

Weldon

Trinity Standard
9-9-2004

WILL FOLLOW

Obituaries

Doris Ann Nash Address

TRINITY - Services for Doris Ann Nash Address, 80, were held at 11 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 2, 2004, in the Trinity Church of Christ with Bro. Lee Brinkman officiating.

Burial followed in Weldon Cemetery.

Mrs. Address died Tuesday, Aug. 31, in Huntsville.

Born Feb. 16, 1924, in Sapulpa, Okla., she was reared in Weldon and was a graduate of Weldon High School.

During World War II she was a civil service worker and later was employed for a short time at Hardy Hardware before going to work for Gulf States Utilities as a clerk.

She was known as a Christian lady and was a member of the Church of Christ.

Mrs. Address was preceded in death by the father of her children, Woodrow William "Spot" Nash.

Survivors include her husband of 23 years, E.H. Address; two daughters and a son-in-law, Nancy Taylor and Gwyn and Larry Machacek; a son and daughter-in-law, James and Brenda Nash; two stepdaughters and their spouses, Carolyn and Bubba Smith and Nelda and Mike Mangham; three grandchildren, Shannon Taylor, Carmen Prentice and her husband, Scotty, and Corey Nash; a great-grandson, Cameron Nash; and four step-grandchildren, David Smith, Jessica Castleberry, Justin Mangham and Clayton Mangham.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.