

David Andrew Arnold

David Andrew Arnold, 53, passed away April 17, 2007 peacefully at his residence.

Born August 28, 1953 in Houston, he lived in Woodville for several years. David attended Mt. Carmel Catholic School and the University of Texas – Austin. He represented the Home Life Insurance Company of New York for almost 20 years in the Houston area.

David is survived by his loving wife, Helen Adams; father and step mother, Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Arnold; children, Eric Arnold, Alisha Coneley; granddaughter, Cassandra Conely; sisters, Jacqueline Kintner and Carol Siemson; mother, Clarice Arnold and mother-in-law, Betty Willingham.

A memorial service was held Friday, April 20, 2007, at 1 p.m. at the Riley Funeral Home with Chaplain Mike Neel officiating.

The family is especially appreciative to the Lakes Area Hospice and their staff members; Cathy Stout, Deeana Watson, Polly Burnette, Molly Davis, Yolanda Hafford, Billy Adams, Chaplain Mike Neel; Dr. Richard Riggins and Kay Wankel, special close family friend who administered loving care, medical and religious assistance during his year long medical bout.

The family requests that any memorials be sent to the Lakes Area Hospice, 409-384-5995.

Services were held under the direction of Riley Funeral Home of Tyler County.