

MEETING OF THE GENEALOGICAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF CALDWELL COUNTY

The Genealogical and Historical Society of Caldwell County will hold its annual meeting on Saturday, November 2, 2024 at the J. B. Nickells Memorial Library at 215 South Pecan Avenue, Luling, Texas. The meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Following a brief business meeting for the election of 2025 officers, guest speaker Doug Kubicek, noted educator and chair of the Lavaca County Historical Commission, has been invited to help us recognize the bicentennial anniversary of the Green DeWitt Colony. The land that comprises Caldwell County was originally a part of the early DeWitt Colony. Mr. Kubicek will discuss the people who came to this part of Texas 200 years ago and helped to settle and develop this uninhabited frontier land.

Following the program there will be refreshments and an opportunity for everyone to visit and learn more about our fascinating local history. A number of door prizes will be awarded to participants attending our meeting. All visitors are welcome. Membership in the Society is not required.
