

806

WWII

HCC

Jan 16, 2000

JOHN ROBERT BRADY

John Robert Brady, 72, of Livingston died Thursday, Jan. 13, 2000, in Cleveland.

Mr. Brady was born April 26, 1927, in Dayton, Tenn. to the late James Russell and Nannie Miller Brady.

He served in the Army during World War II. He loved to travel, woodworking, gardening, fishing and his grandchildren.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Louise Brady of Livingston; daughters Jerry J. Sunkle and friend John Loupe of Nacogdoches, Ona M. Presto and husband Sam of Houston, Mary Annette Copeland and husband Nathan of Lovelady; Thelma Jean Fisher and husband Doug of Spring City, Tenn.; son James F. Brady and wife Viola of Spring City, Tenn.; sisters, Marie Clark of Pikeville, Tenn., Audra Wilkey and husband Clarence and Margie Lloyd of Dayton, Tenn., Bernice Gann of Harrisburg, Ar.; brother Edgar Brady and wife Thelma of Cathedral City, Calif.; grandchildren, Courtney Mae Copeland and Cody Ray Copeland of Lovelady; five other grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Pace Funeral Home
Livingston