

GLADYS EDITH TITCOMB MACLEOD

Mrs. Gladys Edith Titcomb MacLeod, passed away on Tuesday, Jan. 22, 2008 at the age of 94. Born August 24, 1913, in Island Falls, Maine, Gladys enjoyed a long and interesting life. A school teacher at the age of 16, she later went on to get her RN degree and worked in several hospitals around the country as well as for the Red Cross. In middle age, when most people are thinking of slowing down, Gladys chose to go back to school and received her B.S. degree in the early 1960's.

During WWII while Gladys served in the Army Nurse Corp stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, a very handsome young private, Jack MacLeod, was admitted to her ward. Mrs. Macleod new patient was so taken by his nurse that he faked illness for several days. Clearly, Mrs. MacLeod was as just as interested since after a whirl-wind two week courtship, the couple were married on April 10, 1942. Their marriage lasted 66 years, until Mrs. MacLeod's death. After her husband's retirement from the military,

Survivors include her husband Andrew Jackson (Jack) MacLeod, of Cedar City, Ut.; daughter Sara Wolff and husband Lonnie, of Cedar City, Ut.; son Myron MacLeod and wife Kathy, of Rancho Santa Fe, Calif.; grandsons Justin Couch and wife Erin, of Portland, Ore., Jamie Couch, of Riverhead, N.Y., Eric Ecuyer of Carlsbad, Calif., Rob Ecuyer, of Atlanta, Ga. and Andrew MacLeod, of Los Angeles, Calif.; sister Ruth Currier, of Brewer, ME; and brother, Ellwood Titcomb, of DeLand, Fla.

Preceded in death by her parents; two sisters Inez who died in childhood and Serena Titcomb Smiley; and one of her brother Vernon E. Titcomb Jr.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Gladys Edith Titcomb MacLeod will be held on Monday, January 28, 2008 at 11:00 a. m. in the Liberty Hill Methodist Church. Interment will follow in the Augusta Cemetery.
