

SUE ELAINE MANGUM

Miss Sue Elaine Mangum, age 88 of Bellaire, passed away Friday, February 13, 2009, in her home in Bellaire, Texas. Miss Mangum was born in Ratcliff, Texas in 1921 to Allie Murray Mangum and Walter L. Mangum. Miss Mangum lived in Grapeland and Crockett, Texas, graduating from Crockett High School in 1938. She moved to Houston in the early 1940's and lived in Houston and Bellaire until her death. She worked for numerous oil companies, retiring in 1986 from Phillips Petroleum Co.

Survivors include her nephew James J. Kennedy, III, M.D., and wife Nancy, of Phoenix, Ariz.; two great-nieces Tara E. Kennedy, of Phoenix and Kristin K. Herndon, of San Diego; three great-nephews Nicholas Gager and Brenden Kennedy, of Phoenix, Ariz. and Matthew Herndon, of San Diego; cousins Drs. Joseph and Susan Darsey, of Houston and New Mexico, Ann Tobeck, of Houston; and many other family and friends, especially her Tri Kappa Group; special friend Camile Boyd.

Preceded in death by her parents Allie Murray Mangum and Walter L. Mangum; sister Sibyl Mangum Kennedy.

Graveside Services for Miss Sue Elaine Mangum will be held Saturday, March 14, 2009 at 1:00 p.m. at Grapeland City Cemetery, in Grapeland with the Rev. Bill Denham officiating.

Bailey & Foster Funeral Home