in the week of Homecoming 1974.

A bonfire, pep rally, lighting of the victory torch and an all-night walk around the courthouse by senior band members started Hornet spirit bubbling.

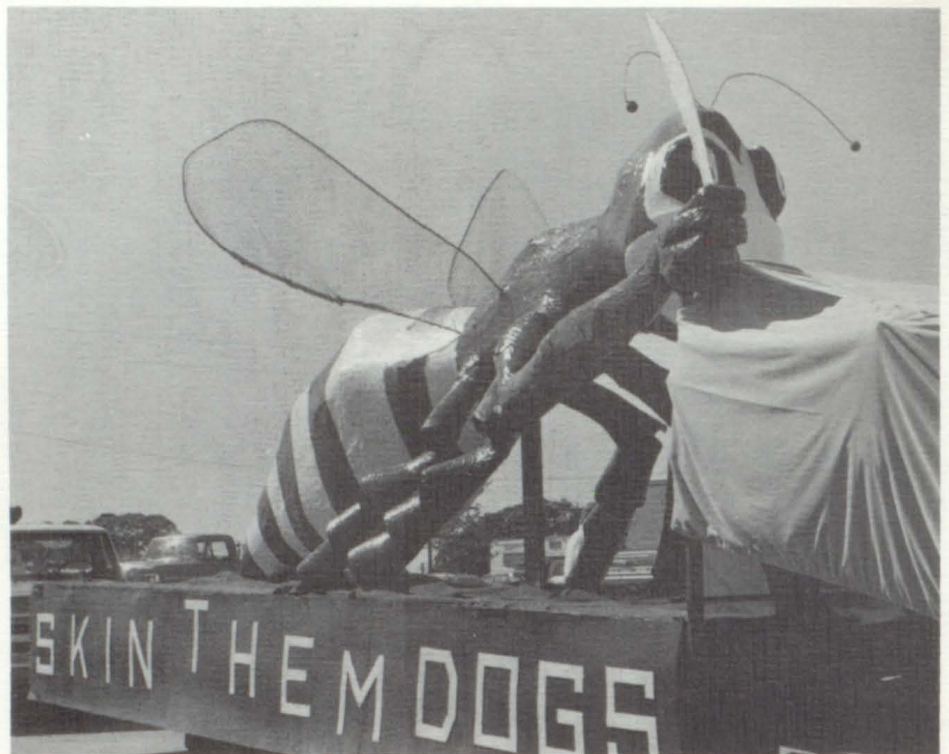

Friday afternoon Hornet supporters marched downtown in the traditional parade consisting of class and club floats, band and Homecoming Queen nominees. Senior class members were presented a well-deserved first prize of $25 in the float competition. A pep rally followed immediately after the parade. Here, the spirit stick and victory torch were presented.

Senior band members, Hornettes, players and cheerleaders were recognized during pre-game activities that night.

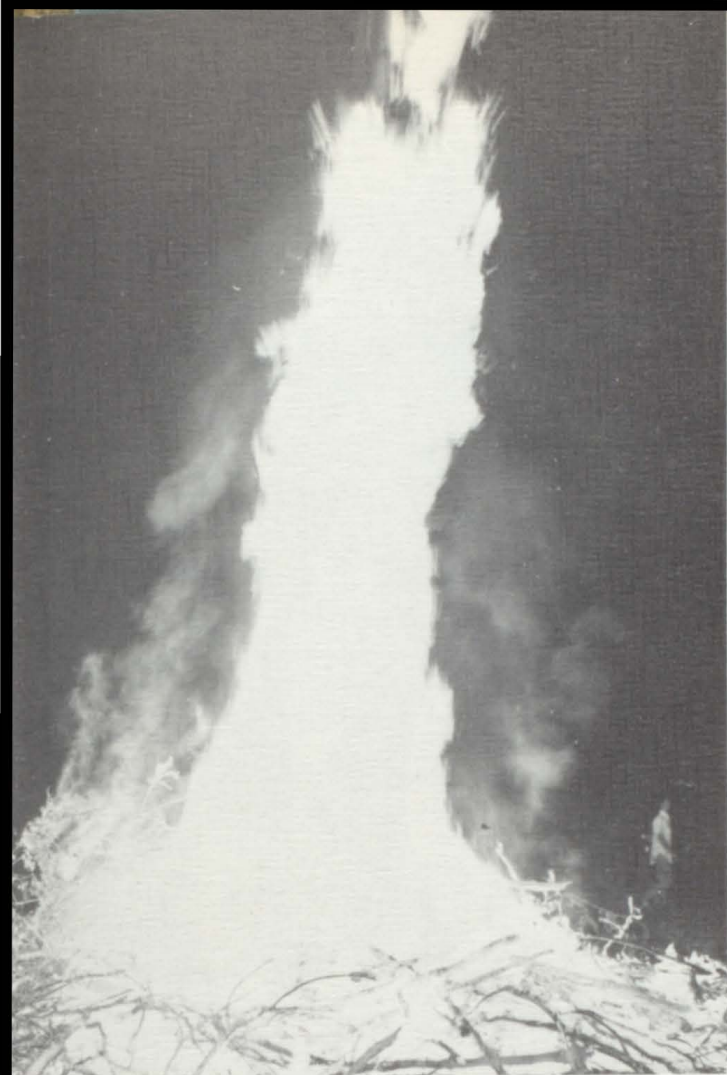

Halftime honored sophomore class nominee Lisa Allbright as the 1974 Homecoming Queen.

A thrilling 18-13 win over Chapel Hill set the mood for the post game activities in which Tokin Effort provided entertainment for those attending the reception.

"Skin Them Dogs" built by the Senior Class takes first place in the float division of the many Homecoming activities.

Cheerleaders lead Hornet enthusiasm during the tense minutes before the Chapel Hill game.

Bonfires are traditional to all AHS Homecomings. At top left, the remains of the 1974 bonfire help generate enthusiasm among those at the Thursday night pep rally.

The Junior Class float theme warns Bulldogs that they are "barking up the wrong tree."

Abie

Excited Hornets, cheerleaders, and student body harmonize to create spirit among those attending the Friday afternoon pep rally.

Band members exhibit their spirit by playing the AHS fight song. At far left, senior David Rhoades holds the victory torch.

Pep Rallies Alive With Spirit

Enthusiastic cheers of victory echoed through the halls of AHS as the student body did its part in promoting Hornet success. Regularly scheduled Friday rallies prevailed during football season only, but spirit continued as students supported basketball and the spring sports.

Homecoming week saw a bonfire pep rally Thursday night and the traditional parade downtown Friday. The parade was followed by a pep rally across from Bruce Field.

Handmade signs reveal the wishes of seniors as they give wholehearted support to the Hornets. Cans of rocks provided noise and rhythm to accompany yells while signs waved madly.

Rhonda Trammell and Lana Lookabough exhibit run through signs made each week by the art department.

Never a dull moment in the senior section, where Stephen Sharpe shows yet another method for boosting Hornet spirit at pep rallies.

A spirited and enthusiastic student body joins in a "snake dance" at the Jacksonville pep rally.

Gossiping seniors Mark Gilbert, Joey Baggett and Lawren Royall meet in the halls between classes to discuss the 50's fashions on the campus during Twerp Week.

Nostalgia Hits Campus

Penny loafers, bobby socks, leather jackets, slicked-back hair and ponytails were prominent on Valentine's Day as students celebrated Fifties Day, the final day of Twerp Week.

Twerp Week, a new event sponsored by the Student Council, was highlighted with girls carrying boys' books to classes, taking them to lunch and treating them with chivalrous courtesy.

Friday night a Sock Hop climaxed the week of unique activities. Students and faculty tried their skills at dancing the bunny hop, the jitterbug and the stroll to songs of the 50's.

Valentine's Day was the occasion and Junior High Gym was the site for the Friday night Sock Hop where lots and lots of "twistin" and "shakin" went on. Many of those attending left with aching muscles.

Carey Allen models the casual apparel of everyday life in the 50's. Carey along with the rest of the student body carried out this style of dress as a tribute to Twerp Week.

Both Mrs. Elaine White and sophomore Terry Tinney have keen interests in aviation. Mrs. White is a pilot, and Terry works at the Athens airport.

Julie Owens and Krista Woodruff combine their vocal talents in a practice session before the community musical.

Hobbies Fill Spare Time

A multitude of activities kept students busy during out-of-school hours. Many held jobs while others pursued interests that were just as rewarding in terms of enjoyment.

Summer softball leagues provided fun and exercise for junior Cheryl D. Johnson.

Long hours of practice proved beneficial to the band and their follies performances. One of their concert numbers was "Civil War Fantasy."

Follies Production Superb

Students revealed their comical, vocal, and instrumental talents during the 1975 Band Follies.

Mr. Charles Niergarth served as master of ceremonies for the 25th annual performances.

Comedy acts included My Daughter is Dying, Twinkle Toes, Close to You and P.O.T.H. Graffiti. Vocal performances were "Jessie," "Your Song," and a medley of "Let Me Entertain You" hits. Jeff Williams and Randy Gentry held the audiences' attention as they strummed a banjo duet.

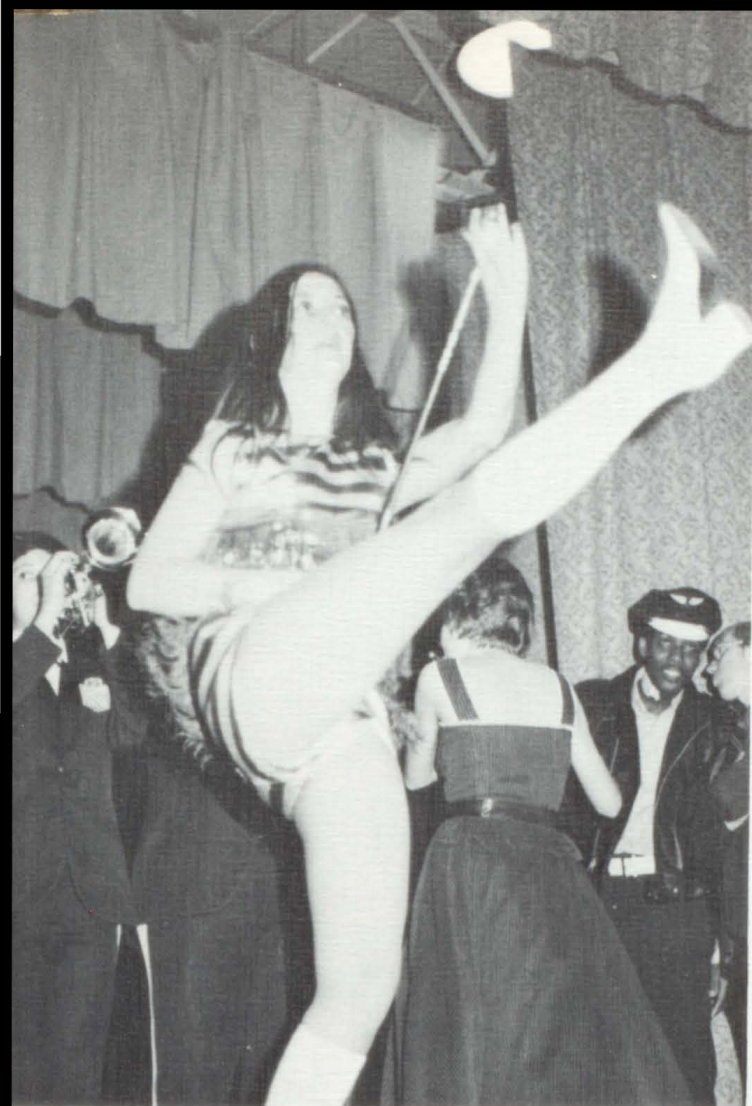

Audiences of the five shows directed by Mr. John Glover were immensely entertained.

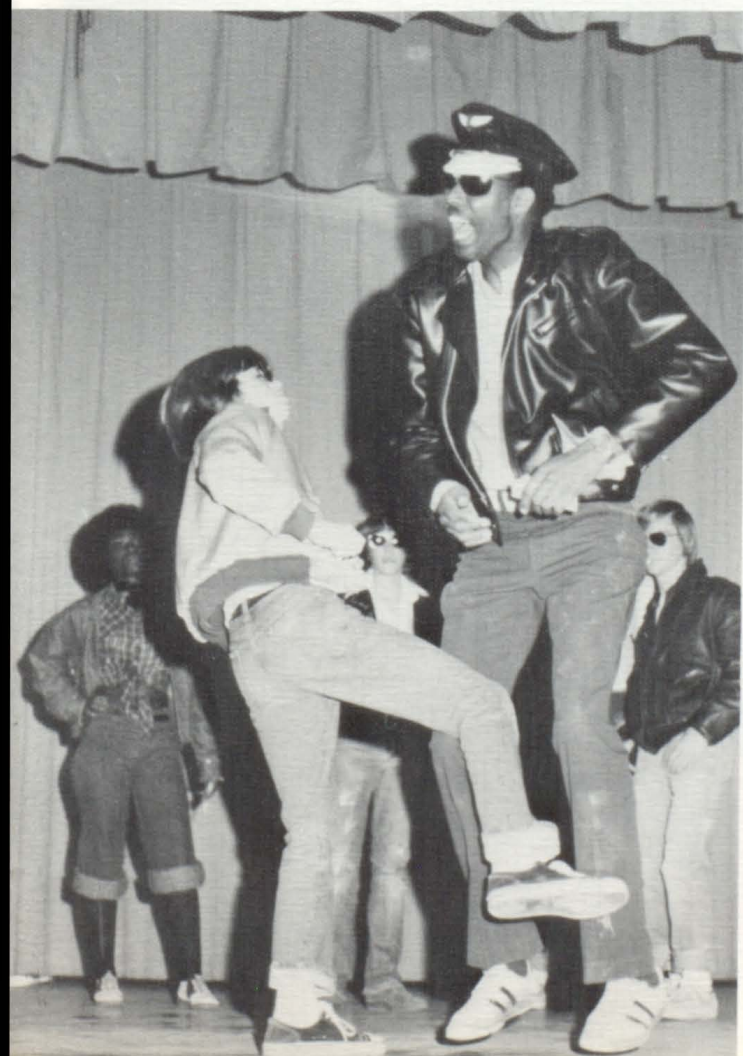

Renita Franks and Pat O'Shaughnessy portray an elderly couple that was later harassed by members of P.O.T.H. Graffiti.

This buxom opera singer, one of the comedy acts, is none other than freshman John Owens.

Majorette Cheryl Poole highkicks during the Grand Finale to "When the Saints Go Marching In."
Vocal acts include a popular tune "Your Song" sung by Cindy Mathis, Krista Woodruff and accompanied by Susan Lambert at the piano.

Band director John Glover cries out in pain as David Barnes shows him who's boss during the P.O.T.H. comedy act.

"Cut!", screams irate director David Simmons as the terrified cast of "My Daughter is Dying" continually messes up the script. Ardith Talton, Randy Jones, Kippi Hargrove and Susan Lambert appear with David.

Tax Assessor-Collector Dan Wilbanks checks license plates before their being distributed.

Legal Offices Held By Seniors

County attorney, district judge, city clerk, and county treasurer were just a few of the many offices held by seniors on Government Day. Seniors were elected by their classmates to serve in the various offices. They gained much insight in the working of city and county government.

Students participating in the annual event included Dennis Renfro, Martha Lewis, Randy Jones, Mark Gilbert, Julie Owens, Brenda Warren, Pam Wilbanks, Max Callarman, Dan Wilbanks, William Johnson, Kim Harvey, Cecile Warren, Stephen Sharpe, Jim Wren, Joey Baggett, Randy Paris, Steve Pagitt, Pat Fuller, Wade Farmer.

Fire Chief Pete Jones explains guages and other equipment to Max Callarman before starting his day with the Fire Department.

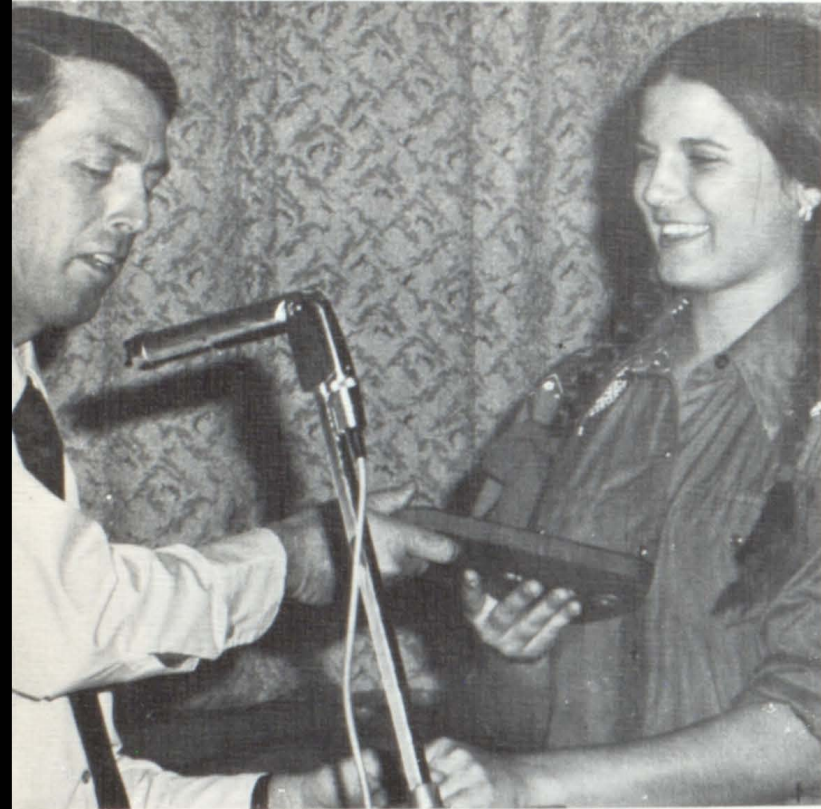

Mr. Gilbert Perry

AHS and the Athens community lost a staunch supporter in the death of Mr. Gilbert Perry, May 16, 1975. ICT coordinator for nine years, Mr. Perry was an avid fan of Hornet football and enjoyed many other activities with students. His interest in young people carried over into their adult lives, and many AHS graduates continued to count Mr. Perry among their friends.

FFA Sweetheart, Stacey Simmons, receives a plaque from FFA sponsor Mr. Gary Holiman for her representation of the club.

Sophomores with highest averages were Michele Elrod and George Ackerman. They were also recognized at this assembly.

Band director, Mr. John Glover, awards Senior Johnnie Morgan with one of the many scholarships distributed at this assembly.

