

Brenda Hayes Atchley

HOUSTON -- Brenda Hayes Atchley died on Saturday, April 7, 2007 in Conroe Regional Medical Center.

Mrs. Atchley was born Sept. 4, 1959, and grew up in Spring Branch with her two brothers, Larry and Dave and her many friends.

She was graduated with honors from the University of Houston School of Hotel Management and was began her career with the Hale Koa Hotel in Honolulu, Hawaii. She met her husband Dennis in Honolulu. Their many scuba diving trips to the Philippine Islands were a wonderful part of their lives until the diagnosis of Lupus made them inadvisable. In 2001 they moved to Onalaska, where they made their home.

She is survived by her husband, Dennis; her mother and father, Louise and Dorr Lee Hayes; her brother, Larry Hayes; her sister-in-law, Maurina Hayes and her niece and nephew, Rebecca and Landon Hayes.

Remembrances and appreciation may be expressed by contributions to the Polk County Animal Shelter, 1722 N. Washington, Livingston, TX 77351, from whom they received the gifts of Pancho and Baxter.

Waltrip Funeral Directors, Houston, is in charge of arrangements.
