Trauma-Rama!!

Charlie Conditt was not embarrassed by his haircut. In fact, he seems to have enjoyed the attention.

One Senior, Meghan Wilson, recalls on of her most embarrassing moments. "Probably it would have to be when we were walking out of Baccalaureate and my friend stepped on my flip flop. I stumbled the whole way out of the church!"

With friends like this...

Senior Britni Warren secretly sent in some pictures of her friend, Shanetra Washington, in the hope of embarrassing her! Surprise, Ducky!

A little nap...and...

...a little dance!

Jordan Rowan said her most embarrassing moment was when, "My boyfriend and I were in Walmart one night and he pulled down my pants in front of some people. Then I turned around and was on the TV screen in electronics!"

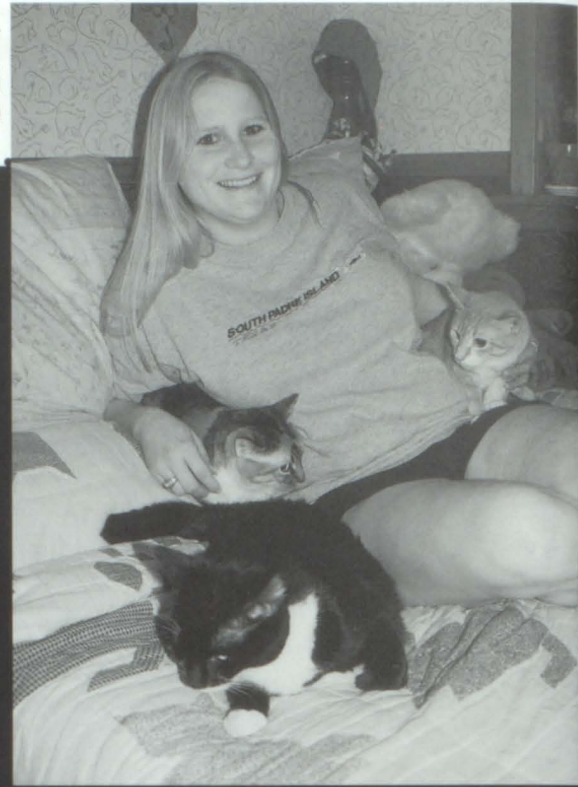

2004

Lauren Haynie said, "My most embarrassing moment wasn't really just one moment. There was this guy that I liked at the beginning of the year and I wrote him this note. And the whole baseball team saw it and made fun of me the whole year. They all had the same seventh period. Poor Mrs. Aubuchon. So when I had to bring them something for yearbook, well, it wasn't nice. But they're good kids now. We made up."

Confessions of a Teenage Disaster
by Krystal Blair

Dear Sweet Heather,
How come it was you
and not me?

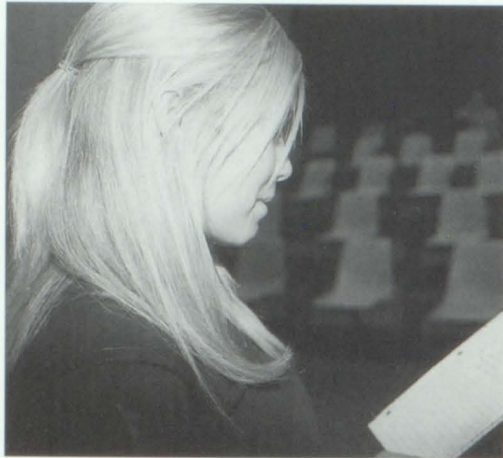

We have a lot in common
But I lived to tell about it.
You were always nice to everyone:

Non-judgemental and friendly.
I had no idea what had happened to me.

Hopefully you felt the same way.
I was in a lot of pain for awhile.
But God rescued you from your suffering.

I do have a confession to make to you and your innocence.

I'm the guilty one;
I drove after I drank,
I should be the one in your place now instead of feeling guilty for the rest of my life.

Pink Glitter
by Traci Salter

I don't know why the world is angry
Can you imagine all the chocolate
I'll tell you one thing...
I am happy
Can't you see... Cheese!
Love actually is all around us
I taste something spicy Something that warms my tongue
I don't know
Can you tell me?
I don't know
Can you tell me?

