Directions: From Sulphur Springs, Hopkins County, Texas, take Texas Hwy. 11 West for about 15 miles cemetery will be on South side of highway. From Commerce, Hunt County, Texas, take Texas Hwy. 11 East for about five miles, cemetery is on South side of highway. From I-30, Cumby, Hopkins County, Texas, take Hwy. 275 North for six miles to Texas Hwy. 11 and go East about one mile and cemetery is on South side of highway.

Historical Marker: Mt. Zion Churches and Cemetery - Mt. Zion Methodist Episcopal Church organized here before creation of Hopkins County, 1846. Also at Mt. Zion, 1849 Harmony Cumberland Presbyterian Church was organized with 13 members, by the Rev. Anthony Travelstead. After years of worship in oak groves, brush arbors, and homes, church edifice was built jointly 1861. Site given by David Findley, Nicholas Harlow. More land given 1904 by J.A. Rains, Chas. E. Brown. In 1901 Harmony Cumberland Presbyterian Church became Mt. Zion Cumberland Presbyterian Church; continued to function. Methodists moved away in 1914. (1967) Source: WHY STOP? A Guide to Texas Historical Roadside Markers, 2nd edition, 1978, by Claude & Betty Dooley and the Texas Historical Commission.

Notes: Mt. Zion Cemetery is around 160 years old and many of the grave spaces do not have markers or stones and are unidentifiable. If you find discrepancies in this list or know of someone buried here and their name is not on the list, please contact the Cemetery Records Keeper, Joan Herman Stringer, and identify the person and space. All sections are cataloged from North to South and the cemetery is divided into 5 Sections..
