

186

Trinity Standard 7/10/97

1997

Obituaries

Ralph Algea, Jr.

DODGE-Funeral services for Ralph Algea, Jr., 66, were conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Dodge Baptist Church with Rev. Rick Holland officiating.

Burial followed in the Dodge Cemetery.

Mr. Algea was born February 24, 1931 in Potcet and died August 8 in Conroe.

He lived in Huntsville.

Mr. Algea was a self-employed machinist for 26 years. He was a member of the 980 north Volunteer Fire Department and the Dodge Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Patsielee Algea of Huntsville; sons: Ralph Thomas Algea and wife, Deanna Marie of Huntsville and Patrick Lee Algea and wife, Georgia of Houston; a daughter-in-law, Susan Algea of Houston; a brother, Clifton Lott and wife, Margie of Jourdanton; a step-brother, Charles Algea; sisters: Betty Wilson and husband, Victor of Houston; half-sisters: Shirley Canestrum of Lake Charles and Ruth Eminbizer of California; Grandchildren: Thomas Edward Algea and Jennifer Lee Algea, both of Houston; Step-Grandchildren: Mandy Myrold of Detroit, MI, Lisa Myrold of Houston and Linda Myrold of Houston; Great Grandchildren: Patrick Anthony Myrold, Heather Brook Myrold and Ashley Nichole Myrold, all of Houston.

Palbearers: Joane Hawkins, Garland Ricks, Julian Bacot, Wayne Baker, Herman Teer and Keith Blumenthal.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.