I Want to Leave
by Jennifer Mitchell

I want out of here
I want to eat McDonalds
A cheeseburger and fries
It's that time somewhere
It's that time here today
27 more days
5 more weeks
It gets worse
Then it gets better
3:31 at the flagpole
The end of the day
Adam...
He's is gonna get it!
We got in trouble
So now we have to take it outside

Precious Moments

by Jordan Rowan

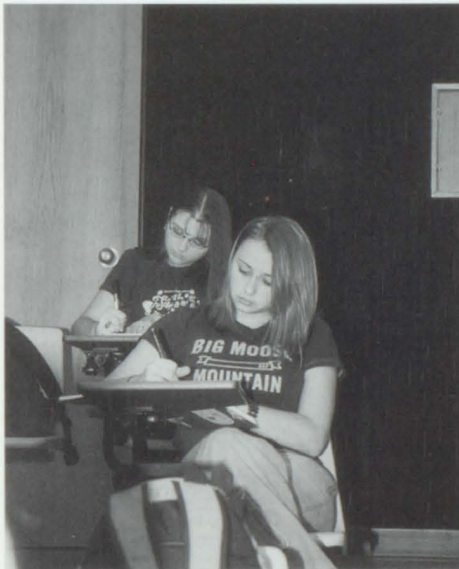

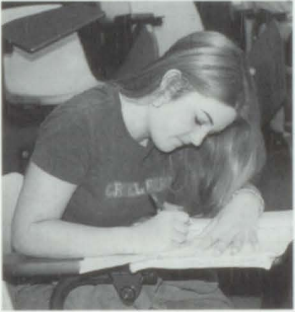

I can feel the pulse race through my veins
And bring about a feeling of peace
These days precious moments aren't hard to come by
My skies are filled with blackberry clouds
Call me foolish, but I'm in love
I love him more than words can say
The lights are bright in the city and they shine in every corner
Yet men aren't as good as women when it comes to reading between the lines
There is nothing that can bring me down
I will always love him, till the end

Rembrandt

by Lauren Haynie

Enthralled really...like farm to fork
He grew up
Time passed and he's not the same little boy
How did it happen?
Well, I guess I never really knew him
He's a different masterpiece from the picture I painted.
The words that come from his mind and through his heart and soul
All seem to combine
Filtering into my blood
To make it boil.

Child's Talk

by Jessica burt

This piece, a bunch of
child's talk.
Almost in an infant's style.
Plain words upon simple thoughts
deny the sight,
beyond the age of enlightenment.

The stanza's off
and rhyme askew.
Brings no peace to the endless babble
For a place not seen,
or been to,
could possibly hold any memories.

Simple thoughts thrown together
could not complete a sentence.
for a multitude of simple words
so few can bring reason.
To create sense,
child's talk.

HORNET Homecoming

"Homecoming is always an exciting time of the year. It means getting together with all of the awesome seniors of 2004 for building floats, having pep rallies, and football games. This year has been such a memorable one," said Traci Salter

The 2003 Homecoming court comes together for a photo after accepting their honors.

"I was so excited to receive the honor of freshman duchess," said Libby VanCleave.

"Homecoming has always been a good experience and I'm just honored that I've had the chance to be a part of it," said sophomore Brittany Rogers.

After being named junior duchess, Mallory Gilligan said, "I was really nervous at first, but then when they called my name out, I was really excited."

"I really didn't expect it, but it was an experience I was honored to share with my family and friends," said Britni Warren about being crowned Queen.

The winning design for the run through sign was made by the freshman class.

Athens shows its patriotism as the skydiver brings in the game ball.

Dawson Barksdale leads the Hornets onto the field to begin the game against Kaufman.

After singing the national anthem at the homecoming pep rally, Adam Gibbs said, "Poe-dunk AHS is a lot larger than I ever realized."

Seth Howard takes Mrs. Castelberry for a spin on the dance floor during the homecoming pep rally.

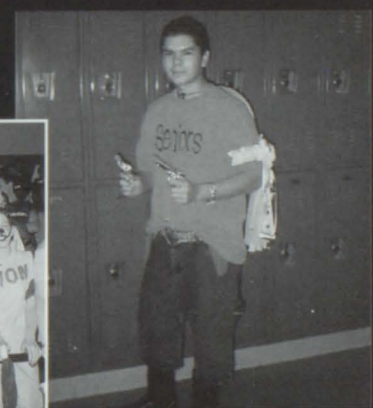

BACK in TIME

The seniors wait with anticipation for the pep rally to begin.

