

Annie Lee Reed Bacon

CORRIGAN – Funeral services for Annie Lee Reed Bacon, 77, of Corrigan were held Friday, March 30, 2007, in the Corrigan Funeral Home Chapel, with Raymond Wallace and Chris Eppler officiating. Interment followed in Stryker Cemetery in Corrigan.

Mrs. Bacon was born Jan. 16, 1930 in Polk County and died Tuesday, March 27, in the Corrigan TLC nursing facility.

She was a homemaker and a mother and a member of Corrigan Church of Christ. She was preceded in death by her mother, Willie Mary Scott Reed Phillips; father, Oswald Brock Reed; brother, Charles Ray Reed and sister, Hazel Ruth Phillips.

Survivors include her husband of 59 years, Hollis Bacon of Corrigan; daughters and sons-in-law, Shirley and Ron Shumate of Wylie, Mary and James Oleinik of Corrigan, Helen and Gary Box of DeBerry, Alice and Randy Haden of Cedar Hill and Edith and Chris McCrady of Van Alstyne; sisters, Edith Earline Reed Goad of Spring and Ruby Mae Phillips Flowers of Houston; brothers, Billy Roy Phillips of Lufkin and Clyde Wayne Phillips of Lufkin; 14 grandchildren, Russell Shumate, Reneé Shumate Warren, Ruth Shumate Vidalis, Chris Oleinik, Nick Oleinik, Leslie Oleinik, Amelia Box, Kendra Box, Molly McCrady, Maggie McCrady, Morgan McCrady, Melanie Haden, Jennifer Haden and Tony Haden; 12 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Pallbearers were grandsons: Russell Shumate, Chris Oleinik Nick Oleinik, Mike Warren, Edward Vidalis and Ishmael Box. Honorary pallbearers were Ralph Bacon, Guy Bacon, Ashley Bacon, Wayne Phillips, Roy Phillips, Tom Oleinik, DeWitt Oleinik and Lewis Nowlin.