

EDMUND SCHMIDT

Mr. Edmund Schmidt was born in Lampasas to Myrtle Garner Schmidt and Edmund C. Schmidt, November 30, 1929. Mr. Schmidt grew up in Cameron and was a graduate of Yoe High School. Following his years of service in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War, he returned to college receiving his degree from Southwest Texas State University in Chemistry.

During his years of service while in Chicago, he met Dorothy Schnur whom he married October 4, 1952. They lived for many years in Houston where he worked as a salesman of heavy industrial coating. Mr. Schmidt worked for Pittsburg Paints, Exxon and International Coating.

Mr. Schmidt was active in Christ Lutheran Church where he was president of the congregation and served on many boards. Mr. Schmidt was known for his love of hunting, gardening, golf and bridge.

Survivors include his two sons Shane Schmidt, of Austin and Shawn Schmidt, of Miami, Fla.; one daughter Susanne Schmidt, of Austin; one sister Elizabeth Holloway, of Rockdale; several nieces and nephews; dear friend Bennie Rush of Crockett.

Preceded in death by his wife Dorothy.

Services for Edmund Schmidt of Crockett were held Monday, October 1, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. in the Grace Lutheran Church with the Rev. Larry Knobloch officiating. Burial with military honors followed at 2:00 p.m. at Hope Lutheran Memorial Park in Buckholts.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Research.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home