The junior class shows unbelievable spirit at the homecoming pep-rally.

Augustine Soto shows his spirit by dressing like a cowboy on the day of homecoming.

PRIDE OF THE HORNETS

Band

Whether the teams were winning or losing, the AHS Pride of the Hornets Band was always there to support the student body.

The band stands at attention while waiting for the heads-up to start at the half-time show on Bruce Field.

Drum majors Rachel Smith and Sarah Morris choose to wear matching shirts on twin day.

Stephen German said, "Football games were a fun time to spend with friends and I'm going to miss it next year."

Director Steve Rollins gives the band a last minute pep talk.

Drumline members Josh Morton and Haley Butler are pumped to play during a pep-rally.

Rolando Salinas packs his clarinet for an away game. "Away games are always interesting. The bus rides are the best part."

Kammi Harraid and Courtney Grymonprez prepare for a bus trip. "It's crazy how much we've improved this year. This show is awesome, and a lot of fun," said Harraid.

Band members wait patiently for inspection to begin before leaving for the Paris game. "Inspection is very important. This way no one can leave something behind," said Sarah Morris.

The 70s REVISITED

It's Kammi Harraid's time to shine as she performs at half time.

This year's half time show was themed "70's Revised" featuring retro songs like Free Ride, The Hustle and YMCA.

Monica Wilcox is flying high, hoping that she will be caught.

During a pep-rally, the cheerleaders join the band by dancing to the Jungle Jam.

“Even though flying is scary sometimes, it’s still fun,” said Mallory Gilligan.

“Cheerleading has had it’s ups and downs, but in these pictures the squad is functioning right,” said Ashley Sattler.

“We’re spiriting out on the field in front of all the little kids. The whole stadium was full and made it a lot of fun to cheer. We looked good in front of every school in the district,” said Krystal Blair.

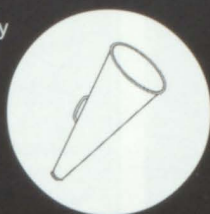

“We have made some interesting times with each other and made unforgettable memories. I hope that we all remember the good rather than the bad,” said Jenny Lambright.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders pump up the crowd by shouting through their mega-phones at a home game.

"This year we got to be a lot more creative with pep rally themes; and it's only going to get better!" said Whitney Cupp.

AHS JV CHEERLEADERS

Whitney Cupp and Whitney Frautschi cheer with their face paint on at the Halloween pep-rally.

Over the summer the cheerleaders attended cheer camp and swear they only took a break long enough to take this picture.

Monyca Warren stands on the sidelines in the gym and does a cheer.

Brooke Ingram and Brenna Holliman pose with our very own Elvis, Bobbie Bowden.

The JV cheerleaders stop to take a cheesy victory picture.

Stingerettes perform at pep rally.

Perla Garcia smiles just before beginning a contagion while in the middle of a routine.

Drill Team

Amanda Gannon helps to organize the team during a pep rally performance.

"My favorite part of Stingerettes is promoting school spirit. Seeing all the fans cheering, and shouting at the football games and pep rallies is really gratifying."

Performances

The Stingerettes wait diligently with much anticipation for the final score of a home game to see if the Hornets beat their opponents.

The Stingerettes perform a kick routine at the District wide pep rally on Bruce Field.

Amanda Brown begins to kick during another kick routine at the District wide pep rally on Bruce Field.

A Piece of My Heart

This year the Athens High School Theatre Department began the acting "season" with a play called "A Piece of My Heart." The dramatic play showed how women worked in Vietnam during the War. Then in the late fall, Mrs. Mizell directed her first musical, "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum," a show that blew audiences away with laughter.

The entire cast performs a scene in which men & women travel by airplane to Vietnam to fight and help.

Becki Knotts portrays a tough woman as she gives the opening monologue.

The nurses watch a man die, knowing they cannot save him.

Caroline Harrell tells about her singing career & what she saw in Vietnam.

Gentry Griffin and others watch Tony Johnson tell a story to the troops.

A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum

Lycus (Scott Robertson) shows the girls to potential buyers.

Miles (Hunter Frederick) tells Pseudolous that he wants his bride.

Hysterium (Tony Johnson) dances with one of the many girls.

The Geminae (Mykal Lehman & Bobbie Bowden) perform a dance for the buyers.

Adam Gibbs shows a grumpy old man (Brittany Steddum) his future as a plot to get him away from his house.

