

795

Trinity Standard 12/23/1997

Chester Rouland Bricker

TRINITY--Funeral services for Chester Rouland Bricker, 84, were scheduled for 2 p.m. Wednesday at Waller-Thornton Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Bonner Magness officiating assisted by Brother Jim Wood.

Burial will follow in the Cedar Grove Cemetery.

He attended Calvary Baptist Church. Mr. Bricker was retired from the Houston Post Office where he worked as a typewriter repair man in addition to numerous other jobs around the newsroom.

He is preceded in death by his first wife, Eleanor.

Survivors include his devoted wife for the last 16 years, Mrs. Helen Bricker; two sons, Paul and wife Cecilia Bricker of Santa Fe and Douglas Bricker of Houston; 11 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren; a brother and sister-in-law, Warren and Margurite Whiton of Trinity and numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers: Warren Whiton, Bob Pair, Paul Bricker, Jr., Dewayne Bricker, Ralph Cadriel, III and Joseph Cadriel.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity was in charge of arrangements.