

March 17, 2007

Abel

Funeral services for John Henry Abel, 82, of Daisetta, were held Monday, February 19, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. at the Allison Funeral Service in Liberty. Interment followed at Oakdale Cemetery in Daisetta.

He was born March 9, 1924 in Liberty, the son of John Jerome and Pearl Josephine Railey Abel. He worked as a pipefitter in the construction business and was a member of Local 211 for many years. He served as City Judge for Daisetta and loved spending time with his grandchildren.

Mr. Abel passed away at the Harbour Hospice House in Beaumont on Thursday, February 15, 2007. He was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Archie; sisters, Lois Abel, Helen Nottingham and Myrtle Rogers; and one son, Mike Abel.

Survivors include his wife, Iva Mae Nugent Abel; daughters, Deborah Parks of Jasper and Sherry Isakson of Beaumont; son, Jeff Abel of Daisetta; brother, Robert Abel of Dayton; his grandchildren, Allen Watson, Glenn Abel, Christin Smith, Abbea Abel and Josh Jackson; and great-grandchildren, Jalen, Allie, Sophie and Carson Watson, Gracie and Bayler Smith, Lexxton and Michael Glen Abel III, Alexander Johnson and Ethan Abel. Allison Funeral Services, Liberty, was in charge of arrangements.