

JACK BRITTAIN

Mr. Jack Brittain, of Crockett, TX (former resident of Martinsville, IN), passed away on May 25, 2008. Mr. Brittain was born in Shelby County, Center, TX on December 21, 1922 to Norvin Lester and Thelma (Doggett) Brittain. Mr. Brittain graduated from Lamar College and was employed by Stone & Webster Engineering Corporation and the Indianapolis Power and Light Company. In retirement, he and his late wife, Margaret, volunteered for several local community groups.

Mr. Brittain proudly served his country as a member of the US Army Air Corps in Europe and Northwest Africa, flying under the command of Jimmy Doolittle. Mr. Brittain was wounded in anti-aircraft fire, credited with destroying one German aircraft, survived a crash landing on the Island of Sardinia and received seven heroic awards, including a Purple Heart.

Survivors include his children Dan (Linda) Brittain, of Pensacola, Fla., Kathleen (Mark) Luther, of St. Louis, Mo., Russ (Martha) Brittain, Rosanne (Jim) Cerone, all Fishers, Ind. and Sarah Honeycutt, of Noblesville, Ind.; grandchildren Neal, Tilly and Alex Luther, Jackson, Carson and Reece Brittain, Jimmy and Joey Cerone and Megan and Cody Honeycutt; and great-granddaughter Chloe Collier.

Preceded in death by his beloved wife of 58 years, Margaret Tillery Brittain, of Beaumont TX.

A memorial visitation for Mr. Jack Brittain will be held Friday afternoon from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the Callaway-Allee Funeral Home.

The family requests that memorial contributions be made to the First United Methodist Church, 701 East Goliad, Crockett, TX 75835.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home

