

JIM ALLBRIGHT

Mr. Jim Allbright, age 82 of Houston, passed away Wednesday, September 16, 2009 in the Kindred Hospital in Houston. Mr. Allbright was born November 4, 1926 in Coolidge, Texas and had been living in Houston for the past 7 years, previously living 20 years in Huntsville. He was a veteran of the United States Navy having served during World War II.

Mr. Allbright was retired having worked as a Purchasing Agent for the Texas Department of Corrections and was a member of the Cypress Creek Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife Charlene Allbright, of Houston; daughter Regina Allbright Morris and husband Paul, of Houston; sons Barry Allbright and wife Rhonda, of Amarillo and Charlie Allbright and wife Byna, of Houston; 10 Grandchildren; brother-in-law and sister-in-law Henry Horton and wife Vannette, of Fairfield and Allene Stubbs and husband Carol, of Houston; numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Preceded in death by his son Jamie Allbright; parents Mr. and Mrs. Allen Allbright; and father-in-law and mother-in-law Dub and Lula Horton.

Funeral Services for Mr. Jim Allbright were held Saturday, September 19, 2009 at 11:00 a.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Henry Horton and the Rev. Carol Stubbs officiating. Interment followed in the Evergreen Memorial Park.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home