Mrs. Loretta Davis presents the Biology award to Mark Kincaid for his achievements in science.

Student Council Sponsor honors Student Body President, Jim Wren, for his outstanding leadership at AHS.

Students Receive Recognition

May 8 was the day set aside at AHS to award outstanding students.

Miss Stella Pace, assistant principal and the 1975 Teacher of the Year issued awards to the many students including the highest ranking sophomore boy and girl: George Ackerman and Michele Elrod.

Departmental awards included Typing, Library, Mechanical Drawing, Journalism, History, Government, Art, and Home Economics.

UIL competitors were also recognized during the assembly.

Hornette sponsor, Mrs. Diane Locke, issued medals to the Hornette captains. Mr. Joe Thomason presented fishing rods to two outstanding Outdoors Club members. Mrs. Linda Cook, new cheerleader sponsor, recognized the freshman and varsity cheerleaders and received a gift from them in return for her loyal service. Mr. John Glover announced the recipients of the Lions Club Award and the Most Valuable Band Member. Mrs. Jerry Tanner recognized the 1974-75 Student Body President, Jim Wren and praised the hard working Student Council. Mr. Robert Montgomery and Mr. Gary Holiman presented awards from the VoAg and Auto Mechanics programs. HECE, VOE, DE, and ICT awards were also announced at this assembly.

UIL competitors, Debbie Johnson, Debbie Fortson, Cynthia Stewart, and Patti Reynolds were also recognized at the Awards assembly.

Seniors Honored At Prom

Highlighting the 1974-75 school year was the Junior-Senior Prom held on May 2. Guests were greeted at the doorway by the Junior Ushers and they stepped into a setting of a tropical-island. Palm trees decorated the walls, a garden setting, and fresh flowers all combined to carry out the theme, "A Midsummer's Night Dream". Guests also danced to the music of "Wheatstraw."

Following the prom, a breakfast of eggs, toast, donuts, sausage and coffee was served by the Juniors.

Carey Allen and Lisa Allbright do a new dance "The Bump."

Danna Kerbo and Willie Wofford take time out to pose for the photographer.

One-Act Wins Zone

After just one week of rehearsals, students in Mrs. Agatha Warren's speech class received top honors when they were selected to represent the West Zone in District One-Act Play Competition.

"The Woodshed" deals with six individuals held prisoner in a woodshed. They bicker among themselves and find it easier to be critical than to look closely at their own lives.

Taking honors at zone were Kelly Hammons who was selected as best actress; Cecile Warren, Jim Wren, and David Rhoades were named to the All-Star Cast.

At district competition Jim Wren was selected for "All-Star Cast" and Kelly Hammons and David Rhoades were given Honorable Mention.

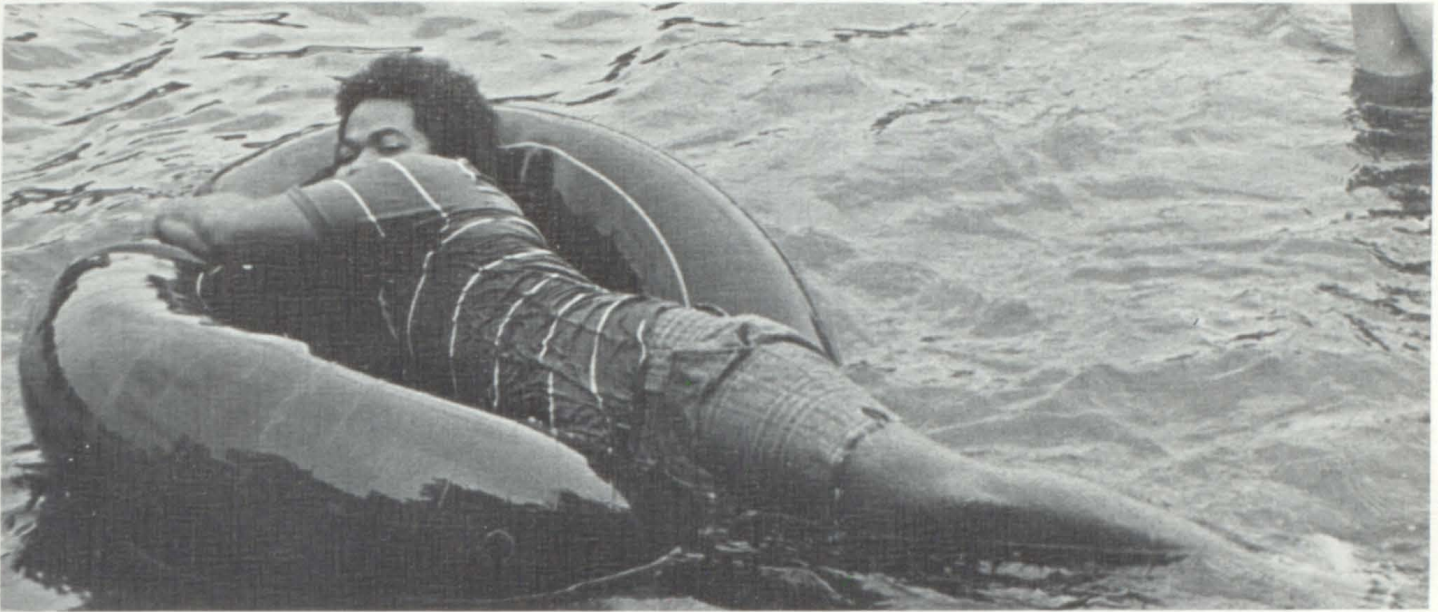

Kelly Hammons, Max Callarman, Cecile Warren, David Rhoades, and Rae White tug at Jim Wren, the newest person to become a prisoner of "The Woodshed."

In a fit of anger, Kelly Hammons destroys one of her paintings while being held prisoner.

Taking it easy and relaxing from the trials and tribulations of school was a purpose of Senior Day '75. Winston Davis takes in some sun and drifts away in more ways than one. Hamburgers were served later in the evening.

A favorite activity of Senior Day '75 was participating in a wild game of volleyball. Cindy Spencer attempts to serve the ball as Sherril Bell waits for its return.

Seniors Enjoy Busy Day

Senior Day '75 will long be remembered. In early Spring the Christian Youth Foundation was invaded by one hundred and eighty-three seniors and five senior sponsors.

Seniors enjoyed reading the Class Prophecy, Class Will and "Remember When?" Gifts of appreciation were presented to senior sponsors.

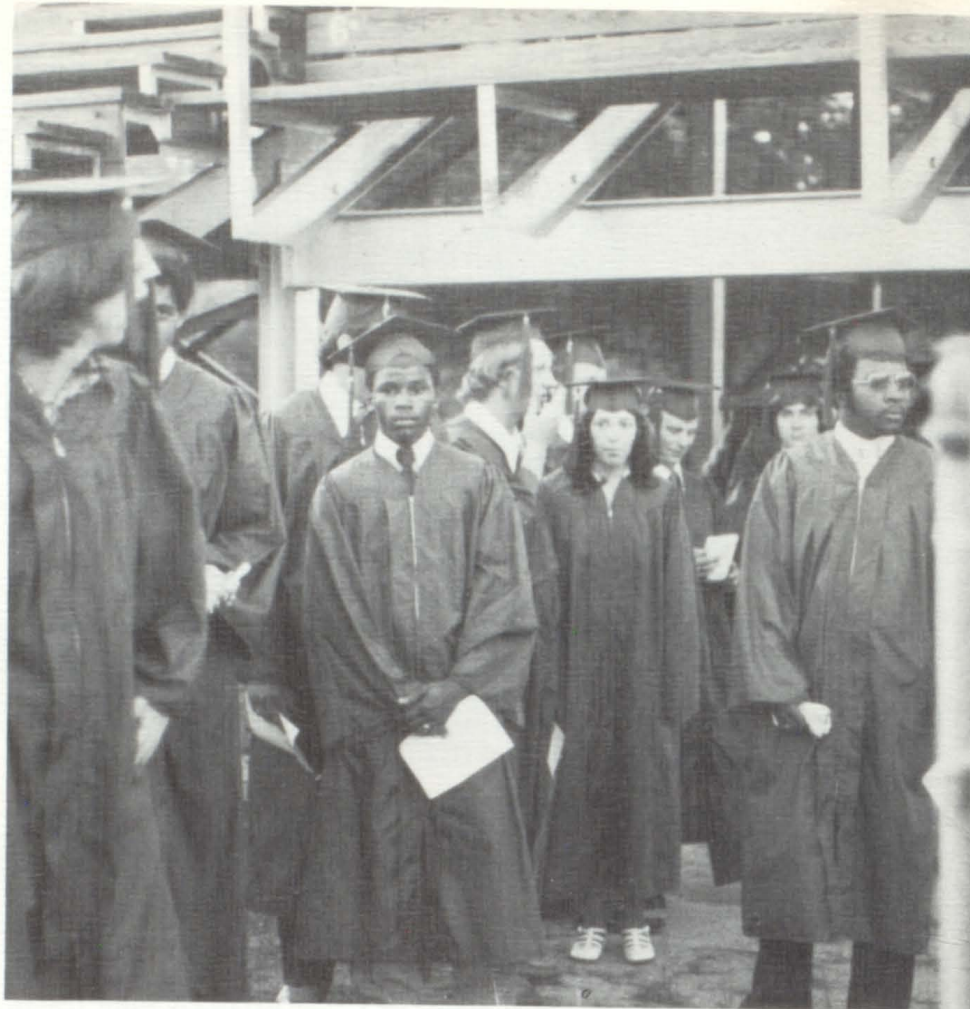

Other activities included swimming, throwing classmates in the lake, volleyball, horse shoe throwing, tossing frisbees and some "parking lot" excursions. Some seniors of '75 reminisced about the "good 'ole days" and discussed future plans.

Baccalaureate Prepares Seniors

The class of 1975 held its Baccalaureate services on Bruce Field, May 25. Graduates and guests listened as the Reverend Glenn Mangrum spoke on the "Four Personalities of Moses." Following the sermon, the Reverend Curtis Mathis pronounced the benediction.

Music for the graduates' Processional on and off the field was presented by the Pride of the Hornets Band led by Mr. John Glover.

Above, looks of apprehension and reflection dominate the scene as seniors begin to realize the significance of the evening.

Principal Mr. Bob Stolusky chats with graduates before the services begin. By the conclusion of the program most students were sweltering in their maroon gowns.

More seniors anxiously await the beginning of the processional and find a little time for last minute visiting.

Overcome with tears at graduation, Debbie Hawkins finds she hates to part with her friends at AHS.

Kim Henderson clutches her diploma and smiles at having completed her high school years.

Senior sponsor Mr. Jerry Rogers, assisted by son Brad, answers questions and helps graduates line up for the processional.

Graduates Face Future

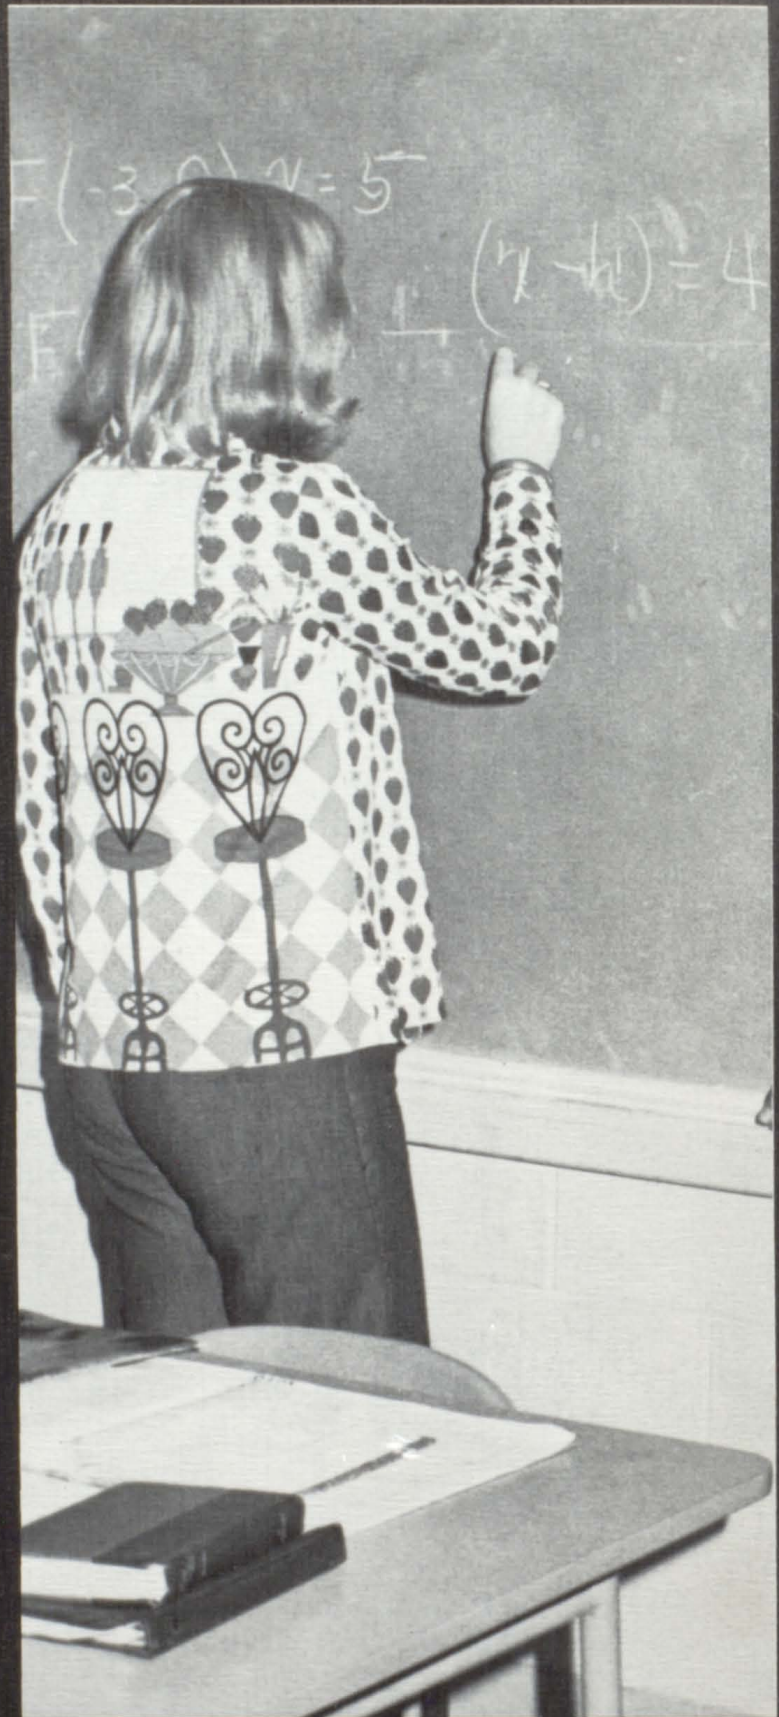

Ecstatic seniors revealed mixed emotions upon the climax of their twelve years of school.

The long awaited diplomas and good luck handshakes and wishes were distributed by school trustee Mr. James Stacks.

Laughter, tears, joy and anxiety of future occurrences filled the air as the seniors made their final exit.

The equation for a hyperbola holds the attention of sophomore Michelle Elrod. Michelle taught Mrs. Diane Locke's classes on FTA Student Teaching Day.

A scene from "Beowulf" in Mrs. Edwards' English IV class is dramatized by Seniors Melinda Dyer and Rhonda Trammell.

Sentences to be diagrammed are read aloud by Debbie Hawkins, an assistant for Mrs. Elaine White.

Literature Stressed In Classes

Literature, grammar, and compositions were among the English requirements at Athens High School.

Three teachers, Mrs. Agatha Warren, Mrs. Elaine Sapp, and Mrs. Linda Woodfin were added this year to the staff making a total of seven English teachers and twenty-nine classes.

Seniors were instructed in English literature including works by William Shakespeare, and they worked several weeks on the ever traditional research theme. Juniors were taught American literature, grammar, and the grueling art of writing the research theme. Sophomores and Freshmen were trained in grammar and selections from American and English literature.

Logarithms get some challenge from Candy Pennington, George Ackerman and Cheryl Johnson in Mrs. Dianne Locke's fourth period Algebra II class.

Law, Number Operations Explored

Logarithms, theorems, percents, base numbers and calculus were among the areas of math calculated by students of AHS.

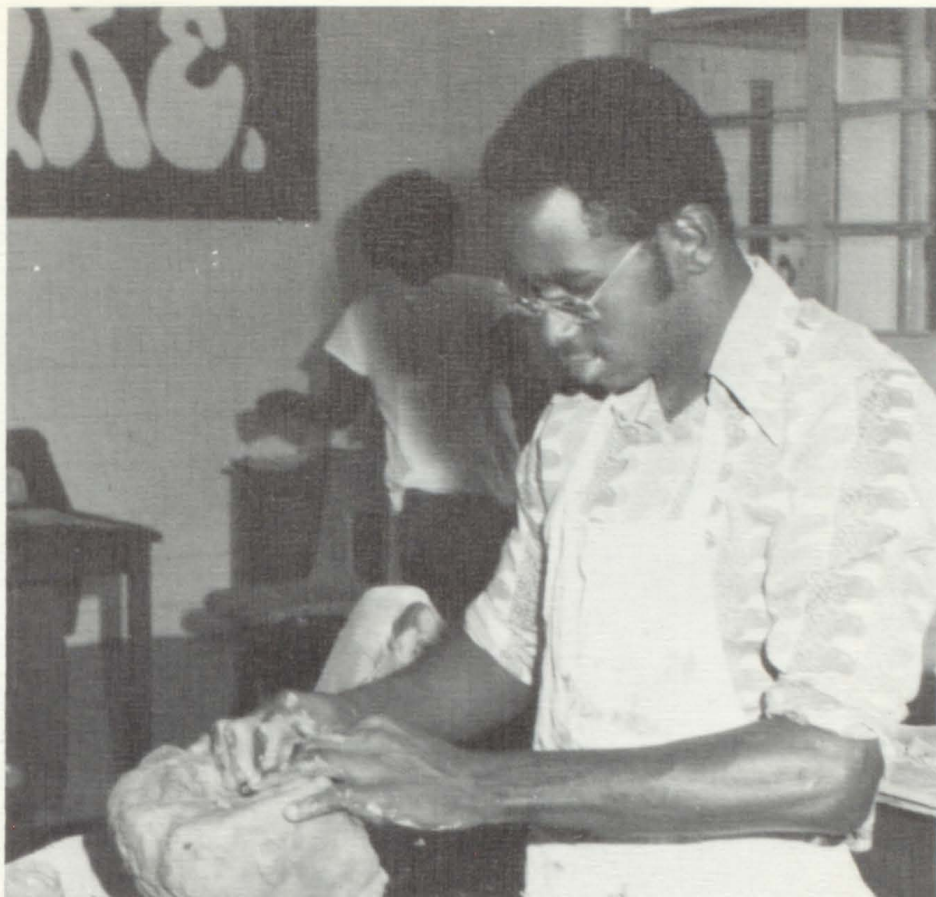

Subjects offered included Related Math, Geometry, Algebra and Advanced Math. Six quarter-units in math were required for graduation.