The cast poses for a group photo during a dress rehearsal.

Hero (Terry Furrh) falls in love at first sight with Philia (Margaret Carlson).

An Experiment With An Air Pump

The One Act Play did very well this year. Not only did they win various awards, including Best Actor and Best Actress twice, they advanced to the State competition in Austin for the first time in the history of Athens High School.

The opening tableau prepared minds for the new experiments in 1799.

Roget (Tony Johnson) finds himself intrigued by the maid's (Caroline Harrell) intelligence.

This closing scene prepares the family and scientists for the future as they lose beloved Isobel.

Fenwick (Scott Robertson) asks his maid, Isobel, for literary help.

Harriet (Adri Jones) and her sister Maria fight about a cheating boyfriend.

In 1999, Ellen, Phil, (Adam Gibbs) & Kate (Lauren Haynie) discuss modern science.

Armstrong (Adam Gibbs) suffocates Isobel in the name of science, not love.

Maria (Melody Cooper) yells for her sister after a brief confrontation.

The Middle School decorated signs for the bus wishing the cast and crew good luck at state.

ALL THE WAY TO STATE

State One Act Play 2004

The cast and crew pose for a quick picture before they perform at state at the Bass Concert Hall.

Ellen/Sussanah (Kaci Koviak) gives her opening monologue as dressers, Becki Knotts and Allison Boening, dress her for 1799.

The cast poses in costume after advancing from Regionals to State competition.

Dances

The Homecoming Dance

Students enjoy the loud music with their friends at the outdoor prom.

Jennifer Mitchell, Karol Ask, and Katie Carnes pose for a picture before hitting the dance floor.

Lauren Haynie, Heather Crabtree, Meghan Wilson, and Jessica Crocker, head for the gate & their after-prom activities.

Marcella Rodriguez and her date Augustine Soto take an evening stroll.

Leia Emerine and Jordan Rowan wait for the Valet to bring their car.

UnShella Dewberry signs in at the door before being allowed to enter.

By the Light of the Moon

Kent Harraid smiles and talks to friends while enjoying the night.

Athens High Prom 2004

Charlie Conditt looks for his name so he can sign out before being allowed to leave.

Keisha Cumby shows everyone how dancing is done.

Andrea Davis and her date walk down the trail to go take pictures.

Angel Fender and Casey Harris look around for someone to take their picture.

Britini Warren waves to friends as she walks down the red carpet.

Excitement in the Stands

Loyal fans cheer on the Hornets at the Homecoming game against Kaufman.

A loving fan shows her support at a basketball game.

Micheal David strikes a pose for the camera as he cheers on the baseball team.

The Fans

When asked what they thought of the game Clint Speer said, "I'm there?" and Josh Harris said, "We're intimidating!"

Cooper Schmidt said about the basketball team, "Gotta keep the momentum going...even when no one else is."

Melissa Wilson and her mom cheer on the basketball team from the stands at a home game.

Joe Blackwell rings a victory bell with pride at a home baseball game.

School Spirit

“Athens has so much school spirit,” said senior Lauren Haynie. “The week before the homecoming game everyone participated in making floats, dressing up, and celebrating Athens High. It was great.”

Mrs. Currington, Mrs. Red, Mrs. Clemmons, and Mrs. Castelberry sing their version of Stop in the Name of Love at the homecoming pep rally. When asked how they prepared, Castelberry said, “We went to Diana’s web page, had lots of daily rehearsal at Julie’s Dance Studio, went to Vicki’s Wig Shop, and prayed.”

The Hornet run-through took a slight fall at the beginning of the game.

A group of girls decided to show their spirit by wearing tie-dye shirts the week of homecoming.

Caitlin Gates and Kelsi Gabbert made t-shirts to show their Halloween spirit.

Cameron Royall sings the national anthem at a fall pep rally.

Sophomore girls made shirts to show their spirit.

The senior class poses with their float.

Two sets of twinkies pose in the library for a picture.

Mr. Stults looks up at the skydivers during the homecoming pregame festivities.

Band Follies

Entertaining audiences once again is the Athens High School Band Follies. Students worked hard to play beautiful music for the crowd. They also put together many skits to make visitors and students laugh.

John Glover directs the band at the Athens High School annual Band Follies.

Sarah Morris plays her flute during an opening song at Band Follies.

Rachel Smith runs the show when it comes to the raffle prizes.

In the senior skit, all of the funny seniors wore fat suits.

