

Bray

Funeral services were held on Saturday, February 10, 2007, for Martha L. Hall Bray, 55, of Moscow, in Shiloh United Methodist Church in Moscow, with the Revs. Robert Twine and Earl Whittaker officiating. Interment followed in Shiloh Cemetery in Moscow.

She was born May 19, 1951 in Corrigan and died Friday, February 2, in Houston.

She was a member of Shiloh United Methodist Church, was involved in Corrigan Community Action and participated in local prayer and Bible groups. She also served as a Democratic election judge in Moscow.

Survivors include her father, Reuben Hall Sr. of Moscow; sons and daughters-in-law, Roosevelt and Denisia Jolly III, Jonathan Jolly Sr. and Allen Bray, all of Lufkin; daughters, Cynthia Jolly of Diboll and Marquitra Alexander of Lufkin; brother, Greene E. Hall of Moscow; sister and brother-in-law, LuAnne and John Franklin of Livingston; seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Corrigan Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.