

Virginia Serur Hambrick

Virginia Serur Hambrick, 73, passed away on June 2, 2008. Born February 4, 1935 in Centerville, she was the daughter of Mabel Serur Masterson, John Serur who died when she was two, and Capt. Lloyd A Masterson.

Virginia lived most of her life in Pasadena, Texas. A 1952 graduate of Pasadena High School, she attended the University of Houston before marrying the love for the rest of her life, James E. Hambrick - forming a strong and wonderful 54 year partnership.

As a loving wife, Mother and active community

Virginia Serur Hambrick

member, she put family and friends as her life long priorities. Virginia was an avid decorator, gardener, artist, traveler and community volunteer. She worked tirelessly to make a real difference in the lives of others, particularly in their times of need.

She is survived by husband James E. Hambrick of Pasadena, Texas, sons James L. Hambrick and wife Angela of Russell, Ohio and John R. Hambrick and wife Kelly of Houston, Texas; grandchildren James L. Hambrick Jr. and Erin E. Hambrick; and by many other relatives and close friends.

Family memorial services will be held at Augusta Cemetery in Augusta, at a later date.