Mothers of the seniors in the band, dance along.

Making the Music

Mr. Glover makes the band the best it can be furing this masterful performance.

Is it Time Yet???

Lisa Hanson plays her french horn loud and clear.

Looking Back at...

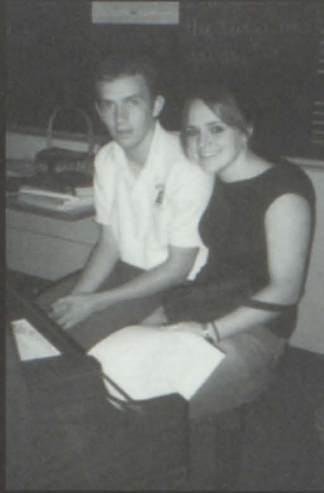

Grethel and Jorge Palacios make a charming pair at the beach as youngsters.

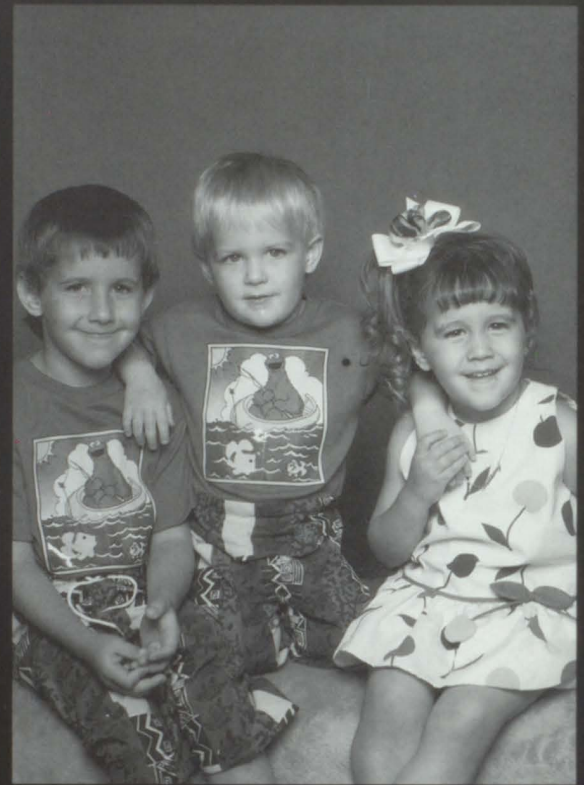

Kyle and Kyla Henson smile for their parents.

Casey Harris said of her brother's worst habit, "Justin can't walk straight because he just had knee surgery."

Allison Wilson said that her brother, Austin's worst habit is.....better left unsaid.

"Brittany won't shut-up and Blake eats all the time," said Bryan Godwin.

Siblings

Emily Kirksey said of her brothers worst habit, "Waking me up early in the morning." Holden Kirksey said of Emily's worst habit, "Her jaw pops when she eats."

Lauren, Adam, and Michael prepare for "Gibbaynie" story time with their father, Richard.

AHS SIBLINGS

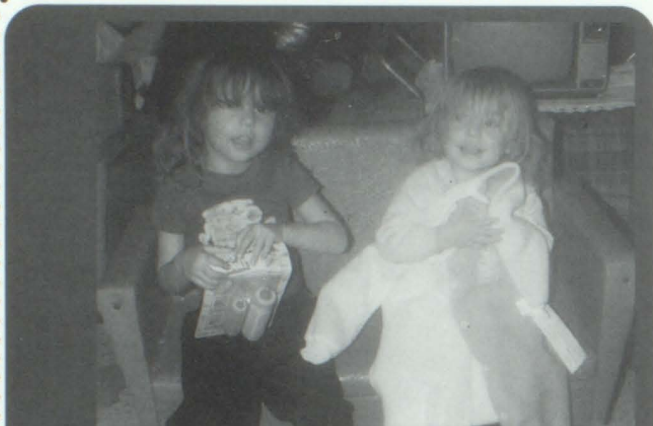

Lacee McGee poses proudly with her new baby brother, Peyton.

When asked about his brother Chris Abadie's, worst habit, Brian Abadie said, "He smacks."

Siblings

Byron and Amanda Campell pose for their Christmas portrait.

Elizabeth and Mary Barcnas
open gifts only stopping for the camera flash.

Rebecca Hanson said about her younger sister Lisa, "She's real bossy."

