Bear Tracks of '53

Presented by
THE SENIOR CLASS of

Brownsboro High School

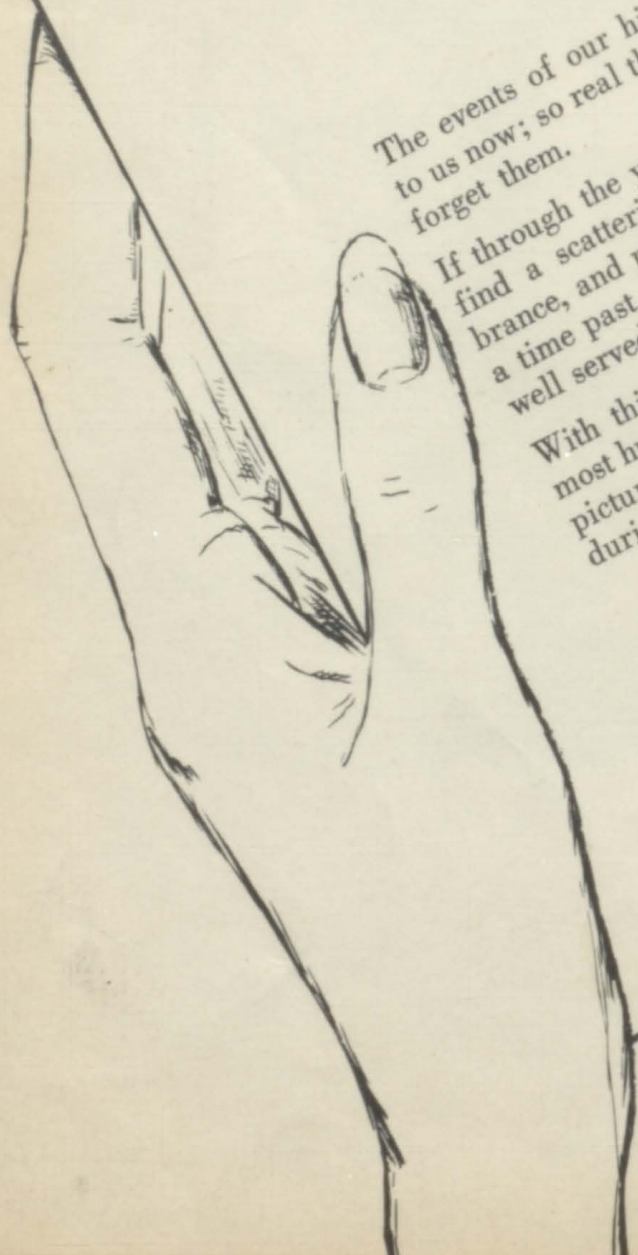

Foreword

The events of our high school days are real to us now; so real that we will probably never forget them.

If through the years that soon will pass, you find a scattering hour of pleasant remembrance, and perhaps recapture in these pages a time past, then our purpose will have been well served.

With this in mind the staff has tried in its most humble way to bring the students a clear picture of the school days of dear 'ole B. H. S. during the year of 1952-53.

To MR. CARL PETREY
Who understood all our troubles coached us in volleyball
steered us through the turmoil of our senior year, and was still able to smile when it was over—we fondly dedicate this 1952-53 edition of the BEAR TRACKS.