The exploration of the world of DNA molecules, cells, atoms, and scientific laws was conducted by students in Physical Science, Biology, Chemistry and Physics.

Students learned the operation of scientific laws through controlled experiments in the lab, while in class they became acquainted with atoms, learned about the Earth's structure, and applied scientific laws to equations. Science teachers new to AHS were Mr. Henry Hamilton and Mr. Terry Parker.

Copper II sulfate is weighed by Monte Register in the lab of Mrs. Loretta Davis' first period Chemistry class.

Electives Complete Curriculum

To complete the curriculum students chose from additional required and optional classes.

Required courses included three types of History, Government, Physical Education, and Health. Electives were selected from Mechanical Drawing, Art, Homemaking, Book-keeping, Consumer Education and Typing. Band, Auto Mechanics, Agriculture, and vocational courses are covered in the Productions section of this book.

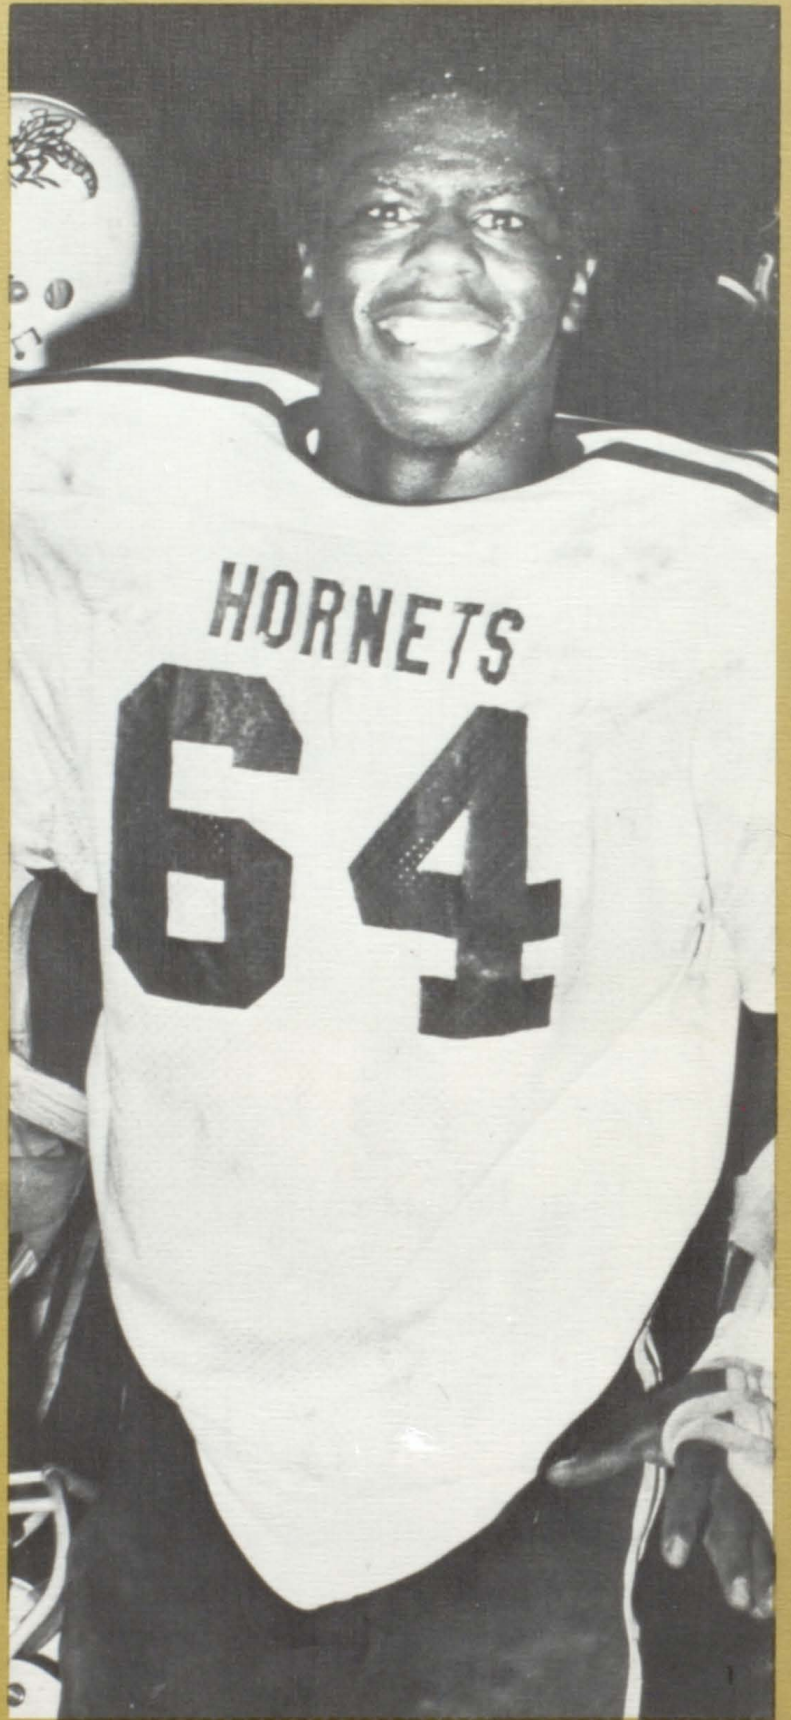

In first period Art class, taught by Mrs. Duane Perry, Curtis Jackson gets into messy business when he sculptures with clay.

Presidential candidate James Weaver receives campaigning from Floyd Thomas and Tommy Dickerson in Mrs. Jerry Tanner's first period American History class.

In fourth period Mechanical Drawing Jeff Frankum, Gary Hicks and Michael Hunter continue with their work as Curtis Jackson admires Jim Wren's draft.

Ennis defenders make a desperate attempt to foil the winning field goal, but their efforts were unsuccessful as Joe Dan Perkins' 26-yard boot gave Athens their first victory over Ennis since 1967.

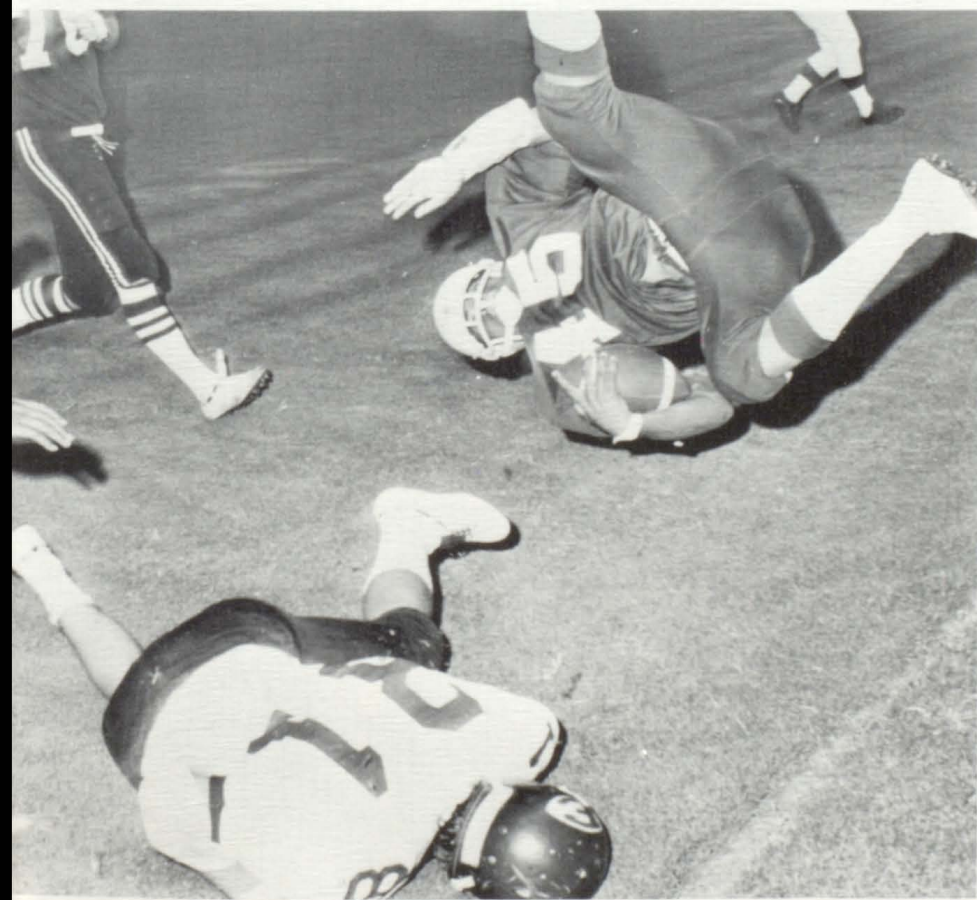

Finally — A Win Over Ennis

In a game that kept fans on the edge of their seats, Athens kicked out a 3-0 victory over arch-rival Ennis to open the 1974 season.

Penalties plagued Athens throughout the game and slowed down the Hornets' offensive drive. The most costly penalty was an illegal-receiver-downfield call that nullified a 45-yard halfback pass from Ken Griffin to Terry Bowman in the fourth quarter.

Early in the fourth period Ennis fumbled on a punt return, and the loose ball was picked up by William Turk and returned to the Lion 27. C.J. Fairchild then ran up the middle for 23 yards before being brought down at the four yard line. With 2:16 left on the clock Joe Dan Perkins came in and kicked the winning 26-yard field goal, giving Athens their first victory over Ennis since 1967.

Junior tailback Ken Griffin tumbles for extra yardage as an Ennis defender lies helpless to stop him. Although plagued with penalties, Athens succeeded in pulling out a 3-0 victory over highly favored Ennis.

On third down junior tailback Ken Griffin (45) gets the needed yardage for a first down on the Ram 47 yard line.

Lead Shrivels Into Tie

Fans saw a first quarter thriller against Richardson Berkner but were disappointed in the second quarter as the Rams came to life and the Hornets had to settle for a 6-6 tie.

On their first possession the Hornets moved 68 yards to the end zone. Junior tailback Ken Griffin scored the six points, and Joe Dan Perkins' kick was wide.

Berkner scored from the four yard line, in the second quarter, on a fake field goal as Hornet defenders stood by helpless in block formation. Berkner's kick was also wide, and the score stood 6-6 at the half.

In the second half, Athens had chances to pull ahead, but two interceptions, a costly penalty, and a fumbled hand-off spoiled the Hornets' chance for their second win of the young season.

Putting the stopper to a Richardson Berkner player are junior linebacker Michael Johnson (33) and senior safety Jasper Davis (40).

Before being surprised by a Lion defender in the initial quarter of play, senior quarterback Eddie Reynolds (14) bolts around left end for six yards.

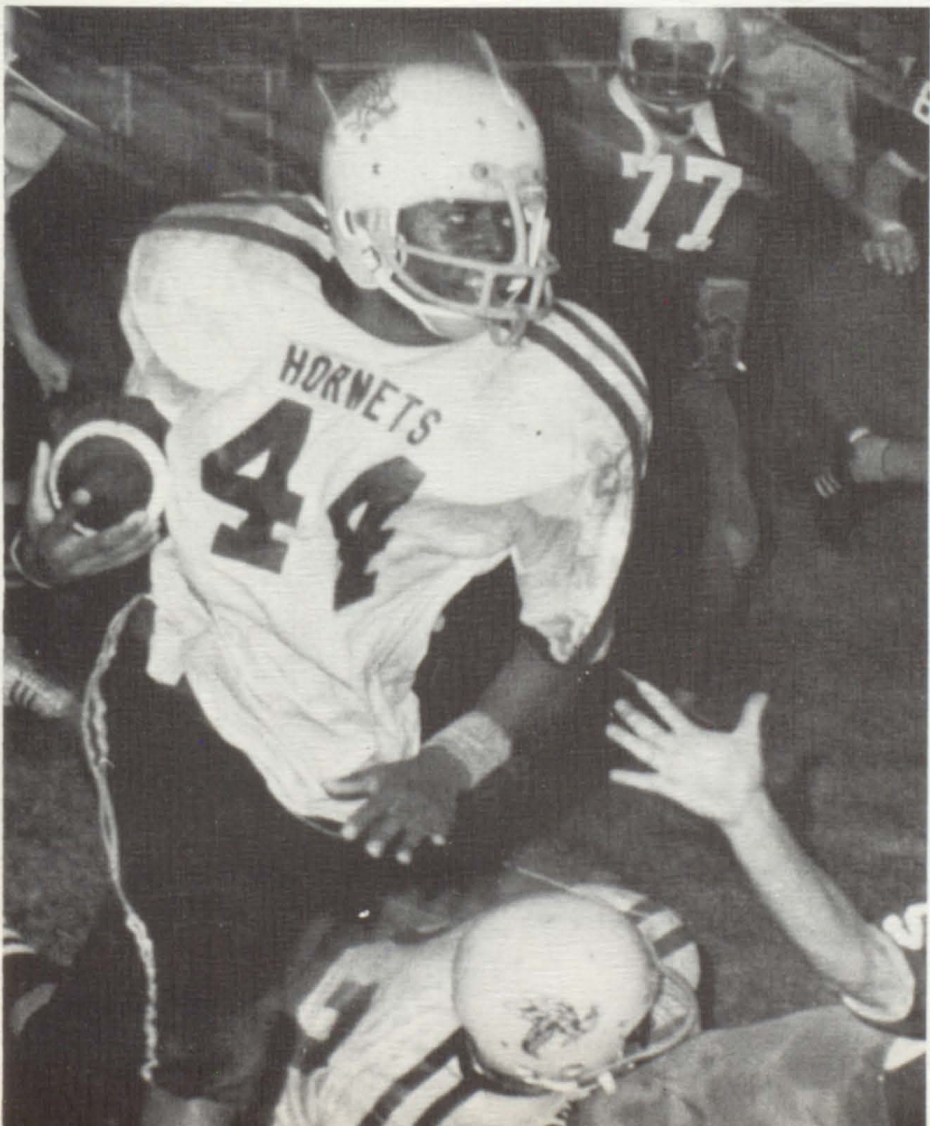

Mistakes Cause First Loss

In one of the sloppiest games of the season, the Henderson Lions outlasted the Hornets, 13-0.

The maroon defense played well as it gave the offense the ball twice in the first quarter in Lion territory, first on the 45 and then on the 36. Athens moved to the 16, but was stopped, and William Johnson's field goal attempt was wide. On the second fumble recovery by the defense, the Hornets could get no closer than the 27-yard line.

Late in the second quarter Lion quarterback Arthur Tatum found David Ballenger in the end zone and Ricky Williams tacked on the PAT for a 7-0 Henderson lead.

In the second half the Hornets could do nothing right, and Henderson added their final score late in the third stanza on a long pass from Tatum to Larry Christian. Williams' kick was not good, but the Lions held on to win, 13-0.

Finding a hole in the Henderson line is Ken Griffin (44), and he makes good use of it as he moves 13 yards closer to the goal line.

Steve Stacks clears a path to the goal for C. J. Fairchild to increase the Hornet lead. The Lions were no match for the Hornets as Athens rushed 220 yards.

An unlucky Kaufman ball carrier is nailed by senior defensive end Wayne Perkins. The Athens defense held the Lions to only five first downs in a game that ended in a 27-0 Hornet victory.

Kaufman Shut Out 27-0

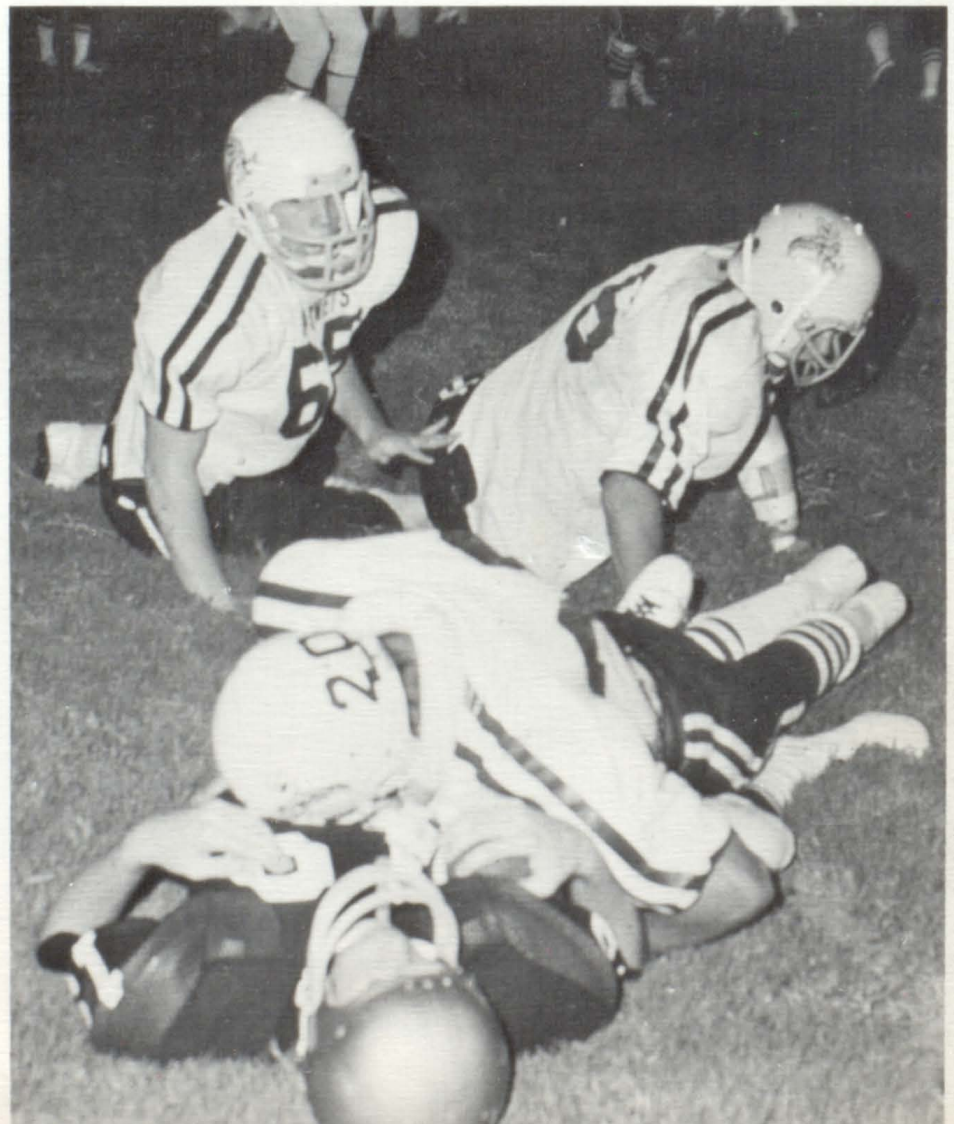

The Kaufman Lions who went on to a AA district title were held to only five first downs as AHS took an easy 27-0 win.

