

JEFFERSON M. "JEFF"
MOORE JR.

Mr. Jefferson M. "Jeff" Moore, Jr., age 60 of Flint, passed away Monday, May 26, 2008 in Beeville, Texas. Mr. Moore was born October 24, 1947 in Houston, Texas and had lived in Flint for the past 30 years. Mr. Moore was ordained and licensed in 1966 by John Shepherd of the First Baptist Church of Angleton, Texas at age 19 and finished his BA in 1970 at Oklahoma Baptist University (Education and Speech) and received his Teaching certificate. Mr. Moore received his Divinity Degrees at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. After seminary he moved to San Antonio, Texas and became an associate pastor over the youth and children's ministry. His voice training and musical ability with the guitar was now coming full force as another wonderful talent given by God to Jeff. When he left San Antonio he moved back to Crockett and worked for the State School Youth Council as a Case Worker and Chaplain. He also worked at the old Lift Center in Crockett as a

Co-Director in 1980, Mr. Moore entered full time evangelism for small rural churches across America and worked mostly with the Henry Roe Evangelistic Team. By early Nineties Jeff had moved and opened his Dogwood City Chapel and Day Care Center in Lake Palestine area.

Survivors include his wife Mary Moore, of Flint; son Jeffy Moore and wife Erica, of Nashville, Tenn.; parents Jeff and Hazel Moore, of Crockett; brothers Lloyd Moore of Crockett and Allan Moore and wife Pam, of Chandler.

Preceded in death by his daughter Jennifer Renee Moore in November 1972.

Funeral Services for Mr. Jefferson M. "Jeff" Moore, Jr. were held Saturday, May 31, at 2:00 p.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with the Rev. John Goss officiating. Interment followed in the Evergreen Memorial Park.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home