

Concord Cemetery Association members gather to make plans for the upcoming historical marker dedication ceremony.

Marker dedication set

Concord Cemetery Association's Historical Marker Dedication is slated for Saturday, Oct. 20 at 2 p.m.

The over 100-year-old cemetery is located about 7.5 miles east of Crockett, one mile north off Hwy. 7, CR 1030.

Guests include speaker, Houston County Judge Lonnie Hunt, Historian Eliza Bishop, descendants of those interred at Concord Cemetery and members of Houston County Historical commission, plus other county and state dignitaries.

The program features old time hymns, a history of the 1895 cemetery and a marker report. C.R. Randall, 93, of Crockett, the oldest living descendant will also be present.

Refreshments will be served.
