

BUFORD BOWMAN

Mr. Buford Bowman, age 81 of Crockett, passed away Sunday, May 4, 2003 at his residence. Mr. Bowman was born May 2, 1922 in Mangham, Louisiana and had been living in Crockett for the past 25 years. Mr. Bowman was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Negreet, Louisiana and was also a member of the West Side Baptist Church. Mr. Bowman was a retired oil field gauger and he worked for Consumer's LP Gas and Appliance Company for several years.

Survivors include his wife Vera Bowman, of Crockett; sons James Bowman and wife Irma, and Dennis Bowman and wife Judy, all of Crockett; grandchildren James Bowman, Jr. and wife Zena, Joseph Berry Bowman and wife Tina, Jevon Kane "Jay" Bowman and wife Patty, Troy Bowman and wife Linda, Keva Young and husband Mark, Toni Brown and husband Brad; sixteen great-grandchildren; sisters Oretus Thames, and Edna Dodson, both of West Monroe, La.; brothers Otis Bowman and wife Francis, of Rayville, La., William Bowman and wife Virginia, of Mangham, La., Charles Bowman and wife Ruby, of Delhi, La.; numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Funeral services for Mr. Buford Bowman were held Tuesday, May 6, at 2:00 p.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Steve Meadows officiating. Interment followed in the Evergreen Memorial Park.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home

*Evergreen
Crockett*