

“BABY RECORD” 1873-1876

The Texas Constitutional Congress of 1869 called for the registration of births, marriages and deaths in every organized county and such was set up by legislative action in 1873 and repealed in 1876. Cooke County kept a birth register but some of the pages are missing in the back. The first 37 pages are intact but the following pages are incomplete with some missing. This is in one 13” x 8” x ½” volume. The original volume is too fragile for public display, hence this typed list. There might be similar books in other Texas counties. Check with the County Clerk’s office.
