

KENNETH IRVING JONES

Mr. Kenneth Irving Jones, age 52, was born August 1, 1954, and passed away on March 5, 2007 in Anderson, Indiana. A member of First Baptist Church, Plaquemine, Louisiana.

Mr. Jones attended L. S. U., graduated from Nicholls State University, Thibodoux, Louisiana and Ball State University, Muncie, Indiana. Mr. Jones worked as a timekeeper for Brown and Root, and worked in Risk Managements for the City of Baton Rouge, Louisiana. After graduating from Ball State he taught school.

Survivors include his mother, Carol and father, Irving Jones, of Portland; one brother Thomas R. Jones and wife Debra, of Huntsville; one sister Carolyn Purvis and husband James, of Denham Springs, La.; nieces and nephews Christie and Thomas Jones, Leigh and Katie Purvis; grandmother Georgia B. Thompson and husband Rev. Bill Thompson, of Mexia; and ex-wife Marion Humble, of Anderson Ind.