Rosalee Berry

TRINITY -- Services for Rosalee Berry, 79, of Trinity were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday, May 1, 2001, in the Calvary Baptist Church in Trinity with Bro. Larry Bewley officiating.

Burial followed in the Glendale Cemetery.

Mrs. Berry died Saturday, April 28, at her residence following a battle with cancer.

She was born Sept. 25, 1921 in New Caney and resided in Houston until she retired after 19 years of service with the Aldine Independent School District. She and her husband of 35 years, Cecil Berry, made their home in Trinity for the past 29 years.

Mrs. Berry was known as a loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend.

She is survived by her husband; a daughter and son-in-law, Joanne and Rick Jordan of Houston; two sons and daughters-in-law, Ken and Jerry Blake of Austin and Rickey and Wanda Blake of Freeport; a stepson and his spouse, Jim and Margie Berry of Trinity; two sisters, Pearl Smith and Beulah Nash, formerly of Trinity; five grandchildren, Ricki Lynn Booher, Richard Becvar, Chris Blake, Joshua Blake and Colin Blake; four step-grandchildren, Jimmy Berry, Jennifer Berry, Mike Berry, Melissa Berry and Karen Correll; and a great-grandchild, Lanea Jones.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.