Mikey and Holly
Christy welcome
newest addition,
Becky, to the family.

SIBLINGS SWEEP AHS

Meldoy and Amber Cooper tell Santa what they really want for Christmas.

Allie Rogers and her little brother, Ben, pose for the camera at their Nana's house.

I'll love you forever. I'll like you for always. As long as I'm living, my baby you'll be. Decide the person you want to be and what you want to do with your life and then don't ever give up. What are we going to do without you?!!

Love you lots and lots,
Mom & Dad

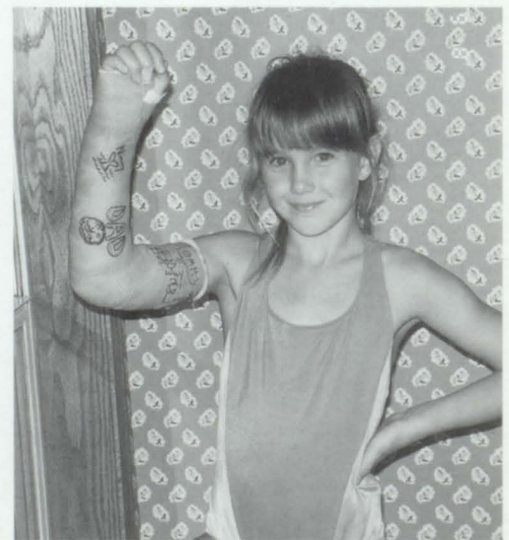

To my baby sister, the "little princess"! Have fun, study hard and always go to class. You'll do wonderful in college. I love you.

Amanda

Mal,
You are such an incredible person and no matter what you do with your life you will be great at it. I love you so much, and I am so proud of you.

Love Always,
Adie

Kyle Johnson

Dear Son,

We are so proud of you! Remember to work hard, laugh often, and seek the Lord in all you do. Never forget you can achieve anything you set your mind to. Thank you for always making us laugh; your sense of humor is a gift. We will always be here for you.

With love and respect,
Dad and Mom

Hillary Hinds

Congratulations.
There are many things in life that will catch your eye, but only a few will catch your heart... pursue those.
We love you.

Congratulations, Brian!

We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments.
You've given us so much joy and happiness through the years. We wish the very best for you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Bryan Godwin

We are very proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad, Blake, and Brittany

Bry Bry,
I can't believe you're graduating! I wish you luck in everything you do. Thank you for keeping me in line. (Who's gonna cover for me now?)

I love you lots and lots and I will miss you even more.

Brittany

P.S. Maybe we'll see you in one of these someday soon...

Lacee McGee

Lacee,
May all your dreams come true.
We love you.
Mom, Dad, and Peyton

Stephanie Stafford

Stephanie,
You are my special daughter. I am so proud of you. Always remember, I love you "a bushel and a peck and a hug around the neck." May God bless you with a healthy happy life.
Mom

Lance Livingston

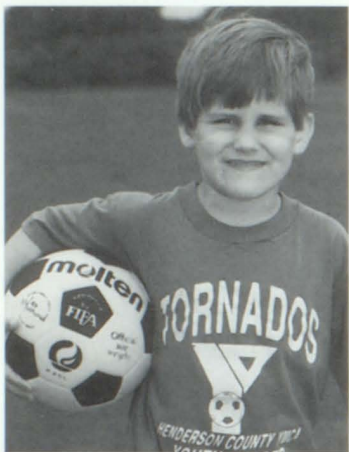

Lance,

Thank you for always being such a kind and loving son, grandson, and brother. We are so proud of your accomplishments! Keep up the dedicated work and may all your dreams come true.

We love you!

Mom, Dad, Jennifer,
Grandmommy, MaMa, and Grandad

Melody Cooper

You are my sunshine,
My only sunshine,
You make me happy when skies are gray.
You'll never know, dear,
How much I love you
Please don't take my sunshine away!

Melody, I love you with all my heart and I'm so proud of the young lady you have become. Always trust in God and remember Philippians 4:13 - I can do all things through Christ Jesus who strengthens me

Love you, Mom

Little girl of mine,
I love you, yes I do!
Little girl of mine,
I love you, yes it's true!
No one will ever care for you
The way I do!
Because you are
and will always be
Daddy's little girl.
I love you, Dad

I'm glad I'm the one friend you like of Amber's. You're just like a sis to me.
Love ya, Beth

Mel, I am so proud of you and thankful you are my sister. We have lots of wonderful memories that we will always share. Our trips to Tyler are so awesome! When I get my license I'll be driving down to visit you every weekend!
Party! Love ya, girl!

