

144

HCC
May 1, 2005

Charles Jerome Appell

TRINITY -- Graveside services for Charles Jerome Appell, 65, of Trinity were held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 29, 2000, in the Carlisle Cemetery with Bro. Burt officiating.

Mr. Appell died Saturday, Nov. 25, in Trinity.

He was born May 14, 1935 in Warren, Ill., and operated Carolyn and Jerry's Cafe in Carlisle. He was a member of the 356 Volunteer Fire Department and was preceded in death by his parents, Leo and Clara Appell.

Survivors include his wife, Carolyn Appell; two sons and a daughter-in-law, Thane and Melissa Appell of Port Orchard, Wash., and Shawn Appell of Llano; a brother, Jack Appell of Phoenix, Ariz.; three sisters, Phylis Farrell of Ft. Wayne, Ind., Jeanette Ilgin of Free Port, Ill., and Meribeth Engbretson of Forreston, Ill.; a step-son, Marty Williams; two step-daughters and a step-son-in-law, Amy Williams and Renee and Henry Isbell; two grandchildren, Colton and Kaylen Appell; and four step-grandchildren, Rowdy, Kevin, Kaila and Melanie.

Pallbearers included Luke Carr, Dean Tumlinson, Rick Thomas, Jesse Baker, Bill Chessher and Jim Marks.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.