

Trinity Standard
3-1-07

Lorenzo J.
"Larry"
Bortolazzo

grandchildren.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.

TRINITY - Lorenzo J. "Larry"
Bortolazzo, 89, of Trinity died Wednesday, Feb. 21, 2007, in Trinity.

No funeral service is scheduled.

He was born March 6, 1917, in Santa Barbara, Calif., the son of the late Ugenio and Angela Sarnigotto Bortolazzo. He served in the merchant marine, carry supplies by sea to troops during World War II.

Mr. Bortolazzo also was an owner-operator of an auto service and gasoline station in Santa Barbara, Calif.

He moved to Trinity in 2001 and enjoyed playing golf in his free time.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Ugenio Bortolazzo.

Survivors include his wife of 22 years, Mary Evelyn Bortolazzo of Trinity; three daughters, Diane Hunn of California, Judith Ryan of Las Vegas and Lori Davison of California; two step-sons and their spouses, Mike and Bobbie Morrison and Phillip and Lynn Morrison;
a sister, Ugenia Signor; 13 grandchildren; and 11 great-