Lester Ray Alexander ✓

TRINITY - Memorial services for Lester Ray Alexander, 63, of Trinity were held at 11 a.m. Saturday, May 20, 2006, at the Burning Hope Baptist Church with the Rev. Jim Parrish officiating.

Mr. Alexander died Sunday, May 14, at his residence.

Born Sept. 12, 1942, in Goodlett, he was the son of M.C. and Avis Johnson Alexander. He was a crane operator and was employed in the construction of industrial power plants.

He was a member of the Burning Hope Baptist Church of Trinity and enjoyed watching television and reading books.

Survivors include his wife of 14 years, Donna Alexander; a daughter, Rachael Loveless; a son, Richard Loveless; a sister, Brenda Furr; and a number of other relatives.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
