

November 11, 2007

Brinser

Funeral services were held Saturday, October 20, 2007 at 10:00 a.m., for Chu Brinser, 76, of Tarkington Prairie, at the Pace-Stancil Funeral Home Chapel, Cleveland, with Rev. Robert Brown officiating. Interment followed in Pace-Stancil Memorial Rest Gardens.

Her family originated in Central China, The Kiangsu Province. Her father was killed during the China's war with Japan and her mother raised the children and cared for the grandparents and other family members.

She died on Tuesday, October 16, 2007 at the Woodland Memorial Hermann Hospital. Her father, Wei-Ching Shiah; mother, ChuShen Shiah; and her loving husband, Amos Albert Brinser, precede her in death.

Survivors include daughters, Connie Chu Lehnnett and husband, James Joseph and Sue Hsia Taylor and husband, Kenneth Charles; son, Amos William Brinser and fiancé' Tracy Mize; sisters, Chan Zhu of China, Chan Hsia Yeh of New York and Hsia Zy Jou of Massachusetts; brothers, Liang Hsia of California, Guang Hsia of Taiwan and Paul Shiah of Philadelphia; grandchildren, Erin Rae Tanner and husband, Daniel Keith, Alison Chu Krawacki, Jamie Nicole Lehnen, Kyle James Lehnen, Christopher David Brinser, Nicholas William Brinser and Derek Alan Taylor; numerous nieces and nephews, other family members and countless friends.

Pace-Stancil Funeral Home, Cleveland, was in charge of arrangements.