

129
The Brenam Banner Press
Feb. 1, 1974

Mrs. Embrey's Brother Dies

Ralph Lipscomb Atmar, Sr., 72, a petroleum landman of Houston, brother of Mrs. W. J. Embrey of Brenham died Tuesday.

Mr. Atmar negotiated oil and gas leases for major oil companies in the Houston Area for 43 years.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 3 p.m. at the Sage Road Chapel of George H. Lewis and Sons. Burial was in the Forest Park Westheimer Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Bess Smith Atmar; two sons, Ralph L. Atmar, Jr. of Houston and Timon Smith Atmar of Austin; two sisters, Mrs. Embrey of Brentham and Miss Laura Bell Atmar of Jensen Beach, Fla.; two brothers, C. L. Atmar of Bryan and Dr. R. C. Atmar of San Antioio; and a number of granchildren.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.