

RANDALL E. "RANDY" RASH

Randall E. "Randy" Rash, beloved son, brother, and friend, died in Saint Luke's Episcopal Hospital on the 2nd of January 2009, following a brief illness. Randy was born the 10th of January 1975, in Grapeland, Texas, to Billy W. Rash and Cherie Moller Rash.

He is survived by his mother, Cherie Rash Carrabba; his stepfather, John Ben Carrabba; and his brother, Ryan Rash, all of Crockett; his father, Billy Rash and stepmother Jane Rash of Willis, Texas; his grandmother, Lois Rash of Baytown and his step-grandfather Lloyd Parker of Marble Falls. He is also survived by his aunts, Michelle Howles of Georgetown, and Wanda Stafford, Edna Smith, and Doris Sherron of Baytown, and his aunt Francis Pederson of Los Fresnos, as well as their spouses and numerous cousins.

His beloved Boston Terriers, Lula Belle, Falco, and Gizmo, also survive him.

Other survivors include friends whom he considered family members: Bill Poplin, and Billy Underwood of Houston, and William Lewis of Crockett. He viewed his other close friends from Houston as a "Band of Brothers" and was devoted to them and to the causes of human rights. The imprint that he left on the hearts of those that he left behind will be there forever.

The interment followed, via an escorted cortege provided by the Crockett Police, in a private cemetery situated at the family's home, La Bella Vista. La Bella Vista is accessible from State Highway 21 West in Crockett.

Arrangements in Houston and Crockett were entrusted to
Geo. H. Lewis & Sons, The Funeral Directors Since 1936,
713.789.3005,
www.geohlewis.com.