How to Make a Beautiful Life

Love Yourself.

Make peace with who you are and where you are at this moment in time.

Listen to your heart.

If you can't hear what it's saying
in this noisy world,
Make time for yourself.

Enjoy your own company.

Let your mind wander among the stars.

Try.

Take chances.

Make mistakes.

Life can be messy
and confusing at times,
but it's also full of surprises.

The next rock in your path might be a stepping stone.

Be happy.

When you don't have what you want,
want what you have.

Make do.

That's a well-kept secret of contentment.

There aren't and shortcuts to tomorrow.

You have to make your own way.

To know where you're going is the only part of it.

You need to know where you've been, too.

And if you ever get lost, don't worry.

The people who love you will find you.

Count on it.

Life isn't days and years.

It's what you do with time and with all the goodness and grace that's inside you.

Make A Beautiful Life...

The kind of life you deserve.

Hallmark

Britne,

We love you and are very proud of you and your accomplishments.

Comgratulations on graduation & the beginning of your future.

Ashley Sattler

My baby girl, my first born, how proud I am of you. It seems like yesterday when I took my anxious and excited Ashley to her first day of school. You were eager to embrace new challenges and have been ever since. Now I find you ready to embark on your next journey with the same amount of enthusiasm. I have been truly blessed to have you as my daughter.

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding.

In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths."

Proverbs 3:5-6

You have brought great joy and happiness to our lives and others who know you. Your determination, dedication, smile and laughter are all the traits we have come to know and love about you. You should find pride in your accomplishments and peace in knowing what a beautiful, unique person you have become. We wish you great happiness in all that you do and may all your dreams come true. Always look to God for guidance and direction.

We love you,

Brittani Gail

Brittani Gail, we all love you so
 And want you to remember and always know
 No matter the path you choose to take
 Be strong, be true in the decisions you make.

With such a bright future lying just ahead,
 Hold onto your dreams, never let it be said
 That today isn't yesterday's dream come true
 From a child in our arms, to the woman, now you.

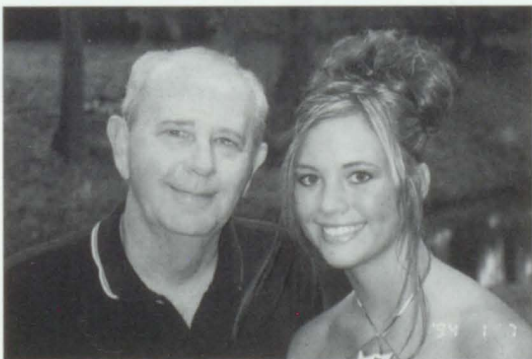

Go forward my child and never look back
 Great things await you, so stay on track
 The sky is the limit for you to hold,
 Each day a new journey, go ahead be bold.

So take that next step, don't stop now
 The world awaits you so show them how
 To make your hopes and dreams come true
 Remember, We All Love and Believe in You!

Love Daddy, Alicea, Dustin and Alexandra

Human (song by Rod Stewart)

Who am I to reach so high and who am I to raise my eyes
Born to live born to die
I can do anything
I'll tell you why

I'm the one who took a walk on the moon
and I made the seven wonders too
there is nothing that I cannot do cause I am Human

There is nothing that I cannot be I'm the one who sailed the seven seas and I know that it is all in me
cause I am Human

My brothers blood runs through my veins that tells me I'm the same as all the other ones gone by in the air that I am breathing emotions that I'm feeling underneath the same blue sky

And I know if I believe it then I can achieve it nothing standing in my way
Then maybe history will make a place for me and I'll be livin' for that day

Not born to make mistakes not born to fade away not born just to live to survive

don't tell me I am nothing
I AM SOMETHING
brother, don't you realize

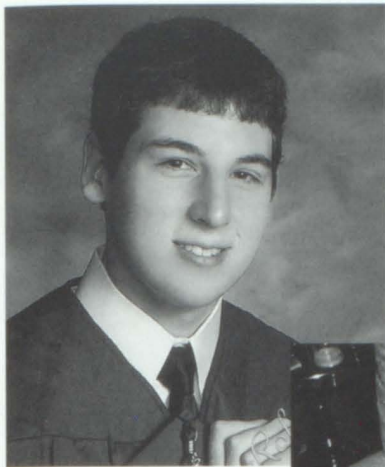

I'm the one who took a walk on the moon
and I made the seven wonders too
there is nothing that I cannot do, I AM HUMAN

CALEB -- GOD BLESS

LOVE, DAD, MOM, & CAMERON

Robert Odom

Robert,

Time has passed so quickly. It's hard to believe that you have reached this milestone in your life. You've always overcome the obstacles and conquered all the challenges put in front of you. You have succeeded in attaining a great education and the whole family is so very proud of you. Follow your dreams and your heart and never forget what you can do and become because the sky is the limit.