The Hornets capitalized on a roughing-the-kicker penalty in the first quarter, taking over on the Lion 37. From there Keith Barker and C. J. Fairchild moved in for the score and Joe Dan Perkins' kick gave Athens a 7-0 lead.

Wayne Perkins blocked a Lion punt giving Athens possession on the Kaufman 26. Barker and Fairchild again got the call, and Fairchild collected his second TD of the evening.

Late in the half second-string QB Wade Farmer directed the Hornets to their third score. The points came on a lateral from Farmer to Ken Griffin, and Perkins' kick gave Athens a 20-0 halftime lead.

Athens' final score came late in the fourth quarter. Barker collected a long pass from backup QB Ricky Hardin for six, and William Johnson booted the extra point. The 27-0 win brought the season record to 2-1-1.

Quarterback Eddie Reynolds draws attention from Kilgore's line of defense as he tries to find running room. Bulldog defenders found it difficult to hold back the Hornets as Athens took an easy 27-0 win.

Win Comes In Second Half

In their fifth game of the season Athens pounded out a 27-0 victory over the winless Kilgore Bulldogs.

The first half saw sputtering offenses and a 0-0 halftime score, but the Hornets got things rolling on their second possession in the third quarter when they moved the ball 72 yards and scored on a 16-yard pass from Eddie Reynolds to Keith Barker. On the next Hornet possession C. J. Fairchild crossed the goal to cap a 50-yard offensive attack. Joe Dan Perkins' PAT made the score 13-0.

Wayne Perkins' recovery of a Bulldog fumble late in the third quarter paved the way for a third Hornet TD, a halfback pass from Ken Griffin to Steve Stacks. Perkins' kick was good, giving Athens a 20-0 lead.

Midway through the 4th Stacks blocked a Bulldog punt on the Kilgore 18, and Michael Johnson carried the ball from there for the final score. Perkins' PAT gave the Hornets an indisputable 27-0 victory.

A Bulldog receiver struggles to catch a pass as Don Foster looks on. Although Kilgore's passing game was impressive, it was no match for the Hornets' rushing attack.

Offense Shines 28-0

The Hornets experienced a miserable first quarter, but came back in the final three sessions to blank Bishop Lynch of Dallas, 28-0.

It looked as if it was going to be a long night in the initial quarter as the Hornets fumbled the ball away twice to the Friars. But in the second quarter, Ken Griffin took the ball eight yards to paydirt, and Joe Dan Perkins kicked the extra point, the first of four consecutive PAT's, and Athens owned the scoreboard, 7-0.

A rough Hornet defense gave the ball back to the offense, and the Hornets drove 72 yards to score on Eddie Reynolds' pass to Steve Stacks from the 22-yard line. Perkins' kick was good and Athens led 14-0 with 1:39 left in the half.

C. J. Fairchild put up 6 more for the Hornets early in the second half after Jasper Davis had recovered the pigskin on a fumbled punt on the Friar 21-yard line. Perkins made it 21-0 with 6:12 left in the third.

Don Foster iced the game with 46 seconds left on a 4-yard quarterback sneak. Perkins' PAT was true and the score was 28-0, Athens.

Taking the ball in untouched for six more points, to put the Hornets even further ahead, is senior flanker back Steve Stacks (22).

Junior tailback Ken Griffin finds that glorious place, the end zone, and makes the first score in the ball game.

Pulling in the ball for another large gain is senior back Steve Stacks (22) on the 37 yard line of Chapel Hill.

Whew! Defense Holds

The Hornets got two gifts in the same package on Oct. 18 when they won their first zone game and also their homecoming match with the Chapel Hill Bulldogs, 18-13.

Athens took an early 12-0 lead when Tommy Frizzell intercepted a Bulldog pass on the visitors' 33, setting up an Eddie Reynolds heave to Steve Stacks for the first TD. After C. J. Fairchild intercepted another Bulldog pass, Reynolds found Stacks again all alone for a 16-yard scoring strike. Joe Dan Perkins missed the PAT for the second time and Athens led 12-0, with 3:30 to go in the half.

Chapel Hill was not out of it though, as they went on the board with 4 seconds left in the half, to make the score 12-6.

On the Bulldogs' first possession of the second half they marched 61-yards to go ahead 13-12, making Hornet homecoming fans a bit nervous.

But the Hornets were not through either. In only nine plays Athens was on the board again, on a Ken Griffin 19-yard ramble. Reynolds' try for two was no good, but the Hornet defense stopped the Bulldogs cold the rest of the game to bring their season record to 5-1-1 and their district slate to 1-0.

A quick scamper around right end picks up 27 yards for junior tailback Ken Griffin (45) before he is pulled down by a Bulldog.

Offense Collects 6 TD's

Athens hounded the Crockett Bulldogs throughout the game, handing them an embarrassing 41-12 defeat.

At first, things looked grim for Athens as the Bulldogs turned a Hornet fumble into a quick six points within the first minute of play. But the Hornets snapped back with a 7-6 lead when C. J. Fairchild darted over the goal line to top off an 80-yard offensive drive with 7:00 still left in the first quarter.

The early part of the second period saw Ken Griffin cross the goal from the seven, and Joe Dan Perkins' PAT widened the Hornet lead to 14-6. Griffin then dazzled everyone with a spectacular 63-yard journey to the end zone. William Johnson tacked on the extra point to give Athens a 21-6 lead. The Maroon Machine scored again on their next possession as Michael Johnson dodged tackles for 35 yards to increase the Hornet lead. Late in the half Steve Stacks picked off a Bulldog pass to secure Athens a 28-6 halftime lead.

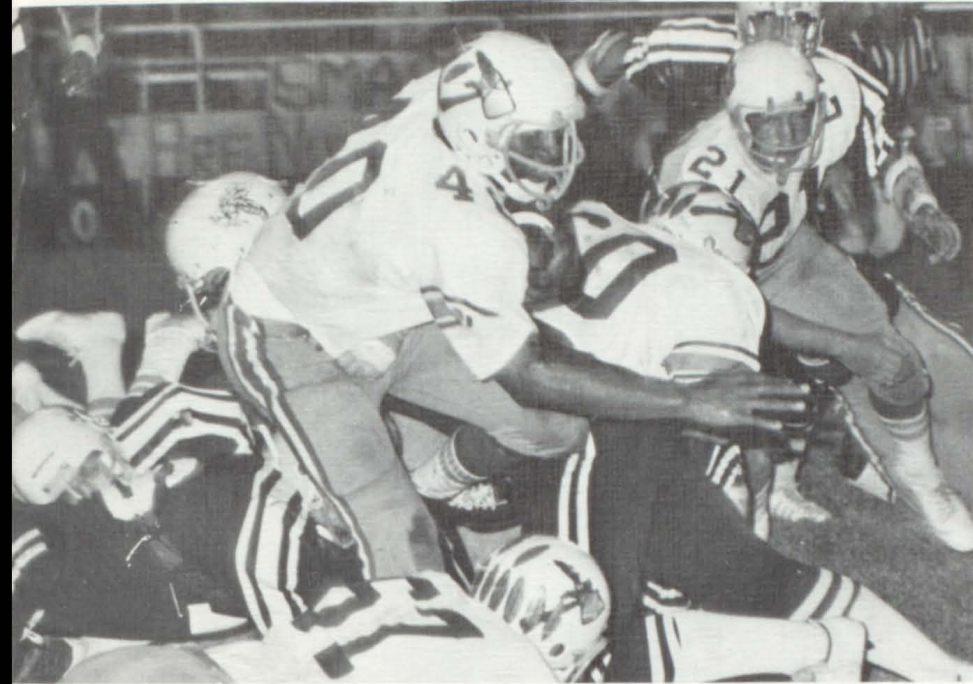

Michael Johnson racked up six more points in the third quarter to complement a 42-yard attack. William Johnson again popped the ball through the uprights for the extra point. Crockett was able to sneak a second TD past the Hornets, but a Bulldog fumble recovered by Randy Paris set up a sixth TD by Curtis Jackson, giving Athens an impressive 41-12 victory.

A Crockett defensive lineman gets a hand on tailback Ken Griffin. This and other efforts by the Bulldog defense did not slow down the Hornets as Athens passed, rushed and kicked their way to a 41-12 win.

Senior tailback Curtis Jackson crosses the goal just inches from the grasp of a would-be tackler. Crockett found it impossible to hold back the Hornets' aerial and ground attacks.

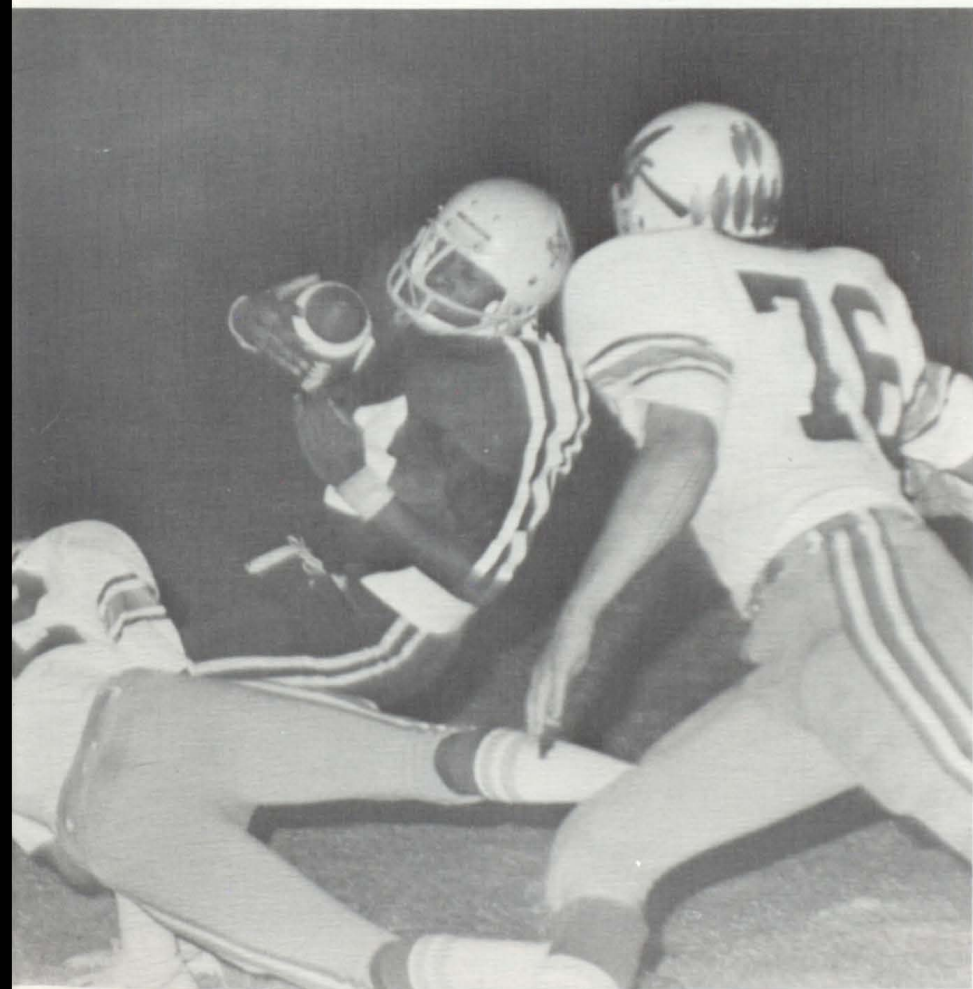

An unidentified Hornet defender gets a hand on a Jacksonville running back. Although Athens fought desperately to ward off the Indian attack, J'ville managed to pull out a 20-0 win.

District Dreams Demolished

Any Athens hopes of winning the District 9AAA West Zone title were smothered as Jacksonville rushed 236 yards to a 20-0 win.

Jacksonville capitalized on an interception thrown Eddie Reynolds, taking a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter. The next Hornet drive looked good as Athens was able to push to the Indian 17 before J'ville refused to allow any more. William Johnson's 20-yard field goal attempt failed, and J'ville held on to their lead. The Hornets were able to stop the next Indian drive only to fumble the ball, which was picked up and turned into a second touchdown by a J'ville defender. The next Hornet attack was cut short by the halftime buzzer. The Indians finished the night's scoring midway through the third quarter, handing Athens a heartbreaking 20-0 defeat.

Ken Griffin has no room to run as he finds himself surrounded by a pair of rampaging Indians. Such was the situation throughout the game as the Hornets just couldn't seem to cross the goal.

Season Ends In Defeat

All Hornet hopes of a second place standing in district were snuffed out in the heartbreaking season finale as the Palestine Wildcats upended the Hornets, 14-3.

Breaks were the name of the game as the Athens offense had one of its best nights statistically, and the Hornet defense held the Wildcats to very few yards. Wild running by senior C. J. Fairchild and junior Ken Griffin, who both gained over 100 yards, wasn't enough to turn the trick.

The Hornets came out fighting and used up most of the first quarter clock driving from their own 25 to the Wildcat 18. There Joe Dan Perkins kicked a 35-yard field goal to put the Hornets on the scoreboard 3-0 with 1:26 left in the initial period.

A brick-wall defense stopped Palestine cold just inches from paydirt in the second quarter. Seconds later the Hornets recovered a fumble on the Palestine 30 but could not capitalize on the recovery.

In the second half a questionable call by an official gave the Wildcats a fumble recovery and sparked them to two touchdowns to put the game away, 14-3.

The Hornets finished with a 6-3-1 season record and came in third best in the zone with a 2-2 slate.

Defeat shows on the faces of junior Keith Barker, senior Eddie Reynolds, and senior Randy Paris, as they watch their fellow Hornets desperately trying to stop the Palestine offense.

Despite a mediocre 3-4-2 season the Hornet Junior Varsity played some very exciting football and managed a 2-1 district record.

Quarterback Steve Gideon completed 30 of the JV passes, and was helped in the first part of the season by Ricky Hardin at that position.

E. P. Lynch, Charles Jackson, Freddie Paul, and Mark Tidmore led the way in the scoring department as the JV's experienced a lukewarm season.

Freshmen Slide To 3-5-1 Slate

Quarterback Danny Chaney led the Ninth Grade Hornet squad to a 3-5-1 season slate.

Chaney was the leading scorer for the season, followed closely by Stan Hill. Jody Lemons, Cash Burch, Jerry Williams, Stan Hill and Dan Waggoner were standouts at their positions.

The Freshmen did well in district, boasting a 2-1 record, which was good enough for second place in the zone.

Miserable Season Starts

Stung with defeat in their first outing, the Hornets came back with a 55% field goal average over DeSoto and a 79-73 victory.

