

HAZEL COKER
BLACK

Funeral services for Mrs. Hazel Coker Black, 89, of Lufkin, were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 17 in the Carroway Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Bud Bonner officiating. Interment followed in the Cedar Creek Cemetery in Anderson County.

Mrs. Black was born on July 14, 1911 in Anderson County to the late Morgan and Kate (Kiser) Coker and died Monday, Jan. 15. She resided in Lufkin for the past 44 years and was a retired owner of the Tex Gas Service Station. She was an avid fisherwoman and member of the Nazarene Church of Crockett.

Survivors include her sons and daughter-in-laws, John and Wanda Black of Lufkin and Morgan and Linda Black of Diboll; five grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, one great-great grandchild, brother, Arthur Coker of Palestine; sisters, Bernice Lassiter of Elkhart and Ethel Reynolds of Crockett; sister-in-law, Rosie Coker of Humble; and a number of nieces, nephews.

Mrs. Black was preceded in death by her husband, John R. Black Sr., and son, William Earl Black.

Carroway Funeral Home,
Lufkin directors