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR GRADUATION!!

We love you,
Mom, Tim, Josef, and Jakeb

Robert,

We are very proud of you. We had no doubt you could do it. You are and have always been intelligent. You could even spell motorcycle when you were two.

Congratulations,
Granny & Jimmy

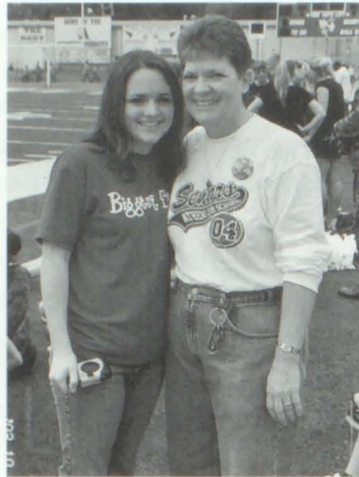

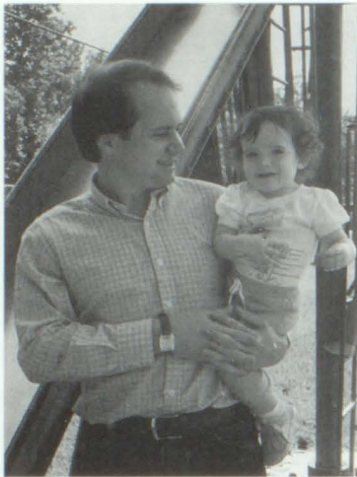

To our grandson, John Robert,

We have watched you grow from a toddler to a young man. You have made great strides in your achievements in education. Now you will have to decide which path you're going to take in life. To guide you in this way always consider God's word. We congratulate you on your graduation.

Our love,
Mama' and Papa'

*Our lives are woven by the weavers of time,
In a pattern we cannot see.
The tapestry of life is unfolding
Just the way it was meant to be.*

*Embrace the gifts of new tomorrows,
For hidden within each of them are moments
Which will not come again.*

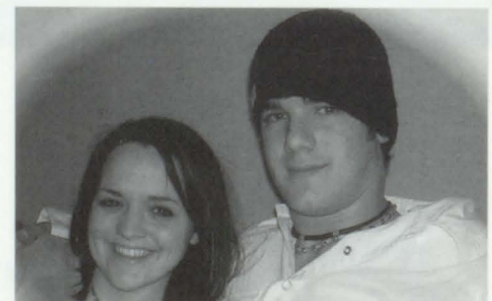

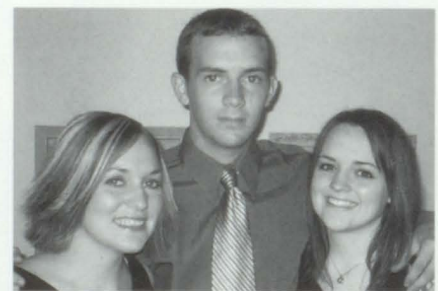

*Weave the sunlight into your days
And the moonlight into your nights,
Every moment in time is sacred.*

*In nothing are we as rich as in our memories:
They are pictures painted by our hearts,
And nothing can erase them.*

*Trust in the Lord with all your heart
And lean not on your own understanding:
In all your ways acknowledge Him,
And He will make your paths straight.*

Proverbs 3:5

Allison,
God blessed us the day you were born. We love you so much
And are so very proud of you. Have a wonderful life!

Rebecca Hanson

Rebecca,

I'm so proud of you having always traveled in your own direction. Never stray from that path for life's journey is what you make of it and as often as you look at this page, remember the good times, as well as the bad, and those of us that traveled them with you.

God bless you, Beck-Beck,
Love, Dad

May your hopes and dreams come true. Strive to make them happen.

I love you!!!

Mom
