

154

Grapeland Messenger
Dec 31, 1998

Anderson Rites Held Sunday

Funeral services for Wilder Anderson, age 94, of Palestine were held Sunday, December 27, in Bailey & Foster Chapel, Palestine, with Rev. David Harkins officiating. Burial followed in Chamber Cemetery under the direction of Bailey & Foster, Palestine.

Pallbearers were David Nealy, Gerald Perdue, Terry Schanfish, Walter Perdue, and John Turner.

Mrs. Anderson died Thursday morning, December 24, 1998 at Memorial Mother Frances Hospital, Palestine. She was born on January 10, 1904 in Houston County to the late John W. Nealy and Edna Pearl Turner Nealy. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Ammon Monroe Anderson and a son, Floyd Anderson. A homemaker, Mrs. Anderson was a member of the Ephesus Baptist Church in Latexo.

Survivors include four sisters, Lura Mae Turner of Latexo, Wessie High of Houston, Linnie Hughes of Latexo, and Dorothy McQueen, of Latexo, four brothers, J.W. Nealy of Houston, Omer Lee Nealy of Latexo, Elton Nealy of Mansfield, and Alton Nealy of Grapeland and a host of nieces and nephews.