SENTIMENTS of A SENIOR

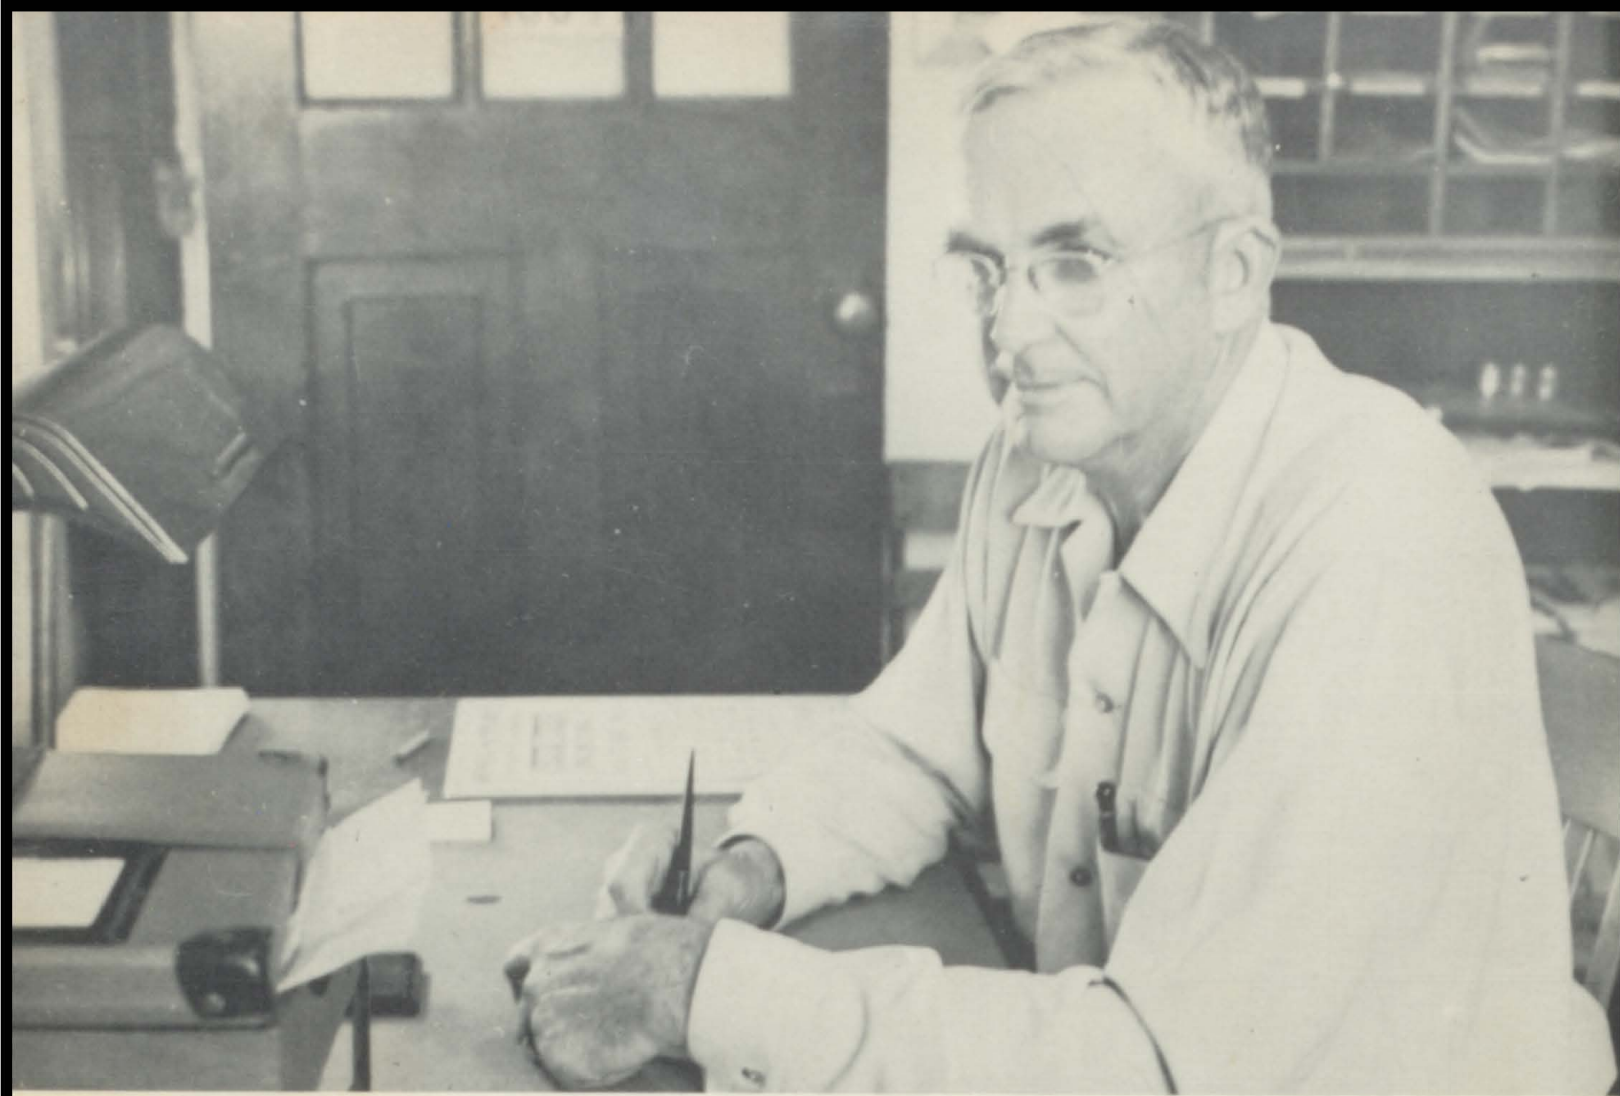

Most eulogies are of people or persons no longer living; however, I wish to pay tribute to a man still in our midst—Mr. H. D. Bass.

Through his aim to be a friend to everyone—a goal which he has succeeded in reaching—he has won our love and respect.

He is a devout Christian and a wonderful teacher. His character includes all the desirable traits—truthfulness, honesty, sincerity, friendliness, and faithfulness.

Being superintendent of our school for fifteen years, he has seen our “halls of fame” through thick and thin, yet he always keep pushing and when he finally pulls through, he smiles with the satisfaction of having done something for us, his children. His entire interest is vested in our school, for he always has a good word for Brownsboro, hoping to have everyone appreciate Brownsboro.

Principal

REGARDS of A SENIOR

In one short year, Mr. H. H. Riley, our principal, has won the admiration and respect of the entire student body. Mr. Riley came to us from Canton where he had served as superintendent of schools for a number of years. We are fortunate indeed to receive the benefit of his rich experience as a school administrator. This kind, friendly man has an understanding of youth that makes of him an outstanding principal and counselor. Under his leadership we are receiving character and citizenship training that will go with us through life. In his quiet, unassuming way, he has already made B. H. S. a much better place for work or play. We appreciate all Mr. Riley has done for us. We expect to go forward with him each year and accomplish things we have only dreamed of before. We are proud to have a man of his high qualifications as our principal.
