

142

Trinity Standard

Mar 11, 2004

Amy Lynn Newberry Archer

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Groveton directed the arrangements.

GROVETON -- Services for Amy Lynn Newberry Archer, 33, of Groveton were held at 2 p.m. Sunday, March 7, 2004, in the Groveton High School Auditorium with Eric Small and Bro. Neil Kemper officiating.

Burial followed in the Bennett Cemetery.

Mrs. Archer was killed in a March 4 traffic accident near Groveton, along with two of her children, Jackson Alexander Archer, 10, and Jace McKenzie Archer, 6.

She was born Jan. 31, 1971 in Pensacola, Fla.

Survivors include her husband of 15 years, Jon Archer; a son, Jared Archer; her parents, Randy and Jan Newberry; two brothers and a sister-in-law, Joey and Paula Newberry and Philip Newberry; her grandparents, Floyd and Ersie Newberry; her mother-in-law and father-in-law, Linda and Randall Archer; her grandmother-in-law and grandfather-in-law, Lena and "Shorty" Archer; two nieces, Savannah and Ashlyn Newberry; a sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Jody and Bryan Thornton; and a niece-in-law and nephews-in-law, Kurt and Kevin Thornton and Jacquelyn and Michael Hickerson.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that memorial contributions be made to the Jon Archer Memorial Account at First Bank, Box 80, Groveton, Texas 75845-0080.