

The Trinity Standard - January 25, 2001

Harold L. "Hal" Andrews

FRANKSTON -- Services for Harold L. "Hal" Andrews, 45, of Frankston were held Sunday, Jan. 21, 2001 at the Thompson Funeral Home in Frankston.

Mr. Andrews died at his Frankston residence on Tuesday, Jan. 16.

He was born Oct. 17, 1955 in Pasadena and was preceded in death by his father, H. Lindbergh Andrews, and grandfather, Herbert L. Andrews, both of Trinity.

Mr. Andrews drove a "big rig" truck for Wal-Mart for many years, was an avid motorcyclist, loved sky diving and was known as a loving family man.

Survivors include his wife, Dena Andrews of Frankston; a daughter, Danielle Andrews of Frankston; a son and daughter-in-law, Michael and Ashley Andrews; a step-son and daughter-in-law, Brian and Darla Serton; his mother, Ella Andrews of Huntsville; a sister and brother-in-law, Jerri and Eddie Harmon of Lewisville; four grandchildren.

Sheridan Danielle Andrews, Brandon Serton, Justin Serton and Chase Main; and a niece and her spouse, Tracy and John Nabors of Huntsville.

Thompson Funeral Home of Frankston directed the arrangements.