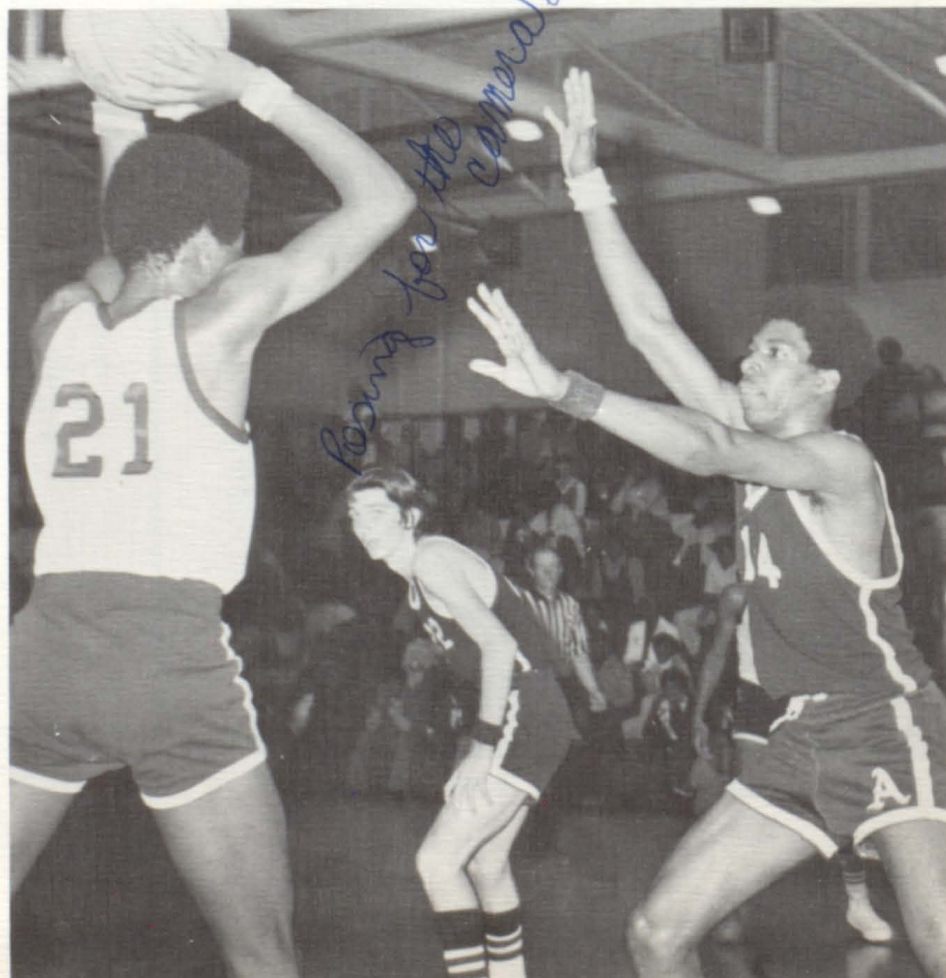

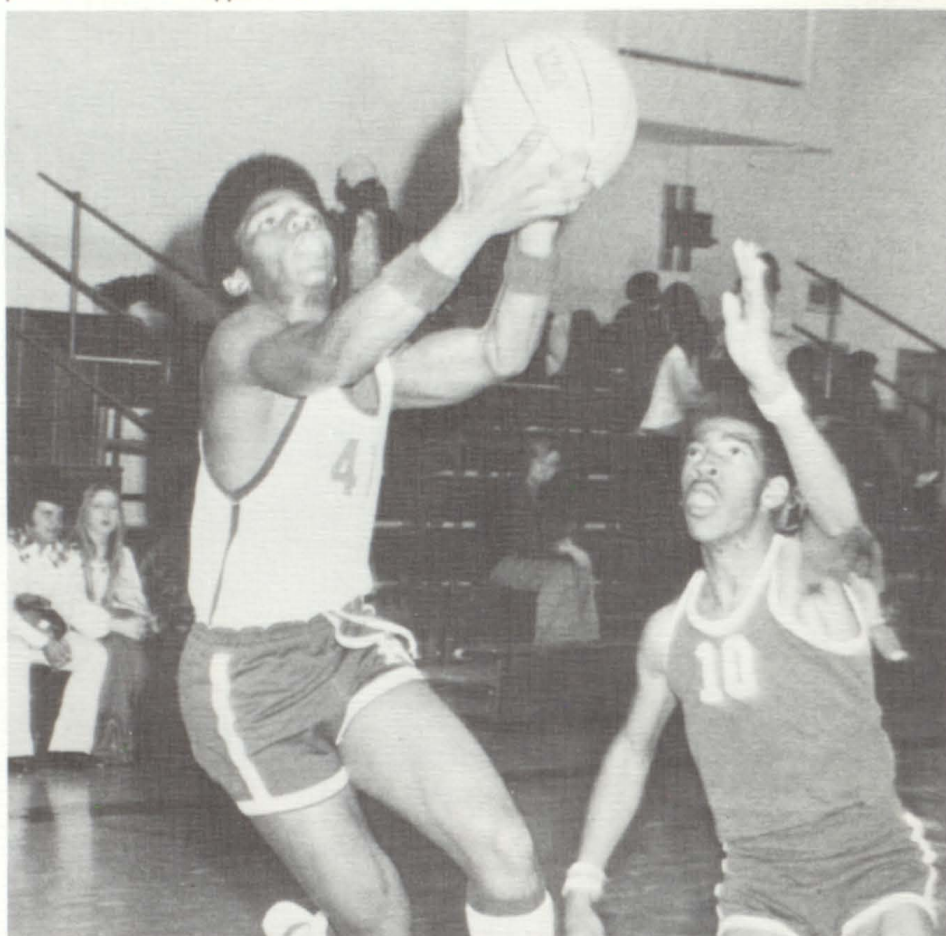

The next four tilts proved to be nightmares as Athens was totally humiliated by Lufkin, 70-40, to start the string of defeats.

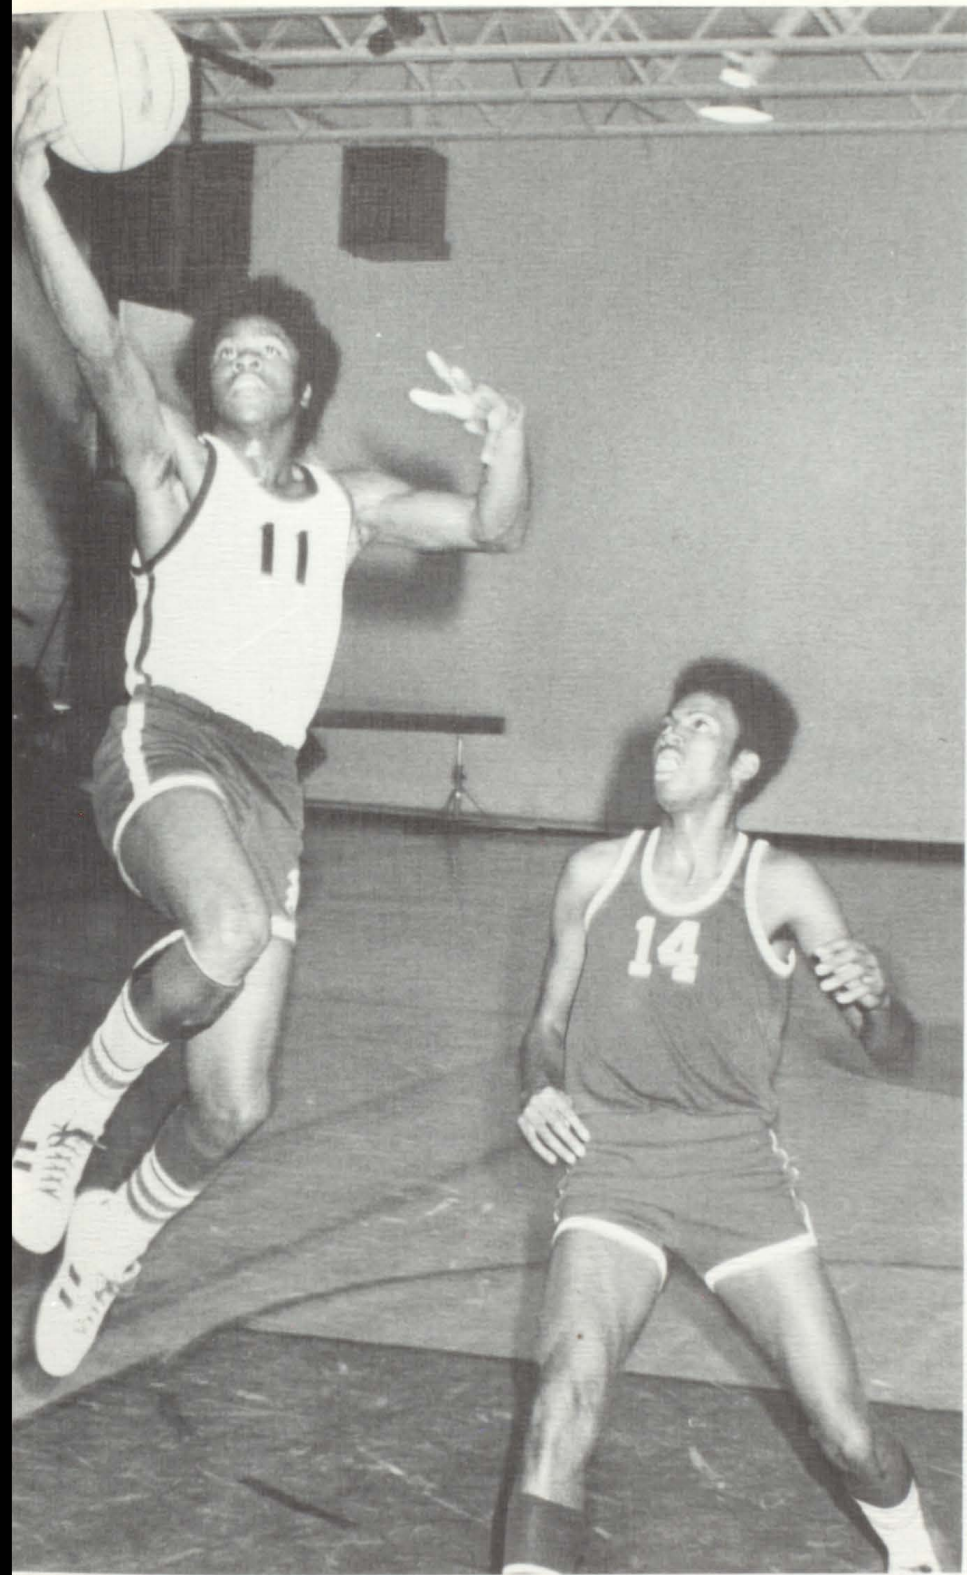

Next, Kilgore mauled the Hornets, but not before AHS had given them a run for their money in the first half.

In the first game of the Athens Tournament, Henderson outlasted the Hornets for a tight 59-51 win. Athens captured last place in the tournament when they were defeated by LaPoynor, 86-72. The tournament was cancelled when Henderson bowed out of the championship game, and LaPoynor took the first place prize.

Junior Keith Barker (14) puts a stall on a Palestine player (21), to slow the game down a bit.

Ripping untouched around a Wildcat player (10) is sophomore Ricky Basher (41) to put AHS two points closer to their opponents.

Putting that special touch on the basketball is sophomore Robbie Green (11) as a Palestine Wildcat (14) is surprised beyond belief.

Quintet Produces Two Wins

Defeats continued to dot the scoreboard in mid-December. Palestine Westwood eased past Athens 53-43, followed by Lufkin, who completely demolished AHS, 83-37.

The cagers seemed to come alive at the Kaufman tournament, as senior Pat Fuller hit a season high of 22 points, and AHS almost pulled out a victory over Kaufman. In other tournament action, the Hornets got victory number two when they nipped Rockwall, 52-51. Junior Keith Barker did the dirty work in the win over the Kaufman "B" team to help the Hornets to the Consolation Trophy. Pat Fuller was named to the All Tournament squad.

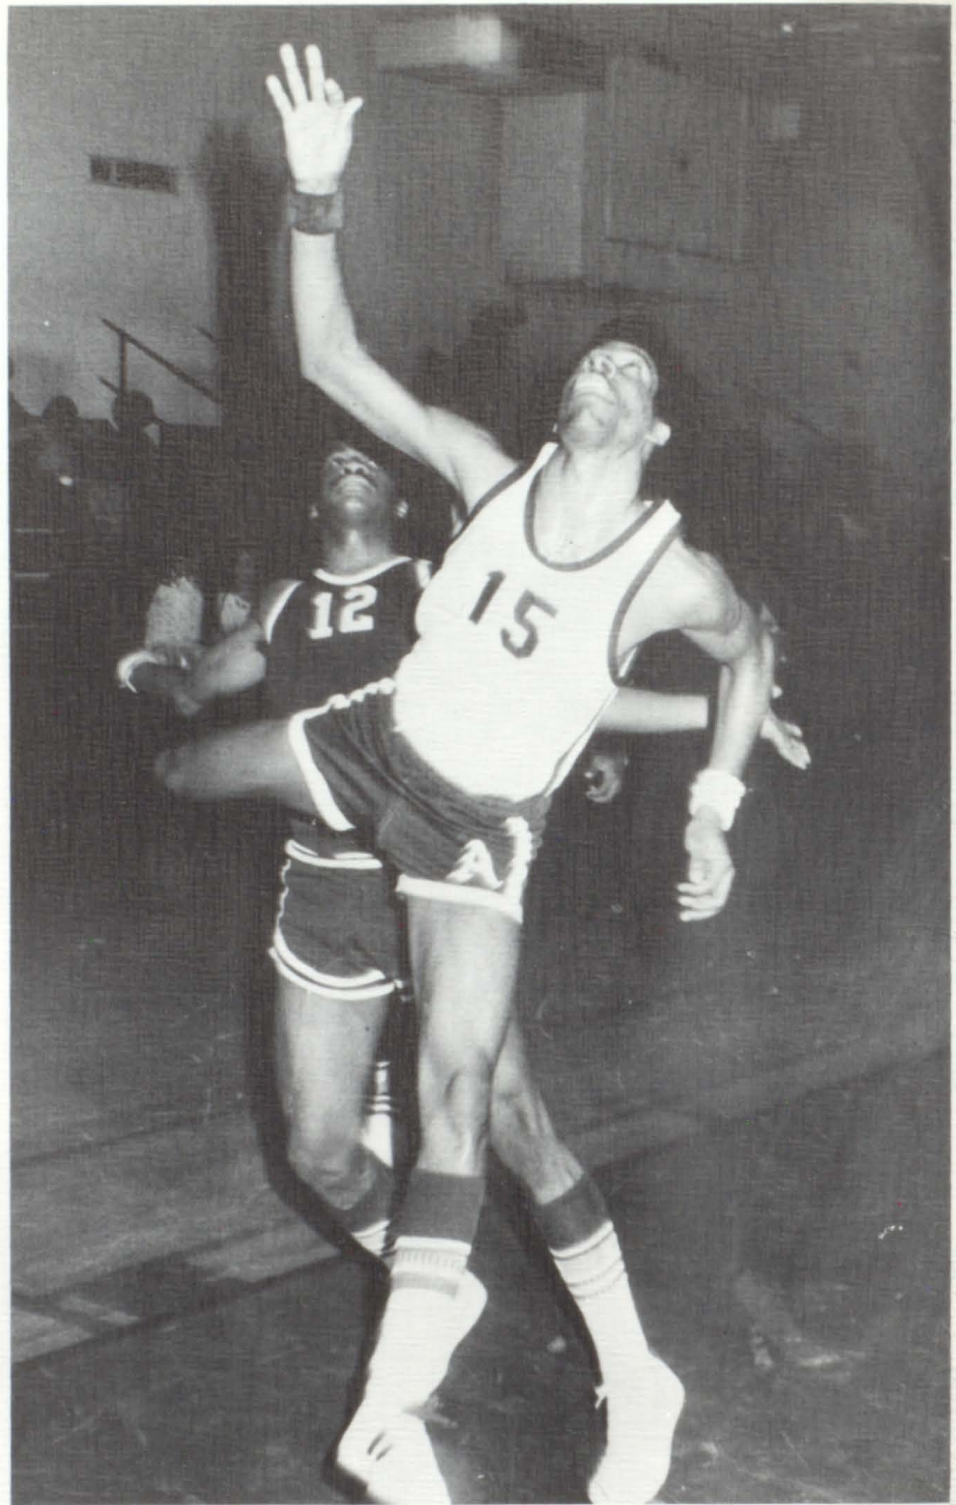

Kilgore again treated AHS rough when the Hornets visited them in Kilgore, 53-34, putting the season standing at 3-9.

Tourney Record Set

Serious flaws in the Hornet defense gave Palestine Westwood an easy 49-35 win, but in the Jacksonville Tournament the Hornets defeated Maydell 134-16, setting a tourney record for the most points scored in a game. John Tyler smothered any Athens hopes for placing in the tournament by beating the Hornets 103-65.

Carthage proved to be a big problem for Athens as they held the Hornets to only six rebounds to take a 78-67 victory.

Athens put up a good fight against Henderson, but the Lions managed to pull out a 75-66 win. In their next game with Henderson, Athens fell further behind as the Lions defeated the Hornets 82-67.

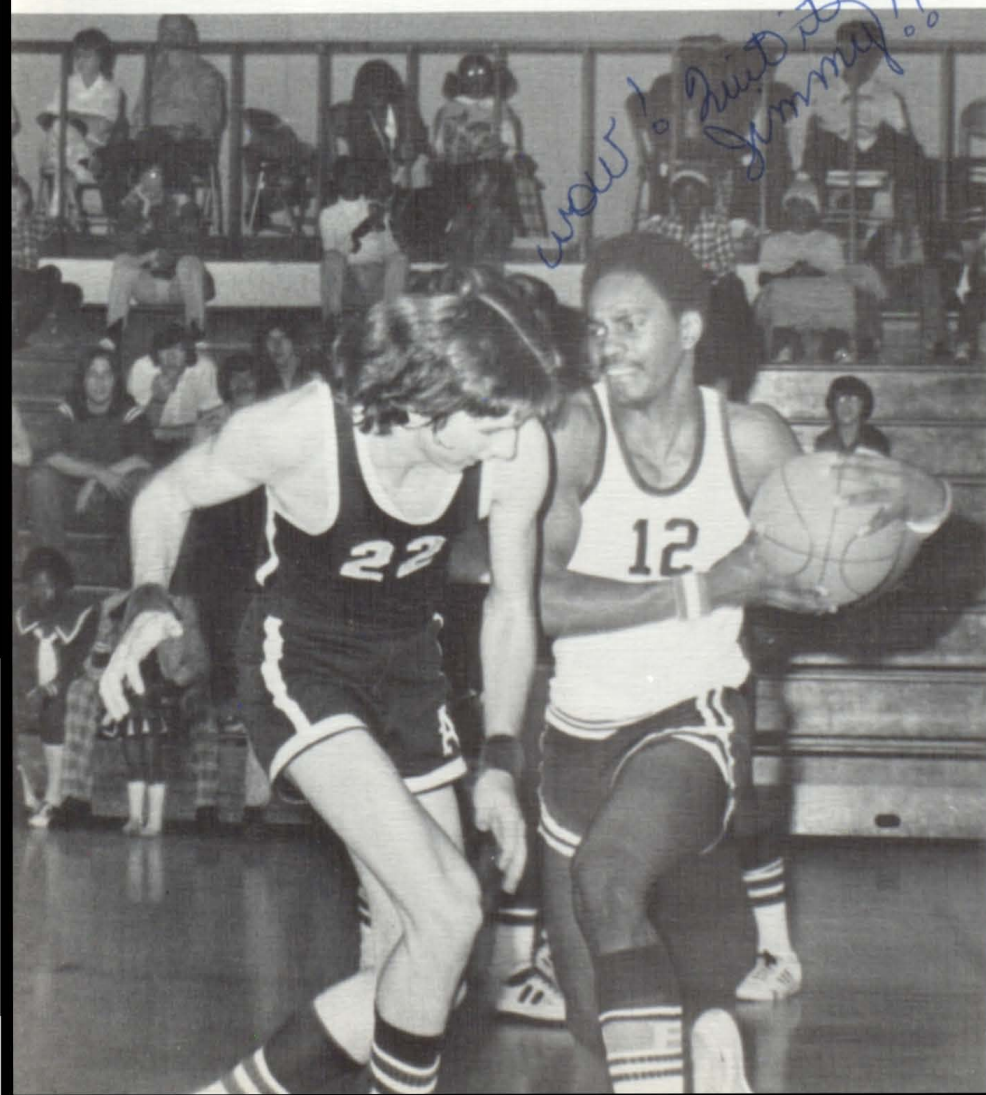

Junior forward Keith Barker steps in front of a Palestine defender and puts the ball up for two points.

District Win Taken

In their third consecutive game with Henderson, Athens took an early lead but failed to hold on to it as the Lions went on to win the game 72-55.

Athens made a fine defensive show in the district opener against Palestine, but a sluggish offense cost the Hornets a 77-52 defeat. Athens got things together against Chapel Hill though, and took a 64-62 win. The Hornets made another fine showing against Jacksonville, but the Indians pulled out a 53-47 victory in the final minutes of play. At La Poynor, the Hornets fell to the defending Class B state champion Flyers, 83-43.

A Palestine dribbler is forced to find another path as senior guard Jimmy West gets in his way.

