

DEANIE HARMON EAGER

Mrs. Deanie Harmon Eager, passed away Friday, December 10, 2010 in Tyler.

She was born to Richard and Ruby Hooper on October 31, 1917 in Houston, Texas. She married John Patton Eager on December 20, 1940 in Houston. They resided in Houston until 1972, then moved to Crockett, Texas where they lived until their death. She was a member of the local Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses for thirty years in Houston and for the past thirty-eight years in Crockett. Deanie dedicated her life to do Jehovah's will on August 25, 1942 by being baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses. Pat and Deanie had three children; Bernadean, Pat and Elora.

She loved working in her yard with her flowers and gardening. She was a friend to everyone she met and was a very likable people person. One of her hobbies was reading. Thus, she would carry on enjoyable conversations with whomever she met. Her favorite subject was to talk about God's Kingdom as the solution to mankind's problems and man's hope of living on a paradise earth where pain, suffering and death would be no more (Revelation 21:3,4; Psalm 37:29). She also believed in the earthly resurrection that Christ Jesus spoke of at John 5:28,29. Jehovah God will not forget her faithful and industrious life that she lived (Hebrews 6:10).

Preceded in death by her husband Pat on January 10, 1989; son-in-law Leo Daniel Baker on October 8, 1990; three sisters; and one brother.

Survivors include one brother Richard Hooper; daughter Bernadean Baker, of Nacogdoches; son Morris Pat Eager and wife Gwen, of Leona; daughter Elora Faye Schriewer and husband Ernie, of Crockett. there are five grandchildren Penny Sparks and husband Jack, Sam Baker, all of Nacogdoches, Morris Eager and wife Cheryl, Kirk Eager, both of Spring and Joel Schriewer, of Crockett; four great-grandchildren Casey Eager and wife Lauren, Cody Eager, of Spring, Jannette Sparks and Dustin Sparks; two great-great-grandchildren: Brayden Eager and Jack Bradly Sparks.

Memorial Services for Deanie Harmon Eager will be held Saturday, December 18, 2010 at 1:30 p.m. in the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Condolences for Mrs. Eager may be left at online obituaries www.callawayallee.com.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home