

CLOYCE (AKA MR. GEE) KIZZEE

Mr. Cloyce (AKA Mr. Gee) Kizsee, age 70, passed away Wednesday, September 10, 2008. Mr. Kizsee was born December 26, 1937 in Kennard to Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kizsee, Sr.

Mr. Kizsee graduated from Jack Yates High School in Houston in 1955 and enlisted in the United States Navy. After being discharged from the Navy, Mr. Kizsee began life as a civilian in Oakland, California.

Mr. Kizsee owned and operated a number of well patronized restaurants and cocktail lounges throughout Berkeley and Oakland, including "Mr. Gee's Screaming Eagle" and Mr. Gee's House of Lee." After retiring from business Mr. Kizsee and his wife Marie moved to Prairie View.

Survivors include his wife of 48 years, Marie; daughter Lavana Kizsee, of Berkeley, Calif.; son Johann Kizsee (Janet), of Stockton, Calif.; sister Ruthie Lee Jergo (Cornelius), of Richmond; and other relatives and friends.

Preceded in death by his parents John and Reba Kizsee; two brothers; and two sisters.

Funeral Services for Mr. Cloyce (AKA Mr. Gee) Kizsee will be held Saturday, September 20, at 11:00 a.m. at New Hope Missionary Baptist Church, Hwy 7, Kennard, Texas.

Singleton & Sons Funeral Home Inc.