Robbie Green tries to elude the arms of a Chapel Hill defender as he goes up for two.

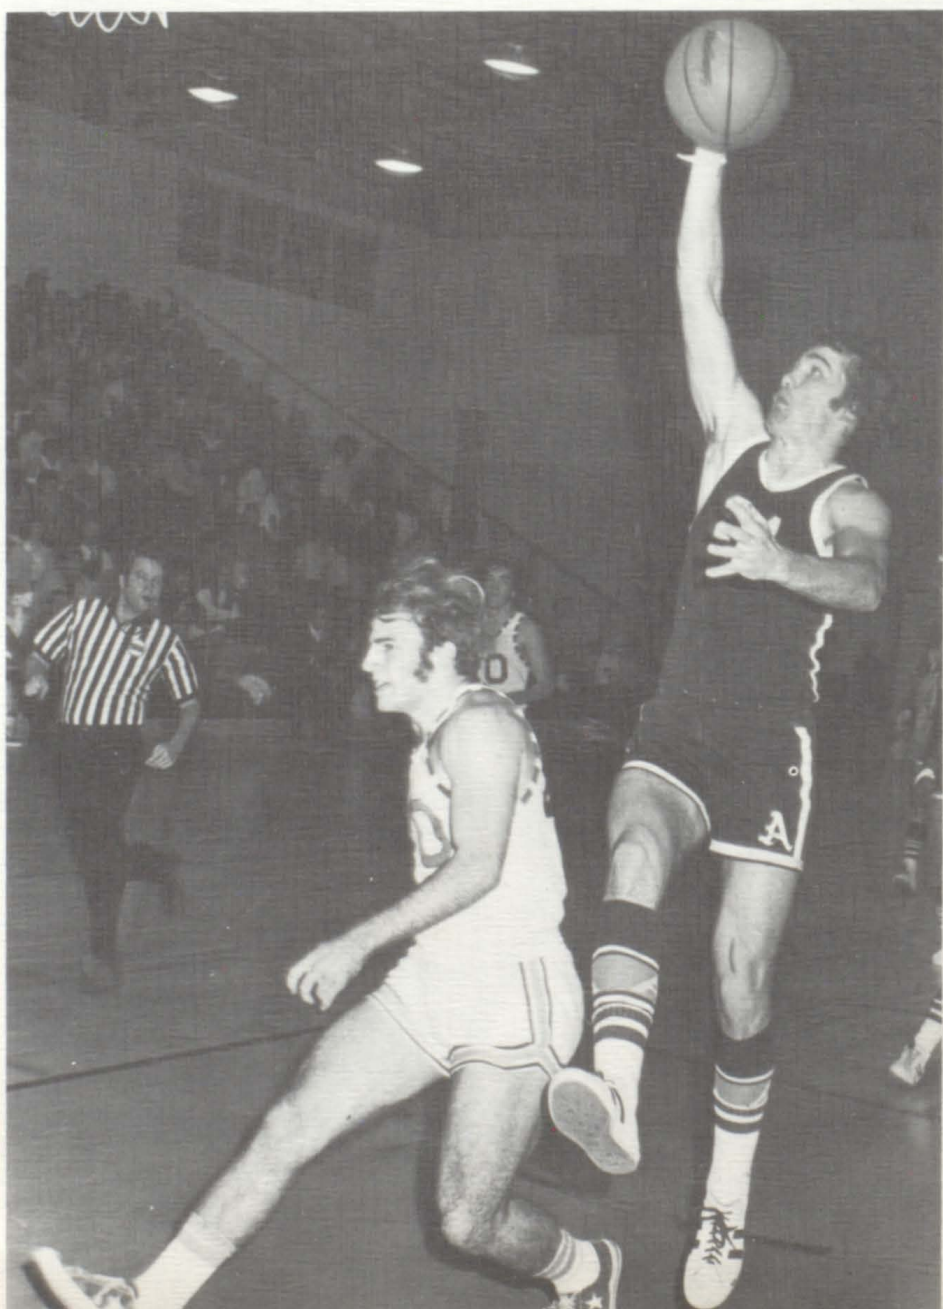

Dismal Record Set

Crockett took an early lead over the Hornets, and Athens just couldn't catch up as the Bulldogs pulled out a 68-48 win. Although they started out good against Palestine, Athens got progressively worse, giving the Wildcats an 81-48 victory.

The Hornets paid a bitter price for penalties, a 56-48 loss to the Chapel Hill Bulldogs. Athens failed to capitalize on several defensive breaks as Jacksonville took a 58-46 win. In their last game of the season, Athens fought Crockett for the lead, but ended the game on the short end of a 67-48 decision.

Robbie Green emerges from a tangled mass of arms to add two points to the Hornets' score.

Ricky Dora; (back row) Michael Cook, Henry Cumby, John Dora, Henry Royall, Jerry Decker, Ricky Hardin, Kenneth Harris, and Micky Williams.

JV's Win Some, Lose Some

Meeting with stiff competition, the Junior Varsity Hornets could manage a season record of only 7-11, but had the satisfaction of gaining technical skill and experience. Determination was an important factor that enabled the JV's to give most of their opponents a serious run for the money.

Mr. Buddy Thames coached the JV team.

Pat Hill, Dan Waggoner, Thomas Rhinehart, Jimmy Perkins, Dave Waggoner, and Manager James Brookins.

Frosh Have Cinderella Season

A mediocre season start was experienced by the ninth grade Hornet squad, but they blossomed into the district champs before the season ended.

Led by forward Freddie Paul, guard Danny Chaney, and center Tony Massey, the team ran up a 16-6 season record and a 7-1 district slate.

Paul was selected for the All-Tournament team at Chapel Hill and Massey was named to the All-Tournament squad at Corsicana.

Slow Start Reversed By Baseballers

After dropping their first three starts to Tyler ball clubs, the AHS nine came back in the second game of a doubleheader with Tyler John Tyler, 3-2, to start their winning ways.

In the next seven pre-district games the Hornets managed four wins against three losses. After slipping past Canton, 4-2, before a home student body crowd, Athens was again whipped by Tyler Robert E. Lee, 8-3. Another win over Canton, and the split of a doubleheader with Terrell put the Hornets season record at 4-5.

To finish up the pre-district games, AHS was surprised by Gladewater, 7-2, but paid back the favor, 3-1, when Gladewater came to Athens.

AHS Sweeps District

With a determined and inspired outlook, the Hornets began to play as a team and took all eight of their zone encounters.

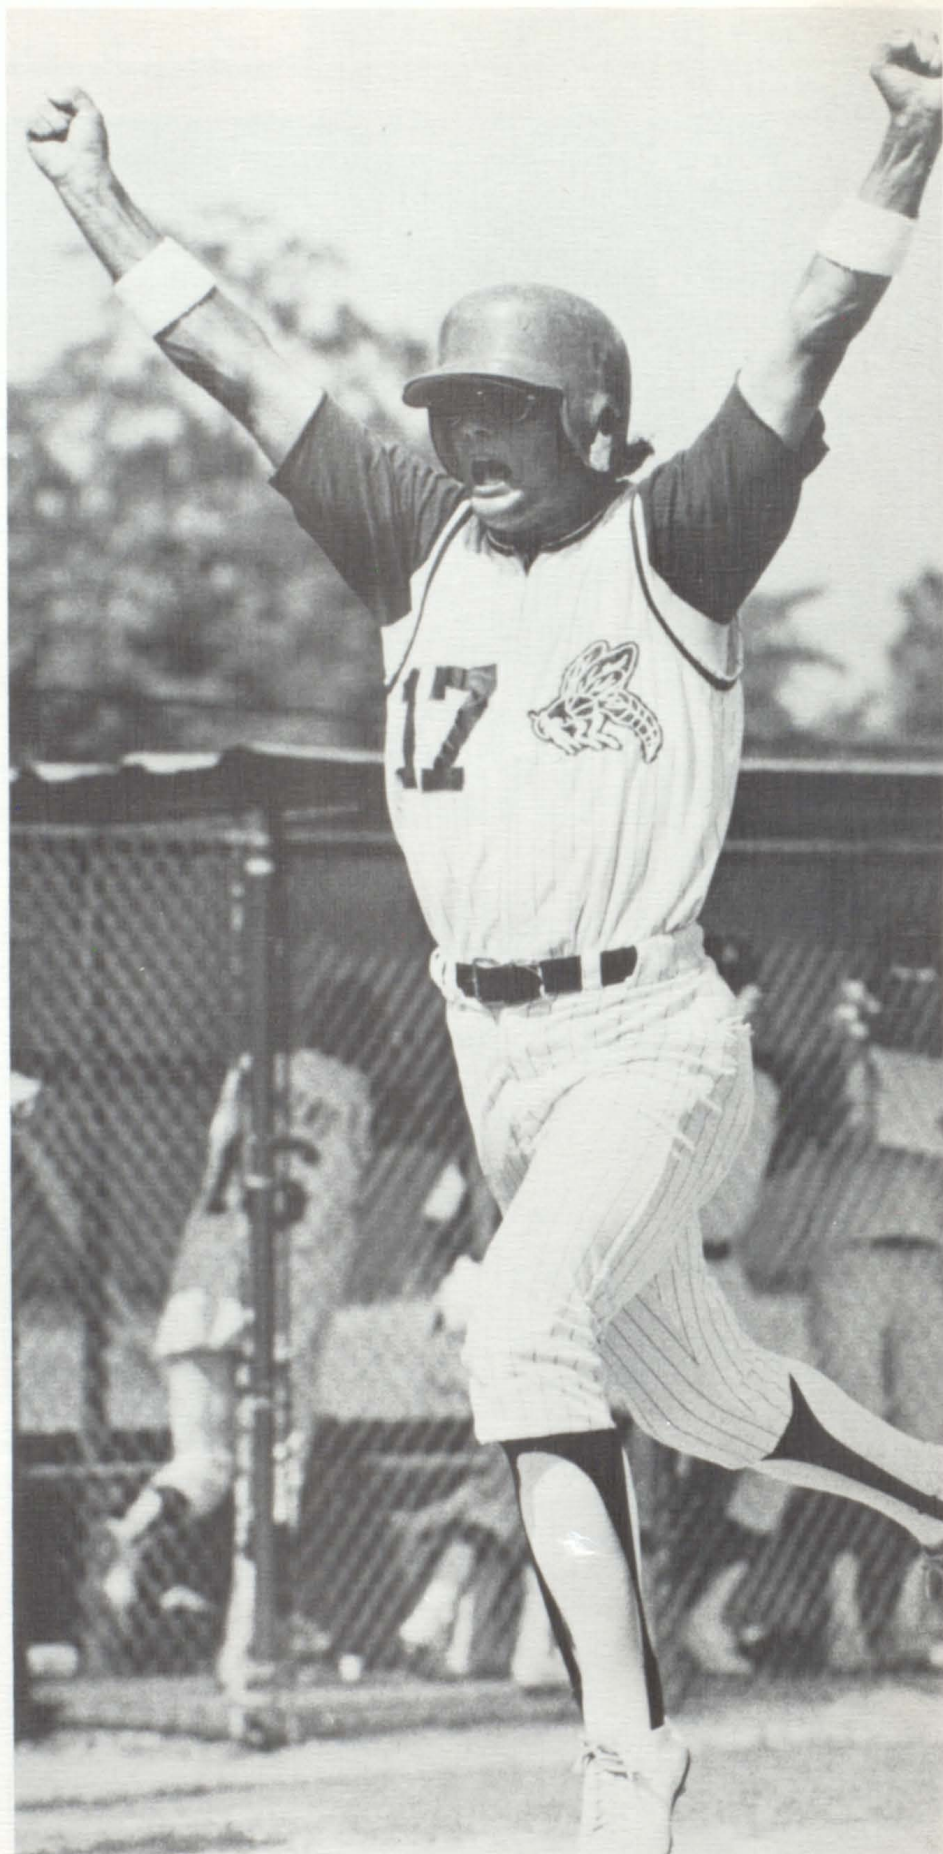

Palestine, the first victim, was edged 4-3, followed by an 8-3 win over Chapel Hill. In one of the most exciting games of the season, AHS ran past Jacksonville, 15-8. The next three games were won through last inning heroics by all members of the squad. Athens slipped by Crockett, 5-3, Palestine, 7-5, and Chapel Hill again, 6-5.

In a defensive battle, the Hornets came out on top over Jacksonville, 2-0, and then eased past Crockett, 8-5, in the zone finale.

AHS squared off with the Carthage Bulldogs for the best of three series to determine the district champs. In the first game, the Hornets were annihilated 10-0, but made the series go the limit when they came back with a close 8-7 victory at home. Then, the Athens nine slipped by 1-0 to take the district dream.

Overpowered by a fine Orange Stark team, the proud Hornets fell out of state contention with two quick bi-district losses.

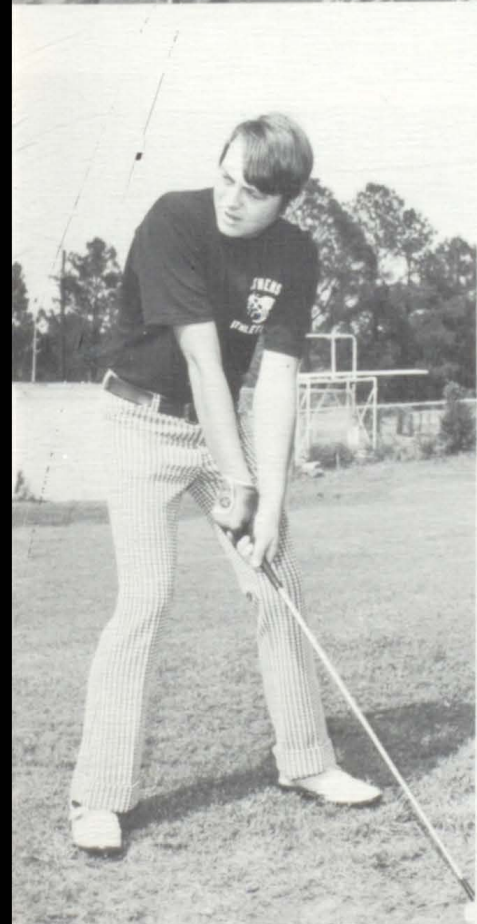

But, boasting a beautiful 15-9 season record, the Hornets were District 9-AAA Champs, the farthest any Athens team had ever gone in baseball.

His arms raised in victory, centerfielder Wayne Perkins scores from third base to give the Hornets a 1-0 win over Carthage, and the district championship.

The 1975 golf team members are Kip Estep, Bobby Ward, Steve Grant, Greg Germany, and Steve Smith. The linksters placed no lower than third in any of the tournaments in which they competed and were first in both Edgewood and Palestine.

Senior Steve Grant scans the fairway as he prepares to tee off on the first hole of the Athens Tournament.

Linksters Take Third In District

Under the instruction of coach Rodney Hudson, the 1975 golf team chalked up an impressive season record.

Steve Grant tied for medalist in the Ennis and Edgewood tourneys where Athens placed third and first respectively. The Hornets came second in the Athens tournament and third in the Crockett match. Athens took first place in the Palestine tourney with Kip Estep bringing home the medalist honors, but in Jacksonville the Hornets placed second. The linksters finished the season with a third place in the District Tournament.

Relay Team Second In State

The AHS thinclads took first place and all three trophies in the Terrell meet to open the 1974 season, with a new record being set by the mile relay team.

At the District meet held in Pine Tree, Athens came in fifth with the mile relay team qualifying for regional competition. The mile relay team took first place at regional to advance to state.

At the State meet the Hornet mile relay team placed second with a time of 3:18.0, only 3/10 of a second behind first place Jasper.

Fems Place In Regional

The 1975 track season saw the coming of the first AHS girls track team.

A first place in a triangular meet with John Tyler and Robert E. Lee High Schools opened the female thinclads' season. In a repeat of the Tyler Triangular Meet the fems again placed first. Athens took another first in a triangular meet with Mabank and Brownsboro.

In district competition at Pine Tree, Athens came in fourth with the 880 relay and the mile relay taking first places, advancing them to the regionals. The girls finished the season with a fifth place at the Regional Meet.

Two Netters Advance To Semi-Finals

Tennis took on a revised look at AHS in the spring. Under the capable leadership of Coach Mary Jane Holstine, the team made a fine showing.

The squad participated in the Tyler Robert E. Lee and Palestine tournaments before placing in the Corsicana and Jacksonville tournaments. Lee Ann Holt and Cindy Mathis, girls doubles; David Rhoades, Scott Marble, boys singles; and boys doubles Steve McAtee and Charlie Bullock won matches in the Jacksonville meet.

The team received the second place trophy in the A division at the John Tyler Association Meet. Holt and Mathis, doubles Kevin Hollowell and Lloyd Bowman, McAtee and Bullock, and Rhoades placed there.

In the girl's district meet, Barrie Durham advanced to semi-finals before being defeated by a Jacksonville player. Also, Holt and Lynn Dyer made it to the second round.

Rhoades was the only winner at the boy's district meet, losing in the semi-finals.

Another almost permanent fixture around the tennis courts last spring, was senior David Rhoades, a finalist in the district meet.

Musicians Take Honors

The "Pride of the Hornets" band was made up of one hundred and ten musicians, the largest in AHS history.

Band members received excellent ratings in UIL Marching Contest and excellent and good ratings in UIL Playing and Sightreading Competition.

Parents of band members organized the first Band Booster Club. This club gave valuable assistance to the band and also provided several new instruments and hosted senior band members to a spring banquet.

Forty-three musicians competed in Regional UIL Solo and Ensemble Contest and fourteen progressed to State UIL Competition. Nine members were also named to the Henderson County Select Band.

Band activities included a summer picnic to initiate new band members, the Twenty-fifth Annual Band Follies and a spring concert on the courthouse lawn.

Several band members received awards for outstanding accomplishments. Michael Williamson and Melinda Dyer were chosen "Mr. and Miss Pride of the Hornet Band." Kim Harvey was presented the "Front Line" award. Johnny Morgan received the Lions Club award. Most Valuable Band Member was Senior Melinda Dyer who also received the Band Scholarship.

