

ELTICE BARRIER

Mrs. Eltice Barrier, age 85 of Crockett, passed away May 23, 2000 in Crockett. Mrs. Barrier was born July 26, 1914 in Houston County.

Mrs. Barrier received her education in the Lone Pine community and in Crockett. She married Debs Barrier on January 20, 1932 and to this union two children were born; Bobby Kenneth and Elena Ruth. They lived in Austonio until 1942 when they moved to Freeport, Orange and finally to Houston where they lived for some 30 years. She was a member of the Meat Cutters Union and worked for Weingartens for 30 years in the meat department. Upon retirement in 1978 they moved back to Crockett. She was a beloved member of Love-lady's First United Methodist Church.

Survivors include son Kenneth Barrier and wife Aliene of Arlington; grandsons Brad Barrier of Arlington, Jay McGough and wife Dona of Knoxville, Tenn.; granddaughters Kendal Fries and husband Chris of Bedford, Victoria Carter of Houston, sister-in-law Ruby Barrier of Crockett, Trudy Barrier and husband Bill of Angleton; several great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends survive.

Mrs. Barrier was preceded in death by her husband of 61 years, Debs Barrier and her daughter Elena Ruth Crittenden.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Barrier were held Friday May 26 at 2 p.m. in the Claybar Waller Ramsey Family Chapel with the Rev Doug Howell officiating.

Pallbearers were Jimmy Johnson, Lynn Barrier, James Barrier, Joe Smitherman, Jerry Beaver, Weldon Garrett and Jimmy Jones.

Claybar • Waller - Ramsey
Funeral Home

HCC
June 1, 2000