

792

SHELLEY ANN BEAVERS

Miss Shelley Ann Beavers, age 35, of Huffman, Crockett and Houston, passed away Thursday, September 23, 2004 after a courageous battle with Leukemia. Miss Beavers was born in Las Vegas. Miss Beavers was a 1988 graduate of Hargrave High School in Huffman, and served in the United States Navy. Miss graduated from the University of Houston and loved teaching 7th grade math at Stovall Middle School. As a mother, daughter, sister, teacher and special friend to many, Miss Beavers offered unconditional love. We will continue to learn from her courage and kindness. And her smile and spirit will live in our hearts forever.

While a patient at M.D. Anderson Hospital Miss Beavers celebrated her 35th birthday with a host of family and special friends, all of whom now have a new guardian angel.

Survivors include her children Liza Arias and Andrew Chambers; mother Ann Chambers Beavers; brother Tony Beavers and wife Leslie; sister Laurie Moreno and husband Mark; grandmothers Billie Chambers and Marie Beavers; nieces and nephew Myri, Harleigh, Luke and Preslie; special Pal Iris; and many special friends, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Preceded in death by her father C. Wayne Beavers.

Memorial services will be held Saturday, October 2, at 3:00 p.m. at Durkee United Methodist Church, 502 John Alber in Houston, with friend, pastor, and former teacher, the Rev. Kathleen W. Kershaw officiating. Reception to follow.

The family suggests that anyone wishing to make donations, make them to the Leukemia Society.

Rosewood Funeral Home