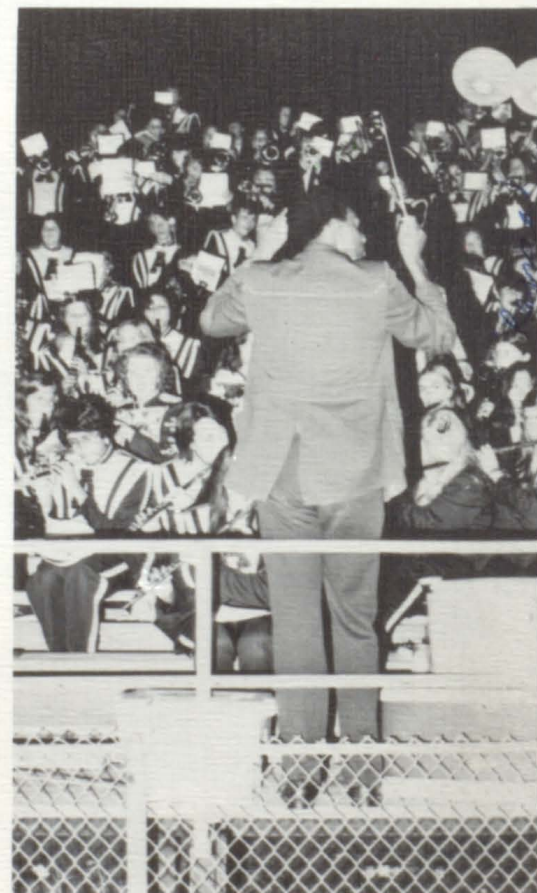

Officers were David Rhoades, president; Michael Williamson, vice president; Kim Harvey, secretary; David Simmons, treasurer; Cindy Mathis, reporter; and Cindy Spencer, historian. Director was Mr. John Glover and assistant director was Mr. Rilford Quattlebaum.

Students Profit From OEA

Office Education Association provided a two-year program for students interested in any type of office work. Juniors had a two-hour lab session each day in which they learned about office education. Seniors had a one-hour lab and were required to be employed at least fifteen hours a week.

OEA, along with DE, ICT and HECE sponsored a banquet for their employers at the end of the year. Officers for 1974-75 were Cindy Wofford, president; Rae White, vice president; Kay Johnson, treasurer; Pam Wilbanks, secretary; Felecia Parker, reporter; Michael Williamson, historian; Pam Pearson, parliamentarian; and Jim Dillard, sergeant-at-arms. Mrs. Dorothy Pollard coordinated OEA jobs and classroom work.

served as treasurer. Both Rhonda and Jerry are seniors.

An employee of Cowboy Headquarters, Ricky Loftis replaces a defective light tube. Candy Pennington also worked at Cowboy Headquarters.

DECA Offers Opportunity

The Distributive Education program has been a successful factor in combining leadership qualities with school work through job careers.

DE students ran the school store in the cafeteria during certain periods of the day and before school each morning. Keeping the school store stocked was a big task and involved several DECA students. Members also helped other students apply for social security cards so that they would be eligible to work.

Officers for 1974-75 were Jerry Yelvington, president; Gary Rhoades, vice president; Mary Hillhouse, secretary; and Rhonda Trammell, treasurer. Coordinator was Mr. Bob Tinney.

Hornettes Boost Spirit

Beginning in August, Hornettes spent many a long hour learning and perfecting pom-pom routines and marching skills. They performed during each pep rally and did a magnificent job of performing on the field at halftime of the Bishop Lynch football game. This was the first time the group had performed as a drill team.

A successful fund-raising project was the sale of maroon and white Hornet posters.

Leaders for the squad were Susan Procter, captain; Brenda Mackley, senior lieutenant; Denise Ward, Theresa Smith, Beverly Barnes, and Molly Houston, lieutenants. Mrs. Diane Locke was faculty sponsor.

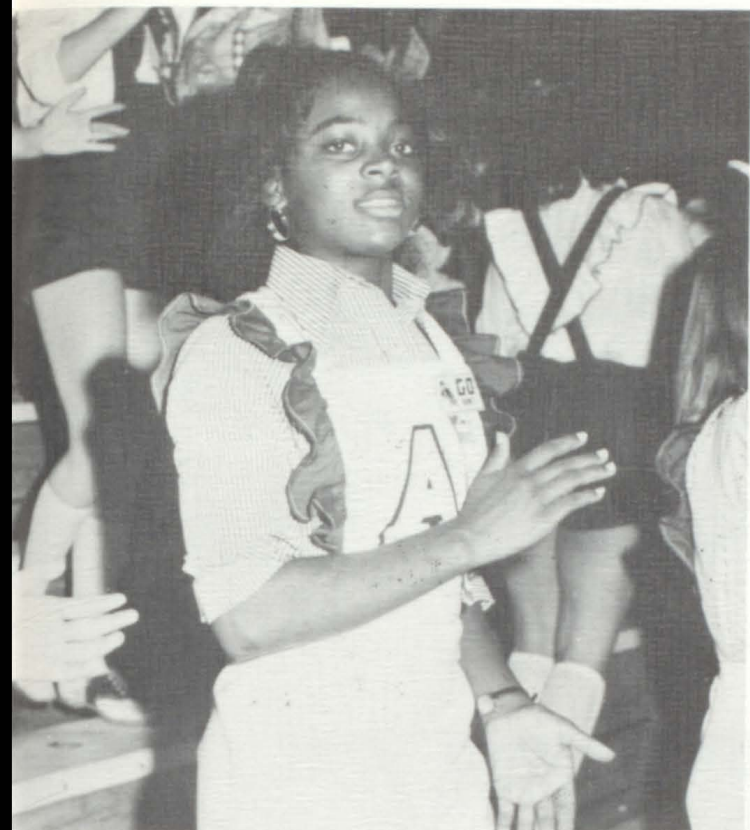

Hornettes reflect the thrill and excitement of a win over Ennis. AHS came out on top 3-0.

Squinting in the afternoon sun, Hornettes march in the traditional Homecoming parade. Some 22 units made up the parade, which ended in a pep rally back at the school.

Hornette lieutenant Molly Houston claps to the music as she cheers the Hornets in their victory over Kilgore.

A major part of the spirit at the pep rallies is demonstrated by the Hornets as they lead and participate in all the yells.

Hornettes join in a chain, swaying at the Jacksonville pep rally. They were an essential part of the spirit at each game and pep rally.

On the road to being future mechanics are second year Auto Mechanics students Billy Smalley, Alan Richardson, Lanny Pepper, Mark Mitchell, Clyde Bowman, Randy Nix, and Chester Meek. At right is instructor Mr. Bob Montgomery.

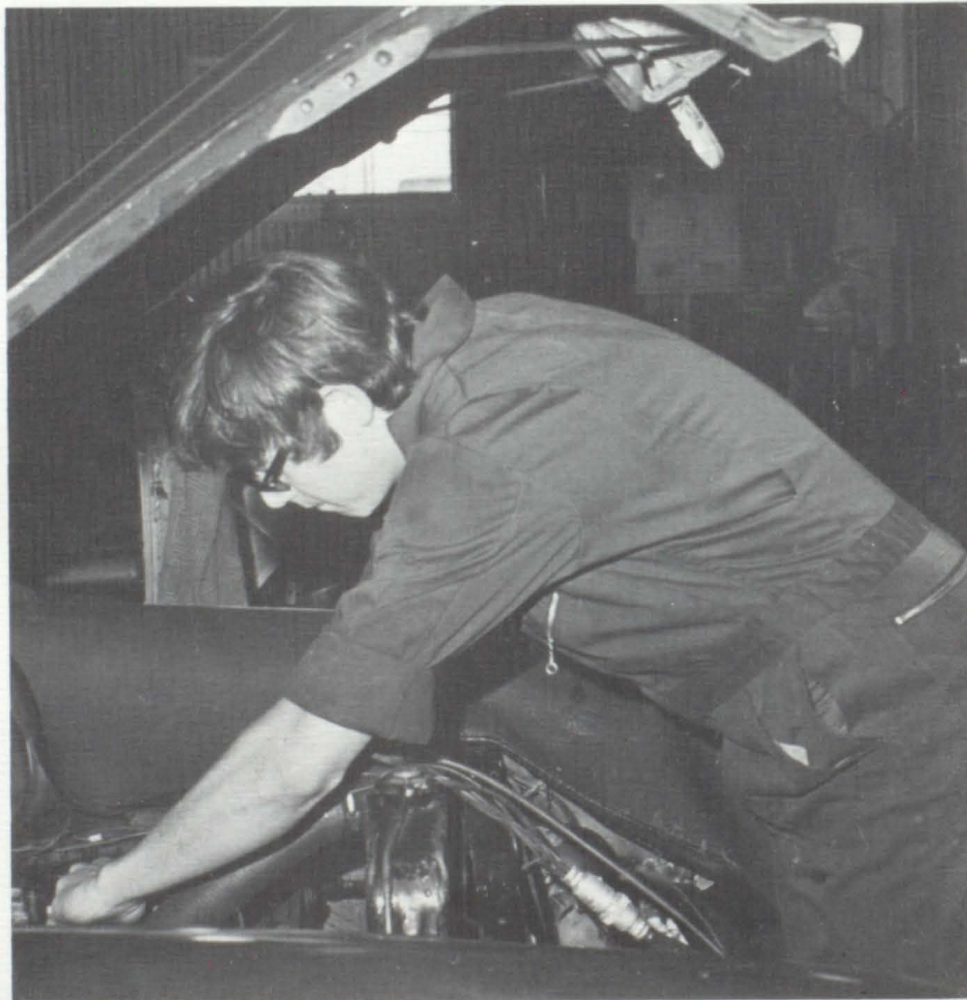

VICA Urges Community Service

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America promoted training in mechanics, leadership and community service.

Activities for 1974-75 included donating money to the local Children's Toy Fund at Christmas, conditioning and painting campus trash barrels and both servicing and maintaining the Memorial Library Book Mobile and the Jack and Jill Mini-Bus. Members also took part in District 7 Mechanics Competition in McKinney.

Officers were Jeff Grant, president; Wayne Kirksey, vice president; Joe Glasgow, secretary; Steve Harris, treasurer; Monte Montgomery, reporter; Alan Richardson, parliamentarian; and Lanny Pepper, sergeant-at-arms. Sponsor for VICA was Mr. Robert Montgomery.

Checking under the hood to guarantee a smooth engine performance is junior VICA member Monte Montgomery.

Preparing a tasty salad to serve to guests at Mr. Pizza is junior Lucy Mathews.

Yes, HECE members can be male. Stocking shelves is only a small part of James Massey's job at Safeway.

Parties, Fund-Raising Fill Year

Home Economics Cooperative Education was an organization for students employed in jobs related to Home Economics.

Activities for HECE members included a Christmas party, raising money for the Muscular Dystrophy Campaign and attending the HERO-FHA convention in San Antonio. A spring banquet for members' employers climaxed the year's activities.

Officers were Paula Elledge, president; Susan Wilcox, vice president; Cindy Dowell, secretary; Brenda Warren, treasurer; Beverly Barnes, reporter; and Connie Lemons, historian.

HECE sponsor was Mrs. Linda Cook.

Simmons Attains State Office

An active year was observed by members of the Mrs. D. T. Broom Chapter of Future Teachers of America. Junior David Simmons was elected as District financial secretary and then campaigned at the state convention and was elected State financial secretary. Tom Kittles was elected district historian and Rae White was elected district recording secretary. The FTA Yearbook, composed by Michael Williamson, placed first in state and Julie Owens was named District Miss FTA.

A committee of FTA'ers welcomed new students into AHS. Teacher Appreciation Day and Custodian Appreciation Day were observed. FTA'ers treated teachers to a Valentine Tea and also had a Practice Teaching Day on which members assumed teacher's responsibilities.

A spring banquet highlighted the year. New officers were installed and many awards were presented. "Mr. and Miss FTA" were Randy Jones and Julie Owens. "FTAer of the Year" was Julie Owens while Miss Stella Floy Pace was honored as "Teacher of the Year." The Mrs. D. T. Broom Award was presented to David Simmons.

Officers were Julie Owens, president; Michael Williamson, vice president; Krista Woodruff, recording secretary; Rae White, corresponding secretary; David Simmons, financial secretary; Debbie Thompson, historian; Melinda Dyer, parliamentarian; Vicki Turner, photographer and Virginia Hamilton, artist. Advisor was Mrs. LaMoine Young.

Student Teacher Day is an activity which is always anticipated. Junior Kathy Trammell leads a discussion in Mrs. Elaine White's English class.

Welcoming Mr. Jimmy Clancy to the FTA Valentine Tea is junior Kathy Smith. State financial secretary David Simmons waits in the background.

Senior Kathleen Kirkwood helps to serve refreshments to the faculty at the St. Valentine's Day Tea.

Practicing for a part of the program at a district FTA meeting is junior Tom Kittles.

Rehearsing a skit to aid in the campaign for state financial secretary candidate David Simmons are Mark Gilbert and Toi McIntyre.

At the district FTA Convention, Athens members made name tags to aid with officer campaigns. Kathy O'Bryan and Robert Forester are diligently at work.

Library Club Sponsors Assemblies

The Library Club has fast become one of the most active clubs in Athens High School.

Activities for the 1974-75 year included decorating the main hall bulletin board as well as the Clint Murchison Memorial Library bulletin board, hosting an open house for the community during National Book Week, hosting a tea for teachers in April and attending the State Library Convention in Huntsville where the club won first place on their scrapbook. The club sponsored two book review assemblies featuring Mrs. Carolyn Dance. Proceeds were used to provide carpet and house plants to give the library a new and refreshing decor.

Mrs. Allyene Lewis became Library Clerk in November, giving the club and regular library work valuable assistance.

Officers were Denise Ward, president; Cindy Mathis, vice president; Vicki Godwin, secretary; Carolyn McClure, treasurer; Laurie White, reporter; and Virginia Hamilton, parliamentarian. District 6 officer representing AHS was Kevin Hollowell who served as secretary. Sponsor was Librarian, Mrs. Martha Vermillion and co-sponsor was Mrs. Lewis.

Members and sponsors shiver after loading cars for their departure to the 1974 State Library Convention. They are (front row) Cindy Mathis, Denise Ward, Laurie White; (back row) Mrs. Martha Vermillion, Brenda Weatherford, Vicki Godwin, Mrs. Allyene Lewis, Carey Allen and Mark Gilbert.

Reviewing some of the year's activities in the first place scrapbook which he assembled is junior Carey Allen.

Following instructions of his superiors in Key Club, senior Monte Regester shows the typical dress of a new member on initiation day.

Key Club Donates Money

Members of the Key Club donated a new marquee to the AHS campus and posted current events and ballgames on the sign weekly. Key Clubbers also collected approximately $165 for the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation.

Key Club members attended the Texas-Oklahoma District Convention in Dallas, Texas during the last of April.

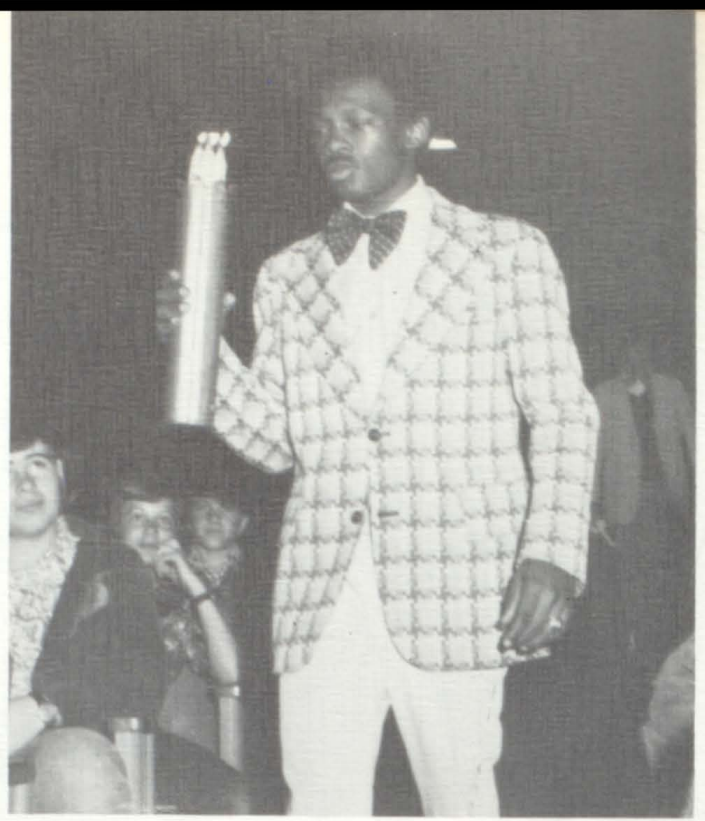

The Key Club sponsored a thrilling movie in April to help finance their exciting projects during the school year.

Officers for 1974-75 were Randy Jones, president; Tommy Frizzell, vice president; Joey Baggett, secretary; and Don Duncan, treasurer. Mr. Joe Thomason was the faculty sponsor for the Key Club.

Key Club members Joey Baggett and Jeff Harraid present a check of $165 to the 1975 poster child, Angela Predditt, for the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation as sponsor Mr. Joe Thomason and Mr.

Mike George look on. Key Clubbers collected the money one Saturday from citizens in downtown Athens.

FHA Chapters Active

Future Homemakers of America were divided into three chapters, and meetings were conducted in regular class periods.

FHA Chapter III saw demonstrations presented by a fashion consultant, a bridal consultant and an interior decorator. Members toured Henderson County Junior College and were honored with a brunch. Senior Kathleen Kirkwood received the Crisco Award. Sponsor was Mrs. JoAn Lambert.

The Red Rose Chapter of FHA, sponsored by Mrs. Helen Heggins, visited nursing homes and presented each with flowers during National FHA Week. Apples and cards were given to teachers on Valentine Day.

The Eta Epsilon Chapter presented the faculty with red and white carnations during National FHA Week. Members toured several houses while studying interior design. Sponsors were Mrs. Jan Ward and Miss Debra Hopkins.

