

June 10, 2007

Daphnea Dixon Baker

CORRIGAN – Funeral services for Daphnea Dixon Baker, 95, of Corrigan were held Thursday, May 24, 2007, in the First Baptist Church of Corrigan, with Pastor Royce Pennington officiating. Interment followed in Union Springs Cemetery.

Mrs. Baker was born Nov. 5, 1911 in Acall in Trinity County and died Tuesday, May 22, in Lufkin.

She was self-employed as a beautician for most of her life and was a member of the First Baptist Church in Corrigan, where she served as Sunday school superintendent for the youth. She was preceded in death by her husband, Alford Baker Sr.; son, Alfred Baker Jr.; parents, James and Minnie Lee Dixon Swann; sisters, Pearl Nowlin and Letha Spain and brothers, Jim Swann, Marvin Swann and Doug Swann.

Survivors include her daughters and son-in-law, Gayle Smith and Rebecca Sue “Becky” and Bobby Collins, all of Corrigan; grandchildren, Amber and Bud Emerson, Brigitte Edwards, Garet and Holli Collins, Richard and Melinda Voelker, LaDena Smith, Karry and Lena Smith, Mike Baker, Greg Baker, Karla Baker and Teresa Baker and great-grandchildren, Dakota Smith, Montana Smith, Tarah White, Nikki White, Kylie Voelker, Paisley Voelker and Casey Voelker.

Pallbearers were Garet Collins, Bud Emerson, Richard Voelker, Larry Smith, Jimmy Wright and James Reagan.

Corrigan Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.