

Boullion

Funeral services were held April 6 at Pace-Stancil Funeral Home Chapel in Dayton for Dallas Joseph Boullion, 77, of Dayton, with Rev. Bob Fosburgh officiating. Interment followed at China Cemetery in China.

He was born March 18, 1930 in Rayne, Louisiana, the son of Desire and Angel Bruce Boullion. He had been a resident of Dayton for over 37 years and had previously lived in Beaumont. He graduated from China High School in 1948, and had worked for many years as a lineman supervisor for Gulf States Utilities before retiring.

He enjoyed working in his yard and having a garden. He also enjoyed camping, traveling, archery and playing the guitar, but most of all he loved his family and grandchildren.

He was a member of Trinity Baptist Church, had served two terms on the Dayton City Council, was mayor pro-tem while on the City Council and had been a member of the Dayton Volunteer Fire Department. Mr. Boullion served in the United States Navy and the United States Air Force.

He passed away on Tuesday, April 3, 2007 in Liberty after an extended illness. He was preceded in death by his parents; and one brother, Wesley Boullion.

Survivors include his loving wife of 55 years, Marcella A. Boullion of Dayton; sons, Dallas J. Boullion of Warren, Clifton D. Boullion of Dayton and Van Ray Boullion and wife, Beatrice, of Magnolia; daughter, Felicia C. Noack and husband, Gary, of Dayton; eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; half-brother, Cleveland Boullion of Scott, Louisiana; and numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Pace-Stancil Funeral Home, Dayton, was in charge of arrangements.