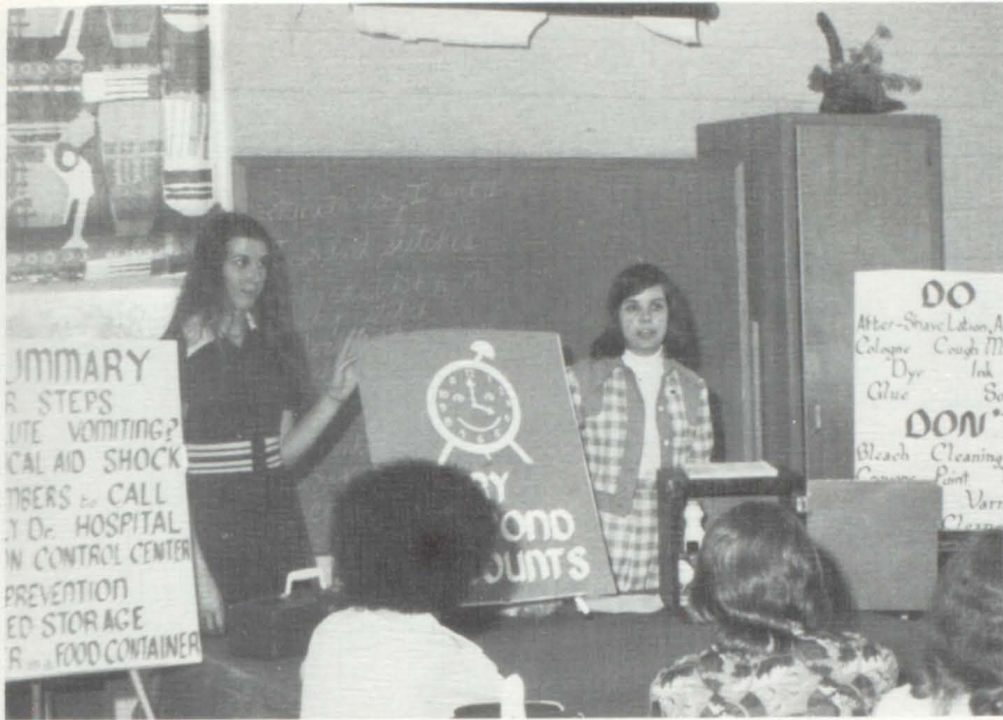

Members of all three chapters attended the State Fair of Texas on Rural Youth Day and eight members represented Athens at the State FHA Convention in San Antonio. At the Mother-Daughter Banquet members modeled clothes and accessories constructed in class.

During National FHA Week members of the Eta Epsilon Chapter presented carnations to the faculty. Karol Kline and Kim Simmons make the presentation to Mrs. Eula Robinson.

Cindy Beck cuts and arranges desserts for the Mother-Daughter banquet. A covered dish dinner was served before students modeled their clothes.

Classes participated in various demonstrations throughout the year. Bobbette Jones and Kathleen Kirkwood are giving a safety demonstration which earned them a trip to State 4-H Roundup at Texas A&M University.

A style show was held at the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet. Modeling the dress which she constructed in Home Ec. is freshman Bertha Munns.

Members of Eta Epsilon and Red Rose Chapters of FHA were engaged in a powder puff football game. Frosh Tonya Wofford tackles an opponent while Denise Johnson comes to assist.

Spanish Club members Michele Elrod, Rhonda Luna, and Denise Bell prepare Mexican dishes in the homemaking lab to be served to Spanish club members.

Club Has Busy Year

The Spanish Club, which was the newest club formed at the high school, had a busy year of money-raising projects and out-of-town trips. The money from their two money-raising projects was used to finance a fun trip for Spanish Club members to San Antonio at the end of the year. The club also enjoyed a trip to Little Mexico for dinner. Lourdes Sepulveda, who was the exchange student from Monterrey, Mexico, was a great help to the club and was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated for her help.

Officers for the 1974-75 Spanish Club were Jim Johnson, president; Michele Elrod, vice president; Toi McIntyre, secretary; and Kelly Arnold, historian. Faculty sponsor was Mrs. Elaine Sapp.

Spanish Club members discuss plans for their San Antonio trip while observing a pinbought back by one of the members. With Mrs. Sapp are Michele Elrod, Jim Johnson, Toi McIntyre, Lourdes Sepulveda and Kelley Arnold.

Outdoors Club advisors Mr. Joe Thomason and Mr. Jimmy Clancy discuss the merits of a rod and reel presented to sophomore Rebecca Tor-rez for being an outstanding member of the club.

Junior Pam Litchfield takes careful aim with a pistol as Outdoors Clubbers visit the police department's shooting range. Instruction in gun safety was a primary interest of the club.

Club Sponsors Course

Outdoors Club members enjoyed a very busy year with camping trips and fishing trips which were enjoyed by the whole club. At the end of the Christmas holidays, the club went to Tyler State Park where they camped and fished and spent the night. Certificates and badges were given to all the students who completed the course offered in gun and pistol safety which was done at the school.

Officers were Pam Wilbanks, president; Terry Williams, vice president; and Doug Hagley, secretary/treasurer. Faculty sponsors were Mr. Joe Thomason and Mr. Jimmy Clancy.

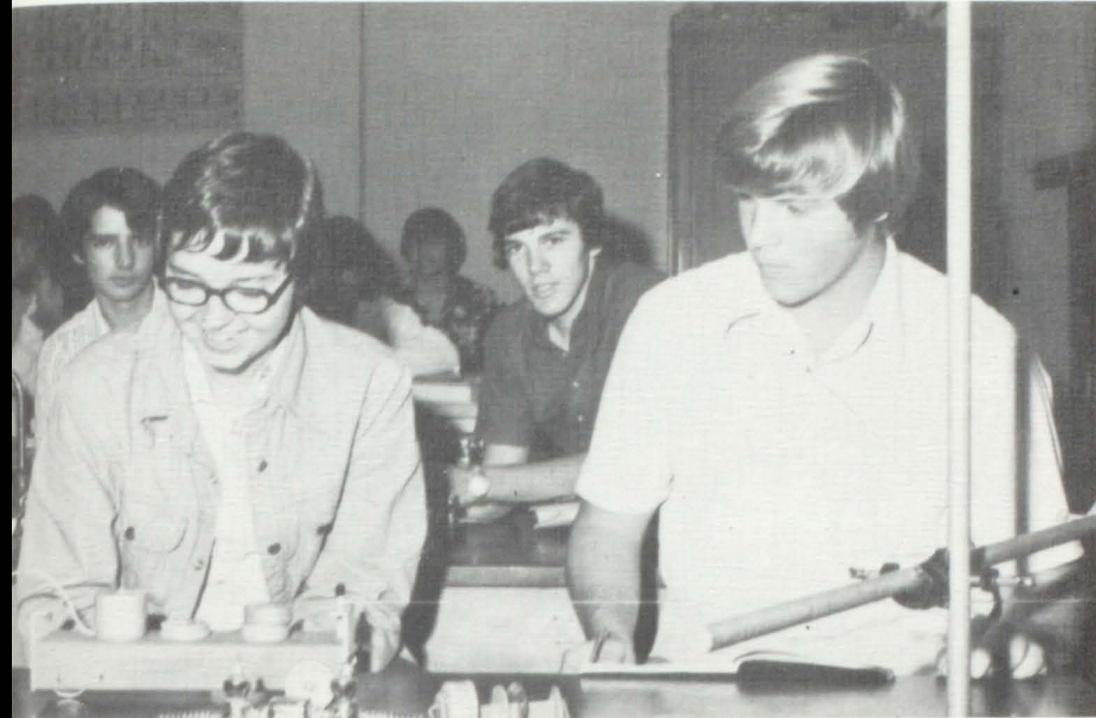

ICT Helps Students

Industrial Cooperative Training helped many junior and senior students to expand their job skills as employees in pottery plants, grocery stores, auto service centers and other places of business. ICT helped students to find work at jobs that would later earn a living for them, and classroom activities prepared them with knowledge and behavior skills necessary in the business world.

Officers for the 1974-75 year were Thomas Bowen, president; Richard Gravelle, vice president; Sheila Lee, secretary; James Buchanan, treasurer; Sabrina Maxwell, reporter; Charles Rakestraw, parliamentarian; and Robert Walker, sergeant at arms. ICT coordinator was Mr. Gilbert Perry.

Senior physics student Vicki Turner conducts an experiment in lab while her lab partner, William Johnson, looks on to observe the outcome. Scenes such as this were common as students often met in the lab during lunchtime.

Student Places In District

The Physics and Slide Rule Club which was led by the physics teacher Mr. Gerald Wood, was composed mainly of physics students. They met at lunch in the physics lab and conducted experiments connected with physics.

Steve White entered in the district Slide Rule competition in Carthage where he placed fourth in district.

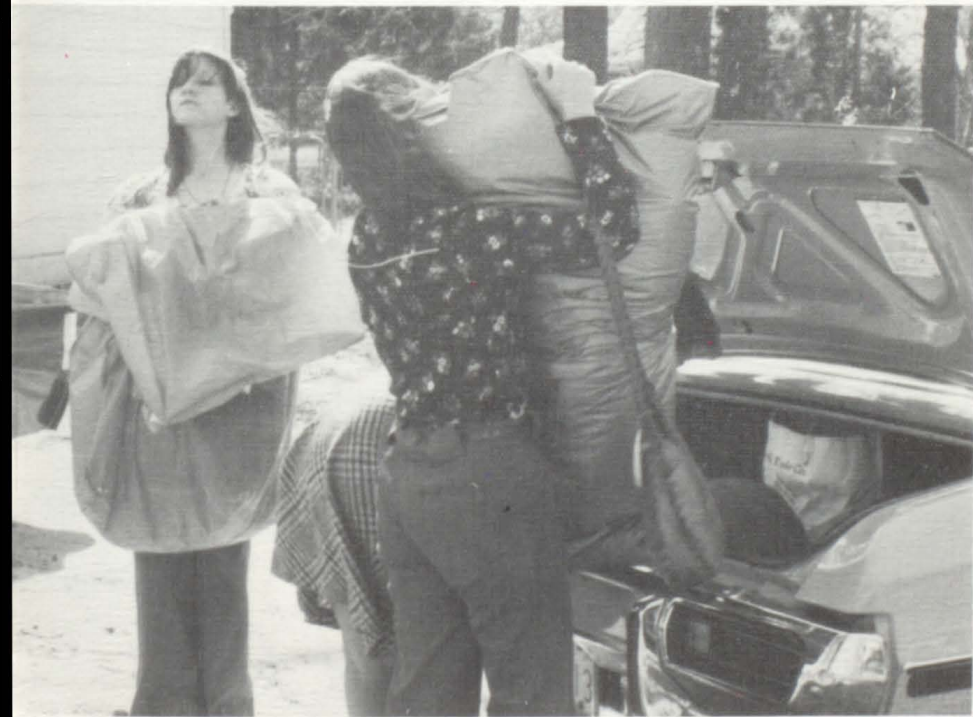

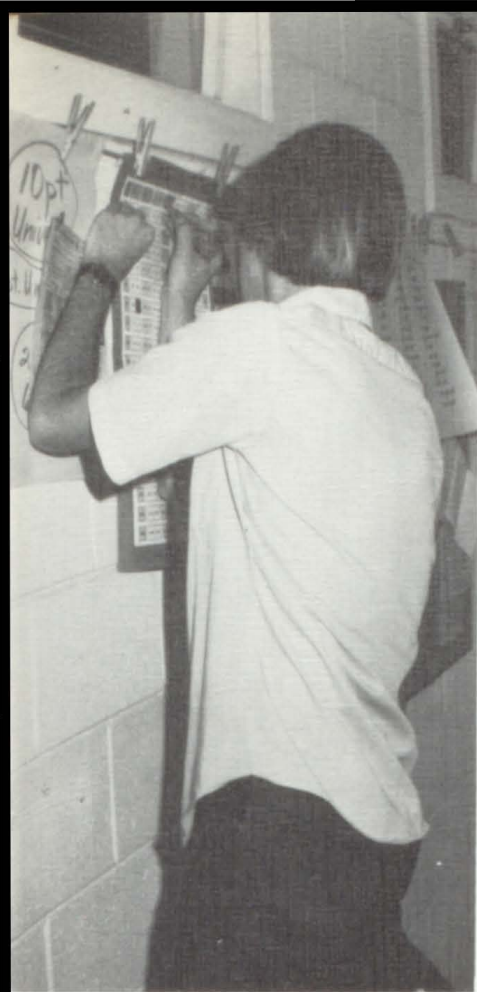

Officers for 1974-75 were president, Steve White; vice president, Vicki Turner; and secretary, Melinda Dyer.

Officers for the 1974-75 Physics and Slide Rule Club were Vicki Turner, vice president; Steve White, president; and Melinda Dyer, secretary.

Stranded in Tyler after their end-of-school dinner, Michael Williamson, Cindy Mathis, Julie Owens and Miss Sara Maples contemplate the malfunction of Miss Maples' car. Below, Randy Jones assumes the place of Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby at the State Capitol; Mark Gilbert becomes involved in paper work, and Michael Sharpe smiles for his NHS portrait.

Staff Records Events

Thirteen juniors and seniors made up this year's Athenian staff. Besides the full-time effort of recording school activities for the 1975 Athenian, the group enjoyed trips to Mt. Pleasant, Dallas and Austin, produced a comedy assembly, and showed a movie to the student body as a fund-raising project. The staff also produced a telephone directory for students.

Lisa Allbright

Lisa Wins Coveted Honor

The sophomore class broke a three-year string of winners from the class of '75 by producing their first Homecoming Queen, pretty Lisa Allbright, a member of FTA and the newly-formed girls track team.

Representing the three chapters of FHA were senior Cindy Buford, junior Kim Simmons and freshman Bethany Clark, while Library Club nominated junior Linda Costlow.

Senior cheerleader Paula Elledge represented HECE, and the senior class nominee was their president, Kim Harvey.

The cheerleaders' representative was sophomore Kevin Elliot. Spanish Club nominee was freshman Lee Ann Holt, and representing the Pride of the Hornets band was junior Carolyn McClure.

Senior class secretary Julie Owens represented the Future Teachers of America, and Key Club nominated junior cheerleader Patti Reynolds.

Representing the freshman class was Felesha Sanderford, while Future Farmers of America supported sophomore class secretary Stacy Simmons.

Junior Debbie Till was the representative of Hornettes, and DE students nominated senior Rhonda Trammell.

The junior class nominated Laurie White, and senior cheerleader Cindy Wofford represented Vocational Office Education.

Cheerleaders Conduct Spirit Drive

Vitality and enthusiasm best describe the six varsity cheerleaders and Hornet mascot Kevin Elliott. Organizing and leading pep rallies, making signs, selling streamers, decorating classrooms, cars, and varsity players' houses were just some of the seven girls' many tasks. The innovative group brought many new pep rally skits, surprise pep rallies, parties, and special days such as "spirit hat" day to the students.

Precision and showmanship are two reasons why the Front Line was an integral part of the success of the marching band.

Combining style and talent, the Front Line performed at all pep rallies, parades, halftime shows, and did an excellent job at the 25th Annual Follies. The Front Line, along with the cheerleaders, played an active role in keeping overall school spirit at a high point throughout the year.

FTA Honors Miss Pace

Miss Stella Pace has spent over three decades in service to public education, eleven of those as assistant principal at AHS. She has sponsored numerous clubs and is currently in charge of attendance records and audio visual equipment.

Miss Pace holds the B.S. degree from North Texas State University and the M.Ed. degree from East Texas State University.

The combination of a dynamic personality and the ability to communicate with students has made Miss Pace a favorite among students at AHS.

Two very pleasant tasks performed by the AHS assistant principal are shown as Miss Pace adjusts the graduation cap of Karen Godwin and presents an award to a distinguished student.

Seniors Elect 16 Ushers

The graduating class chose sixteen junior students to serve as junior ushers for the 1975 end-of-the-year events.

Dressed in the class colors of burgandy and pink, the Junior Ushers showed enthusiasm in greeting guests at the Junior-Senior Prom, and ushering at Baccalaureate services and the graduation exercises at Bruce Field.

Ushers enjoyed the early exemptions privileges of seniors and were invited to all senior activities.

Lambert Assumes New Post

Former AHS principal Roland Lambert served his first year as superintendent. Mr. Lambert and the seven elected trustees made decisions concerning student transfer fees, selection of textbooks and considered the addition of girls sports. They also ordered five school busses and approved an aviation course for next year.

Routine business included approval of next year's calendar and budget, hiring new personnel and the purchase of new equipment for the district.

Stolusky Becomes Principal

Mr. Bob Stolusky became principal of AHS following Mr. Roland Lambert's promotion to superintendent.

Formerly principal at Trinidad High School, Mr. Stolusky holds the B.S. and M.Ed. degrees from East Texas State University and has 17 years experience in public education. He is a member of Kiwanis, TSTA, TASSP and Phi Delta Kappa.

Ford Becomes President

As a result of the continuing Watergate investigation, President Richard Nixon resigned in late August, and Vice President Gerald Ford, a Nixon appointee, was inaugurated as president. Nelson Rockefeller was named vice president by Ford and was approved by Congress in December.

Watergate and its revelations caused the public to question the credibility of many officials. The Kennedy assassination, dormant for 12 years, was regenerated in the minds of many, and there were calls for an investigation of the CIA, FBI and the Warren Commission. Secretary of State Henry Kissinger's diplomatic power lessened as a result of Watergate and a conflict with the new administration.

The U.S. had to reassess its Middle Eastern foreign policy due to the assassination of King Faisal of Saudi Arabia. Faisal was considered America's greatest ally among the Arab nations.

U.S. troops were withdrawn from Vietnam after nearly 20 years, and refugees flooded into countries of the free world.

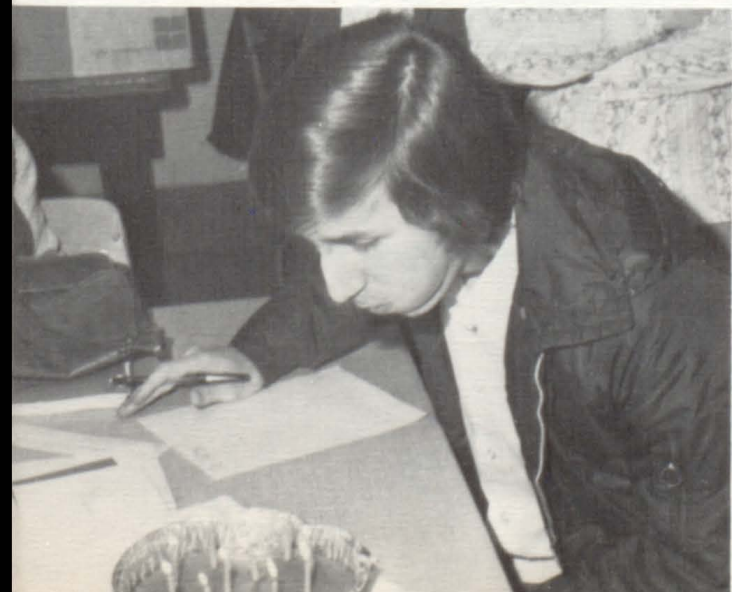

Despite its many problems, the U.S. began to make plans for its Bicentennial celebration in 1976.

In sports the Pittsburgh Steelers won Super Bowl IX, and the Oakland A's took their third straight World Series championship. The Golden State Warriors captured their first NBA title, overcoming the highly favored Capitol Bullets in four straight games.
