

PEGGY KNOX MATTOX

Mrs. Peggy Knox Mattox passed away peacefully on Friday, April 02, 2010 at home. Mrs. Mattox was born December 19, 1926 to Dovie and Leo Knox. She graduated from Crockett High School in 1944 and Baylor University in 1947. At Baylor, she majored in business and radio. After graduation from Baylor, Peggy married Robert T. (Bob) Mattox. They settled in Crockett where they owned a bakery and later the Houston County Credit Bureau.

They were loving parents to two sons, John and Jim and two granddaughters, Kathryn and Julie. They opened their hearts and home to nieces, nephews and friends, as well. In addition to her work at the Credit Bureau, She had a cake decorating business and made beautiful wedding and birthday cakes. She was actively involved for many years in the Beta Sigma Phi organization and was a 50 plus year member of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Mattox was a lifelong member of First United Methodist Church and a faithful member of the Della Gus Circle and Young at Hearts.

Survivors include her son John Knox Mattox and wife Pat, of Murphy, N.C.; daughter-in-law Jane Mattox, of Crockett; granddaughters Kathryn Jenkines and husband Russell, of Madisonville, Julie Mattox, of The Woodlands; grandson Chris Stinnett, of Ashville, N.C.; sister Alma Knox Taylor, of Abilene; sisters-in-law June Edie, of Dallas and Jerry Harris, of Houston; great-grandchildren Haley and Jordan Jenkines, of Madisonville; and numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Bob Mattox; and son Jim Mattox.
