The Marcher's Prayer

Below: Tiffannie Geddie, Lani Ford, and Haley Calhoun give a quick smile before heading to the field for a half time show.

Now onto this field we go

Square our shoulders, heel to toe

If we miss a step or two

We pray our guide points find us true.

Chest and chin shall we life high

To the press box in the sky

Tall and proud we march as one.

Focused on what next must come.

Fast our air and warm our tone

Eyes on him who's on the throne

From depths of mind and heart and soul

We move with grace, play with control

At whence we look back on this drill

And ponder fondly this great field

We strive the right to proudly say

This great field was ours today,

Amen

Katie,

Well, the countdown is finally over and your senior year of high school is complete. It may have seemed like a very long time to you, but to me it has been a blink of an eye. I hope you know that it has been a joy to see you grow and learn through out the years.

Much to your dislike, I left you each morning from K-12, with the same words as I sent you to school. Even when your friends could hear me! "Smile at someone you don't know, make a new friend! I love you!" I hope you keep those words in your head for the rest of the days. You can change someones' life with a smile and kind words. You can change your own life by helping others.

Thank you for being everything my Mother wished for me.
