TRINITY - Services for Kimberly Jayne Dixon Allen, 44, of Trinity were held Saturday, Sept. 27, 2003, at the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home with the Rev. Mike Loftin officiating.

Burial followed in the Taylor Cemetery near Trinity.

Mrs. Allen died Monday, Sept. 22, at Avalon Place nursing home in Trinity following a long illness.

She was born Dec. 5, 1958, in Houston, the daughter of James R. and Jeannie Hopkins Dixon. Mrs. Allen was known for her love of life and was employed in the school cafeteria in Trinity before being diagnosed with multiple sclerosis (MS) in 2001.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Jack, and a sister, Brenda.

Survivors include a son, Carlton Scott Allen; her mother, Jean Dixon; her father and step-mother, James R. and Jerry Dixon; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Rusty and LeeAnn Word and Jamie and Tiffany Dixon; a sister, Tracey Dixon; three step-brothers; two step-sisters; and a number of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
