

Bradley

Funeral services for Seburn Aubry Bradley, 81, of Chester, was held Sunday, August 26, 2007, at the Aubry Bradley Stadium in Chester, with Brother Larry Trest, Brother Halls Taylor, Brother Norman Turner and Brother Steffan Dirden officiating. A military graveside service was held at Mt. Hope Cemetery in Chester under the command of the Navy. Seburn Aubry Bradley died on August 23, 2007. Mr. Bradley was born April 15, 1926 in Village Mills, to John and Martha Richardson Bradley. He lived in Tyler County most of his life. He served both the Chester ISD and the Woodville ISD as superintendent. He was known not only as a devoted husband and father, but as someone dedicated to his role as an educator. He poured his heart and soul into education which is evident in the adults who were honored to have called him teacher. He was a Navy veteran and a member of the Chester Baptist Church. Survivors include daughters and sons-in-law, Charlotte and Kent Barnes and Brenda and Mark Davison, all of Chester; son and daughter-in-law, Ronnie and Linda Bradley of Chester; sister-in-law, Nathalie Bradley of Kerrville; brothers-in-law, Troy Welch and wife, Murl Dean, of Camp Ruby and Rudy Welch and wife, Nelda, of Webster; nephews, Billy Dan Van Winkle and wife, Lee, of Carthage and Larry and Lynn Bradley of Kerrville; grandchildren, Tara and Kevin Burman of Livingston, Travis and Sheryl Barnes of Chester, Jeremiah and Erin Barnes of Livingston, Ashley Davison of Chester, Bradley Davison of Shepherd, Kim and Jason Riddle of Moscow and Beau Soefje of Austin; and great-grandchildren, Blake Burman, Kade Burman, Dane Barnes, Aubrey Lynn Barnes, Addison Barnes, Bradley Davison Jr., Brian Riddle, Kason Riddle and Justin Riddle. Pallbearers were Travis Barnes, Jeremiah Barnes, Kevin Burman, Bradley Davison, Beau Soefje and Billy Dan Van Winkle. A memorial book may be signed at www.rileyfuneralhome.com. Riley Funeral Home, Woodville, was in charge of arrangements.