

MARVIN TAYLOR
BELL

Mr. Marvin Taylor Bell, of Crockett, passed away, Friday, July 13, 2001 in the East Texas Medical Center Crockett. He was born July 25, 1922 in Florida and had lived in Dallas and Temple before moving to Crockett. Mr. Bell was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force having served during World War II and was stationed in Iwo Jima at war's end. He was a retired bookkeeper and member of the Cass Linda Methodist Church in Dallas.

Survivors include daughters, Marilyn Kay Wheeler of Crockett, Susan Beth Hooper of Conway, Ar., Norma Lynn Bates of Rockwall; grandchildren, John Christopher Wheeler, Ronald Craig Wheeler, John Aaron Bates, Jason Alan Bates, Allison Celeste Hooper, Amy Lynn Bates, Haley Elise Hooper; and sister, Kathryn Bell Stevens of Buffalo.

Mr. Bell was preceded in death by his wife, Bernice Allbritton Bell; parents, Tom and Maud Taylor Bell; brothers, Robert Bell and Homer Bell.

Funeral services for Mr. Bell were held Tuesday, July 17 at 11 a.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with Dr. Paul Carlin officiating. Interment followed in the Buffalo Cemetery.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home